n

Sir Joseph Copley Bar!

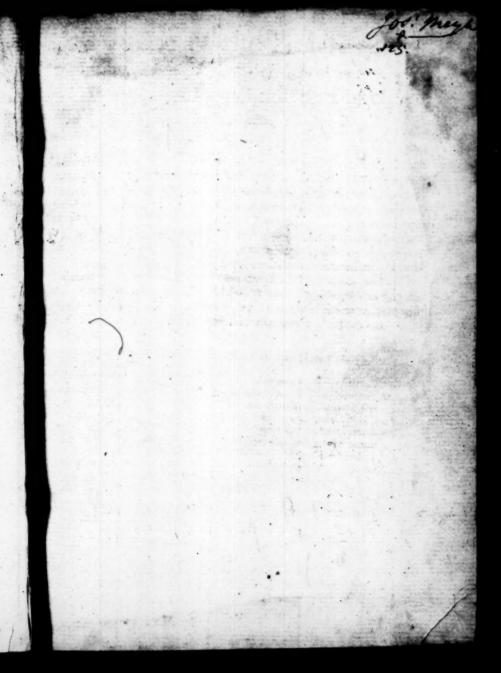

bol

n

Sir Joseph Copley Bar!

bol

Case J 5453 .704

1

A Breviate of the Prelates into Prerogative Royall, and the Subjects Liberties.

Ezechiel. 34. 2. to 11.

Thus faith the Lord God unto the Shepheards of Ifraell that doe feed themselves: Should not the Shepheards feede the Flock? Yee eate the fat, and yee cleath you with the wooll, yee kill them that are fed, yee feede not the Flocke. The diseased have yee not strengthned, neither have yee healed that which was sicke, neither have yee bound up that which was broken, neither have yee brought against but which was driven away, neither have yee sought that which was lost, but with sorce & with crueky have you ruled them, &c. Therefore, O yee Shepheards, heare the word of the Lord. Thus saith the Lord God, Behold I am against the Shepheards, and will require my Flocke at their hand, and cause them to coase from feeding the Flocks, neither shall the Shepheards, seede themselves any more, for I will deliver my Flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat Bernardus de Conversione Pauli Serm. 1. & fuper Cantic. Serm. 77.

Nunquam deest per secutio Christiano, Sed neque Christo. Et mune quod gravius est, ipsi Christum per sequentur qui ab eo utique Christiani dicentur. Amici tai roccimi adversamte appropinquaver unt & stevente. Egressa est iniquatas à Senieribus sulcibus Vueriu tun, qui videntur regere populum tuum: non est sam dicere, ut populus succidos, quia nec su populu ut Sacerdos. Heu heu Domine Leu, quia ipsi sum in personione tua primi, qui videntur in Eccl sia sua Primatum disigere gerere Principatum. Mira corum conversatio, plebu tua miserabila subversio est: Atque utinam sola hac parte norum, susta omninò quarimonia, nec ad ullam sustiu quam ad nestram reservada atatem, Parum est nostra vigilibus quod non servant vos, niss & perdant.

Published by W. HV NTLEY, Efquier.

Edition 3. much enlarged.

In the Yeare 1 6 3 7.

A Breviate of the Prelates into

terable nurpations, both upon the Kings Prerogative Royali, and the Subjects I iberties.

Feeding! " :. to

The fifth the Lord God and the Shir bouchies dock . M. rean crys; Should not be shephane recentic free and the far, and me cheath you with the weedlesser kill hen that are fed, yes force northe Florket. Thedric, fed have yee northern and neither lave ved est det at alach was field, neith o Livery celled and et al. effort The same of are y elique to the that will a standard the has you registered which we are but with force or who creatly never to roled thur, e.c. Therefore, Oyce Stepheards, hearest e word of the Low Thus laith the Lord God, Behold I am againfirthe Shepheards, and will require my l'ocke at their hand, and chile them to est'e am feeding dis, ander frallit. Stephend, tedarl catch and more, inthe College my Flock from their mouth that they make a college for them.

Beenwain de Correspont Paule com. 1. & Soger Comb. Som. vo.

Numerum deest perference compet no Scaneque Cristo. Assune Service and the service of the Les come con a con et par les les les finances par les parties a second in a continue to e so ulma-cut mi non of soundscore, he comin for states grante in the second from the second second second the second on and pin a ger out or rearis. It is no Production theory & we kin operum I to with an it . I been of remarkable over to superior with the The state of the s Tubiafied by W.HVNTLEY, I for ter Elition 3. much cal gd.

In the Years I 637

To the high and mighty Prince, Charles, by the grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King; Defender of the Faith, &cc.

M

Ost gracious Soveraigne, meeting with this compendious Romonstrance of the Prelater late daingerous encrochments, both upon your owne Prerogative Royall, and your Sabjects Liberties, compiled by a late learned Gentleman, out of a reale to your Majesties service, and your peoples good: I could doe no lesse in point of allegiance to your Highnes, and true affection to my Countries weale, then prostrate it in all humility, at your Royall seete, imploring your Princely acceptation of it. The rather because it was originally destinated to your Majesty by the author, whom I heard oft complaining, that it was the infelicity, sometimes, of the best Princes (by reason of the unfaithfulnesse and misrepresentations of those

2 -

State-agents whom they most imployed, and least fuspected,) to be utterly ignorant of the true state both of their owne and the Republikes district Ce-leiving all things to be uprogrammed, when it is nothing letter referred in the matth represent that memorable speech of Annuaya recommender giltred by Flavius Vofoleus in the Hiltory of his life .) There is nothing more difficult then to raigne well. For 4 ors, cheife Counfellers of State (ayming at northing but their owne private ends) affemble and take Counfell 10gether bow to deceave the Emperor informing bim that (uch and fuch projects are to be allowed, and put in execucion The Emperor imprisoned as it were as home utterly ignorant of the truth of things, is constrained to know that onely which they informe him of, and to doe nothing elfe but what they direct him. Whereupon bee makes those Indges whom her ought not , and remooves those from the Republike Whom hee should retaine. In a word; as Thisclefian himfelfe faid ; a good , cientions , year the best Emperor is fold and abufed by his most indeared instruments; whiles hee feeth all things onely with their eyes, heares nothing but with their eares, and executes all things with their hands. The confideration whereof, as it instigated the Author originally to compile, to it hath animated mee to enlarge this Breviate (with the addition onely of fome late occurrences;) and to present this third Impression of it to your Highnes veiw, (though perchance with fome hazard to my person and estate, by reason of the Prelates great fwaying power and implacable malice:) wherein as in a Christall glasse, your Majesty may est soone

1

fe

P

P

be

T

w

no

Su

ani

bas

gen

tu

ive

A

len

is fi nin

discerne the insufferable usurpations of your ungratefull Bishops, upon your owne Royall Prehemimences and your Subjects Liberties of contrary to all aPlumeli Law and justice, in their true naked coulors, uncased toesocrates of all fuch falle varmithes, and specious glosses which scholaft Ecthemselves have cast upon them, to cover their de-c'ef Hist. formity, and delute your Majesties senses, who suf- 1.4.c. 14. pect no fuch blacke workes of darknesunder their c. 38. and pure white Rochets. dalles Pra-

Æ

c

d. et

e-

,) 4-ut

0-

at 11-ly

at:

ye

be

10-

W-

tse

es,

all

re-

ile.

ith

to nes

my eat

25 one

dif

a Cleobolus Was Wont to fay, that a Prince Was Elife of Pohappy if heetrusted to none of his flattering Minions; and lates Doffor I may adde, that Christian Kings are ever happiest, Barnes hu when they lend not their eares overmuch to the Supplication noxious enchauntments of ambitious Prelates; Who to Kang Hento advaunce their owne power, accomplish their owne offi- Thes and6. ring designes, feare not to + arme Princes against their part of the Homily a-Subjects, Subjects againft their Princes, one Christian King gainft Reand Kingdome against another , to the imbruing of their bellion. hands without cause in one anothers blood : as Abbas Vsper- 269. 174. genfis , Nauclerus , Avenine , Mathe & Paris in their 175. 178. biftories, Theodoricus a Niem, Zabarell and lohannes Ma- 181. 184. tw De Schismate , Benno Cardinalis , and Balam in the 248. 249. ives of Hildebrand and Boniface ; Mafter Fox in bis 303.320. Alls and Monuments; and (to omit all other) Dector 321. 350. John White, in his Defence of the way , chap. 6. have 479. 533+ lentifully manifested. 1035. 1036.

Theopompus being demannded , by what meanes a 1132. ing might fafely keepe his Kingdome? Replied; if hee give 1897. is freindes free liberry of fleech, (to acquaint him with b Plutarch. nings amille :) and avenge the injuries done to bis Sub- Lacon. Agojects, thegmata.

jects, as much as may be; the later of which bee can ne-

Plutavch. De Adulatione, lib.

c Plutarch.

But alas , this is the + ofnall mifery of Princes Land people too,) that they have many flattering Prelates and Courtiers to missinforme and south them ; few faithfull Counsellers impartially to acquaint them of things that are amife. It is floried of King a Antiochus , that being bunting on a time, in the pursuite of his game, bee fraged away from all his freinds and Courisers ; where. upon hee was enforced to enter in a cottage of poore men, unknowne : As bee fateat supper with them , hee beganne to discourse with them , concerning the King and bis governement ; whereupon the poore men replied; that Antiochus was of himselfe a viry good King, but bee committed the managing of most of his Kingly affaires to his freindes and Courtiers , who were ill men ; himselfe meane while , out of his overmuch love of hunting , negligently omitting necessary things; by reason whereof his people were oppressed, and things ill governed. The King for the pre-Jent held bis peace, but the next morning when his quart came to the cottage, and brought him his purple robes and diadem, by which hee was knowne to be the King: hee there. upon face thus to his Coursiers; from the day I first received my robes and crowne, I never heard true freeches of my Selfe till reflerday.

What this King spake concerning himselfe, I feare your Majesty may in a greater measure averre concerning your Prelates audacious disloyall encrochments upon your selfe, and your Subjects: the you never received any true and full relation dethem, since you were a King, till now they were re-

pre-

F

je

te

S

Bi

ho

tut

R

37 ana

The

216

Ma

rall

Mal

lates

eigh

Rom

Henr

Fox i

Alls an

Chris.

lès, ban shere qu

presented to you in this Epitome, and that they and their Proceedings are farre other then what you have hitherto beene informed, and ever tooke them to be. Henry the I doubt not but the Prelates with their favorites, have third when oft inculcated this idle falle Paradoxe to your Ma- bee beard of the death of jefty: A O BISHOP NO KING: as Hubert if Prelates were the onely pillars , patriotes , Suppor- Archbifbop ters of Princes, Monarchies, and Prerogatives, whose of Canter-Soveraignity would fall quite to grounde, did not the ced at it, say-Bishops rocheted shoulders (like so many Atlasfes, ing, Now at hold up their tottering thrones. Yet the feverall Sta- King of tutes of Provision and Tramunire , in fundry of your England : as Royall Progenitors raignes; the Statutes of 25. H. 8. if beenen c. 14. 19. 20. 21. 26. H. 8. c. 1. 28. H. 8. C. 10. King as in beene no 37. H. c. 17. 1. 0 2. Phil. and Mary, c. 8. 1. Eliz. c. eruib bee 1.5. Eliz. c. 1. 23. Eliz. c. 1. 7. Jacobi. c. 4. 5. the 5. ma not) whiles bee and 6. Homilies against disobedience and willfull Rebellion. troed and The Second part of the Homily for Whit funday, p. 214.215 bare fway: 216. Mashe to Paris, Mathew Wellminfter, Hoveden, tes Ecclef. Antiquita-Malme bury Nubrigenfis , Walfingham , in their feve- Bring 144 rall histories of England, and others out of them, And King. Master William Tyndall in his Practife of the Popish Pre- thought lates, Doctor Barnes in his Supplication to King Henry the himselfe but eight p.988. Oc. William Wraghton in his bunting of the halfe a King Romish Fox; Master Fish in his Supplication of Beggers, the Clergy Henry Stalbridge in his Exhortatory Epiftle, Mafter John bare fan S Fox in bis Acts and Monuments , Master Haddon , Contra balfe busnb-

Alls and Monuments : p. 961. 963. Yea Master William Tyndall in bis Obedience of a Christiansman p. 114 Satth: That Kings are but Shadowes, vaine names, and idle Its-les, having nothing to doe in the world; but what the Pope and Bishops please; which boo there que at large and in Practife of Popifi. Phelates.

and

fall

ATE

ing

eyed

ere-en,

AMHE

and

that om-

o bis

cane

nil

were

pre-

4474

s and pere-

ived

f my

e,1

erre en

the

on de

e repre-

inf

feve

of D

The

Rob

Art

Wi

Het Gif

Ad

che

Ely

der

ano

Sti

Le

Wo

Sal

A/s Wo

W

 $\boldsymbol{\mathcal{B}}$ mi

age

Bu

te

L

le

M

in former ages, of which there can be o no question; the Fox Alls feverall Treasons , conspiracies , Rebellions and Mutinies & Monuof Dunftan, Robert, Lanfranke , Anselme, Willsom Corbell, ments , Theobald, Edmond, Becket, Hubert, Stephen Langhton, 409. 410. Robert Winchelfie, Walter Reinolds, John Stratferd, Thomas 350.1035 Arundell , Henry Deave , Archbiltogs of Camerbury, 1897. William de fancta Maria, Rager Niger, Fulco Baffet ,1899. Henry de Sandwich , Eishops of London , William 1980. Gifford , Henry de Blobes , Iobn Gern fey , Henry Woodloke , 533 : 303 -Adam de Arldon and Steven Gardner, Bif bops of Win-Haddon, chefter , William Longebamp , and Euflachius , Bif bops of ContraHier. Ely: Hugh Walls, Henry Bur Wash, Hugh Novant, Alexan- f. 143. der de Sevens by, and Robert Strekton, Bis bops of Coventry, to 153. and Lichfeild, Roger the third Bif hop of Salif bury, Robert Antiquita-Stillington , George Nevill , Luis , Mangre , Raivelinus , Brit. and tts Ecclefie Gyles de Burife , Ralfe , Thomas Ruf hooke , John Fif bars , Bif bop God-Lewes, lohn Trevaux, Bisbops of Bath and Wels, Exeter, talogue of Worceter , Hereford, Chichefter , Rochefter , Bangor , and Bis bops in Sant Affaph, Aleredus, Geoffry, Thomas de Corbridge, their feve-Alexander Newill, Richard Scroppe, George Newill, Thomas Speedi Hi-Woodsie , Edward Lee , Archbis bops of Torke , Egelmyn , Sory of great William Rairlipho, Ranulph Flambard, and Anthony Beake, p.554.565 Bif bops of Durham , Thomas Merkes , Bif bop of Carlile, 570.574. with others , (all great Traitors, Conspirators and Rebels,) 582.584. against most of your Maiaties Royall Progenitors Witnes. Barnesbin But likewife of those, who professe themselves Pro-supplication. testant Bishops , and your Majesties most obedient P. 188. Loyall Subjects, in this our present age. Who though they have so much ingenuity yet left, as to acknowledge they received their Bishoprickes from your Majesties meere grace; notwithstanding they are B growen bis

Ec-

cket.

and

thop

olin

icy,

with ibi-

Bif-

inne

ales,

len-

npe-

tem_

gei-

r pe-

Tion

cm-

e fe-

fices

an to sher

elese

ther

yes]

the

ites,

I Do Bor Tohn growen to thamelelly ungratefull, as if not absolutely: White ba to deny your prerogative Royall in cantes hecke-Defence of the way .c.6. fiafticall, yet publikely to professe, that they received Bo. Iewels their Episcopall authority office, and dominiering Lordly Defence of the Apology. Inrifdiction, which they now exercife over Ministers and danif 6.78. people, not from your Majefty, but onely from God, from Christ, and the Holy Ghott, (by which I rosle the Pope and 9.10. 8 his Prelates challenged all their power:) contrary to the c. 9. droif. 6.1 5 2. Statutes of 26. H. 8.c. 1. 37 H. 8 o. 17. 1 Ed. 6.c. 2. 1. Elie. Phil. & v. t. 6 3Eli.c. 1. which expressely resolve, that they have Mar: c. 8. no miner of Spirituall or Eccle sisficalliur of diction what for-* Against willfull Rever, but onely in, by, from and under your Majestie, and that bellion. at your Majesties will, to revoke it when you please: yea part. 5. p.308.309 directly contrary to the Scripture, which is fo furre m Defence of from giving, that it exprelly prohibits Bifhops and the Apology part 5. 5. 6. Ministers, all Lordly temporall Junifaction, and worldly aton 6, to 12 governement what foever, not onely that, which is syramidivif.6, to1 2 for faithfull call, but likewise that, which is moderate, just and law-Sub ells. full in other temporall Magifrates. Math 20, 25. 26. o True 27. Luke 22. 25. 26. 27. 1. Pet. 5. 1. 2. 3. a our difference awne Hamilier, Bifhop m Tewell, Bif hop n Elmer, Bifbetweene Christian hop o Bilfon, Mafter Deane P Nowell, the Fathers cited Subjection& antichriftian by the m, and q most Protestant Divines extant, interpret Rebellion. thefe texts. Yea they are now fo strangly andacious, as P.124.125 126.127.

p Reproofe of Dorman f. 17. 48.57. 43. 44. q Luiber , Zwinglim , Melancton, Calvin, Bullinger , Hemingim , Illyricm , Gualter , Sadael , Beza , Munster , Sne-Snecarus , Szegedine , Eraitus , the Churches of Bohemia , Broughton , Raynolds , Withers , Whitaker , Fulke , and other in their places quoted in a petition to ber Ma-jesty p. 22. 23 And in Gersonius Bucerus de Gubernastone Ecclesia.

thun it anwion

even their billoggicies !

without

1

C

1

0

t

t

je

21

10 pr

fr

lic

26 ne

an wi

H

Wi

in

Los

Ma

bil

Ecc

and OAL

SCIE

14 without any Letters, Patents from your Majesty, to keepe Confiftory Courts, visitations, Synods in their owne names and rights : to make out Citations, processe, excommunications, Letters of Administration, Licenses for Marying without banes &c. in their owne stiles, names, and with their owne Seales alone; to institute and prescribe new Articles, Constitutions, Ordinances, Ceremonies, Lawes, Rites, formes of Oathes &c., and impose them on your Subjects, publishing them in print in their owne names, and swearing Churchwardens, Sidemen, with other your Majesties Subjects, to execute, and submit unto them, contrary to their owne 12. Canon, (asif they were absolute Popes, Kings, and Lawgivers,) without your Majesties privity and the Parliaments approbation : of which exorbitances they are fo farre from being ashamed, that in a late Latine Pamphlet, licensed by the Archbishop of Canterbury his Chaplaine, that now is , and dedicated to his Grace , by one T Chem- T Callettienews , they flick not to proclaime; that your Majeffie and other Princes Ecolefiaflicall La wes receive both their visility and vivasity, from the Bishops, at from the HEART AND HEAD: yea Doctor Wien Bishop of Norwich (no more a Regulus, but a Rex ,) in his late prefumptuous Visitation Articles , printed at London , 1 6 3 6. in his owne name (worthy your Majesties confideration) makes not onely the # Arch + Chap. 9. bis hop of Canterbury , and his Wicar generall and Visitars Atticle. 11. Eccle fiastical Langivers, and their Injunctions, Oracles, and Lavesto be diligently observed and inquired of upon Oub: burhimfelfe most prefumptuously takes apon arody. him ty.

E-:

dle

ind

110 nd he iz.

ve.

rat

ea

Te.

nd.

dig

111-

W-

6.

par

16 ret

as:

lands .

14-

out

him like an absolute King or Pope, to prescribe new Lawes, Canons, Injunctions, Articles, Orders in his owne name and right without any Commission from your Majesty, or your Royall privity or assent, con-* 25.H 8. trary to your * La wes, and your owne late Royall Declaration before the 39. Articles; suspending no lesse then 30. Ministers of best note and quality in his late Visi-H.8.c. 17. tation, (though every way confirmable to the Do-I. Eliz.c. I. Arine and Discipline, by Law established in the Church of England, and so reputed in his predecesfors times) onely for refuling to conforme against * Before the their consciences, duties, and allegiance to those and concer- groffe Innovations, which hee would obtrude upon ning the Dift them, contrary to your Royall Lawes and * Declafolution of rations against fuch innovations. Which Tyranny of ment p. 21. his, as it hath produced a great + famine of Gods word in those parts, and bread in your Subjects hearts a + Ames 8. great murmuring, discontent and seare of alteration * 2. Chron. of Religion; fo it hath caused many to forsake the

c. 15.21.

27.H.8.

C. 15.37.

Magna

Charta.

c. 29.

(1

in

Y

te

lig

ar

th ju

th

20 oth

for 6.

an

M

Ri

To

be

Ch

con

25

to for

and

kin

hib

bec

36.15.16. Realme, and will no doubt draw " do wne Gods Plagues 17.1. Theff. and Vengeance on it, who fince this Bishops late Visitation, hath visited many places of the Realme, with Plague and Pestilence, and threatneth even a famine of bread unto it, to recompence that famine of his word, which hee and other Bishops have everywhere made; who neither preach themselves, and inhibit others from preaching, upon no just occasion who else would gladly doe it. And as if this were not enough; both your Archbishops, with fundry other of your Bishops, in the late Censure of Detter Bast-Wicke, in the High Commission Court at Lambheth (whom

(whom they excommunicated, fined one thouland pound to your Majesty, imprisoned and suspended from practifing Physicke, onely for writing a Booke in Latine, printed beyond the Seas, in defence of your Majesties Prerogative Royall in causes Ecclefiafticall, against the Popes and Italian Bishops pretended Primacy, being provoked by a Papift and ob- . liged thereunto by his Oath of allegiance; his loyalty and fidelity to your Majesty being his fole offence;) they feared not to proclaime and folemnely to adjudge, like fo many ungratefull disloyall Subjects, that I fay no more : That they received their Episcopall po Wer, Soverainety and Juri diction, not from your Majefty but from Christ alone; that they claime and enjoy it by no other, but a divine right, (contrary to their Predecelfors and the Parliaments expresse resolution, 37.H. 8. 6. 17. 31. H. 8. c. 9. 10. 1. E. 6. c. 2. 1. Eliz. C. 1. and the very words of their Oath of Supremacy to your Majefly : and that Bishops anciently were reputed and filed Kings and Princes, whence they had there Miters, Thrones and Crofter staves: a shrewde figne they would be no leffe then Kings now, to fway all things both in Church and State, as they endeavour to doe; though contrary to our Saviours expresse probibition, Matth. 20. 25. 26.27. Mar. 10.42. 43. Luke. 22. 25. 26.) And to shew themselves Kings indeed, they most prefumptuously take upon them to dispense with Lawes and Statutes, as in the case of marying without asking banes; to ftop the course of your Majesties Prohibitions to their Courts, in cases where they have beene alwayes granted; to imprison those who dare fue. B 3

CW.

his

mc

08-cla-

nen

ifi-

00-

the

cef-

inft

ofe

pon

cla-

v of word

rtsa

tion

the 2849

late

me,

en a nine

cry-

and

fion

not

ther

Baft-

besh

hom

fue for or deliver your Royall Prohibitions to them. and some of them stick not to proclaime, that they would fee the man who dares withfrend their exerbitant, il. legall proceedings, or gram a Prohibition to inhibit them. yea they generally hate, and perfecute all your faith. full Subjects, who dare defend your Crowne and Ecclefiafticall Prerogative against their Papall usurpa. tions on them, farre more then they doe any Preiftes or lefuites living, whom they now much favour and connive at (though Traitors to your Majefty;) because they favour all these their Episcopall oppressions, and encrochments, as tending to erect and justifie the Popes disclaimed exploded Monarchy. And is it not then high time for your Majesty to looke about SAntiquita You? ? to curbe these aspiring Popes of this our leffer world (as f Anfelme and the Archbifhops of Canter. bury were sometimes filed by the Pape of Rome bimselfe, not without just cause,) before they grow so headstrong as wholly to usurpe your Royall Diademne, and quite shake off your yoke & Have they not taken halfe your Crowne allready from your facred head, (I meane your intire Royall, Ecclefiasticall Iuris. diction, which they claime, engrolle, usurpe and exercise by their owne inherent power) and placed it upon their owne ambitious Pates, not fearing lately to contest even with your Majesty in your owne facred Prefence, whether you or they should wifer the University of Cambridge (of which you alone are the undoubted Vifitor) and there wenen without any speciall Patent from your Majesty in their own names and rights alone , and nor as your Majeftie Vifi

F

O.

n

in

P

C

M

de

aj

2

th

ca

ni

M

ju

Iń

nê

80 ob

no

qu

Pc

tes Ecclef. Brit. Eadmerus & Godwin in vitamselmi. Speeds History. P.463.

Vifitors, contrary to flieir very Oath of Supremacy to your Majeftier, and the expresse Statutes of a6. H. 8. c. 1. 31. H. 8. c. 10. 37. H. 8. c. 17. 25. H. 8. 0. 19. 21. 1. Ed. 6. c. z. 1. Eliz. c. 1. 3. Eliz. c. 1. 8. Eliz. c. 1. and other Acts? Yea have they not maimed your temporal! Jurildiction, also by stopping your owne Royalt Prohibitions to their Courts by intermedling with temporall offices and affaires, of purpose to advaunce their owne spirituall power and Iurisdiction, and by forcing your Subjects to take Oathes before them in cales which concerne neither Matrimony nor Teftament? Surely your Royall Predecessors, and their Judges have so resolved, long agoe; and therefore in their Writs of Prohibition, and Ad Iura Regia; they commonly inferted these clauses, that the Prelates Proceedings in all causes not meerely Ecclesiasticall, and their adminiftring Oathes to your people in any cases, but of Matrimony and testament, was: 1 In grave pra- + Register judicium Coronæ & dignitatis nostræ regiæ: 27.1065. In nostri contemptu, & regia dignitaris lafione: In lasionem corona & digonaris nostra &c. Adding moreover: Nos qui ad illæsam observationem jurium Corona & dignitatis nostræ vinculo juramenti astringimur, nolentes talia tolerare; vobis prohibemus ne quicquam in præmiffis attentare præfumatis; per quod juri corona & dignitaris nostra

hem;

t they

nt il-

tbem:

faith.

d Ec-

urpa-

and

cause

s,and

e the

is it

bout

Leffer

nter.

fe,

iead.

mne,

aken

ead, urif.

and

ed it

ately

e fi

ethe

hou

Wik

Ries Vifi

16 derogari valeat quovis modo, & fi quid per vos in hac parte minus rite attentatum fuerit, id fine dilatione aliqua revocari faciatis: ne ad vos tanquam ad jurium coronæ & dignitatis nostræ violatores graviter capere debeamus, &c. Eo fludiosus nos decet operam adhibere & folicitius extendere manum nostram quoad hoc vinculo Iuramenti teneri dinoscimur & astringi ; pluresque conspicimus indies jurailla pro viribus impugnare, nobis & corona nostra prajudicium & exhæredationem multipliciter generantes. Nos volentes hujusmodi præjudicio, & exhæredationi remedio quo poterimus obviare, omniumque jura coronæ nostræ impugnantium conatus illicitos refranare; vobis & vestrum cuilibet districte prohibemus, ne prætextu alicujus Commissionis vobis vel cuilibet vestrum factæ vel faciendæ, quicquam quod, in derogationem juris nostri regij, quacunque auctoritate nobis inconsultis attentare præsumatis, seu per alios attentari faciatis: scientes, quod si secus feceritis, ad vos tanquam ad violatores juris nofri regij graviter capiemus, &c.

The

fe

di

an Ot

CT

Co

fur lo

20

pre

you

Fp.

704

rog

you

felf Pre

for

Bre

from

Pro

ty,

for y

The Latine I confesse is none of the best, but the fenfeis notable, manifesting both the " Prelates rea- non immodireffe in all ages to usur pe upon your Predeceffors Cro'd nes dicum,cum and dignities, and their vigilant conftant care on the PRELATI other fide to curbe, prevent, and punish these their qui ad jus encrochments, as derogatorie and prejudiciall to their regium nocrowne and dignitie (being bound thereto by their frum con-

Coronation oathes) both by imprisonment and the fei-illesum ex fure of their temporalties, as the Attachments, fol-juraments lowing upon these Prohibitions, manifest.

Per

fue-

atis;

28 S

pere

ope-

num

te-

on-

ma-

n &

ites.

ex.

bvi-

im-

VO-

nus,

vel

uic-

ftri

on-

at-

ce-

no.

The

Your Majefty no doubt hath as x absolute a Prero-quem facere gative over all Ecclesiaficall Perfens and causes, as fu- confpicimu, preme bead on earth of the Church of England, as ever any firi prajudiyour Royall Fregeniters ; and your I relates no W , no more cium ante-Episcopall Jarifdiction , Jure avvino, then their undutifull dieli jura Preacceffors; you have takenthe felfesame y Oath at nem codere your Coronation, to preferve, to defend the rights , the Pre- poterit quorogatives of your Crowne and Liberties of your Subjects, as quo modo. your ancestors have done, and you have shewed your 2.f. 64.b. selfe very carefull to preserve, if not enlarge your x 37. H.8. Prerogative in temporall things. I doubt not there- 8. c. 1.28. fore, but you will likewise upon the perusall of this H.8. c, 10. Breviate, vindicate your Ecclefiasticall Prerogative 1.Ed. 6.c.2. from your Prelates difloyall encrochments, as your g. Eliz.e.1. Progenitors have done, and not let loofe the raines 8. Eliz.c. 1. unto them to usurpe upon your Crowne, your digni- 23Elize 1. ty, and the Liberties of your Subjects more and guber. more, and doe what they please, without controll."

It any of them suggest to your Majesty, that it is Magna for your honor, and the Churches good, that the Bif- 1556, hops and Clergy should domineere and beare cheife f. 164.

regni noftri, virculo funt aftrici quic-regij lasio-

y See Totelli

fway

fway in Church and State; flowrith in worldly honor, wealth, pompe, dignity; manage the cheife tempo. rall offices and affaires, and Lord it over your Nobihity, Gentrie, people, as their Predecessors have done in former ages. I answer,

th

C

th

th

de

O

g

in

m

W

E

B

S

tl

C

tl

m

fo

0

K

aı

TE

ft

W

n

Can. 14.15 18.19.20. 5 14. Gratran. Dift. 41.88.29. 95. 59. Caufa,41. 15.9.7.

First, That the 214. Bishops in the 4. Councell of 22.23. 34. Carthage An. 436. were of a farre other ludgement, 35. Surrum For they denied, that every Bishop should have (not a Concil. Tom. Lordly Pallace,) but Hospitiolum, a little cottage to dwell in, not farre of from the Church. That hee should have vile (not Lordly, coftly,) household stuffe, and a poore table and fare, and should feeke the authoritie of his dignity by his faith and merits of life, qu. I. canfa. That hee should not take upon him the Probate or Administration of Wills ; nor goe to Law for transitory things though provoked; That hee should not take any care of his temporallestate to himselfe; Sed lectioni & orationi , & verbi Dei pradicationi T A N-TV M MODO VACET; but should ONELY give himselfe to reading, and prayer, and the preaching of Gods word. That hee should ordaine no Ministers without the advise of his Clergy, and the confent and testimony of the Citizens. That hee should heare no mans cause, without the presence of his Clergy; and that otherwise his sentence should be meerly voyd, unlesse it were confirmed by the presence and suffrage of his Clergy. That in what place foever hee was fitting, hee should not fuffer a Presbyter or Minister to stand; That in the Church and Seffion of the Presbyters, the Bifbon should fit in the upper place : but within any house COL

COLLEGAM SE PRESETTERORYM AGNOSCAT; hee should know himselfe to be but the fellow or co-partner of Ministers. Thus this Councell of 214. Bishops decree, and that so justly, that every one of these Canons is incorperated into the Popes owne Canon Law, and there remaine unrepealed till this very day, at least 40. others Councels, determining both before and fince, t that Bishops and the Concil. Clergy men ought not tobeare any temporall offices, 3. Can. 15. or intermedle with fecular affaires, fince no man that Gratian. goeth a warfare to God, ought to intangle himfelfe Caufa. 21. in the affaires of this world: (2. Tim. 2. 4.) that hee qu. 3. may please him, who hath chosen him to be a soldier. Whence * Pope Damasus the first, in his Decretall * Surius Epiftle concerning Chorall Bishops; compares those 1.p. 466. Bps who turne over their flockes to fuch Bishops and 467, 468. Substitutes to be governed and instructed by them, 469. that they may follow their lufts, we pro fuo libitu S E-CVLARIBUS CVRIS INHIENT, and give themselves to secular cares at their pleasure, and more freely doe what feemes good to every one of them in his owne eyes: to Harlots, who prefently, fo foone as they are delivered, delivered their infants to other nurses to be brought up, that they may be the foonerable to follow and fatisfie their lufts. For, and by reason of such things and Bishops, soules are neglected, the sheepe perish, diseases increase, herefies and seismes breake forth, Churches are deftroyed, Preifts are defiled, and other evills arife. Wherefore the cheife Preifts may not imitate whorish women, who put over their children to others to

be

nor,

-oge

obi-

have llof

sent.

ot a

tage

uffe,

e au-

life.

e or

anfi-

Sed

N-

bluc

yer,

bluc

ler-

ens.

the

fen-

fir-

hat

not

hop

ule

L

be nursed, that they may follow their pleasure, but they themselves ought to nourish them, themselves ought to render fruite to their Lord with increase, and to present the fruitfull sheaves to him with glory. For if the Lord himselfe, among other cares of his sheepe, hath touched and cleansed the leapers, why doe wee disdaine to doe the same things? Especially *folm. 21. when as the Lord fayd to Peter, * If thou love me, feed my sheepe. If we defire to be the Lords Disciples, let us follow his steps; that it may be fayd of us, I am the good Shepheard, and know my fheep, and am knowneof mine, and I call them all by name, &c. Every one who negligently feedes the Lords flocke so often committed to him, is convinced not to love the cheife Paftor, nor yet to be willing to be made his Disciple, whose examples hee neglects to bon

of'

at a hee

bea

wh

of c

25 ( whi

eng

the

call

rage feft

not

the

wre

the

faul

Ger

driv

rable

ion

lubje

ha:

whic

ifte

eit

WI

he f

nd-

Gen.31. 38.39.40.

imitate.

Wee remember, that Iacob, who had ferved long for his wives, faid thus to Laban : This twenty yeares have I beene with thee, thy ewes and thy sheegoates have not cast their younge, and the rammes of thy flocke have I not eaten. That which was torne of beafts, I brought not unto thee, I bare the loss of it; of my hand didft thou require it, whether stolen Thus I was, in the day the by day or by night. drought confumed me, and the frost by night, and the sleepe departed from mine eyes. If therefore hee did thus labor andwarch, who fed Labans Sheepe, how great paines & watchings ought he to take, who feeds the sheep of God? This can no Prelate or Bishop dec, who is busied in worldly affaires or sto wes in worldly boner , bonor , wealth , Pompe and State, For as " Hildebert + Epin. 37 of Turen truly writes : It is impossible that hee should at any time speake with the Lord, who (even when hee is filent) talkes with all the world: Such a fablebearer doe I,O wretch (faith hee) professe my selfe, who when as I fpend the whole dayes about keeping of cattle and worldly affaires, doe not spend so much as one moment in keeping of foules. Bufineffes, which are worse to my spirit, meet with me, which engroffe me wholy to themselves, which steale away the secret times of prayers, which defraud Ecclesiasticall duties of their fealons, which as a small thing rage and vex me with ftinges by day, and likewise infest me when I sleep by night; and that which I cannot acknowledge without teares, the creeping and theevish remembrance of causes follow me, poore wretch to the facred Altars, where whiles I deprecate theflight thereof, I am furrounded with their affault. These birdes, I unhappy wretch, indure with facrifying Abraham, but it is not yet given me to drive them away with Abraham. Now innummeable loffes of vertues follow the captivating occupaions of the minde, to which whiles we miserably are lubject, wee doe not so much as minister with Marha: For Martha ministred, but to Christ; but. which of us may fay that wee doe run about and miifter with Martha, who whiles wee run about, doe +De Statu either minister to Christ, nor for Christ, Hence is it Domin Dei, writes * Potho,) that in these dangerous times 13. Bibl. he scarcity of spirituall things doth most of all presse 12, pars, 1. and thaken us, when as plenty of temporall things 2.628. abound

at .

es.

y. his

hy

lly

ie,

ciyd

p, ds

ot

be

to

ed

ty e-

of

ne

of

en

he

nd.

re.

е,

10

op dly

r,

abound. For the Church in this time is made greater in riches, but farre lesse in virtues. Whence chari. ty now waxing cold in many, the defire of heavenly things vanisheth quite away in us, and all the studie of virtues is turned into the appetite of transitory things. For these things men desire to be Bishon and Prelates of Churches, that they may enjoy thefe things, that they may flow with pleasures, that they may rather rule over the Church of God, then profit it; that they may have the family of the Church. fubject to them, that they may be Lords of things. that how much the richer their Churches are, they may thereby become more famous. Since therefore ambition raignes in these men, how can they adorne the doctrine of Christ in word and example in all things? What vertue of true religion is there in them whose heartes the brightnes of divine illumination I lobn. 18. hath forfaken? Thus thefe, in direct opposition to thi

20

OH.

C

do

Go

Cay

Hay

tha

du

Ch

mo

mo

Th

hol

virt

Deri

San

n 1

Chu

Chr

che

Prel

but .

ame

elfe

or d avi

utio

ffic

n th

36.

*Math.20. your Prelates suggestion, who pleade so much for worlds, Math.20. round pompe, wealth, and rule, which of all other things Marke. 10. they (bould most detest. 42.43.44. Secondly, I answere, that Christ himselfe aven 45. Luke. 22.24.25. † that his Kingdome was not of this world; express 26.27. prohibiting his Ministers and Apostles, to Lordi I. Par. 5.1. 2.3. 3 lehn, over his inheritance, or exercise any temporall Domi-9.1chn. 21. nion over them, commanding them onely to feed & 15.16.17. teach, not domineere or rule over his flock like tem 28. Marke, porall Lords: to b be lowly and humble without 16.15.16. pompe, flate, or worldly poffesions, as bee and bis Discipte were, being content onely with food and raiment c 1. Tim. 6. eschuing worldly pompe and wealth, as the very bane and 8.9.10.11. poyfor porson of the Church : Hence & Bishop lewell records & Sermon.on out of loannes . Parifenfis and others , That when Hag: L. Constantine the Great advanced Bis hops, and en. P. 176. and dowed the Church with lands and temporall poffer- on Math. 9. fions, there was a voyce of Angels heard in the ayre, Defence of faying : hodie venenum infunditum in Ecclefiam : This the Apologie. day poyson is powred into the Church. And from parte 6.c.9. that time forward (faith Polychronicon out of Giral-pag. 567. dus Cambiensis) because of the great riches that the 568. Church had, it was made the more fecular; and had vita Silvefiri more secular busines, then spirituall devotion, and SeePolichromore pompe & boast outward then holinesse within. 6,26 f.171. Therefore Ierome in Vitas Patrum faith; Since the Thomas Beholy Church increased in possessions, it decreased in cons Reports virtues according to the old Proverbe: Religio pe-of certaine virtues according to the old Proverbe: Religio pe-men. Vol. 3. perit divitias, Et filia devoravit matrem. And out of f. 241. Sant Bernard bee writes: that fince Prelates increased in worldly pompe, chusing the first places in the Church, they have beene the cheitest in persecuting Christ, and have ever shewed themselves, not teathers, but deceivers, not Pastors but Impostors; not Prelates but Pilates, succeeding not Peter in teaching, out Romulus in murthering: Concluding out of the ame Bernard, that no Prelate, no not the Pope himelfe, can be both a Succeffor of the Apostles &a Lord; or doubtles hee was forbidden one of them by our aviour, Math. 20.25. 26. where Christ by severall uties and honors, hath fet a difference betweene the ffices of both powers. Our Princes never tooke upn them the office of Bif hops, but your Bif hops faith hee to harding) have taken upon them the office

ter

ari.

nly

e of

OTY

Opi

hele hey pro

rch,

ngs,

they fore

orne

n al

them

ation

o thi

rldly.

hing

AVETI.

cpreft

ordin

)omi-

eed &

tem

ishow

iscip'e

ment

ne am

poyfor

e Cap. 22.in

fice of Princes: Of your Bishops it is written in your owne f Councels (and I would it were not now as true erense. Canal, of ours,) Behold there is now in a maner no worldly Test. Verita- affaire, but Preists and Bishops have it in a hand, Such tn.p. 121. Bishops be they of whom Sant Chry soft ome Writeth thus: They that neither beleive, nor feare the Judgement of God, abusing their Ecclesiasticall dignity in secular fort, turne the same in lecular dignity. Such Bif. bContraLu-hops they be of whom b Sant Hierom faith thus: They ciferianos & themselves be to themselves both Laymen and Bif. in Soph.c. I. *In his Ser. hops too : They worship the Lord and Melchom mon on Hog both together, thinking that they may serve both gay I . Dethe world and the Lord, and fatisfie two Maisters at fence of the once, God and Mammon; who fighting under Chrift, Apologie, pare 4.6.17 bend themselves to worldly affaires, and offer up one Part. 6.c. 11 Image both to God and to Cæfar. And therefore Cardinall Cusanus saith : Hereof groweth a great deformi. Simf.5. 2.576.577 ty that Bishops are bent onely to worldly cares, Walfingham Thus and * much more Bishop Iewell, Neither is Hist. Angle this Trelate singular in his opinion. Our famous English 303, 304. Apostle Iohn Wickliffe, affirmed: That Popes, Car-305, 306. dinals, Bishops, or other Preists, might not civilian Wiclefi. Die- dominari, rule like civill Lords without mortall finne. That it is a finne to endow them with temporall pof-18.26.27. fessions, that no Prelates ought to have any prison to Fox ABIS punish offenders; nor get any large temporall poffer-1.398.399. fions or riches: And that no King should impose upon any Bishop or Curate any secular office; for then the Monuments King and the Clarke should be Proditor lefu Christi, 2 412. Monuments p.431.434, betrayer of Christ Lefus. William Swinderby, a Martyr under Richard the fecond, held: k That the more

Lord.

1

d

7

n

0

I

21 pi

fe

tl

te

fo

m ot

in

fe

da

w

afi

to

te

th

ftc

meri

25

men-

Lordship a Preist hath , the nearer hee is to Antichrift: That the Preists of the old Law were forbidden Lordship; and that Christ himselfe refused and forbad his Preiftes Lord (hips, faying: Reges gentium erc. The Kings of the heathen beare rule &c, but you shall not do fo. And Sant Peter faith Neque dominantes in Clere, Not bearing rule and domination over the Clergy. So it feemeth to me that it is against both Lawes of God, that they have fuch Lordinips , * Fox A & S and that their title to fuch Lordinops is not full Monuments good, &c. So the * Noble Martyr Lord Cobham 518. 522. professed: That the will of God is, that Preists being fecluded from all worldlinesse, should conforme themselves utterly to the examples of Christ, and his Apostles; be evermore occupied in preaching and teaching the Scriptures purely, and in giving wholefome examples of good living to others, being more modest, loving, gentle, and lowly in spirit, then any other forts of people. Where doe ye finde (fayd hee to the Trelates) in all Gods Law, that ye should thus fitt in judgement of any Christian man, or yet give fentence of any other man untodeath as yee doe here dayly? No ground have ye in all the Scriptures fo Lordly to take it upon you, but in Annas and Caiphas which fate thus upon Christ; and upon his Apostles, after his afcention. Of them onely have ye takenit to judge Christs members, as ye doe, & neither of Peter nor lohn. Since the venime of Iudas was shed into the Church, yee never followed Christ, nor yet flood in the perfection of Gods Law. By Venime I meane your poffessions and Lordships: For then eried an Angle in the ayre (as your owne Chronicles

our

trut

ldly

bus:

nent

ecu-

Bif.

hey

Bif.

nom

ooth

rs at rift, one

Car-

rmj-

res.

er i

glif

Car-

iliter

nne.

pof-

n to

Hef-

pon

n the

ti,a

Mar-

nore

ord.

If Knighthood and Kindurite and commons by conscience, Together love Lelly, leveth it well ye Bishops, The Lordship of Landes for ever sall ye lese, And live as Levisici, as our Lord ye teachesh.

Dent. 8. Numb. s. per primitias &decimas &c.

J.Paffus, 15.

2.4.6.

Si

pu

1

Kir of I

t n

hi

W

hav wor

Go

27

Sir m Geffry Chaucer our reno med Poet, is, yet more mThePlowa punctuall.

The Emperour yafe the Pope sometime, So high Lord hip him about , That at last the fely Ryme , The proud Pope put himout. So of this Realme is in dout : But Lordes be ware and shem defend . For now the fe folke beene wondrous flout, Moses Law forbod is the, That Preistes Should no, Lordef hippes Weld, Christs Ghofpell biddeth alfo, That they should no Lords hippes held, Ne Christes Apostles were never so bold, No such Lordshippes to them enbrace, But smeren ber sheepe, and keepe her fold, God amend bem for his grace, &c.

hed

Bps

hat

oy-

uch

bul

eke

oud:

ope

cts

ift,

m;

and

iars

ing

vi-

yet

lee-

is er,

an-

uce,

Sir

This Booke of Chaucer was authorized to be printed by Act of Parliament in the 34. and 35. H. 8. c. 1.

Mafter William Tyndall Martyr, writes thus: Let * Inhū Kings rule their Realmes themselves, with the helpe worker. of Laymen that are sage, wise, learned and expert. Is 152.142. It not a shame above all shames and a monstrous thing, that so man should be found able to governe worldly Kingdome save Bishops and Prelates that have forsaken the world, and are taken out of the world, and appointed to preach the Kingdome of God; Christ sath, that his Kingdome is not of this D 2 world, world, lohn: 18. and Luk. 19. Vnto the young man that defired him, to bid his brother to give him part of the inheritance, hee answered; who made mea judge or a devider over you: No man that layeth his hand to the plowe and looketh back, is fit for the Kingdome of heaven, Luke 9. No man can ferve two Mailters, for hee must despise the one. Matth.6. To preach Gods word, is to much for halfe a man: and to minister a temporall Kingdome, is to much for halfe a man. Either other requireth an whole One therefore cannot well doe both. The Bishops after they had put Christ out of his roome. they gate themselves to the Emperors and Kings, and fo long ministred their busines, till they have also put them out of their roomes, and have get their autho. rities from them, and raigne also in their steed : So that the Emperour and Kings are but vaine names, and shadowes, as Christ is, having nothing to doe in the world. Thus raigne they in freed of God and man, and have all power under them, and doe what they lift. What names have they? My Lord Bishop, my Lord Archbishop, if it please your father-hood, if it please your Lordship, if it please your Grace, ifit please your holines, and innummerable such like. Behold, how they are efteemed, and how they are crept up above all, not into worldly feates onely, but into the feate of God, the hearts of men, where they fit above God himselfe. For, both they, and whatsoever they make of their owne heades, is more feared and dread, then God and his Commandements, Antichrifts Bishops preach not, because they have no leifure le

0

in

ke

th

fe

he

CI

ar

un

un

th

th

thi

for

tha

ex

tio

No

not cut

on

up:

and

vol

the

By

Kin

ere

and

doe

leifure for their luft and pleasures, and aboundance of all things, and for the combrance that they have in Kings matters; and busines of the Realme. One keepeth the privy Seale, another the great Seale, the third is Confessor, that is to say a privy traitor, and a fecret Iudas, hee is Prefident of the Kings Counfell, hee is an Ambassadour, another fort of the Kings fecret Counfell, t Wo is unto the Realmes where they t Note. are of the Counfell, as profitable are the Prelacy, unto the Realmes with their Counfell, as the Wolves unto the Sheep, or the Foxes unto the Geefe. * For +Page. 181 there is no mischeifes or disorder, whether it be in the temporall regiment or in the spirituall, whereof they are not the cheife causes, and even the very fountaine and springs; and as we say the well head : fo that it is impossible to preach against any mischeife, except thou begin at them, or to fet any reformation in the world, except thou reforme them first. Now are they indurate and tough as Pharaoh, and will not bow unto any way or order. And therefore perfecute they Gods word and the Preachers thereof, and on the other fide lay awayte unto all Princes and stirre up all mischeife in the world, and send them to warre, and occupie their mindes therewith, or with other voluptuousnes, lest they should have leisure to heare theword of God, & to fet an order in their Realms. By them is all things ministred, and by them are all Kings ruled; yea in every Kings conscience sit they ere hee be King, and perswade him what they lift, and make them both to beleive what they will, and to doe what they will, neither can any King or Realme have.

nan

part

nea

his

the

erve

b.6.

an:

uch

hole

The

me,

and

put tho.

So

mes,

oe in

man,

they

, my

ifit

, ifit

. Be-

crept

into ey fit

tfoe-

eared

An-

e no

ifure

have rest for their busines. Turne thine eyes whe. ther thou wilt, and thou shalt see nothing prosperous but their fubtile yolling, with that it is flowing water, yea and I trust it will be shortly a full Sea. their doings, though they pretend outwardly the ho. nor of God, or Common-wealth, their intent and fecret Counfell is onely, to bring all under their power, and to take out of the way who foever letteth And when they are them, or is to mighty for them. once on high, then are they Tyrants above all Tyrants. Whether they be Turkes or Saracens. Thus and * See bis farre more * Mafter Tyndall . Mafter Fish in his Practige of Popif b Pre. Supplication of Beggars, thus complaines to King Henlates worthy ry the 8. of the inconvenience of the Prelates greatnes and to be serious- fray , both to himselfe and his subjects , worthy your MaoFox Alls & jesties most ferious consideration. Oh the greivous ship-Monuments wrack, of the Common-wealth, which in ancient time 1.926.927 before the comming of these ravenous walves, were fo profperous, that &c. What remedy ? Make Lawes against them? I am in doubt whether ye be able. Are they not stronger in your owne Parliament-house then your felfe? What a number of Bil hops , Ab. † The finits bots, and Priors, are Lords of your Parliament? † Are not all the learned men of your Realme in fee with them, to fpeake in the Parliament-house for them, against your Crowne, dignity and Commonwealth of your Realine, a fewe of your owne learned Counfell, onely excepted? what Law can be made against them that may be avaylable? Who is hee (though hee be greived never lo fore,) that for the murther of his ancester, ravis hment of his wife, of his daugh-

of Prelates

greatnes.

ter,

ter, offe

and

line

ere

thei

the

Lav

con

any

be f

hat

aid don

Lo

Cui

int

con

had nef

Inf

Co

tov

isa

ino

will do

he

Fo

gre

5Œ

ter, robbery, trespalle, maine, debt, or any other offence, dare lay it to their charge by way of Actiona . Now they and if hee do, then is hee by and by , by their * wy bring fuch lines accused of herefy; yeathey will so handle him commission, ere hee passe, that except hee will beare a faggot at and there their pleasure, hee shall be excommunicated, and mine them, then be all his actions dathed. So captive are your to give over Lawes unto them, that no man whom they lift to ex-ther actions. communicate may be admitted to fue any action in any of your Courts. If any man in your Seffions dare be so hardy to indite a Preist of any such crime , hee hath ere theyeare goe about fuch a yoake of herefie laid in his necke, that it maketh him wish hee had not done it. Your Grace may fee what a worke there is in London; how the Bishop rageth for indiring certaine Curates of extortion and incontinency the last yeare in the Ward-mote Quest. Had not Richard Hunne commenced action of Præmunire against a Preist, hee had yet beene alive, and no heretick at all, but an ho- + Note the nest man. + And this is by reason that the cheife danger that Instrument of your Law, yea the cheife of your accrues by Counfell, and hee which hath your fword in his hand, gymen to whom also all the other instruments are obedient, cheife tem-is alwayes a spirituall man; which hath ever such au forall officers nordinate love unto his owne Kingdome, that hee will maintaine that, though allthe temporall Kingdomes and Commonwealthes of the world, should , Alls and herefore utterly be undone. Which Master p Iohn Monuments Fox himselfe thus seconds: * This hath beene one P.1381. reat abuse in England these many yeares, that such offices as have beene of most importance & waight,

have

whe.

erous

ater

In all

e ho.

t and

their tteth

y are

Ty-

s and

n his

Hen.

sand

Ma-

hip-

ime

vere wes

Are

ouse

Ab.

Are

em,

alth

un-

inft

igh

her

gher,

32 have commonly beene committed to Bishops and other spirituall men; whereby three divellish mifcheifes and inconveniences have happened in this Realme, to the great dishonour of God, and utter ne. glecting of the flocke of Christ, the which three be thefe.

First, they have had fmall leafure to attend to their Paftorall cures, which thereby have beene utterly neglected and left undone.

fol. 184.

Secondly, it hath alfopuft up many Bishops and o. ther spirituall persons into such haughtines and pride, that they have thought no noble man in the Realme, worthy to be their equall and fellow: (Whence a Hall 7 22.H.8. in his Chronicle observes, that the authority of Car. dinall Wolfey, fet the Clergy in fuch a pride, that they disdained all men; wherefore when he was fallen they followed after.)

Thirdly, where they by this meanes knew the very fecrets of Princes, they being in fuch high cffices, *Note, the Bifbops the have caused the same to be * knowne in Rome, a. greatest Freindes & fore the King could accomplish and bring his intent to passe in England. By this meanes hath the Papacy Pillars of the Pope, & beene so maintained, and things ordered after their more faithwills and pleasures, that much mischeife hath hapned full to him, then to their in this Realme and others, fometime the destruction of Princes, and fometime to the utter undowing of Prince. many Common-wealthes.

Master r Hooper, buth a Bishop and Marty Y Vpon the 8. Comman- of our Church , delivers his judgement of the point is dement. these ensuing termes: For the space of 400, yeares Pag. 78. after Christ, the Bishops applied all their witt onely

to

ho

hac

hav

Scr

the

he

Bif

ferv

llfo

ther

his b

hat

that

nee

Prin

Prin

had

n le

The

Mini

Mag

culpa

icke

hird

nd S

led v wne

hich

hid to

red.

to their owne vocation; to the glory of God, and the honor of the Realmes they dwelt in. Though they had not fo much upon their heades, as our Bishops have, yet had they more within their heades as the Scripture and histories testifie. For they applied all the wilt, they had unto the vocation and ministry of the Church whereunto they were called. But our Bishops have so much witt, that they can rule and ferve (as they fay,) in both States, in the Church and also in the civill policy, when one of them is more then any man is able to fatisfie, let him doe allwayes his best diligence. If hee be so necessary for the Court, that in civillcauses hee cannot be spated, let him use that vocation, and spare the other. It is not possible, nee should doe both well. It is a great overfight in Princes thus to charge them with two burthens. The *SeeBucerm Primitive Church had no fuch Bishops as we. They Christs, 1.2. had fuch Bishops as did preach many godly Sermons c.12. n leffe time then our Bishops horses be a brideling. Their house was a Schoole or treasure house of Gods Ministers. If it be so now, let every man judge. The Magistrates that suffer the abuse of these goods, be culpable of the fault. If the fourth part of the Bishopicke remained to the Bishop, it were sufficient, the hird part to Schoolemaisters, the second to poore, nd Soldiers were better bestowed. If any be offened with me for this my faying , hee loveth not his wne health, nor Gods Lawes, nor mans; out of hich I am alwayes ready to proove the thing, I have aid to be true. Further, I speake of love, not of hared. And in his Apologie hee faith: It is both against Gods

and

mif-

this

rne.

ee be tend eene

nd o.

ride,

lme,

Hall

Car.

that

allen

ve-

ices,

e,a.

tents

pacy

heir

oned

tion

ng of

arty

ot is ares

nely

to

have rest for their busines. Turne thine eyes whe. ther thou wilt, and thou shalt see nothing prosperous but their fubtile yolling, with that it is flowing water, yea and I trust it will be shortly a full Sea. their doings, though they pretend outwardly the ho. nor of God, or & Common-wealth, their intent and fecret Counfellis onely, to bring all under their power, and to take out of the way who foever letteth And when they are them, or is to mighty for them. once on high, then are they Tyrants above all Tyrants. Whether they be Turkes or Saracens. Thus and * See bis farre more * Mafter Tyndall . Mafter Fish in his Practife of Supplication of Beggars, thus complaines to KingHen. lates worthy ry the 8. of the inconvenience of the Frelates greatnes and to be serious- fray , both to himselfe and his subjects , worthy your Maof ox Alls & jesties most ferious consideration. Oh the greivous ship-Monuments wrack, of the Common-wealth, which in ancient time 1.926.927 before the comming of these ravenous wilves, were fo profperous, that &c. What remedy ? Make Lawes against them? I am in doubt whether ye be able. Are they not stronger in your owne Parliament-house then your felfe? What a number of Bif hops, Ab. † The finits bots, and Priors, are Lords of your Parliament? † Are not all the learned men of your Realme in fee with them, to speake in the Parliament-house for them, against your Crowne, dignity and Commonwealth of your Realme, a fewe of your owne learned Counfell, onely excepted? what Law can be made against them that may be avaylable? Who is hee (though hee be greived never lo fore,) that for the murther of his ancester, ravis hment of his wife, of his daugh-

of Prelates

greatnes.

ter,

ter,

offe

and

line

ere

thei

ther

Lav

COL

ny

be fi

hatl

aid

don

Lor

Cur nth

ton had peft

Inft

Cou O W

sal

nor

vill don

her

Fox

rea Hic ter, robbery, trespasse, maine, debt, or any other offence, dare lay it to their charge by way of Actiona. Now they and if hee do, then is hee by and by, by their wy bring such lines accused of herefy; yeathey will so handle him commission, ere hee passe, that except hee will be are a faggot at and there their pleasure, hee shall be excommunicated, and ruine them, then be all his actions dashed. So captive are your to give ever Lawes unto them, that no man whom they list to ex-them actions.

whe.

erous

ater

In all

e ho.

tand

their

tteth

y are

Ty-

es and

n his

Hen.

sand

Ma-

hip-

time

were

awes

Are

ouse

Ab.

Are

with

em,

alth

un

inft

ugh

her

ghter, Lawes unto them, that no man whom they lift to ex-ther actions communicate may be admitted to sue any action in any of your Courts. If any man in your Sessions dare be so hardy to indite a Preist of any such crime; hee hath ere they eare goe about such a yoake of here see laid in his necke, that it maketh him wish hee had not done it. Your Grace may see what a worke there is in London; how the Bishop rageth for inditing certaine Curates of extortion and incontinency the last yeare in the Ward-mote Quest. Had not Richard Hunne commenced action of Præmunire against a Preist, hee had yet beene alive, and no heretick at all, but an ho- † Note the nest man. † And this is by reason that the cheife danger that instrument of your Law, we at the cheife of your secrees by nest man. ‡ And this is by reason that the cheise danger that Instrument of your Law, yea the cheise of your access by making Clerton whom also all the other instruments are obedient, cheise temporalisal ways a spiritual man; which hath ever such an sortion in the continuate love unto his owne Kingdome, that hee will maintaine that, though all the temporal Kingdomes and Commonwealthes of the world, should p Alls and therefore utterly be undone. Which Masser p Iohn Monuments

Fox himselfe thus seconds: This hath beene one p.1381.

great abuse in England these many yeares, that such fices as have beene of most importance & waight.

have

have commonly beene committed to Bishops and other spirituals men; whereby three divellish mischeises and inconveniences have happened in this Realme, to the great dishonour of God, and utter ne glecting of the flocke of Christ, the which three be these.

ho

hac

av

Scr

he

he

Biff

erv

lfo

her

is b

hat

hat

ee i rin

rim

ad f

lef

hei

lini

lagi

ilpai

tke ird

d So

dwi

ne

ich

d to

d.

First, they have had fmall leasure to attend to their Pastorall cures, which thereby have been

utterly neglected and left undone.

Secondly, it hath also puft up many Bishops and of ther spirituall persons into such haughtines and pride, that they have thought no noble man in the Realme, worthy to be their equall and fellow: (Whence q Hall in his Chronicle observes, that the authority of Cardinall Wolsey, set the Clergy in such a pride, that they disdained all men; wherefore when he was falled they followed after.)

9 22.H.8.

fol. 184.

Thirdly, where they by this meanes knew the ve ry fecrets of Princes, they being in fuch high cffice *Note, the Bifbops the have caused the same to be * knowne in Rome, fore the King could accomplish and bring his intent greatest Freindes & to paffe in England. By this meanes hath the Papan Pillars of the Pope, & beene fo maintained, and things ordered after the more faithwills and pleafures, that much mischeife hath hapne full to him, then to their in this Realme and others, fometime the destruction of Princes, and fometime to the utter undowing Prince. many Common-wealthes.

8. Comman- of our Church, delivers his judgement of the point is dement.

1. these ensuing termes: For the space of 400, years after Christ, the Bishops applied all their witt one to their owne vocation; to the glory of God, and the honor of the Realmes they dwelt in. Though they had not fo much upon their heades, as our Bishops have, yet had they more within their heades as the Scripture and histories testifie. For they applied all he wilt, they had unto the vocation and ministry of he Church whereunto they were called. But our Bishops have so much witt, that they can rule and erve (as they fay,) in both States, in the Church and foin the civill policy, when one of them is more hen any man is able to fatisfie, let him doe allwayes is best diligence. If hee be so necessary for the Court, hat in civillcauses hee cannot be spated, let him use hat vocation, and spare the other. It is not possible, ee should doe both well. It is a great oversight in rinces thus to charge them with two burthens. The *See Bucern rimitive Church had no fuch Bishops as we. They Christs, L. 2. e ve ad fuch Bishops as did preach many godly Sermons c.12. flice lesse time then our Bishops horses be a brideling. me, a heir house was a Schoole or treasure house of Gods inisters. If it be so now, let every man judge. The apaq Magistrates that suffer the abuse of these goods, be the alpable of the fault. If the fourth part of the Bishop. ingo d Soldiers were better had a reference to the fecond to poore, cke remained to the Bishop, it were sufficient, the d Soldiers were better bestowed. If any be offend with me for this my faying, hee loveth not his Lan ne health, nor Gods Lawes, nor mans; out of years and to be true. Further, I speake of love, not of ha-one one and making Apologie hee faith: It is both against Gods

and

mif-

this

erne

ee be

ttend

eene

nd o.

oride,

alme,

Hal

Car

, tha

ntent

apne

Gods Lawes and mans, that Bishops and Clergy should be judges over any subjects within this Realme, for it is no part of their office: they can do no more but preach Gods word, and minister God Sacraments, and excommunicate fuch as God Lawes doe pronounce to be excommunicated. Wh would put a fword into a madmans hand ? Thus this Monuments good Trelate , whom Mafter Latymer , (who f gam (Fox Adit over his Bilhopricke out of conscience (as Shaxtor Bishop of Salis bury likewise did,) and skipped for joye being divefted of his Bif hoplike habit, because hee feeled his shoulders so light, and was discharge of fo heavy a burden; thus feconds in bis Sermon of the cumPrivilegiofol 17.

P.1578.

#Edit. 1578 Plough: # God faith by the Prophet Ieremy; Ou ledictus qui facit opus Dei frandelenter , guilefully an deceitfully some bookes have, negligenter, negligent ly, or flackly. How many fuch Prelates, how man fuch Bishops (Lord for thy mercy) are there now England? And what shall we in this case doe? Sha we company with them? O Lord, for thy mercy the we not company with them? O Lord, whether the we flee from them. But curfed be hee which do the worke of the Lord negligently or guilefully A fore word for them that are negligent in discha ging their office ill. Yee that be Prelates looke we to your office; for right Prelating is busie labouring and not Lording; therefore preach and teach, and your plough be doing. Yee Lords, I fay, that live li loyterers, looke well to your office, the plow is you office and charge. If ye live idle and loyter, yo doe not your duty, &c. They have to fay if then

che

Pa

chi

Itl

at 1

loc

wh

mo

mu

hat

to 1

Bot

tha

offi

Th

np

ate

the

you

hei

lou

oth

un

Lon

OW

unt

Prela

ng.

mat hd I

one

35

chemfelves long cuftomes, and authority, placing in Parliament, and many things more. And I feare me this land is not ripe to be plowed: for as the faying is, It lacketh withering. This land lacketh withering at least it is not for me to plough. For what shall I looke for among thornes, but pricking & fcratching? what among stones, but stumbling? what (I had allmost faid) among Scorpions but stinging ? But thus much I dare fay, that fince Lording and loytering hath come up, preaching hath gone downe contrary to the Apostles times. For they preached and Lorded not, and now they Lord and preach not. For they that be Lords, will ill goe to the plow. It is no meete office for them. It is not feeming for their effate. Thus came up Lording Loyterers. Thus crept up inpreaching Prelates. For how many unlearned Preates have we now at this day? And no marvail, for if the ploughmen that now be, were made Lords, they would cleane give over-ploughing, they would leave heir labour, and fall to Lording outright, and the lough stand. And then both ploughes not walking, othing should be in the Common-wealth but unger. For ever fince the Prelates were made Lordes and Nobles, their plough standeth, there is o worke done, the people starve; they hauke, they unt, they carde, they dice, they pastime in their relacies with gallant Gentlemen; with their daun- hath put ing Minions, and with their fresh companions, so downe preahat ploughing is fet afide. * And by their Lording ching. See nd Loytering, preaching and ploughing is cleane to K. Henry one. And thus if the ploughmen in the country, the 8. An. were 1544.

ergy

this

n doe

God

God

Who

s shi

gaw

axtor

ed fa

cauk

argei

ofth

MI

ly an igen

man

nowi

Sha

y that er tha

h dot

efulk-

ifcha

ke we

ourin

andk

ve li

is you

er, yo fay h

then

lates there. preffe Le-Aures and preaching, as many now doe, onely should not long live for lacke of sustenance. And as it is necessary for to have this ploughing for the suftentation of the body, fo must we have also the other for the fatisfaction of the foule; orelfe we cannot live long ghoftly. For as the body wafteth and confumethaway for lacke of bodily meate ; fo doth the * The Pre- foule * pine away for want of ghostly meate. And fore who fup. as diligently as the hutbandman plougheth for the fustentation of the body; so diligently must the Prelates and Ministers labour for the feeding of the foule; both the ploughes must still be going as most neces. fary for man. They have great labors, and therefore pine, not feed they ought to have good livings, that they may commens foules, modioully feed their flock; for the preaching of the word of God, is called meate. Scripture calleth it meate, not strawberies; that come but once a yeare, and tarry not long, but are fone gone; but it is meate, it is no dainties. The people must have meate that must be familiar, A. N. D. CO. N.T. I NV. A.L. L. and DATLY GIVEN VNTO THEM TO FEED O.N. &c. And wherefore are Magistrates ordained, but that the tranquility of the Common-wealth may be confirmed, limiting both ploughes. But now for the fault of unpreaching Prelates, me thinke I could gueffe what might be fayd for excusing of them They are so troubled with Lordly livinge, they best placed in pallaces, couched in Courts, ruffeling in their rents, danning in their dominions, burdened with ambassages; pampring of their paunches like a Munke that maketh his lubely, mounching in their Maungers, and moyling in their gay Manours, and Man-were as negligent in their office, as Prelates be, we

M

ot

ni

ere

1 thi

Ist

CO

he

no

on

ing

that tha

Ar

my

Ep

fitt

Ist

and

ofa

bro

the

vile

kin

1 /60

That

Confi

be L

man

Mansions , and so trobled with loytering in their Prelate in Lordships, that they cannot attend it. They are mundialibus otherwise occupied, some in Kings matters, some are Scilices effi-Ambassadours, some of the privy Counsell, some fur-ritualibin with the Court, fome are Lords of Parliament, fome defides. Will. are Presidents and Comptrolers of Mints. Well, well, Malmes bu-Is this their duty! Is this their calling? Is this a meet Geftin Reoffice for a Presist to be comptrollers of Mints? Is gium Ang. this a meete office for a Preist that hath cure of foules? 15 p. 173. Is this his charge ? I would heare a question, who not to intercomptrolleth the Devill at home at his parish, while medle with hee comptrolleth the Minte? If the Apostles might stemporall or not leave the office of preaching to be Deacons, shall + See Bucerus one leave it for minting ? I cannot tell you, the fay- de Regno ing is, that fince Preiftes have beene Minters, money 1.2,c.12. hath beene worse then it was before : And they say, t Soinbug. that the evilnes of money hath made all things deare. Sernon be-And in this behalfe I must speake to England. Heare bee grites my Country England, as Sant Paul fayd in the first thus Though Epistle to the Corinthians 6. chapter: for Paul was no 15 y, 1 would wif b mysey fitting Bishop, but a walking and a preaching Bishop: Lord Prefi-Is there (faith hee) utterly among you no wife man to be dents, I an arbitrator in matters of Judgement ? What ? not one meane not would of all that can judge betweene beother and brother, but one have Prelates brother goeth to Law With another, and that under bea- Lord Prefithen Judges? Appoint those Judges that are most abject and that Lord wile in the congregation: which hee speaketh in reby. Bys fbould king them; for faith hee; ad erubefcentiam veffram dico, be LordPre-I heake it to your shame. So England I speake it to thy touchingthat shame, is there never a Nobleman to be a † Lord I find my Conscience the last yeare. And althrigh it is fayd, Prasint, it is not meant that they [bould be Lord Presidents, the office of a President ship is a civill office , and it cannot be , that one man [hall discharge both well, Pre-

nd as he fu-

other

onfu.

And

r the

Pre-

ecel. efore

om.

f the eate,

eate, that

and

ED

ned,

may

w for ould

nem be fo

ng in

he i

heir

and

an-

President, but it must be a Prelate? Is there never a wifeman in the Realme to be a Comptroller of the Mint? I speake it to your shame, I speake it to your It a ne. If there be never a wife man, make a Waterbea. rer, a Tinker, a Cobler, a Slave, a Page Comptroller of the Minte. Make ameane Gentleman, a Groome, a Yeoman, make a poore begger Lord Prefident. Thus I speake, not that I would have it so, but to your shame. Is there never a Gentleman meet not able to beLordPrefident? For why are not the Noble. men and young Gentlemen of England fo brought up, in the knowledge of God and in learning, that they be able to execute offices in the Common. wealth. The King hath a great many of Wards, and I heare there is a Court of Wards; why is there not a schoole of Wards as well as there is a Court for their lands? Why are they not fet to the schooles where they may learne? Or why are they not fent to Uni. verfities, that they may be able to ferve the King when they come to age ? The onely cause why Noblemen be not made Lord Presidents is, because they have not beene brought up in learning. there be already Noblemen enough, though not fo many as I could wish, able to be Lord Presidents, and

*The same reason holds wisemen enough for the Mint. And as unmeet a thing our Lord it is for Bishops to be * Lord Presidents, or Presists of Presidents, be Minters, as it was for the Corinthians to plead cellors, Lord matters of variance before heathen judges. It is also Treassurers a * flander to the Noblemen as though they lacked & wisedome, and learning to be able for such offices. A * Note well. Prelate hath a charge and cure otherwise; and * therfore

for

Pr

ma

his

he

qu

OV

fin

ry

Le

ten

loc

the

mo

Lu

tog

int

der

my

A

wh

Ver

is to

Por

pift

tair

not

blo

De

is w

Lor

fore hee cannot discharge his duty, and be a Lord Prefident too: For a Prefident ship requireth a whole man, and a Bishop cannot be two men. A Bishop hath his office: a flocke to teach, to looke unto, & therfore hee cannot meddle with another office, which requireth an whole man. Hee should therefore give it over to whom it is meet, and labour in his owne bufines , as Paul writeth to the Theffalonians : Let every man doe his owne bufineffe, and follow his calling, Let the Preift preach, and the Noble men handle remporall matters. Well, I would all men would looke to their duty, as God hath called them, and then we should have a flourishing Christian Common-Weale,&c. But our Blaunchers, which will be Lords and no Labourers, when they are commanded to goe and be refident upon their Cures, and preach in their benefices, they will fay: What ? I have fet a "Note, thofe who lobour deputy there, I have a deputy, that looketh well to to advance my flocke, and hee which shall discharge my duty, and bring in A deputy, (qued bee) I looked for that word all this the Camen while. And what a deputy must hee be trow ye? E- to advance ven one like himselfe. Hee must be a * Canonist, that and us ber is to fay, one that is brought up in the study of the againe, who se er a

the

7Our

bea-

oller

me,

ent,

it to

not

ble.

ught

that non.

Iban

ot a

heir

here Uni-

King

why

Yet

ot fo

hing

lts to lead

alfo cked

es. A

herfore in their benefices, they will say: What? I have set a "Note, those deputy there, I have a deputy, that looketh well to to advance my flocke, and hee which shall discharge my duty, and bring in the Canon A deputy, (quod bee) I looked for that word all this Law, labour while. And what a deputy must hee be trow ye? E- to advance wen one like himselfe. Hee must be a "Canonist, that and us her is to say, one that is brought up in the study of the againe, whose Popes Lawes and Decrees: one that will set forth Pa. Law is it is possibly as well as himselfe; and one that will maintaine all superstition and idolatry; and one that will william nothing at all, or else very weakely resist the Devils Trimer in blough, yea happy it is, if hee take no part with the of the Ronash Devill, and where hee should be an enemy to him, it Fox, have is well if hee take not the Devils parte. They are notably and unanswer-ably prooved.

at his plough. And now I would af ke a ftrange que. ftion: Who is the most diligent Bishop and Prelatein all England, that paffeth all the rest in doing his of fice? I can tell, for I know him who it is. I knew him well. But now I thinke I fee you liftning, hearkning that I should namehim. There is one that passeth a the other, and is the most diligent Prelate and And will yee know wh preacher in all England. hee is? I will tell you; It is the Devill. Hee is the most diligent preacher of all others, hee is never on of his Dioces, he is never from his cure, ye shall never finde him unoccupied, hee is ever in his parish, he keepeth refidence at all times, yee shall never find him out of the way: call for him when yee will, hee i ever at hande, the diligentest preacher in all the Realme, hee is ever at his plough: no Lording no Loytering can hinder him, hee is ever applying his bufinefle, yee shall never finde him idle, I warrant you. Oh that our Prelates would be as diligent to for the corne of good doctrine, as Sathan is to fow cockle and darnell. There was never fuch a preacher in England as hee is:he is no unpreaching Prelate. Hee is m Lordly loyterer from his cure, but a bufy ploughman to that among all the Prelates, & among all the pack of the that have cure? the Devill, shall goe for my mony For hestill applieth his busines. Therfore you unpreaching Prelates, learne of the Devill to be diligent in doing your office. Learne of the Devill: and if you will not learne of God nor good men to be diligent for shame learne of the Devill: Id erube fcentiam ve. Iram dico, I speake it to your hame. If you will not

lear you nov by rab

nin pro chi 2000

and thus bei

olic Th of t fion of C chal bite bf a Ran decl rr I Mod

> ince cank efti vasi

> hone har

learne

41 learne of God, nor good men; ever to be diligent in your office, learne of the Devill. Howbeit there is now very good hope, that the Kings Majesty both by the helpe of good governance of his most honorable Counsaylers, trayned and brought up in learning and knowledge of Gods word, will shortly provide a remedy, and set an order therein. Which thing that it may be so, let us pray for him. Thus this good Bishop in opposition to our present Trelates dostrines and practices; Who if hee were now alive and should say thus much, hee might peradventure, (if some of them had sheir will be martyred once againe.

que-

itein

is of.

hin

ning

ha

and

who

sth

rou

neve

, her

find

ice i

1 the

g nor

g his

rrand

o for ockle

Eng

is no

man

cka

ony:

prea-

ent in

f you

gent,

m ve.

ll not

earne

Our learned Martyr Doctor Barnes, in his Supolication to King Henry the 8. p. 210. 211. writes: That it cannot be prooved by Scripture, that a man of the Church should have so great temporall possesfions as Bishops have. That they cannot by the Law of God have any Iurisdiction secular, and yet they challenge both powers. This is the Article that did bite you: for you cannot be content, with the office of a Bishop, but you will be also Kings. How that Standeth with Gods Law, or with your oath, I have declared to our noble Prince. And our Worthy Maror Master Iohn Freth, in his Answer to Master Moores Preface, p. 116. determines thus : But furely ince Sylvester received such possessions, hath the canker so crept in the Church, that it hath almost eft never a found member. Before that time there vas no Bishop greedy to take a Cure: For it was no honor and profit as it is now, but onely a carefull harge, which was like to cost him his life at one time 42 time or other. And therefore no man would take it, but hee that bare fuch a love and zeale to God, and his flocke, that hee could be content to fled his blood for them: But after that it was made fo hone. rable and so profitable, they that were worft, both in learning and living, most labored for it, for they that were vertuous would not intangle themselves, with the vaine pride of this world, and weare their Crownes of gold, where Christ did weare one d thornes. And in conclusion it came so farre, that who foever would give most money for it, or best could flatter the Prince (which hee knew all good men to abhorre) had the Preheminence, and got the bell Bishoricke. And then in steed of Gods word, the published their owne Commandements, and made Lawes to have all underthem, and made men be leive, they could not erre what ever they did or fayd And even as in the roomes and freed of Mofes . As ron, Iolue, Caleb, and other fuch faithfull folke came Herode, Annas, Caiphas, Pilate, and Indas which put Christ to death. So now insteed of Christ Peter, Paul, James and John, and the faithfull fol lowers of Christ, we have the Pope, Cardinals Archbishops, Bishops, and proud Prelates, with their Proctours, the Malicious Ministers of their mafter the Devill, whose end shall be according to their workes.

But perchance the Bishops (Wiho much abuse you Royall eares with misseports) will informe your Majest that all these forecised Writers and martyred Bishops, we Puritans and seditions persons: Be it so, (though a gross unituit

195 opp Lor of i tax Le Pro

d's

der of l car thy

Or

gre rifd Iuff pati weed ly fo pet foe not per pretion

Con

fuel

untruth, unleffe all be Puritans and feditious perfons, who oppose their ambitions , aspiring secular Tompe and Lord (hip:) yet let them heare on the contrary fome few of their owne stampe and creatures , whom they cannot taxe of any such crimes as these. " Othobon the Popes u Isamis de Legate, with a whole generall Councell of all the Aton. Com-Prelates and Clergie both of England and Ireland un-fitt. Othobder him , held at London , An. 1 2 68. published this ni.f. 69.70. decree: In as much as it is reputed a speciall decency of Ecclefiafticall honefty, to be farre eftranged from carnall actions; wee decree it a very hainous and filthy thing, that hands deputed to heavenly ministeries, should be entangled with secular affaires: Or that certaine Clerkes, feeking after earthly gaines and temporall Jurisdiction, through a foule and greedy rapine, doe receive from Laymen fecular Iurildiction, and be called Iuftices and doe minister Iustice, which they cannot minister without a diffipation and injurie of Ecclefiafticall order. Therefore wee, defirous to extirpate this horrible vice, straightly forbid all persons of Churches and Vicars with perpetuities, yea also all other maner of persons whatfoever placed in the Ministery, that they presume not to take any fecular Iurifdiction, of any fecular person, or to exercise the same, according to the precepts of holy Canons: By this prefent Constitution wee straightly inhibit, that none placed in spirituall warfare, prefume to exercise in the secular Court, the office of an Advocate, either in the cause of blood, or in any cause whatsoever, save onely in fuch causes as are permitted unto him by Law. And take

and his

ono.

thin

that with

their

who

ould

n to

bef

the

made

be.

fayd,

- Aa

olke

ndas|

hrift

1 fol

nals

with

ther

g to you.

ma

grof

ruit

F 2

wec

* Distinctio, wee likewise forbid that any Clergy man, be either 21 quest 3. Iudge, or an affessor. Divers Such Constitutions are y Deimmu- in x Gratian, J Lyndewoode, the Councels at large mitate Ecclef. * Ino Carnotenfis, and a other Canonifts, inhibilium.pars 5. ting Bishops and Clergy men to intermeddle with 6.7. passim- any secular offices or affaires, which for brevity sake! a Summa Angelicativ. Pretermit. Petrus Blesensis, Archdeacon of Bath , flow. €lericus : Et Jeannis Low rif bing about the yeare of our Lord, 1100. Writes thus to the gheconcius: Bishop of Bangor, concerning the Wealth and State of De vita ES Bishops: The Title of poverty is glorious with bonestare Chrift; and that which hath becomed the Sonne of Ecclefiafticerum. lib. «Epift.147 God, ought not to mil beseeme you. The Prince of b Alts. 3 6. the Apoltles and Prelates faith : Gold and Silver bave c Possidoneus I none. Yea that & Great famous Augustine (Bishop in Vita. of Hippo) therefore made no will, because the poore fervant of Christ had nothing at all, whereof to make any bequest. It is your duty to live of the Gospel as the Lord hath appointed, not to goe pompoully in the ornament of cloathes, in the pride of horses, in the multitude of attendants. It becomes you as a professor of preistly and Episcopall holines, to cut of all footsteps of your ancient conversation (Thus did & Aid Godwins Catalogue of dan the first Bishop of Durham, who for 17. yeares Bishops. fpace together travelled up and downe the Country 2.628. even on foote to preach the Gospel, giving whatfoever hee could get unto the poore : Whose footless our Prelates no vo disclaine to follow , no not en horsee.Bibl. Patrum. Tom. backe:) And in his . Treatife of the institution of a 12. pars. Bishop, dedicated to John Bishop of Worcester, bet P.942.943 writes against the Lordlines . Court fbip, and secular imployments imp the libe the

tud and

kno She bein to f

to 1 rath the near theo

thy ted huf

ling ma hy f

by fi hat

hat But

ern: not

ffair Iva

isch

imployments of Bif hops, especially those, which concerne the Eschequer: Certaine Bishops abusively call the liberality and almes of ancient Kings bestowed on them, Baronies, and Royalties, and themselves Barons, it being an occasion, of most shamefull fervirude. I am afraid, least the Lord complaine of them and fay : fThey have raigned , but not by me , they have forea. 8.4. made themselves Princes, but I know it not. Thou must know that thou haft taken upon thee the office of a Shepheard, not of a Baron. Certainely g Ioseph g Gen. 46. being in Ægypt, instructed his Father and Brethren 34. to fay to Pharaoh, Wee are Schepheards. Hee would ather have them professe the office of a Shepheard, then of a Prince or Baron. Christ faith, b I am the b Iohn. 10. good Shepheard : But thou art made by him a Shep- 11. heard or a steward; a stewardship is committed to thee, and know that thou must give an account of thy ftewardship. The hufbandry of God is commitred to thee, thou hast need a weeding hooke as an bul bandman, of a staffe as a Shepheard; of a weeding hooke that as the Sonne of a Prophet, thou maift pull up anddeftroy, build up and plant. Use thy staffe by driving the wolves from the Sheep fold, by fustaining the weake Sheepe, by raising up those that are fallen, by reducing those that have strayed. But among the fruites of thy Episcopall office, let eernall things be ever preferred before temporall. Let mother giude and dispatch thy temporall cares and faires for thee, but doe thou diligently attend the alvation of foules. The minde confecrated to the ischarge of divine service, ought to be free from world-

era

s are

arge

ribi.

with

akel

flon.

o the se of

with ne of ce of bave

hop

oure

nake

fpel

y in

the

pro-

f all

Ai-

ares

ntry

hat-

Aeps

orle-

of a

, bee

im-

worldly imployments. Thou art addicted to great things, be not taken up with the smalest. These things what ever they are, which tend to the gaine of the world, and pertaine not to the gaining of foules, are kx. Cor. 6.4 small and vile. If you shall have secular busines, & faith the Apostle , appoint those who are most contemptible wh among you to be ludges : Thou therefore, O good Pre late, fet all things after the Salvation of foules; For foules are as farre more worthy then bodies, and al things else that humane ambition caused, as heaven it selfe excels earth in dignity. Yet at this day with many Episcopall auctority confifts onely in this, the their plowlands be fatted with chalke and dung, that their fishponds be multiplied, that their Parkes and the bounds of their possessions be inlarged. In buil ding Pallaces, Mils, and Ovens. All the care of Pre lates is increasing their rents. What is it the voyceo our Saviour to the Prince of the Apostles and Pro lates, if thou lovest me, till thy lands, build high I John, 21. houses? wee read that hee faid to Peter, I If the lovest me, feed my sheep. Thou art the Heire and Vica of Peters feed my theep by preaching, doe the work of an Euangelist and shepheard: thou must not be ashamed of the Gospell, if thou beleivest, thou ough test not to be assamed of thy pastorall office. Be in stant thefore in feafon, out of feafon, fullfill the Ministry; Thy Ministry hath more of burthen, the of honor. If thou affecteft the honor, thou arts hireling; if thou imbraceft the burthen, the Lord able to increase his grace, that thou most receive gaines out of gaines, and profits out of profits.

17.

tho

the

Co

tha

can flip hor

haf

thir

hift

who

tho

vhe

hee

fron

hy

gain

and

with

negl

heve he r

men

train

Con he P

Roya

here

W cufto

plo

thou shalt drowne thy selfe in the † Labyrinthes of * Agood Court affaires, especially of the Eschequer, thou note for Bifshalt suffer great losses of spirituall exercise. " No man bops, that can ferve two Maisters, God and Mammon. Let it not Court and flip out of thy minde, how in the tonfure of thy head, Eschequer when as thou wast elected into the Lords portion, affaires. how thou haft renounced, the ignominy of Lay-im-24. ployments. But in the day of thy confecration, thou hast made solemne vowes to renounce all secular things and imployments, (as " our Bishops and Mi- " See the nifters, yet doe in the presence of God, and the Booke of orwhole Congregation) which have bound up thy lips, Confectation thou art obliged with the words of thy owne mouth, of Bifhops. when upon the interrogation of him, that confecrated thee, thou haft published without any exception, that from henceforth thou wouldeft extrange requester thy felfe from all worldly bufinettes, and dithonest gaines, and wouldest allwayes bend thy whole study, and care upon divine affaires. What haft thou to doe with the reuennues of the Eschequer, that shouldest neglect the care of foules, but for one short hower? What hath Christ elected thee to the receit of . Note this. custome? Matthew being once taken from thence heyer returned thither againe. Be not therefore in he route of those, who preferre worldly imployments before spirituall, swallowing a Camell, and training at a gnat. . Wee read that in the dayes of a Ruginus.

reat

ings

the

are

faith

tible

Pre-

For.

ndal

aver

with

the

tha

s and

buil

Pre

rceo

Pre

high

c 1ha

Vica

work

ot b ough

Be in

fillth

, the

arta

ordi

ecein

S. 1

tho

Constantine there were certaine Bishops, flattering c2. he Prince, who gave greater reverence and heed to Royall Edicts, then to Euangelicall precepts. And here are some Bishops now a dayes, to whom the

dif-

dispensation of Gods word is committed, who are filent from good things, dumbe doggs, neither able, nor yet willing to barke : they are turned into an evillbow, giving themselves up as weapons of ini. quity unto finne. This exasperated Gods wrath, and accumulates the danger of eternall damnation as any in . that certaine of the cheife Preifts and Elders of the people, although they pronounce not judge ments of blood, yet they handle the fame things by disputing and debating of them, and thinke them felves therefore free from blaime, that decreeing judgment of death, or truncation of members (which yet some of them of late have judicially given sentence of they ablent themselves onely from the pronuncia tion and execution of the poenall fentence. what is more pernicious then this diffimulation? Isi lawfull to difereffe and determine that, which it is no lawfull to pronounce? Verily Saul did many wave handle and plot the death of David, & that hee migh palliate his malice under the shadow of innocency hee fayd, P Let not my hand be upon him, but the hand of the Philistims be upon him. Verily as much as this diffimulation did excuse him with men, so much did it the more damnable accuse him with God. We have an expresse forme of similitude, in that Confistor wherein Christ was condemned to death: the Scribe and Pharifies fayd, I It is not la Wfull for us, to put a man to death; And yet when they cryed, faying, Cro cifie him, they pronounced a fentence of deat flew with the fword of the tongue, they protested against him with bloody malignity.

725

vas

ec

me

The

lics

ila

Pete

the!

Chr

in

DOX

reno

ente

ore

Bride

mple

cra

ps t arlia

mm

fub

this

doin

way

real

e fh

d fo

ongr

bdy.

Whom the

* Let the fe Prelates, who have had their voyces in fuch fentences, confider thin. 48

P 1.Kings. 18. 17.

9 Iobn. 18.

o are was not lawfull for them to flay, and their iniquity able, was in this very thing fo much the more detestable, to an because that they might escape the judgement of of ini. men, they covered it with a simulation of innocency. , and Thou art set over the soules of men, not their bosape des; the Prelate hath nothing that is common with ers of Filate. Thou art Christs Steward and the Vicar of adge Peter: neither oughtest thou to give an account of gs by the Jurisdiction committed to thee to Cæsar, but to hem Christ. Yet some Bishops by usurped offices and adinistrations of the world, make themselves obpoxious to the bend of the Court, and as if they had ce of enounced the priviledge of their dignity, expect the Intence of an harder event, &c. Thus and farre more this ancient Writer against the Wealth, Pompe, Pride, Lordship, Lordlines, Judicature and secular is no imployments of Bishops, even in his blinde age.

eeim

White

incia.

Bu

? Isi

waye

nigh

ency

ban

s thi ch did

have

ifton

cribe

ut as

CID

deat

the

tedi

W2

The Booke of Ordination of Ministers and con-Cration of Bishops, compiled and approoved by the Bisops themselves, ratified by t two severall Acts of ; 3. E.6. arliament, (lately printed by the Archbifhops speciall c.12. mmaund , with the Booke of Common Prayer , and 8. Eliz. c. I. fubscribed unto by all our Ministers, is most notable, *Canon.36. this purpose. For it prescribes all Bishops, When they daine Ministers to use this exhortation to them. Have wayes printed in your remembrance, how great a reasure is committed to your charge, for they be e sheep of Christ, which hee bought with his death, d for whom hee shed his blood. The Church and ongregation whom you must ferve, is his spouse and dy. And if it shall change the fame Church, or any member thereof, to take any hurt or hinderance by reason of your negligence, yee know the greatnes * By what Law of the of the fault, and also of the horrible punishment land then which will enfue. Wherefore confider with your can Bishops filence or felves the end of your Ministry towards the children Suspend Miof God, towards the spouse and body of Christ; and nisters, er See THAT YOU * NEVER CEASE TOVA put downe Lectures. LABOVR, TOVR CARE, AND DILL o: afternoone GENCE, untill you have done all that lyeth in you, Sermons at according to your bounden duty, to bring ALL their pleafure, whom SVCH AS ARE OR SHALL BE COMthis Booke MITTED TO YOUR CHARGE, untothat confirmed by Parliaripenelle or perfectnelle of age in Christ, that there ment enjoynes them be no place left among them, either for error in religion, or for vitiousnes of life. (And What Trelate or never to cease their Minister hath done this ?) And for this felf fame labor, care, cause, yee see how yee ought to forsake and set a side and diligence? &c. (as much as you may) + A L L WORLDLT + See an CARES AND STVDIES. Wee have good excellent hope, that you have well weighed and pondered Paffige in Martin Buthese things with your selves long before this time, cer, De Orand that you have clearely determined by Gods grace dinatione to give your felves WHOLLT to this vocation, Legitima Ministrowhereunto it hath pleafed God to call you, so that (as rum, &c. in his Scripta much as lyeth in you) you apply your felves WHOLLT Anglicana, to this one thing, and draw * ALL TOVR CARE De Regno

mem-

Christi. 1.2 c 12. * I would those Prelates and Ministers would consider this who draw all their care and studies the quite contrary way.

an

yo

ail

an pe

yo

tie

WC

of

yo

do

C

R

C

the

all

Th

re

as

th

10,

Bi

do

fol

fui po

an

* How well

and STVDT this way and to this end. And that you will CONTINVALLT pray for the heavenly affiltence of the Holy Ghoft, that by dayly reading and weighing of the Scriptures, you may fo wax riper and ftronger in your Ministery. And that this your promise shall more moove you to doe your duties, yee shall answere plainely to these things, which we in the name of the Congregation shall demaund of you touching the same. The Bishop. Will you give your faithfull diligence alwayes to minister the doctrine and Sacraments, and the discipline of Chrift, as the Lord hath commaunded, and as this Realme hath received the fame, according to the Commaundements of God, fo that you may teach the people, committed to your cure and charge, with all diligence to keepe and observe the same?

e by

tnes

nent

your

dren

and

VR

LI.

you,

LL

that

here

re-

te or

ame

fide

LI

boot

ered

me,

race

ion,

(25

LLT

RE

g gobe

and

Answere. I will so doe by the helpe of the Lord. The Bishop. Will you be diligent in prayers and in reading of the holy Scriptures, and in such studies as helpe to the knowledge of the same, laying aside the # studie of the world and the sless?

Answere. I will endeavour my selfe so to doe, the State-Pro-Lord being my helper. The like exhortation is given lates, Bps, to, and the like promise made by all Archbishops, and Ministers thinks you Bishops, when they are consecrated, before all the performe thin congregation present. Are not such Prelates therefore serious prodoublely perjured both to God, and man, who breake these thinks upon solemne publike protestations, by neglecting their spirituall it? functions and preaching, by silencing, suspending the most powerfull frequent preachers, by putting downe Lectures and Lecturers, and by giving themselves principally, if not Gelly, folaly to fecular offices, imployments, Pompe, State, and Lordlines, contrary to the fe their covents, and to their volvin baptisme also, * to forsake the Devill and all his workes, the vaine Pompes and glory of the world, with all the covetous and finfull defires of the flesh, which they now most hunt after. Vndoubtedly they are, and that in the highest degree. Wherefore me thinkes, when ever they confecrate Ministers or Bishops, and repeate thefe wordes, they should Strike them with confusion and amazement. Not to mention Thomas Becon bis Supplication , f. 23. Where hee complaines , that in Queen Maries dayes the idolatrous Preists and Prelates of England did alone ruff le, and raigne, & beare the fwinge in the Court, and that they alone had the keyes of the English Kingdome hanging at their girdle, and were mightier then King, Queen, Lords, and that is besides. But how (faith hee) agreeth this with the example of Christ, which fled away when the people would have made him a King or a temporall Governour? Christ refused to meddle with temporall or any worldly matters, as the history of dividing the inheritance between the 2. brethren doth declare. Christ willed his Disciples to refuse all worldly dominion, & temporall rule, when they ftrove among them who should be the greatest. Christ fayd unto them: The Kings of the Gentiles raigne over the, &c. But you shall not be so, &c. Christ sent not his Difciples to be Lords of the Councell, Lords of the Parliament, Lord Prefident, Lord Chauncellour, Lord Bifhop, Lord Suffragane, Lord Deane, Mafter Queenes Amner, Sir Iohn Massemonger, &c. But to be Minifters.

* See the Forme of Baptisme in she Booke of Common-Prayer.

fte

ha

fo

ne

an

no

off

th

ju

tal

ci

ho

eh

in

Bi

je

bo

as

fic

th

th

a

to

OU

an

du

an

la

th

fters and disposers of the Misteries of God, to be preachers of the Gospel, to be labourers in the Lords harvest, &c. But these things, O Lord, have they all forgotten. These ambitious Antichrists are so drowned in vaine glory, and in the defire of filthy lucher and wordly promotion, that they neither regardGod. nor the higher powers, neither esteeme they their office, nor any one point of Godlines and honesty. that they neither thinke of the dreadfull day of judgment, nor yet remember themselves to be mortall: Their whole study in the time of this their Luciferlike pride is nothing elfe, but to suppreffe thy holy truth, and to advaunce, and fet up their Antichristian Kingdome, that they as Gods may sit alone in the consciences of men, &c. Mr. Elmer, afterwards Bishop of London, in his Harborow for faithfull Subjects, printed at Straelborough, wrotes thus against Bifhops civill authority, and Lordlines, and Wealth: Chrift faith Luke 12. Who made me a Judge between you? as though hee would fay, it belongeth not to my office to determine matters of policy, and inheritance; that belongeth to the civill Magistrate. If hee had thought it had beene within the compasse of his function, why, and with what conscience refused hee to fet them at one, who were at strife, and to put that out of doubt which was in fuite? If hee might doe it, and would not, hee lacked charity, and did not his duty. If it belonged not to him, how belongeth it to any of his Disciples or Successours? Had hee not as large a Commissi n as hee gave? Or could hee give that hee had not? But hee knowing his office, as the Pro-

and

beir

all

the

the

tedly

me

ops,

con-

con it in

re-

the

heir

rds,

way

ora

ory

ren

ove

hē,

Dif-

lia-

Bif-

nes ini-

ers

54 Prophet Efay had foretold, to preach the Gospell. would doe nothing without warrant. And therefore being asked if hee were a King, answered simply. and by a plaine negative, My Kingdome is not of this world. If his Kingdome was not here, neither the ordering of Policies; yea when they would have taken him up to have made him a King, as one that * refu. *Few of our fed that belonged not to him , hee conveyed him. felfe from among them. If imperial I urifdiction be. refuse such a longed to him, why refused hee his calling? If it did not, where had Paul, Peter, or any other, any authority to meddle with that which hee refused? Seeing, hee faith; As my Father fent me, fo fend I you. another place, Christ knowing the bounds of his cal. ling, would not meddle with externe policy. Hence Bishops me thinkes by his example, should not give themselves too much the bridle, and too large a t See Bucer, scope, t to meddle too farre with matters of policy. If these two offices, I meane Ecclesiasticall and civill Christi: 1.2. be so jumbled in both functions, there can be no quiet or well ordered Common-wealth. Christ saith to his Disciples : Trinces of the Nations doe beare rule like Lords , it shall not be so with you. It falleth not into an Apostles or Churchmans office, to meddle with fuch matters. For none going to warre, imangleth him. selfe with the affaires of this life; it is enough for them to attend upon one office; to attend as fole Preifts, not as Errant Bayliffes. (And elfe Where in that Booke het proceedes thus:) Come off ye Bishops away with your superfluities; yeeld up your thousands, be content with hundreds, as they be in other reformed profer.

Prelates

De Regno

s, 12.

bec feed whe him give fupe

Ch

YOU

PR

the

ma

the

pre

por

that tho ded with

poo Ter ter: Ten

gold Lor hisn

fmal lates ceff joyn

10 be great

Churches,

Churches, where there be as great learned men as you are. LET TOVR PORTION BE PREISTLIKE, NOT PRINCELIKE. Let the Queene have the rest of your temporalties, to maintaine warres, and to build Schooles throughout the Realme, that every parish Church may have its preacher, every City her Superintendent to live not pompoully: which will never be, unleffe your be disposed and bestowed upon many, which now feed and fat but one. Remember that Abimelech, when David in his banishment would have dined with him kept fuch hospitality, that hee had no bread to give him, but the Shewbread. Where was all his superfluity to keep your pretented hospitality? for that is the cause that you alleadge, you must have thousand thousands; as though you were commaunded to keepe hospitality, rather with a thousand then with a hundred: Remember the Apostles were so poore, that when the lame * man, who lay at the *ARs.3.1. Temple-gate called Beautifull, asked an almes of Pe- 107. ter and lohn, as they went about to goe into the Temple, Peter answered him in this maner: Silver and gold have I none. And Paul was so farre from having Lordthips, that his owne hands ministred oft times to his necessities. If the Apostles of our Saviour had so fmall poffessions and revenues, why should our Prelates, who boalt themselves to be their proper Succeffours, enjoye or couet fo great? When as Paul enjoynes them, if they have but foode and raiment there with to be content , godlinesse alone with contentment being great gaine, and a sufficient portion. This prooves the Saying ell,

ereply,

t of the

ken efu.

im-

be.

did

ho-

ing,

cal.

ence give

gea licy.

ivil

e no faith

erule into

with him-

hem

eifts,

e hee

your tent

med hes,

In

faying of Doctor Barnes most true, in his Supplication to King Henry the 8. against the Bishops, p. 211. They fay they be the Successors of Christ and his A. postles; but I can see them follow none but Iudas. for they beare the purse, and have all the money, And ifther they had not fo great possessions, I am fure an hundred would speake against them, where now dare not one, for loffe of promotion. Iudas fold our Mafter but once, and yesell him as often as hee commeth in your hands. In the Acts and Monuments of our Martyrs, f. 1796. I finde this Dialogue between Sir Iohn Baker, Collins his Chaplaine, and Edmund Allina Martyr. Baker. I heard fay, that you fpake against Preists and Bishops. Allin. I spake for them. for now they have fo much living, and especially Bishops, Archdeacons, and Deanes, that they neither can nor will teach Gods word. If they had a hundred poundes a peece, then would they apply their study, now they cannot for other affaires. Col. lins. Who will then fet his children to schoole? Allin. Where there is now one fet to schoole for that end, there would be 40. because that one Bishops living divided into 30. or 40. parts, would finde fo many as well learned men as the Bishops be now, who have all this living, neither had Peter nor Paul any fuch re-Baker. Let us dispatch him, hee will mare Collins. If every man had a hundred pounds, as hee faith, it would make moe learned men. Baker. But our Bishops would be angry, if that they knew it, Allin. It were for a Common-wealth to have fuch Bishoprickes divided, for the further increase of learning.

nin his W Ros late cut Th tio of l cy: wel Pal his pen

dela

Biff prii pre barr Bulh as th but ply o ofte and fhall Saur W

write to be

ning. Nicholas Bullingham, Bishop of Lincolne, in his printed Letter to Mafter Bull, December s. 1564. porites thus from Embden , where hee arrived after many flormes: Would God Mafter Bull, that all the Prelates of England had beene with me, when we fell to cutting of Cables, riding at anchor in the raging Seas. There would have beene tearing of fquare Caps, renting of Rochets, defying of Bishoprickes, despising of Pompe, promising of new life; crying for mercy: O what a Tragedy would there have beene? Well, well, though now they walke drie shoode in their Pallaces, there is a God that will trie them and all his people by fire or by water, unleffe we heartily repent. Grace to repent, graunt us, O Lord, without delay. Amen, Amen.

lica-

211.

is A.

udas:

ney.

am

here

fold

hee

ents

ween

nund

pake

hem,

cially nei.

had a

apply

Col.

Allin.

end,

iving

my as ve all

h re-

narre

ds, as

. But

wit,

fuch

lear-

ning.

Doctor Bridges, Deane of Sarum, afterwards Bishop of Oxford, a great Champion for the Prelates; writing against the Papists in defence of the Princes Supremacy , hath thefe words: c Christ hath put fuch a c Of the barre between Bishops and Princes, that his spiritual Princes Su-Bishops cannot have earthly Kingdomes. And where- p. 926. as the Papifts held; that the Pope was not properly but improperly a Lord; hee replieth: Christ simply debarreth all his spirituall Ministers from ruling of the true

These words strike dead Master Subjection, shall not doe fo. Saunders; yea our Lordly Prelates too. Doctor Bilfon christian * Warden , and shorely after Bishop of Winchester Rebellion , writes thus: Christ expresly forbiddeth his Apostles P. 126, 129 to be rulers of Nations. The Kings of the Nations

н of temporall Kingdomes. Christ hath both properly between and unproperly debarredthem. Vos autem non fit. You Christim rule

58: rule over the people, &c. but with you, it shall not be In which words Christ doth not traduce the power of Princes as unjust, but distinguished the cal. ling of the Apostles from the maner of regiment, which God hath allowed the Magistrate, Christ saith not Princes are tyrants, you shall deale more courte. oufly: but hee faith: Princes be rulers by Gods or. dinance; you shall not be so: that is, you shall neither beare rule, nor exercise authority over your brethren. After which hee prooves that the Greeke word  are xuguluses is not meant of any unjust or ty. rannicall rule; but Christ in this text doth thereby diftinguish the calling of his Apostles from the maner of lawfull regiment, which God hath allowed the And therefore (faith hee) the con-Magistrate. clusion is inevitable, that Princes may lawfully compell and punish their Subjects, but Bishops may not, The distinction between them is evident by their fe-prisoners , and oppresfors of all èsbers.

+ Rom. 13. † Prince, not the Preift beareth the fword: Ergo, the fMatth. 26 Prince not the Preist is Gods Minister to avenge Mag I. Tim. 3 lefactors. Peter f himselfe was sharply rebuked b.Math.24. by Chrift for using the sword: and in Peter all Paston * Astoma- and Bilhops are straitly charged, not to meddle with doe now, who it. All that take the fword, shall perish with the sword, are she grea- And of all men & a Bishop must be no friker. test strikers, if hee, that should feed his Maisters household, b fall to striking, he shall have his portion with hypocrites. The fervants of God must be gentle towards all, instructing (not * imprisoning) those that refish with mildnes, not compelling any with I harpnes.

verall Commissions, which God hath signed. The

Their

The

vord oo k

OD

he p eacl or re

s, pu bunit

heir

Bilbo

Dear

ubfla

22.4

third

ified

into

by y

com

ive(

& pro

more more

ee u all m

PRI

Arch of Er

dedica

allth

refola

Their function is limited to the preaching of the word, and dispensing of the Sacraments, which have to kinde of compulsion in them, but invite men onely by fober perswasions to beleive and imbrace + 2, Tim. 2. the promises of God. To conclude , Pastors may and 4. each, exhort, and reproove, not force, commaund, or revenge : onely Princes, be Governours, that s, publike Magistrates, to prescribe their Lawes, and bunish by their sword, such as resist them within heir dominions, which Bishops may not doe. Ind k Bishop Alley, with Master k Poore mans Bishop Bilson. Deane ! Novell before him , use the selfesame words in Library, ubflance, interpreting that text of Math. 20. and Luke. Tom 2. 2, as bee bath done. To conclude thefe testimonies. The I Reproofe of third part of the Homily of the Perill of Idolatry, ra- Dorman, ified by the 35. Article of our Church , Subscribed 57. 48. anto by all our Trelates and Ministers , and reprinted by your Majesties and your Royall Fathers speciall commaund; recites f. 59. That Bishops in the primiiveChurch, did most diligently and sincerely teach, & preach: For they were then preaching Bift ops, and more often feene in Pulpits then in Princes Pallaces; more often occupied in his Legacy, who faid: Goe vee unto the whole world, and preach the Gofpell to all men, then in Embaffages and AFFAIRES OF PRINCES OF THIS WORLD. Yea all the Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, and Clergy m Chapter of of England, in their Institution of a Christian man, Orders. dedicated by them to King Henry the S. subscribed with Fox Alis & alltheir names, and printed cum Privilegio, An. 1537. Edit. 1610. resolve thus: m Wee thinke it convenient, that all p.971.

H 2

Bif-

ot be

e the

e cal.

ient,

aith

urte.

s or.

nei

your

eeke

r ty.

reby

aner

the

con-

om.

not,

r fe.

The

the

Ma-

iked

tors

with

ord,

For

fall

tes,

all,

efift

nes.

heir

Bishops and Pastors shall instruct and teach the people, committed unto their spirituall charge; that Christ did by expresse words prohibit, that none of his Apostles, nor any of their Successors, should under the pretence of authority, given unto them by Christ, take upon them the authority of the fword, that is to fay, the authority of Kings, or of any civill power in this world, year or any authority to make Lawes, or ordinances in causes, apertaining unto civill powers. If any Bishop, of what estate or dignity foever heebe, be hee Bilhop of Rome, or of any other City, Province, or Diocesse, doe prefume to take upon him authority or Iurifdiction, in causes or matters, which appertaine unto Kings, and the civill powers and their Courts, and will maintaine or thinke, that hee may fo doe by the authority of Christ and his Gospell, although the Kings and Princes would not permit and fuffer him fo to doe. No doubt that Bishop is not worthy to be called a Bishop, but rather a tyrant, and a usurper of other mens rights, contrary to the Lawes of God, andis worthy to be reputed none otherwise, then hee that goeth about to fubvert the Kingdome of Christ. For the Kingdome of Christ in his Church is spirituall. and not a carnall Kingdome of the world: that is to fay, the very Kingdome that Christ by himselfe, or by his Apostles and Disciples sought here in this world, was to bring all nations from the carnall Kingdome of the Prince of darknes unto the light of his spirituall Kingdome, and so himselfe raigne in the hearts of the people by grace, faith, hope, and chari-

60 th di R an do

cl

ar an de m wi

le la hi

ba

Do As

ho

of Be

th (b

charity. And therefore fith Christ did never feeke nor exercise any worldly Kingdome, or dominion in this world, but rather refusing and fleeing the fame. did leave the faid worldly governance of Kingdomes, Realmes and Nations, to be governed by Princes and Potentates (in like maner as hee did finde them) and commaunded also his Apostles and Disciples to doethe femblance; whatfoever Preift or Bishop will arrogate, or prefume upon him any fuch authority, and will pretend the authority of the Gospell for his defence therein, hee doth nothing elfe ; (but in a maner as you would fay) crowneth Chrift againe with a crowne of thornes, and traduceth and bringeth him forth againe with his mantle of purple upon his backe to be mocked and fcorned of the world, as the lewes did to their owne damnation. Thus all our Prelates and Clergy (and ofter them King Henry the 8. in his necessary Erudition for any Christian man, authorized and approoved by the Satute of 32. H. 8.c.26. the Lords spirituall and temporall & the Netherhowse of Parliament, An. 1345. Where the same Words are verbatim repeated) refolve , contrary to the Doctrine and Suggestions of their present Successors. As the Doctrine , fo the practofe like wife of our most ambitions domineering Prelates, condemnes the fuggestions + Matthew of our fecular Bishops : It is recorded of * Thomas Paris. Hift. Becket, that greate trainer and turbulent Archbishop Major. p.94. of Canterbury, who fet the whole Kingdome in a long com - Ecclef Brie. bustion, had yet so much conscience, and divinity in him, p. 122. Godthat being installed Archbifnop of Canterbury, wins Cata-(being but a meere Deacon before,) hee voluntarily hops: p. 88.

peo-

that

Done

bluo

hem

f the

fany

ty to ning

te or

OT

pre-

1, in

, and

taine

ty of

and

doe.

led a

ther

ndis

that

For

uall,

is to 10,

this

mall

ight

e in

and

ari-

H 3

re-

62 refigned and gave over his Lord Chauncellourf hip of England, fending the great Seale to the King, who was then in Normandy, together with a Letter wherein hee certified him, That hee could not ferve the Church & the Court both at once: & therefore he refigned this his teporall office, as incompatible with Annalium, his spirituall. Wee read * that when Hubert, Arch-2.767.768 bif hop of Canterbury, was made Lord Chauncellour, 779. Antiq. cheife Iustice of England, and high Governour of all Ecclef Brit, the Kings Dominions immediately under him, that 140, 142, hee was much blamed, and that not unworthily, and 143. Speeds no leffe envied for taking these offices upon him: in fo much that a Noble man faid unto him in fcorne, at what time hee was made Chauncellor, I have heard of many Chauncellours made Bif hops, but of an Archbishop, that would vouchfate to stoop to the Chauncellors hip, till now I never heard of any, (for most Bishops that were Treasurers and Chauncellors, were first such Lay - officers, and Lay-men to, and then made Bif hops for a reward of their fervice or better maintenance; not first Bishops, and then made Treasorers, Chauncellers, and such like temporall officers.) Whereupon within two yeares after his advauncement to these high places, the better to excuse his ambition, hee made a dissembling and counterfeit thew of being defirous to have his tem-porall offices, in so much as hee dealt effectually with the King by letters, to give them leave to refigne them, faying, That the charge of his Church would gladly dedicate himselfe. This hee did affuring himselfe in his owne conceit, that the King knowing 1 Yet our great Prewas worke enough for one man, whereunto onely hee Tases thinke mot fo.

History,

P.550.

101

as h

inti

thir

lon

inh

nat

in l oft

the

COL

offi

his

wit

me

wh

tin

of

for

wh

Bu

Lo

to

co

me

wi

of

do

fu

in

all

no man about him fo likely, to manage those affaires as himselfe, and not being able to want him, would intreat him to retaine them still : But the King thinking his motion reasonable, and not willing longer to deny it, the Archbishop thus taken tardy in his owne fnare, as though his minde and determination were fuddenly altered, fignified unto the King in letters, that notwithstanding his great defire of betaking himselfe onely to spirituall matters, and the manyfold infirmities of his age , hee would be content to afford his labour and diligence in his other offices yet a while longer, if therein hee might doe his Majesty any profitable service, acquainting him with all, that in these two yeares, fince his perferment, hee had gathered for his use 1 100000, markes which hee was ready to pay into his coffers, augmenting (it is like) the fumme; and adding thereto out of his his owne purfe, that fo hee might in cleanly fort buy againe those honorable and gainefull offices, which his fubtile diffimulation had almost lost him. But the King not long after, upon a petition of the Lords in Parliament , thrust him out of these offices: to which when he was againe restored; the Pope upon complaint by the Monkes of Canterbury of his intermedling in civill affaires, presently enjoyned him without further delay, to refigne all his temporall offices; which hee (how loath foever) was faine to doe; the Pope affuring him, that hee would neither fuffer him, nor any other Bishop or Clergy man to intermeddle in temporall affaires, commaunding all Prelates of the Church, upon their Canonicall obe--

fhip

who

etter

crve

re he

with

rch.

our,

fall

that

and

in ard

an

the

for el-

to,

ice

en

nter

er

nd

n-

ly

eee

g

0

obedience, not to take upon them any temporall offices, because being intangled in secular businesses, they could not possible sufficiently discharge their spiritual functions; for as the wise man saith: Pluribus intentus minor est ad singular sinsus.

Hence Wasit, that + Thomas Arundell, fo foone as +Godwins Catalogue of ever hee was made Archbihop of Canterbury, pre-Bil bops, p.152.602 fently thereupon gave over his Chauncellourship 1Godmin.lb. of England, as unable to discharge both. † Iohn Stafford , who fucceeded him in that See, P.158. though hee held that office long, yet at last waxing weary of fo painefull a place, hee voluntarily refigned his Chauncelloribip of England, as incompatible with his spirituall function, and an impediment to his discharge thereof. So * Iohn Totham, Ibid.p.267. Bishop of Ely, a wife and vertuous man, but very unlearned, was made Chauncellour of England, Anno 1317. in which office hee continued but two yeares, and then voluntarily gave it over, after which being made Treasurer, hee (out of conscience,) refigned that place within a twelve moneth, and betooke himselfe altogether to the government of his Church, his more honorable and proper function: Teathat ambitious, proud Cardinall and Archbishop of Yorke, Thomas † Woolsie, who wholly merged t sodwin. Lid p.621, himfelfe in fecular off ices and flate affaires, falling into disgrace, put from his places, attainted into a Præmunire, and last of all arrested of high treason, confidering his former ourses, and Gods just judgement on him for them, brake out into these words, being the last hee uttered: If I had served God as diligently

25 as I

me c

REI

flud

my

of h

lates

may

of D

fait ;

The

worl

28. B

affair

altog

occu

term

peop

most mor

here

and C

which

Prelat

ither

ccula

ituall

un/his

ed you

65 as I have done the King, hee would not have given me over in my gray haires ; but this is THE JVST REWARD, that I must receive for the paines and study, I have had to doe him fervice, not regarding my fervice, to God, fo much as the fatisfying of his pleasure. A good lesson for all our Court Prelates , no we guilty of the selfesame offence ; of whome wee may fay, as " William Parnus once did of Hugh, Bishop * Antiquie, of Duresme, Istis mundus non crucifixus, fed infixus Eccles. Bris. fait; and not as Paul writes of himselfe. Gal. 6. 14. P. 138. The world is crucified unto me , and I unto the world; many of them being now too like # Walter the # Goderine 28. Bilhop of Durham, who attending more worldly Catalogue, affaires, then the charge of his flocke, gave himselfe p.637.638 altogether to temporall businesse, wherein hee wholy De Gesta occupied himselfe, becoming a temporall Judge, de-Pontificum termining all causes at his pleasure, oppressing the Anglia. 1, 3. people, and taking still the course, that might be 1.277. most for his owne gaine; which made him fo odious mong the common people, that at last they murhered both himselfe and his cheife agents, Luswyn and Gilbert, even in the very Church it selfe, to: which they fled for fanctuary. If then these ambitious relates in the very night of Popish darkenes, have thus other voluntarily or coactively relinquished these their ccular imployments , as incompatible with their fiituall, should not ours no much more doe it in this cleare unshine of the Gospell? yes verily. I have thus long detailped your Majesty with these domestique authorities, and examples

of-

es,

eir eas

re-

hip

And

ee,

ing

re-

m.

di-

am,

un-

nno

two fter

te,

be-

his

ion:

hop

rged

ræ-

on-

ent

eing

ntly

*Fox ARIS examples (10 which + infinit others might be added) Monuments that so you might discorne , What difference there is passim. Hen- betweens the judgements and opinions, and practife ry Stalbridge of our present over swaying secular Prelater, and these than tory Bpiftle, more moderate Predecoffors (whom they cannot charge mEpifle to with Puritauifine Novelty or faction , as they des all Queene Bli- fuch who now concurre in judgement wish them) and bon Nicholan de dangerous, unla vofult, and permicious it is both in regard Clemangu: of Church & State; for Archbishops, Bifbops or other Clergy men to exercise temporall dominion, or manage temporall Ecclefia Statu Illyri- offices and State-affaires; which Auctors, Bifhops, Marem. Catalogue syrs, where they now alive, and fhould write or speake thus risati. The much , they would finde such little Land and applause mas Beacon among our Pontificall Prelates , wit would be a greater in Supplica- question, to which Dungeon they should be forth with reports of committed close Prisoners, then whether they flould escape unpunished, unpersecuted by them. certaine men. Mar. As thase writers, so the Godly Emperors heretofon tyn Bucer de men. Mar.

tyn Bucer de

As thase writers, so the Godly Emperors heretofore Regno

were so farre from imploying Bishops and Clergy men in Christi. 1.2. temporall State-affaires, that n Honorius and Theoented to dosius the Emperors enacted this Law: It is our graking Edward the cious pleasure, that Clergy men shall have no comward the munion with publike sunctions or things pertaining

Courts
Ofcrium. 3 f. 243. to 253. 292. 293. 294. Doctor Barnes his Supplication to King Henry the 8. p. 210. 211. 212. Iohn Frith his Answere so Mafter Matter Profus, ps. 1 1 6. Master Whethenhall his Discourse of the Corruptions now in question. The Supplication to King Henry the 8. An. 1544. In Institutan Codicis, tib. 1. In Episcoph & Clericis, 17. 36, 40.

to

V

th

nt

fo

200

m

of

C

M

W

for

by

an

of

m

in

or

lo

be

co

fon

abi

wit

fho oth oug De

fuc

to the Court, unto whose body they are not incorporated: And Iustinian the Emperor decreed; That Bps thould not be fuffered to take upon them the oversight of any orphane, or to be a receiver, or gatherer of charges belonging to the treasure, or to take upon them publike or other mens possessions, that fo their ministry might not be hindred ; yea hee promulged this ensuing Law: Wee repeating our proclamation thinke it good , not onely that the Judges of every tribunall, but that the governours of the Churches of this excellent City, among whom this MOST FILTHY KINDE * OF PROOVING * Probate of WILLES OF DEAD MEN hath crept in, be wills, anforewarned that they meddle not with a thing, which longed not to by the disposition of our Lawes, appertaine not in Ecclesiastiany wife to any other , then onely to the Maister call Courts. of our revenues. For it is abfurd, year ather an ignominy for Cleargy men, to thew themfelves cunning in common pleadings. And the transgressors of this ordinance wee deeme, shall be punished with the loffe of so. pound of gold : yes (faith the Gloffe,) because a litle gaine was given for probate of wills, covetous Cleargy men have usurped them. The reafon of the Lawes is thus elfe where expressed: . It is a great o Codex, De abfurdity, that offices should be mingled together Testa I. De without order or confideration , and that one man nalia, Codex should eacth a thing committed to the credit of an- De Dona. other. Wee thinke that the deceit of these men L. Se. ought to be met with, who under pretence of being Deanes or Collegiate men, when they performe no fuch duty; endeavour by reason of other charges, (doi)

re û actife

shoir

barge

PE all

bon

gard

lergy

orall

2 hau

laufe

easer Boish

ould

fore

n in reo-

graom-

ing

King

The

£0

1

* Regifter

pars I.

179.6.

184.b.

to withdraw themselves; that none under color of some one office, which hee doth not execute, might be eased of the weight and burden of an office, which by duty hee should execute. But to returne bone The very + Common Law of England bath againe. provided a speciall writ, inhibiting Cleargy men to fol. 187.b. See f. 1751 be elected to any temporall office or imployment, and discharging them thereof in case, they are elected; quia non est confonum, &c. because it is not tifebefered meet, that hee, who hath the † Cure of foules, and is fon hold good to give perpetuall attendanceon his cure, and other in those who pious spirituall services, ad insistendum alibi in secula. Cure, much ribus negotiis compellatur; should be compelled to more in Bif- imploy himselse in secular affaires elsewhere; CO N. hops who TRA LEGEM ET CONSVETVDINEM bave fo mamy flockes to REGNI NOSTRI, contrary to the Law, and assend and Custome of our Realme. A cleave resolution, That supervise. Cleargy-mens intermeddling with secular offices and af.

faires, is contrary to the very Common Law, and Custome of the Realme, and a very unseemly thing. * Mathew Parker, Archbifbop of Canterbury , in the life 4 Antiquitaces Ecclefie of Hubert his predeceffor , records ; that about the yeare

Brit.p. 139 of our Lord, 1197. there was nothing found and 140. 141. fincere in the Christian republicke : that the whole Cleargy under a feined and counterfeit shew of religion, did wallow without punishment in wicked. neffes, in bribes, in honors and rapines, neglecting utterly the preaching of Gods word. The original (Saith hee) of this evill sprung from this , that the Cleargy did too much intermeddle with worldly af. faires, contrary to the Decrees of the orthodox Fathers.

ther

mad

quic

into

ted

сгат

blia

nish

fed

mon

voy

writ

of t

ving

and all r grav

tere

upo

Car

amp

that

Tre

fron

time

han

Iuft

had

litie

hon

to.1

thers. For at that time the Deane of Paules was made Lord Treasurer; who carrying that office, quickly hourded up a great treasure; at last falling into a deadly disease past recovery, hee was exhorted by the Bishops and great men to receive the Sacrament of Christs body and blood, which hee trembling at refused to doe; whereupon the King admonished and commaunded him to doe it , hee promifed him thereupon to doe it the next day : being admonithed to make his will, hee commaunded all to vovd the rome but one scribe, + Who beginning to + Astrong write his will in the accustomed formes, in the name of Cleary of the Father, of the Sonne, &c. the Deane percei- Lord Treaving it, commaunded him in a rage to blot it out, Surer, who and these words onely to be written: † I bequeath like Indas, all my goods to my Lord the King, my body to the Treasurer & grave, and my foule to the Devill; which being ut- Baggebeatered, hee gave up the Ghost. * The King here-defpaire. upon commaunded his carcase to be carried into a t Lego Cart, and drowned in the river. This fort of ex-omnia bona amples (writes bee) are therefore to be produced, Regi, corpus that Cleargy men may be deterred from being Lord seputina, Treasurers, Collectors of the Kings Customes, and Diaboto Quo from civill and publike imployments. In Huberts dielo expiratime all fecular offices almost were in Cleargy-mens vit, So. hands; for fome of them were Chaunfellours, fome Iuftices, fome Treasurers of the Kingdome; others had other offices in all the Kings Courts, and pluralities of many great livings befides: which wealth, honours, offices, and dignities, as it made them like to Kings in state and magnificence; so it puffed

olor

ight

hich bome

bash

n to

ent,

are

not

nd is

ther

cula.

d to

2 N.

E M

and That

laf-

and

ing.

lafe

care

and

hole

re-

red.

ting

nall

the af-

Faers.

70 them up with fuch pride and arrogance, that in the 36. yeare of King Henry the third, they were re-*See Niche- mooved from all civill offices and honours, at the inlau de Cle- ftant request and desire of the greatest Noblemen, to Corrupto Ec - whom the same offices were committed. Hence elesia statu: some of all orders in our present times , have most c. 17. 18. sharply * reprehended the Cleargy for this very 19.an excellent Dif-thing, that being advanced to the degree of divini ty, then which nothing in humane life ought to be courfe againft Bps, intermedling deemed more holy, they should be hindred then in temporal from with secular businesses, as with servile workes, bearing civill and being withdrawen from divine things, should give themselves to pecuniary and exchequer affaire offices. most estranged from the dignity which are Henry Stallbridge of their life, by which some (as appeares by tory Epifile, the example of that Dean of Paules) have made against the shipwrack both of Conscience and soule to. Wilhel. pompish Po- mus Nubrigensis speaking of Hugh, Bishop of Duof England, refine, for intermeddling with the procuration of temporall affaires, hath these words: That office(to bers of their wit, of Lord Chauncellour or cheife justice) was Father the committed by the King to the Bishop of Duresme, great Anti- who did not fo much as refuse, but chearfully imchrist of Rome, writ-brace it; who verily contenting himselfe with his proten in King per office, had much more decently beene a Minister Henry thes. of Gods Law, then of mans; fince no man can ferve and the Sup- both, as hee ought. And that faying of our Lord to the Apostles, yee can not ferve God and Mammon, did plication to King Henry principally respect the Apostles Successors. For if a Bithop that hee may pleafe both the heavenly and 1544. earthly King, at once will devide himselfe to both offices:

fice

Thou

and

love

will not thin

COIT

tion

or P nifte

fent that wor

flow repr

unju

tem

divi mig

* in

at a ofth

fron

Cle

thei contr

very

and . usur j (whi

fices : Verily the heavenly King, who wills that men should ferve him with all the heart, with all the foule, andwith all the ftrenght, doth neither approove, nor love, nor accept his divine ministry. will hee doe, if a Bilhop doth not give peradventure not fo much as haffe of himselfe to execute the things which are of God, and become a Bishop; but committs his cures to unworthy and remisse executioners, that hee may wholy ferve an earthly Court or Palace ? For no halfe man can fufficiently adminifter the offices of an earthly Prince. By which fentences and examples wee verify are admonished, that affiduous care and study of Cleargy men, in worldly and civill affaires, which makes them proove flow and unfit to divine things, is by all meanes to be reprooved, and that the complaint of those is very unjust, who tax them for not intermeddling with temporall affaires, and study to call them back from divine things, to which they ought with all their might to apply themselves. Thus this Archbishop in the raigne of King Edward the 3. An. 1371. Walfingham ata Parliament holden at London, upon a Petition Ypadigma of the temporall Lords, the Bilhops were removed Newferie, from the temporall offices of Chauncellor, Treasurer, An. 1371. Clerke of the privy Seale, and Laymen put into their places : they being commonly the cheife plotters and contriuers of all treasons, conspiracies, and rebellions, the veryincendiaries, pests, and greivances both of the Church and State, the cheifest instruments to advaunce the Popes usurped anthority, though with the prejudice of the Kings,

(which they never cordially affected) and the Arch-ene-

in the

e re.

he in-

en, to

Lence

mol

very

livini

to be there

orkes,

bould

faire

ignity

es by

made

ilhel.

Du-

on of ce(to

) was

fme,

7 im-

pro-

nister

ferve

rdto

, did

rif a

and

ofices:

mies ..

mies of the Common weale, through their pride, oppre fion, quitates Ec- covesou facs, rebellion , and 1) ranny , when they have beene in office, as as peares by † Anfelme, Becket, Arundell, clefie Brit. William Bift.op of Ely , Cardinall Woolfy , Stephen in their lives . Haddon, down Gardener, with others forecited. How fafe therefore it may be for your Majesty, Oforium.1.2 Fix AR & either in point of piety or policy , to intrust them f. 251. Moruments with the managing of temporall State affaires, neand their owne spirituall 9.168,169 glecting preaching 178. 181. tunctions, or to permit them dayly, to incroach to 207.214 upon your Ecclefiafticall Prerogative, as they have 10219.227 dangerously prefumed of late in an high degree, I 249. 303. humbly fubmit to your Royall wisedome; who as 320. 321. you are best able to right your selfe against their 350.409. usurpations here presented to your Princely view, 533 1035 (which your faithfull Subjects dare not now fo much as whifper against for feare of ruine, both to them-1026. 1132. felves and their families, if they once fall into your 1897. 1899. and potent Prelates talents, who are most implacably bent against all fuch, as are most able and ready to elfewbere. Halls Chronicle, same pleade Gods cause and your Majesties against their impious, superstitious, disloyall innovations : it 16.H. 8. f. 138. &c. being now more fafe to be a lefuite, or Traytor to your Majesty, then an enemy to your Bishops dif-Stalbridge bis exborta- loyall proceedings) fo are you every way meetest, tory Epifle, loyan Proceed of your Soveraigne power, and aubisupplica- thority to rescue your poore oppressed wooried tion to King Subjects from these ravenous ' Wolves , under MasterTyn-dals Practife of Popish Prelates. Thomas Becon bis Supplication, whofe '

who

now

cond

Hig

now

fucc

tyra

thei

of fi

had

him

95 U 75

fued

that

out

an A cou

dare

for a cult

med

ofth

If a

imn

plic

pref pref

terre

whose cruelty, injustice, and manifold exactions, they +Videat alsnow grone and languish, a short view whereof the se- qui eos qui cond part of this Breviate will represent unto your Pastores Highnes. Alas, the condition of your best Subjects green & Episcopi popunow is fuch, that they know not whether to flie for heffe debefuccour or releife against your * Prelates injustice, bant. Vbi tyranny, vexations, exactions, oppressions, who by doctrine atheir policy and potency have blocked up all wayes pud bar Vbi of fuccour and redreffe. If any Subject heretofore legum vel had beene injured by them, hee might have releived religionis vehimselfe by a Probibition, an Action of the case, or Pra- ra,vel promunire at the common Law; But now they have priorum fued out a Trobibition against Probibitions themselves, ifforum cuthat they may play Rex , and doe what they lift with- fodia? Aut out controll: and hee, who would right himselfe by quid jam inan Action of the case or Premunire, can neither finde & tyramica counsell, who dare plead for him, nor Judges who illa veterum dare suffer, much lesse incourage him to proceed: As terest? An for appeales, as they are with much cost and diffi-minus ardent culty rarely obtained, fo are they commonly a re- regni cupiduate ? An medy worse then the disease, and but a leape out remissionexof the frying panne into the fire, as the proverbe is. petune splen-If any debarred of these legal remedies, appeale dorem diviimmediately to your Majesty for releife, their Sup-vercunding plications are either forestalled, perverted, or sup-libidinibus pressed before they can finde accesse to your Royall dulgent? aut presence by the Bishops and their agents, or else re-clementilis ferred back againe to themselves, (which is nothing dominantur?

Alefus. Ordinat, Ecclefie Anglie Proem, apud Buceri Scripta Anglicana. p. 371. else nem netuall ach nave

Sion,

eene

dell,

hen

fty,

e, I 0 45 heir iew.

uch emour ably

v to heir : it rto

difeft, au-

ied der.

ofe .

else in truth, but to put the lambe that flies for shel. ter to the shepheard, from the wolfe into the wolfes owne mouth that would devoure him, and to make the perfecutor his owne Iudge and Executioner to: who being both enemies, the parties complained against and their owne Iudges in their owne case, (though * unmeet and unreasonable, that they should be fo , and contrary to all Lawes ,) are fure to paffe fen. tence against the complainer, and so to proceed a. gainst him even for seeking releife, that hee shall neither have meanes, nor ability, nor courage left him to complaine the fecond time, though more op. pressed then before. This being the deplored condition of t many of your best Subjects, as well Ministers as people, who languish, groane, yea perish un-Supplication der the Prelates tyranny, malice, cruelty, oppresfions and extortions, alas poore, Creatures, what thall they doe? where (hall they complaine? whether (hall they flie for shelter or releife? To your Judges: they may not; to your facred person, they cannot; to whom elfe, they know not any upon earth: Onely they have one gappe open (which the Prelates as much as may be labour to hedge up, though in vaine, by inhibiting all private Christian Fasts and affemblies) to flie to God by hearty prayer and humiliafpf. 142.2 tion, I to power out their foules, their greifes, their complaints before him, and fhe w him of their troubles : Ifit were not for this one posterne, their very hearts would breake, their spirits die within them, and they perith for ever under these their pressures. I beseech your most excellent Majesty therefore upon the ben-

* See Fox Alls and

Monument

t See Doctor

Barnes bis

to King Henry the 8.

P. 1024.

1520.

hi Ma effelt. ded

de

she

CO

ofy

8

bee

ma

jeff

ran

the

then

kno

mo

me

Co

7047

Kin

defe

fort

ving

men

An.

Pro

Rano

Gre .

the n

faith

zing

ded knees of my foule (as + others beretofore bave in + William the like cafe befought your Royall Progenitors) both to Wragiton: confider and commiserate the distressed condition Dr. Barnes, of your oppressed, perfecuted faithfull loyall Ministers and the Au & people, (with which I perswade my selfe you have 2. Supplicabeene hitherto unacquainted) who dayly power out tions to many fervent prayers to heaven, both for your Ma- the 8. Mr. jefties happinesse fafety, and against your Prelates ty- William ranny and injustice, which have long fince peirced Tyndall; the the cloudes and craved justice, , yea vengeance against to QueenElithem, both from heaven and earth. Your Subjects all zabeth, &c. know for their comfort, that as you of your selfe are a 4.6.10. most just and gracious Prince; so you have proclai- " Hin Mjes med it with your owne Royall mouth in the highest Speech in Court of justice, and registred it on record: " that June 7. your Maxime is , that the p. oples Liberty frengthens the 1628 prin-Kings Prerogative, and that the Kings Prerogative is to ted at the defend the peoples Liberties. And for their further com- Petition of fort, in your owne royall * Declaration to all your lo. Right. ving Subjects, concerning the causes of the last Parlin-x Page. 21. ments diffelution, publi bed by your speciall commaund, 42.43. An. 1628. you have fince that made this folemne *Therefore Protestation: Wee call God to record before whom wet Innovations fland , that it is , and alwayes hath beene our hearts de- in Doctrine, fire , to be found worthy of that title which wee accompt in Discipline the most glorious in all our Crowne , Defender of the Prelates and faith : neither shall wee ever give way to the authori- their agents zing of any thing, whereby any . Innovation may creep have made. are without and against fhel.

volfes

make

to:

cafe .

mld be

fen.

ed a.

iball

e op.

con-

1ini-

un-

oref.

thall

Mall

they

; to

nely

es as

ine,

em.

ilia-

om-

Ifit

arts

hey

ech

ded

hi Majesties authority. See l'in Majesties Declaration before the 29. Articles, to the same effet.

into the Church , but preserve that unity of Doctrine and Discipline , establis hed in the time of Queen Elizabeth, whereby the Church of England hath flood and flourished ever fince. Und wee doe bere professe to maintaine the true Religion and Doctrine established in the Church of England, without admitting or conneving, at any back fiding, either to Popery or Schifme. Our care is & hereafter, Shall be, to preserve the auncient liberties of our Subjects, and to keepe them intire and inviolable, as wee would doe our owneright and Soveraignty. Wee doe also declare, that wee will maintaine the ancient and just Rights and Liberties of our Subjects, with so much constancy and justice, that they shall have cause to knowledge, that under our governement and gracious protection, they live in a more happy and free estate , then any Subjects in the Christian Borld. Wee doe professe, that as it is our duty, fo it Shall be our care to commaund and direct well , but it is the part of Officers to performe the Ministeriall Office. Wet Shall accompt our felfe , and all charitable men will accompt us innocent both with God and men : and those that are negligent, wee will esteeme as culpable both to God and us; and therefore will expect, that hereafter they give m a better accompt. Which Royall Declaration (togegether with that other , before the 39. Articles , prohibiting all innovations in Doctrine and Discipline in the

vera

and

Maj

fure offic

Hig

in e

in y

ther

10 4/fures

will

as ca

fuch

fper

OWD

bert

thef

all y

mor

clam

Arch

and

(

Ecc

exc

&r

pro

*Mountagus, lack son, hibiting all innovations in Doctrine and Discipline in the Coscus. Widleast degree,) as it assures every faithfull loyall Subdower, Shelford, Reve, ford, Reve, tions in Religion, Ceremonies, and Doctrine, the Weste, Heylate pernicious, absurd, prophane Popish, Arminian lyn, Herynge Pocklington, and licentious Bookes, published by the Bis hops anchority, with sundry in affront of your Majesties Declarations, with the seothers.

verall encroachments on your Subjects Liberties, and just ancient Rights, here represented to your Majesty, are directly contrary to your Royall pleafure, and the fole exorbitances of your infolent, tyviolent domineering Prelates and their officials; fo it gives me morethen hope, that your Highnes (who are + Singulis de Regno vestro + Register. in exhibitione Iustitiæ Debitor, and are wont 4.10.4.15 in your Writes to your Officers and Judges, to enjoyne 4.38 b. 127 them, to doe plenam & celerem Iustitiam, b. 180. 4. to all your Subjects which complaine of any injustice, pref- 126. fures, or delayes:) upon the perusall of this Breviate will call them to a speedy strict accompt for the same, as culpable both to God and your Majesty; and inflict fuch condigne punishments on them, as their desperate presumptuous enchroachments upon your owne Crowne and dignity , upon your Peoples Liberties and ancient Rights, and contempts against these your Declarations demerit, notwithstanding all your former favours toward them. It was a memorable speech of King Edward the third, in his Proclamation against that infolent Prelate John Stratford,

and eth.

(bed

e the

ch of

k fli

fter,

jects. d doe

that iber-

, zbat

r go-

more

istian

fo it

t is the

il ac-

that

dand

ve m toge-

, pro-

in the

Sub-

nova-

, the

inian ority.

ne fe-

verall

Wee

and trufted) upon fome complaints against him: Cum iple & alij Prelati regni qui de nobis * miquita-Ecclesiarum suarum temporalia recipiunt, tes Ecclesia ex debito fidelitatis juratæ fidem, honorem Fox ARIS &reverentiam debeant exhibere; folus ipfe, p.350.

Archbishop of Canterbury, (whom hee most favoured pro fide, perfidiam, pro honore contume-liam,

Philippus.

Crowder,

Laymen,

liam, & coatemptum: pro reverentia red-· dere non veretur. Vndè etfi paratissimus & semper fuerimus Patres spirituales, ut convenit, revereri; corum tamen offensas, quas în nostri, & regni nostri periculum redundare conspicious; NON DEBEMUS CON-PRÆTERIRE. NIVENTIBUS OCULIS I doubt not , but as your Majesty may justly take up the same complaint, or a sarre worse against some or most of your Prelates now; fo you will arme your felse with the like just and Royall resolution; that you ought not to passeby with conniving eyes, these their of. fences, here humbly presented to your veiw, which you fee every day more and more to redound, both * Pluearch, to the ecclipse and danger of your owne Ecclesiasticall lurifdiction, and of your Kingdome too; if not Apothegm. of that true ancient faith and Doctrine of the Church *Mr. George of England, of which you are the cheife Defendor, PeterSmart, * It is storied of King Philip of Macedon, That a cer-Mr. Vicars, taine poore oppressed old woman oft times petitioning him Mr. Workemm, Master to beare ber cause, the King at last gave her this answere, Ward, Mr. That hee was not at lea fure to doe it. Wherevnto fhee pre-Wrath, Mr. Noli itaque regnare; doe not fently replied; Mr. Snelling therefore raigne. Which speech hee admiring, forthwith sundry with heard not onely her cause and complaints, but many sters. Doctor others in proper person. Your Majesty hath not one or Bastwicke, two, but a * great multitude of poore oppressed Mr. Thomas Subject One of the Company of the Bruer, and Subjects, now lying mourning and pining away under divers otheryour Bishops pressures, tyranny, unjust proceedings oft p wom you, thy y coul their great ding

will

those dare thofe are r I kno wort King come tile o

tions i or 413 a the

of Go nable And

oppres conte a Sub

knee givin even

weig

dings and centures (fome of whose cases this Breviate will acquaint you with) who though they have not oft petitioned your Maje sty for releife, as this poore woman did Philip, nor received the like answere from you, as shee did from him, yet their cases are as worthy your Roall audience, as hers was of Philips, if they could have such free accesse to your Majesty with their complaints as thee had to him; the Prelates greatnes, power, and vigilancy being fuch, that those who are oppressed by them, either cannot, or dare not appeale to your Majefty for releife, and those who doe, though upon never so just grounds, are reputed factious, schismaticall, Seditious, and I know not what besides for their paines: yea as that worthy Martyr , Doctor Barnes in his Supplication to King Fenry the 8. writes p. 183. Now it is fo farre come , that who or ver kee be , high or low , toore or rich , wife or tools h, that freaketh against them and their vitious living, her is est her made a Tragtor unto your grace. or an beretike , enemy or schismatike against boly Church. a though they were kings or Gods. And if any man foake of Gods Law and right conscience against this their damnable tyrarny, litle will they flicke to make bim an beretike. And if that Willnot helpe, & to colour & maintaine their oppression, then adde they treason, sedition, rebellion and contempt against your Grace, though hee be never fo true I befeech you therefore upon the bended knees of my heart & foule, to imitate King Thilip, in giving them a full, a speedy and gracious hearing even in your owne Royall Person : and if your more weighty publike State-affaires will not afford you fo much

red.

15 &

on-

quas

dun-

ON-

RE.

e up

ne or

your

t you

r of.

hich

both

iasti-

not

urch

dor.

Ger-

him

pere.

pre-

mot

rth-

any

e or

Ted

der

ee-

ngs

Register

* Iob. 29.

13.14.

Clementia.

pars 2.

much leafure, appoint some faithfull trusty tempo. ies rall Lords and Gentlemen of quality, to be your pish Commissioners to inquire after, heare and determine all their greivances, preffures, illegall impri. forments, fines, fuspensions, deprivations, excommunications, exacted fees, and other barbarous usages and vexations, as your Royall Progenitors + have done in former times even in the case of Bil hops. It was f.125.126 Jobs honor and comfort in his afflictions; that hee Was eyes to the blinde, feet to the lame, a Father to the poore; that hee fearched out the cause which hee knew not; and brake the lawes of the wicked, and pluked the Spoyle out of their teeth : and that the ble Sing of him that was ready to perish came upon bim. O let it be your Majesties crowne and honour too in these particular e Seneca De here tendred to you. c Nullum ornamentum Trincihb.i. c.26. pis fastigio dignius pulchrius g. est, quam illa corona ob cives jervatos: is one of the best and most honorable Mottos that any Christian Prince can select; And there is no readier way for your Majesty to intitle your felfe thereto, then by rescuing your poore innocent harmlesse wooried sheeps and lambes, out of the lawes of these Bites heepes, these ravenous † Hab. r. 8. † evening wolves, (though in Sheepes cloathing) who

Zeph. 3.3. devoure and prey upon them; especially in your Ec-Acts.20.29 clefiafticall Commission, and that under pretence of your Majesties authority, which they now pervent to erect and revive an absolute, irregular, Papall and Episcopall Iurisdiction of their owne, not derived from your Majesty, to tread your Majesties Ecclefiafticall Iurisdiction, and your poore Subjects liberties

wrec

(cior

(who

and t

out.a

tenti

holy

CODY

appe

amb

fiafti

orpr

pont

chrif

(econo bold

quire

gligen

dams

for no

Now

ferve

prize

gion :

fanere

neglig

favou

toyou

empo. ties under their feet , to accomplish their owne poyour pish, antichristian, disloyall designes, to suppresse deter- religion and preaching, to cruth, roote out, and to mpri. wrecke their owne particular malice upon your concom cionable, painfull, powerfull Ministers, Preachers, parous (whom they now filence, fuspend, excommunicate bave and thrust out of their livings at their pleasure, witht was out any lawfull cause, to the great greife and discontentment of your people, because their paines and to the holy lives are a secret checke to their idle licentious knew conversations) and all others who dare publikely ed the appeare in your Majesties quarrell, to oppose their that ambitious, audacious usurpations, upon your Eccleyour fiasticall Prerogative and your Subjects, Liberties, culan or prefume to checke them for their non-preaching, rinci- pontificall, idle voluptuous, fecular pronde unna ob christian lives, though good Father Laymer in his rable second and fourth Sermon, before King Edward ; was fo bold with them for these their enormities, as to require him in Gods behalfe, to make all the packe of negligent , non-preaching , rare-preaching Bifhops , Quondams, 6 to cast them out of their office, as unfavory falt, fit for nothing but to be cast out, and trodden under mens feet. Now the great * King of Kings, & Lord of Lords, fo pre- *17. Revil ferve & direct your Majesty in all your pious enter- 14.00 19. prizes, for the prefervation & propagatio of true reli- 16. gion among us , the keeping out of Popish errors, profaners (which flow in a pace upon us; by your Prelates negligence, practifes and connivance) who are more favourable to Preifts and Iefuites, though Trayters to your Majesty by the Statute of 27. Eliz.c. 2. then unto

And

ntitle

re in-

, out

nous

who

Ecence

rvert

and

ived

ccle-

ber-

ties

unto Puritans (as they stile them) who defend your Crowne and Prerogative Royall like faithfull Subjects, against their Episcopall and all Papall encroach. ments) the maintenance of your owne Ecclefialticall Prerogative, with the releife, the rescue of your poore afflicted Subjects against the Prelates insolent encroachments, oppressions, exorbitances; and the advauncement of the publike welfare both of this Church and State; that the religion, with the fincere preaching and preachers of Gods word (of late trod. den under foote) may once more flourish , Gods heavy Judgement of the plague broken out in many places, by your execution of Judgement like another Phinehas, on these notorious malefactors, be speedily stayed: (Pfal. 106.30.) and you may long enjoy a glorious Crowne OB CIVES SERVATOS in this life " and in the world to come, a Crowne of glow which fadeth not away.

So prayeth your Loyall and true hearted Subject and go to desired and a section of in the transfer of the analytic or the in the

A service of the service of a margin and a contact of -Corporation and the contraction of the essilent topy with the second

W. Huntly.

Conj Can

fitne

they the

cenfe

Ora

(ayd

tion 160

NI

A Breviate of the Prelates usurpations upon the Kings Prerogative Royall against expresse Statutes.

your Subbach. ticall your olent d the

this

rcere

Gods many

eedil;

glo-

this

glory

ubject

He Statute of 25. Hen. 8. c. 29. upon the Clergies owne submission and Petition, Against Enacts: that no Convocation or Synod of the Bis bops ViClergy should be made or summoned; but by suation Arthe Kings writ: and that the Clergy, nor any ticles, Orof them, should from thenceforth attempt; or tutions and presume, to alledge, claime, or put in ure, any Innova-

Constitutions or ordinances Provinciall or Synodall, or any other tions. Canons; nor shall enast, promulge or execute any such Canons; Constitutions or ordinances provinciall, by what sever name or names they may be called, in their Convocations in time comming, unlesse the same Clergy may have the Kings most Royall assent and licens, to make, promulge, and execute such Canons, Constitutions, and Ordinances Provinciall or Synodall; upon peine of every one of the sayd Clergy doing contrary to this; and being thereof convict, to suffer imprisonment, and make sine at the Kings Will: In profecution of which AA, the Prelates themselves in their Canons An. 1603. Can. 12. decree thus; Whosever shall hereafter affirme, that it is lawfull FOR ANT SORT OF MI-NISTERS and lay persons, or either of them., to joyne to-gether gother and make rules , orders , and Conft extrons in causes Eccle-AND AVITATION SHE KINGS AUTHO. Therefore KTIS, and Shall & Subring torn flyes to be rated and go verned all Church- by General let therebe excurrent cased IPSO FACTO. wardens & in the softweet wind were exent and publike y veroke thefe their Walter the book from the

ther i

whic

for t

word

hops

liame

Char

and

Scrip

cform

hops

onely

fence 1

34.0

whic

That

to b

12 thofe

resul

Chur

GIS

pow

COTT

mis-

Anti

print

this .

Con

lette

all in form

first 1

Lord

publi

min receive. jubines to. and prefent month of the Vills action. Articles, mia by themse ves alone, waterour the Kings authemie ves who make and prefe them are · spioficts excemmumicased by a At the

Sidemen

Yer every Archbithop, Bishop, and Archdeacon in their Vilitations and Confiftories, now take upon them, without the Bij hops & Kings Pa eut, Licenie, privity ogauthority, to make and forme Articles, and Oathes toog when they mant, publich sand give in charge to Churchwardens to enquire off up in Ouch, in their owne names onely, and by their owne authority, forceing the people to fubmit unto them ; Yeathream ng Charebmardens and others with the (Starveolunder and High Commission in case they refuse to sweare, thoray, and fubmit to, or naglett to inquire or prefent, upon all they munerous V fitation- Arricles , and all the feverall branches of them; (as appeaces by the late printed a Acticles, of that projed pragmaticall P elac Munew Ween, Bishop of Worwich . An. 1636. the strangest ever yee published, wherein hee shewes himfelle not a Regulus of Rex alone, but a plaine Antichriftian Pope and Tyrant Lording it over the persons consciences, not thu Canon. onely of Ministers and people, but likewise over the Scriptures, his Majesties Prerogative Royall, the very Lawes and Statutes end of them. of the Realme and Liberties of the Subject.) All which they doe, as if they were absolute Lawgivers , Lords , and Monarches, and every of them as much, as great, as powerfull as the most usurping Pope, or a King and Parliament put both together. And for the better colouring and countenancing of this their difforall infolent tytainy, they have most treacheroufly corrupted the 20. Article of our Church, though ratified by Parliament, Ann. 13. Eli7. c. 12. by foilting this new clause into it : The Church bath power to decree Rites and Ceremonues, and methority in matters of faith: which words are neither ther in the Latine nor Engl for Articles printed 1562. and 1571. which runne thus quite contrary in a maner: It is not Lawfull for the Church to ordane any thing that is contrary to Gods Now by Church in this additional clause, the Bifhops who forged it, intendand meane not the King and Parliament, b but themselves alone, the Church, that is, Bishops and b Mr. Trn-Charchmen; when as this word as c Master William Tyndall, dals Anand d Bishop Busin Severally affirme, is never either in the whole swer to Sir Scripture or in the Fathers (no nor in any other of the Articles Moores Diaefour Church or in our Homilies) taken in this fence , as our dif- logue. hops and Clergy after the Popilh guife begin to use it, but p 250. onely for the whole Congregation, or Christian State, in which 251. in his fence it is used in the 19. 21. 33. 36. 37. Articles : and in the worker. 34. Article, to which all our Bishops and Ministers Subscribe, d The true which exprelly determines against this their audacious practile; difference That the Traditions and Ceremonies of the Church, are (and ought betweene to be) ordained and appropried BT COMMON Christian AUTHORITY. (to wit, by Parliament: and therefore Subjections thosewho wellingly and purposely breake them., ought to be openly Rebellion, rebuked, as those that offend against the Common Order of the part 2. Church , and hert the authority OF THE M A- P. 164. to GISTRATE, (not Bilhops or Clergy , who have no 165. power to make Ecclefiafticall Lawes or Ceremonies.) Their corrupting therefore of the very Articles of Religion, and mis-interpreting of the word Church , to e advance their owne e Tyndall& Antichristian power and Hierarchy; and their publishing, Bilfon, qua printing, prescribing in their owne names rights, contrary to Jupra. this Ad, Visitation, Oathes, Articles, Orders, Ceremonies, Constitutions, &c. (of which all our Prelates are more or leffe guilty) is fuch an audacious usurping; tyrannicall, difloyall insolency, as hath neither beene heard off, nor suffred in former ages, Bishop Fonner that bloodsucking Pretate being the first that began it ,) neither have any of the greatest temporail Lords or Judges at any time prefumed to print, prescribe or publish any new Edicks, Orders, Oathes, Injunctions, Articles their orme athes

Eccle-

HO.

rerned

TO,

their

nely, bmit

erous s apticall

3.6. him-

not ires,

they Mo-

ll as

g of nerfied

ere-

ber

of, or presented on by his Majesty Subjects, unlesse authorized by some speciall A& of Parliament and Charters so to doe, as some Corporations are, who by common confer may make by-Lawes, to oblige themselves alone, not others. For which undutifull insolency all our domineering Prelate. have incurred the penalty of this Statute; and are ipfo falto excommunicated besides by their owne f Canon, till they publikely renounce and revoke thefe their wicked and Anabaptificall Erron. Articles, Constitutions, and Practifes; from which their Predecellors were so farge estranged, that for feare of a Premuning and other punishments to light upon them, they durft not in King Henry the 8. or Edward the 6 his raigne (after this Ad and the Statute of 26. H. S. c. 1.) fo much as to keepe a finfiftery Court or Visitation, untill they had fued out severall special g In the Pa- Patents and Licenfes (of which there are divers in the & Rolles ye tents of 26. extant,) authorizing them to doe it , and that onely in the King 32.33.36. owne name, right, fleed, and by his authority, not their owner. whose example our present Prelates ought, both in point Which fince they refule to of Lojalty and duety, to imitate. doe, and thus still most trayterously proceed to make new Articles, Canons, Ceremonies, Oathes, Constitutions, and enforce them on the Subjects by theeates, excommunications, fulpentions, deprivations, imprisonments, and the like in their owne names, rights and authorities, without the confen of King and Parliament; let them heare what a doome ticles in their owne names and rights, to be observed, inquired our I

PO

NI

CO

SH

corpo

piral

GR

LA

IN

Treal

Prim

plura

it pro

State

our P

new A

their

liame

fulper

mittin

Treas

no left

fame ;

abate 1

teach,

liamen

25 * 1

2.

6.c. I:

the form

the St

Kings

* Defensoris Pacu, pars. 2 c. 28.

37.H. 8.

€ 5.E.6.

pars. I.

f Can 12.

Marshus Patavinus bath long since pronounced against them for it, in these very words: The makers and publishers (faith hee) of such Articles and Ecclesiasticall Decrees withou the speciall license of the faithfull Law-giver (which hee makes the Parliament, or whole body of a State or City) or of the Prince, and those who induce any to the observation of them by surreptitious words, or compell any to obey them, by threatning evernall damnation, or by blashheming, excommunicating, or prenouncing other maledictions against any one by word or writing, (& our Prelates have lately done against many in all places) COR-PORALITER SUNT EXTREMO PU-NIEN DI SUPPLICIO, TANDUAM CONSPIRATORES, ET CIVILIS SHISMATIS CONCITATORES : are to be corporally pun shed, with extreme or capitall pun shments, as Conpirators and the styrrers up of a civill Schisme. EST ENIM GRAVISSIMA SPECIES CRIMINIS LASA MAJESTATIS, QUONIAM IN PRINCIPATUM DIRECTE COM-MITTITUR, Gc. For it is most greivous kinde of Treason of all other, because it is directly committed against the Princes Royall Crowne and Dignity ; it is also tends to set upon plurality of supreme governours, and soby consequence of necessity it produceth a dissolution of every politike government and of the State it felfe. If therefore Marfilius of Padua may be the ludge, our Prelates making, printing, publishing and enjoyning of new Articles, Oathes, Orders, Ceremonies, Rites, &c. in point their owne names and authorities, without the Kings and Parfule to liaments confent, and their excommunicating, filencing, suspending and persecuting his Majesties Subjects for not subnd enmitting thereunto, is a great Conspicacy, Schisme and High-Treason, both against the King and Kingdome; and they deserve no leffe then capitall pun: shments to be inflicted on them for the * The true same; which I would now advise them to consider off, to difference abate their pride and arrogance; they being onely Pastours, to betweene wach , exhort , and reproove ; not Princes , Magistrates, or Par- Subjection against bli fhers liaments, to prescribe or enforce Lawes, which B: shops may not doe, and unches 15 * Bishop Bilson himselfe hath expres ly resolved. withou stian Rebelmakes uired utho.

fote

nfen

thers.

elates,

Toex

ely re-

errors,

r Pre-

mine

not in nis Ad a Con

pecial

lles ye

Kings

r onn;

w Ar-

ations,

like in

onlent

doome

of the

them

eatning

or pre-19,(3

OU

lion, p. 127. 2. The Statutes of 2. and 3. Ed. 6. c. 1. and 5. and 6. Ed. Against 6.c. 12. and the Rubricke in the Booke of Common prayer , before their granthe forme of the Solemni Tation of Matrimony , confirmed by ting of Lithe Statutes of g. and 6. Ed. 6. c. I. I. Eliz. c. I. and the cerifes to Kings owne proclamation , ordaine , That no man shall or ought many, withto be one Banes.

to be maried till his Bares be first as ked, three severall times in the Church in three Sundayes or Holy-dayes, the people being present be inquired with which † Queen Elizabeths Articles accord.

in the vifi-Yet every Archbishop, Bishop and their Chauncellous tation, An. (without any Patent from his Majesty , who hath the * fole as 1559. thority to graunt Licenfes for marriages , and to dispense with the Artic.43. Lawes and Ordinances) take upon them , even in the * See the Lambookes owne names, and under their owne Seales, like for quoted by many Kings and Popes, to graunt Licenses for money A (b,in bis to any person or persons to marry without any Bane Generall first at ked; of which they make a great annual revenue. Which Prempenary or Table to prelumptuous dispensations , being an apparent usurpation the Law: Charter, 1. upon his Majesties Prerogative Royall, and an exerciting of 2. Register, Regall Anthority without any graunt or Commission from his Majesty : Mariage it selse being a meere natural and pars. 1. civill contract, (made onely by the c parties onme mutuall cor fol. 170. 4 1740 a. fents, common to d beafts , to 19 Infidels, Pagans and il 2956. forts of men, as well as Christians; and annesently folemnized 297.6. contracted before the f Magistrales and Parents, without an 198 a. Preist or Minister , in private hospies not in Churches; and Magna Prarog. Re-thele Licentes to marry without Banes, first afked in the Church, a meere temporall not spiritual thing, as are the 215. C.4. Kings Licentes of Conge deflier, for confectation of Bifhon 32. H. 8. Churches, Chapples, presentations to Benefices, and the c. 18. 26. like , though the Cures themselves , Churches and Titheste Aff. 57. 32. H. 6. 52. 15.Ed. sprituall, (elie it were g Symony in them to fell them for mon, 4.13.4.H. 7. 1. Fit 7. 1 ivery 31. 33. Natura Bre. 174. 175. c.d. 264. a. Dyer. 123. 9.18.

7. 1. Fitz. 1 ivmy 31. 33. Natura Brc. 174. 175. c.d. 264. a, Dyer. 123. 138. Stamford Pre. c. 4 f. 19. 22. Lib. Intrat. f. 228. 426. c. Gen. 6. 2. 611. 29. Ruth. 1. 6. 654. 9. 10. 11. Sum. Angelica. Tit. Matrimonium. Linker. Sett. 1. 4. 107. d. Gen. 7. 2. 3. 9. e. Gen. 2. 24. Hebr. 13. 4. 1. 60. 3. 2. 12. 13. 14. 15. f. Ruth. 4. 9. 10. 11. Gen. 24. 67. c. 29. 22. 23. 24.

25.28.30. g Sum. Angelica. Tit. Symonia. with others.

Majef trary

and f foric

Maje

Lice

who

the J

bifhop

bave

under head

Scrip

termi

anne hall a

nerali

Arch

be ma

bis H

and D

edher

and d

therek

and ri

made vances

might

* fall

heve in and farme them out at an yearely rene;) and the profit thereof forich a perquifite; Whether this their enthroachment on his Majesties Royalties, be not fit to be severely and exemplarily punished for the time past, and the power of graunting such Licenses, meet to be engrossed into his Majesties hands (to whom onely it of right belongs) for time to come; I leave to the Judges, and his Majesties Connsell to resolve.

es in the

refint:

elloun

Cole as

th the

there for money

Banes

Which

patien

ting of niffice

rall and all con

and al

mil Zed

out any

in the

are the

Thops,

ind the 291017

3.9.38

Litekton

23.24

The Statute of 37. H. S. c. 17. concludes, That Arch- Against Bifbishops , Bishops , Archdeacons , and other Ecelefiasticall persons, hops pretenhave no maner of Jurisdiction Ecclesiasticall, but by, from and dictionsure under the Kings Majesty, the onely and undoubted supreame Divine, and head of the Church of England and Ireland, to whom by holy making of Scripture all authority and power is wholly given to heare and de-Chamceltermine all maner causes Ecclesiasticall; and to correct all vice and lours, and some what soever sto all such per sons as the $ Kings Majesty Ecclesiastihall appoint thereto. And that all Channellours , Vicars ge-call Jurifnerall, Commissaries, Officials, Scribes and Registers, to any diction Archbishop, Bishop, Archdeacon or other Ecclesiastical person shall without be made , ordained, constituted , and deputed by the Kings Majesty Patents. his Heires or Successors , as his Vicegerents , Commissaries , Indges + Not the and Visitors; Receiting with all, that the Bishop of Rome and his Bishops. adherents minding utterly as much as in them lay to abolish observe, h Lindeand delete this power given by God , to the Princes of the earth that fis. Provin. thereby they might gather and get to themselves the governement hb. 2. De and rule of the world, had in their Councells and Synods provinciall, Clerici conmade (even here at home) ordained and established divers ordi- jugaris. vances and constitutions, that, b no lay or married man, should or f. 94. 95. might exercise or occupie any Juris diction Ecclesiasticall, least their . Note. false and usurped power, which they pretended and went about to we in Christs Church, should decay, wax vile, and of no reputation.

Yet the Archbishops and Bishops, presuming on his Majesties favour, and their owne great swaying authority, contrary to this Statute, claime all their Episcopall Jurisdiction,

M

not by , from, and under the King , but fire divine ; censuring and perfecting those who plead for the Kings right according to this Statute; as appeared in the late case of Doctor Delivered Bastmicke, who was fentenfed meerely for this a opininion; in a dif-That Episcopall Jurisdiction over M nisters and others, courfe intiis not lure Divino, but onely from the grant and donation of tuled Flagellum Pon- Princes ; and that Bishops and Ministers Iure Divino , are tifich & E- one and the fame. For which they might have as well cenfured pi [coporum Hierome, Augustine, Sedulius, Primasius, Ambrose, Latislium, Chrysoftome , Beda , Rabanus Maurus , Isidor Hisha. against the lensis, Haymo, Remigius, Alexander Alensis, Anselmus Popes pre-Archbishop of Canterbury, Richardus Armachanus, Primate tended fuperiority, of all Ireland , Bishop Jewell , Bishop Alley , Bishop Hooper . and Mo-Mafter Deane Novell, Doctor Whitaker, Doctor Willer, narchy over Master Fox , with all the Prelates and Clergy of England, Kingsand in their Institution a Christian man, Chap. of Orders, whom other Ministers one- hee hath k since provved to be of the same opinion, and all the reformed Churches and Protestant Writers too beyond *ThubuRethe Seas. They exercise all Ecclesiasticall Iurisdiction in their proofe of owne names and rights alone, they make every one his Dorman. fol.43.44. owne Commissarie, Chauncellour, Vicar generall, Officiall, Visitor, Register, and Scribe; wresting this right from his 45. k In his Majesty: They deny I any furifdiction Ecclesiasticall to appiscoporum, pertaine to any Laymen, unlesse derived to them by themelva Praxi Ealone; affirming and publishing in some late printed books & de lure m That all Ecclesiasticall Lawes derive their vitality and viva-Episcopali. city from the Prelates (not from Princes) as from the heart and Et Ger-Conjus Bucerus, dif-fertatio de Gubernatione Ecclesie. 1 1. & 2. Philip. & Mary. cap. & mChowneus. Collectiones Theologica quorundam conclusionum Londini, 1635.

Dedicated to the Archbishop and licensed by bis Chaplaine , pag. 53.

bead

bea

the

Buf

the

Re

tions

and

Bifh

mon.

that

rive

head

and

and i

be ke

the Th

M

proce

of tel

minis

next

at it si

the tel

ther k

CO

OF

SIA

THE

tion t

And of Eco head, and that all Ecclefiasticall affaires are to be ordered by them alone, in affront of this good Statute.

The Statute of I. Ed. 6. c. 2. enabling the King to make Against Bishops by his Letters Patents onely , ordaines; that whereas their keeping the Archbishops , Bishops , and other spirituall persons in this Vifications Realme , did use to make and sent out their Summons , Cita- without Letsions , and other Proces in their owne names , and in such forme ters Patents, and maner as was used in the time of the * usurped power of the and making Bishop of Rome , contrary to the forme and order of the Sum-outProces of Probates in mons and processe of the Common-Law used in the Realme; seeing their owne that all authority of furifdiction, spiritual and temporall, is de-names and rived and deducted from the Kings Majesty, as the supreame Seales. head of these Churches and Realmes of England and Ireland, * Note. and so justly acknowledged by the Clergy of the sayd Realmes; and that all Courts Ecclesiasticall within the sayd two Realmes be kept by no other power or authority either forraigne or n within in Ergo Bifthe Realme, but by the authority of the Kings most excellent, hops can keep Majesty. That therefore all Summons, Citations, and other no Courts but by speprocesse Ecclesiasticall in all suites and causes of instance, probates ciall Patent of testaments, Inquiries of lure Patronatus, Commissions of Ad-from the ministrators; or Collectors, Should from the first day of July then King and in next following, be made in the name and with the stile of the King, bu name and u it is in writs originall and Judiciall at the Common-Law; and right. the teste thereof onely in the Bishops and Archbishops name, or other having Ecclesiasticall furifdiction, who hath THE COMMISSION AND GRANT OF THE AUTHORITY SIASTICALL IMMEDIATELY FROM THE KINGS HIGHNES, (An expresse resolution that none can or ought to exercise Ecclesiastical Iurisdiction but by speciall grant and Commission from the King.) And that all maner of person or persons having the exercise of Ecclepasticall Jurisdiction, shall from thenceforth have in their Seales of Office , the Kings Highnesse armes decemby set, M 2 with

cap. 8 6 3.5

iring

rding octor

aion;

bers, on of

, are

fured

brofe,

Tispa-

Elmus,

rimate

poper,

Willet,

gland,

whom

and all

eyond n their ne his

fficiall,

m his

to ap-

melva

ook

2124 ert and

beas.

to be married till his Born be fift af ked , three fiverall times and Church on three Sandayes or Holy-dayer, the people being profite. Acta,les to be mymed with which & Queen Eligabeths Arricles accord.

in the off-Yet every Archbiftop, Biftop and their Chauncellos tatum, An. (without any Patent from his Majefty , who harbthe . file a 1559. Artic. 43. thorsty to grannt Licenfes for marriages , and to dispense with the * See the Lawes and Ordinance) take upon them , even in the L. arrbookes owne names, and under their owne Scales, like & quoted by many Kings and Popes, to graunt Licenses for more Al ban las to any perion or perions to marry without any Bank Generall Prempenary first at ked; of which they make a great annual revenue. Which or Table to prelumptuous dispensations, being an apparent usurpation the Law: Chater, 1. upon his Majesties Prerogative Royall, and an exerciling 2. Register, Regall Anthority without any graunt or Commission from his Majesty : Mariage it selfe being a meere natural and pars. 1. fo! . 170. a civill contract, (made onely by the c parties onne mutual con 174 4. Conts, common to d beafts , to 19 Infidels, Pagans and a 295.6. fores of men, as well as Christians; and aunciently folemnized 297.6. contracted before the f Magistrates and Parents, without an 198 a. Preist or Minister , in private houses not in Churches; and Magna Charta.c.7. Prarog. Re-thele Licentes to marry without Banes, first alked in the Church, a meere temporall not fpiritual thing, as are the 215. C.4. Kings Licentes of Conge del lier, for confectation of Billion 32. H. 8. c. 18. 26. Churches, Chapples, prefentations to Benefices, and the AJ. 57. like , though the Cures themselves , Churches and Tithesh 32. H. 6. 52. 15.Ed, sprituall, (elfe it were & Symony in them to fell them for mom, 4.13.4.H. 7. 1. Fitz. 1 ivery 31. 33. Natura Bre. 174. 175. c.d. 264. a. Dyer. 123. p. 18

Stamford Pra. c 4.f. 19. 22. Lib. Intrat. f. 228. 426. c Gen: 6.2 & 11 29. Ruth. 1. 6. & 4. 9. 10. 11. Sum. Angelica. Tit. Matrimonium Linka Sell. 1.4. 107. d Gen. 7. 2. 3. 9. e Gen. 2. 24. Hebr. 13. 4. 1. co. 2. 12. 13. 14. 15. f Rub. 4. 9. 10. 11. Gen. 24. 67. c. 29. 22. 21. 24 25.28.30. 2 Sum, Angelica. Tit, Semonia, with others.

The straight of the second straight

Jave.

61

wb

the

bar

bear

Scri

tern

finn

Mal

nera

Arc

be n

bis 1

and

edha

and .

there

and

mad

nanci

migh

* fai

Maje trary and farme them out at an yearsty rent;) and the profit thereof forich a perquifite; Whether this their enthroachment on his Majesties Royalties, be not fit to be severely and exemplarily punished for the time past, and the power of graunting such Licenses, meet to be engrossed into his Majesties hands (to whom onely it of right belongs) for time to come; I leave to the Judges, and his Majesties Counsell to resolve.

refin

ellow

Gle .

th the

the

Bane Whid

patie

ling o

niffice rall and

all con

and a mil?el

out an

in the

are the

hop, and the itheste

3.0.18

Litekton

23.24

The Statute of 37. H. S. c. 17. concludes, That Arch- Against Bifbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, and other Ecclesiasticall persons, hops preten-have no maner of furification Ecclesiasticall, but by, from and dictionsure under the Kings Majesty , the onely and undoubted supreame Dwine, and head of the Church of England and Ireland, to whom by holy making of Scripture all authority and power is wholly given to heare and de-Chaunceltermine all maner causes Ecclesiasticall; and to correct all vice and lours, and sinne what sever sto all such persons as the $ Kings Majesty Ecclesiastihall appoint thereto. And that all Chauncellours, Vicars ge-call Iurif. nerall, Commiffaries, Officials, Scribes and Registers, to any diction Archbishop, Bishop, Archdeacon or other Ecclesiastical person shall without be made, ordained, constituted, and deputed by the Kings Majesty Patents. his Heires or Successors, as his Vicegerents, Commissaries, Judges $ Not the and Visitors; Receiting with all, that the Bishop of Rome and his Bishops. adherents minding utterly as much as in them lay to abole sh obscure, h Lindeand delete this power given by God, to the Princes of the earth, that fis. Provin. thereby they might gather and get to themselves the government his. 2. De and rule of the world, had in their Councells and Synods provinciall, Clericis conmade (even here at home) ordained and established divers ordi- jugarin. nances and constitutions, that b no lay or married man, should or f. 94. 95. might exercise or occupie any furifdiction Ecclesiasticall, least their * false and usurped power, which they pretended and went about to have in Christs Church, should decay, wax vile, and of no reputation.

Yet the Archbishops and Bishops, presuming on his Majesties favour, and their owne great swaying authority, contrary to this Statute, claime all their Episcopall Jurisdiction,

not

not by , from, and under the King , but fure divine ; censuring and perfecuting those who plead for the Kings right according to this Statute; as appeared in the late case of Doctor Delivered Bastwicke, who was fentenfed meerely for this i opininion; in a dif-That Episcopall Jurisdiction over Ministers and others, courfe intiis not lure Divino , but onely from the grant and donation of tuled Flagellum Pon- Princes; and that Bishops and Ministers Ture Divino, an tifich & E- one and the fame. For which they might have as well cenfured piscoporum Hierome, Augustine , Sedulius , Primasius , Ambros, Latislium, Chryfostome , Beda , Rabanus Maurus , Isidor Hista against the lensis, Haymo, Remigius, Alexander Alensis, Anselmun Popes pre-Archbishop of Canterbury , Richardus Armachanus , Priman tended fuof all Ireland , Bishop Fewell , Bishop Alley , Bishop Hooper , periority, and Mo-Mafter Deane Novell, Doctor Whitaker, Doctor Willen narchy over Kings and Master Fox , with all the Prelates and Clergy of England in their Institution a Christian man, Chap. of Orders, whom other Ministers one- hee hath k since prooved to be of the same opinion, and all the reformed Churches and Protestant Writers too beyond *ThubuRethe Seas. They exercise all Ecclesiasticall Iurisdiction in their proofe of owne names and rights alone, they make every one his Dorman. fol.43.44. owne Commissarie, Chauncellour, Vicar generall, Official Visitor, Register, and Scribe; wresting this right from his 45. k In bis Majesty: They deny ! any furifdiction Ecclesiasticall to ap-Praxi Episcoporum, pertains to any Laymen, wilesse derived to them by themselve & de lure alone ; affirming and publishing in some late printed books m That all Ecclesiasticall Lawes derive their vitality and viva Epifcopali. city from the Prelates. (not from Princes.) as from the heart and Et Gerforius Bucerus, difsertatio de Gubernatione Ecclesie. 1 1. & 2. Philip. & Mary. cap. 8 mChowness, Collectiones Theologice quorundam conclusionum Londini , 1 6 3 5

Dedicated to the Archbishop and licensed by bin Chaplaine , pag. 53.

be

th

the

tio

ani

Bij

27701 tha

rive

beau

and

and be k

the ?

M

proc

of te

mini

next

as it i

the te

ther h

CO

OF

SIA

THI

tion t

diatio And of Ec their !

head, and that all Ecclefiafticall affaires are to be ordered by them alone, in affront of this good Statute.

ring

ding octor

nion;

bers, n of

, are

fured

brofe,

lisba. lmm,

imate

oper,

Viller,

gland,

whom

and all

eyond

a their

ne his

ficial,

m hs

to 47 melve

ooks

21174 ert and

cap. 1

6 3 5

The Statute of x. Ed. 6. c. 2. enabling the King to make Against Bushops by his Letters Patents onely , ordaines; that whereas their keeping the Archbishops , Bishops , and other spiritual persons in this Visitations Realme , did use to make and sent out their Summons , Cita- without Lettions , and other Proces in their owne names , and in such forme ters Patents, and maner as was used in the time of the * usurped power of the and making Bishop of Rome , contrary to the forme and order of the Sum-outProcests mons and processe of the Common-Law used in the Realme; seeing their owner that all authority of furifaction, spiritual and temporall, is de-names and rived and deducted from the Kings Majesty, as the supreame Seales. head of these Churches and Realmes of England and Ireland, * Note. and so justly acknowledged by the Clergy of the sayd Realmes; and that all Courts Ecclefiasticall within the sayd two Realmes be kept by no other power or authority either forraigne or n within a Ergo Bifthe Realme, but by the authority of the Kings most excellent, hops can keep Majesty. That therefore all Summons, Citations, and other no Courts but by speprocesse Ecclesiasticall in all suites and causes of instance, probates ciall Patent of testaments, Inquiries of lure Patronatus, Commissions of Ad- from the ministrators; or Collectors, should from the first day of July then. King and in next following, be made in the name and with the file of the King, bis name and as it is in writs originall and Indiciall at the Common-Law; and right. the teste thereof onely in the Bishops and Archbishops name, or other having Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction, who hath THE COMMISSION AND GRANT OF THE AUTHORITY ECCLS-SIASTICALL IMMEDIATELY FROM THE KINGS HIGHNES, (An expresse resolution that none can or ought to exercise Ecclesiastical Iurisdiction but by special grant and Commission from the King.) And that all maner of person or persons having the exercise of Ecclepasticall Jurisdiction, Shall from thenceforth have in. their Seales of Office, the Kings Highnesse armes decemby set, mitte with certains Carects under the armes for knowledge of the Discess, and shall use no other state of Jurisdiction, but wherein his Majesties armes be engraven; upon peine, that is any perfon shall use Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction (after the foresaid day) within this Realme of England, Wales or other the Kings Diminions, and not make and send out the Processe or Cutation in the Kings name, or use any Seale of Jurisdiction, other then before touted; that every such offender shall incurre and runne in the Kings Majesties displeasure and indignation, and suffer imprisonment at his Highnes will and pleasure.

CA

12

At

W

Th

res

ma on

Iur

the

whi

nat

tati

I.

lib.

209

and

cier

At

or d

Face

ma.

ham

and!

Com

mail

dictio

tute

rildie

C. I.

canfes

Vpon this Statute (being but a meere declaration of the ancient Common Law) within three yeares after the making #Fox AELS thereof, a # Pramumre was brought against Bishop Farra, Monuments upon pretence, that hee omitted the Kings name and Stile in a Pag. 1409. Commission of his for a Visitation; which had it beene true, hee had signarted for it. Hence all the Bishops in King Ed. 6, time, made after this Statute, were created Bishops by his Letters Patents onely, in which all parts of their Ecclesiastical sursidiction were granted them by the King, in pre-cile words; as things Præter & ultra jus divinum; to be executed onely, Nomine, vice, & authoritate nostris Regiss, In the Kings Royall steed, name and authority; as the words of Coverdales, Ponets, Scoryes, and o thers Patents; Ed. 6. pars prima in the Rolls, declare. And accordingly all their Proces, Sentences, Probate of Wills, and Commissions of Administration, (of which there are some ya extant under the Kings owne Seale) both in the Prerogaine Count of Canterbury and elsewhere, were made out onely in the Kings name, and under his Seale, according to this Ad and the Contents of their owne Letters Patents, and all their owne Registers in those times witnes; & Regia authoritate subhatsoever, till Queen Mary by her Prelates procurement.

caused to be expunseed, upon the revivall of the Popes authority; as Mafter For records in his Alts and Monuments, page 1294. The Bilhops I. Maria, cap. 2. got this Statute repealed, till which time they used the Kings Stile and Seale in all their proces, Commissions, and all other their proceedings. And then because the Popes usurped power and Jurisdiction was restored; they revived their old proceedings againe, # doing all in their owne names , and under their owne feales. # 1 & 2. The Scattte of t. facobi c.25. repealed that Act of repeale, and Philip and revived this Statute againe; which in truth, * being but a Mary, c. 8. meere Declaration of the Common Law , giving no new , but * See Sir onely reviving & declaring the Kings old rightful Ecclefiaftical lobn Davis Iuridiction and reftoring it to the Crowne, (our Bishoprickes ports. f. 97. themselves, with all the Episcopall and Ecclesiasticall furifaction 98. united to them_ , being originally derived to Bishops by the * do- * See Frannation and Charters of Princes; not from any divine right or infti- cu Mason tution: as is evident, and expressely resolved by 17. Edw. 3. 40. bnConsecraa. Regifter pars 2.1. 77. 78. 37. H. 8. c. 17. 1. Edw. 6. c. 2. bops, 1.4.9 1. Elit. c. 1. 31. H. 8. c. 9. Endmerns biftoria Novoramo, 10.11.12. lib. 4. pag. 95. 96. Joannis Seldeni Spicilegium, ibidem pag. 15.E. 3. 209, to 213. Gooawins Catalogue of Bishops , and our histories Statute de and Lambookes :) needed no revivall at all ; and was fuffi- Provierib. Atruth to cleare that no Prelove Indian Statute of 1. Jacobi. Raftall Pro-Atruth to cleare, that no Prelate, Judge or Loyall Subject, can Premunire, or dares deny it. Hereupon in the Parliaments of 30. and 70. Cookes Infacebi, the Bishops were proceeded against, and two of them stitutes, in a maner attained in a Frammire by the Liwer-howfe of Par- 1.94 4. hament , for making Citations and Proces in their owne names, and using their owne Scales; contrary to this Statute, and the very Common-Law, in derogation of the Kings Prerogative, and maintenance of the Popes usurped power, or an Episcopall farisdiction of their owne , not derived from the King : who by the Statute of t. Eliz. c. 11 bath as large and ample Ecclefialtical Iurildiction as King Henry the 8. or Edw. 6. enjoyed, as 8. Eliz. c. 1. refolves : and therefore ought to have all proceedings, Citations,

M 3

Die-

n bu

per-day)

De

in the

befine

in the

mpri-

of the

aking arrar,

le in a true,

King

(hops

Eccle-

n pre-

num;

ritate nd ar-

nd o lls, and

ne ya

cly in

is Ad

ll their ritate

Proca

ment, canfel

And

tations, Proces, Censures in all Ecclesiasticall Courts, made in his owne name, and with his owne Seale alone, that so bearing †Math.22. his name, bis † Image and Superscription onely, they might be 19.20.21. knowne and acknowledged to be his, and to be kept by his Regall authority: whereas now they are onely called and reputed the Bishops Courts and Consistories, not the Kings, because * See Sir * all things are there done and transacted in their names, under solve their Sealer alone, by each of them apart, when as yet in the authority: whereas now they are onely called and reputed the Bishops Courts and Consistories, not the Kings, because * all things are there done and translated in their names, under their Seales alone, by each of them apart, when as yet in the High Commission, wherein all their forces and Iurisdictions are combined, they can doe nothing at all, but by a special Commission under his Majesties great Seale, nor send out any Proces but in his name alone, under his speciall Seale, the very forme whereof is expressed in the body of their last Commission. An unanswerable argument, that they who alltogether can doe nothing but by his Majesties speciall Commission, Seale, and in his name alone; can (at leastwise ought to) doe as little or lesse without it, when they are devided in their severall Iurisdictions, in the selfe-same or such like Ecclesiasticall causes, which they handle in their High-Commission.

* See Sir Iohn Davii Reports. f. 97. 98.

Oa

He

bis

the

Go

bon

Lo

mai

yea

man

60

of .

A

H.

man wit

late

Ima

it co

com

of fi

Cou

ding

Seal

Ben

doe

WOU

jects

terfe

The Bishops, and all Ecclesiasticall Officers notwithstanding all the Premises and this expresse Statute, for the advancement, the Supportation of the Kings Ecclesiastical Prerogative, and the abandoning of all Papall or usured Ecclesiastical Iurisdiction then Practised by our Prelates; still most presumptuously persevere both to keepe their Courts, and make all their Proces, Summons, Citations, and Censures in their owne names and Stiles, not the Kings; as if King Charles had lessethen his, (and themselves more inherent Ecclesiastical Iurisdiction then their Predecessor, and their Courts were onely their owne, not his;) and use no other Seale of office but their owne armses onely, not his Majesties; for which they are all in a Pramming, yet such is their power, greatnesse and violence

* (as it was in ancient times ,) that none may feake a- . See the gainst or question this their disloyalty and usurpation upon his Supplication Majefties Crowne and dignity , or fo much as plead his Royall of Beggars. right herein against them, (though bound thereto by his Fox Acts & Oath of Supremacy and allegiance;) but hee is forthwith Monuments imprisoned, fined, persecuted, as if hee were some notorious Mr. Tyndals Heretique , Rebell , or Capitall Malefactor ; neither dare Practife of his Majesties temporall sworne Judges or Officers; (some of Popish Prethem now fearing our domineering Archprelates more then lates, and God, then his Majesty, or Hell it selfe) releive or countenance Wraughtons home. And can they then be his Majesties Freinds , or alias Tur-Loyall Subjects, who thus vexe and torture those who ners have maintaine his Lawes and just Ecclefiasticall Prerogative, ting of the yea keepe Visitations Courts, Consistories, and exercise all Remiss maner of spiritual Jurisdiction , without any special 80.14. Dr. COMMISSION, OR G R A N T Barnes his of Ecclefiasticall Jurisdiction, from, by, or under his Supplication Majefty , which this Act , and 2. H. S. c. I. 31. to King. H. 8 H. S. c. 14. 32. H S. c. 17. 14. Eliz. c. 5. by name require?) coyning their Processe and proceedings with their owne names and Seales, not his. If any Prelate should presume to coyne mony, and stampe his owne Image, Name or armes thereon, every man would repute qSee2. &3. it counterfeit, and him a q Traytor or felon at the least; and Ed. 6.4.17. commend', affift all fuch, who should detect or accuse him of fuch a Capitall crime. And is not their coyning of their Courts, Processe, Citations, and Ecclesiastical proceedings in their owne names, , with their owne Episcopall Seales, as bad? Certainely if the Iudges of the Kings Bench, or other his Majesties temporal Courts, should doe thus , the Bilhops themselves would be the first , who would proclaime them Traitors, Rebells; and no Subjeds would obey their Processe, but reject them as counterfeit coyne.

adein

arine

ebt le

Ecgal

ed the

ecanfe

under

inthe

aion:

pecial ut any

e very

mmif-

etha

Cion,

) doc

eir fe.

Eccle-

Com-

with-

or the

ffical

urped

; fill

s, and

Cen-

; 25

re in-

, and fe no

ot his

unire;

lence (AS

Why then should not the Indges (bis Majeflies , not the Bilhops . (worne Officers) and other good Subjects, fay Ssat. 3. 1. Elize, 1. as much of them, and their proceedings: having heither Cafan Image nor Superscription? which they have quite obliterated, andin flead thereof thrust in their owne , as Sir fohn Davis long fince ob. Greed in his Irish Reports , fol. 98. in the case of Premunire : the least punishment they have incurred for this audacious attempts.

Nicoph. Greger. Rom. Hift.

which is nought elfe, but a pulling of his Majesties Royal Crowne and Diademme from his facred head , to put iton It isstried of t Alexander the Great, that pal. their owne. fing over the River Euphrates , his Crowne fell of his head into the 1.10. f. s. middest of the River, which a certaine Mariner recovering by Delutarch. Swimming, because bee could not other wife fave and carry it tothe Alexander. Ship , hee put it on his head , and so brought it to Alexander : who thereupon gave him a talent for recovering his Crowne, but yet ca of his head, because hee had unworthily set it thus on his owne head. Certainly should his Majesty serve all our Bishops and Archbilhops thus for putting on his Crowne on their owne heades, when as there is , thankes be to God , no fuch perill of lofing it, or necessity to doe it, as in this case of Alexanders, the had but just their dements for this their audacious insolence most of them being raised meerely from the dunghill only by bis Majesties speciall favour, not their owne demerits, as ther Wherefore let themselves and must needs acknowledge. their Abbetters thinke what they please, that they are theKing best Subjects; that those are Schismatickes and Seditious perfons, who oppose them in these their disloyall proceedings; ye doubtleffe all Loyall Subjects and the King himfelfe, maymet justly complaine against them in the very words of that notable Writt in the Register , pars 2. fol. 61. stiled : Ad lura Regia; Turbamur, nec immeritò, & movemur; dum illos qui sub nostro degunt dominio, & ibidem beneficiis & redditibus honorantur, quo prætextuin defensione & tuitione jurium : Regiæ Coronz iplos pro and out oft did or f iP

CC

Vi

fio

the

the

D

me

gin, dred ofin trim Eccle byib the ci after Zeale stecia name Churc the me because

Godly

Churc and th of fuch thefe c

the Ca

ipsos nobis affistere condeceret, eadem jura erectis contra nos cervicibus conspicimus satagentes, pro viribus impugnare: † in grave præjudicium & læ-* Note. fionem Regiæ dignitatis nostræ, &c. For which I shall leave them to bis Majesties Iustice: desiring them and all their statterers to reminate upon this excellent Passage in Sirsehn Davis his Ir sh. Reports, London, 1628. f. 97. 98. the Case of Praminire, wherein tee thus excellently relates the true original & progresse of all Ecclessissical Courts, Causes and Iurisdictions;

and the ingratitude of Bilhops to their Soveraignes in blotting out their Princes Images, Titles, and Superfcriptions out of their Courts, Seales and Proces, and the reasons why thy

न्ताव ।

not :

, fay

Cafan

andia

ce ob.

: the

mpt,

oyall titon

et paf-

ing by

tothe

et cu

e bead.

Arch-

eades,

lofing

, they

olence

nly by

s they

s and

Kings

is pergs; yet

aymuk

otable

Iora

mur;

idem

ktu in ronz

ipfos

Fir St then, let us fee, when this distinction of Ecclesiasticall or foirituall califes, from civile and ten por all canfes, did for st begin, in point of furifd. Etion. Affuredly for the space of three bundred yeares after Christ, this diff netion was not knowne or heard of in the Christian world. For the causes of Testaments, of Matrimony, of Hastardy, and Adultery, and the rest which are called Ecclefiasticall or spirituall causes, were meerely civill & determined by the rules of the civile Law, and subject onely to the furifdiction of the civile Magistrate, as all civilians will testifie with me. But after that the Emperours had received the Christian faith, out of a Teale and defire they had, to grace and honor the Learned and Godly B shops of that time, they were pleased to single out certaine steciall causes, , wherein they granted furisdiction unto the Bishops: namely in cases of Tyths, because they were payed to men of the Church : In causes of Matrimony, because marriages were for the most part folemnized in the Church : In cafer Testimentory, because Testaments were many times made in extremis, when Churchmen were present, giving spiritual comfort to the Testator, and therefore they were thought the fittest persons to take the probates of such Testaments. Howbeit these Bishops did not proceede in these causes according to the Canons and Decrees of the Church (for the Canon Low was not then hatched or dream't off) but according to the Rules of the Imperiall Law; as the civile Magistrate did proceed in other causes, neither did the Emperours, in giving this for risdiction unto them, give away their owne supreme and absolute power, to correct & punish these fudges, as well as others of shey performed not their feverall duties. This then is most certaine that the primitive furifdution in all thefe causes, was in the Civil Ma gistrate, and so in right it remaineth at this day, and though it be derived from bim, it remainest in him, as in a Fountaine, For every Christian Monarch (as well as the Godly Kings of Inda) is custos utrinsque Tabula, and consequently bath power to punifo, not onely Treason, Murder, Theft, in all maner of Foru and fraud, but incest, adultery, usury, perjury, Simon, Greery , idolatry , blashbemy , neither are these causes in refel of their owne quality and nature, to be distinguished one from an ther by the names of spiritual or temporall. For why is adulten a spirituall cause, rather then murther, when they are book offences against the second Table, or Idolatry, rather then perjun being both offences likewise against the first Table? And a deed if wee consider the natures of these causes, it will seeme some what absurd; that they are distinguished by the name of stirituall and temporall, for to speake properly, that which is of posed to spirituall, should be tearmed carnall: And that which is opposed to temporall, should be called eternall. therefore if things were called by their proper names, adulten, should not be called a spirituall offence, but a Carnall. shall I expresse plainly and briefly, why these causes were full denominated, some spirituall or Ecclesiasticall, and others temporall and Civill? Truly, they were so called, not from the nature of the causes, as I faid before, but from the qualing of the persons, whom the Prince had made Indges in these causes The Clergy did fludy spirituall things, and did professe to live for cundum spiritum, and were called spiritualtmen, and therefore they called the causes, wherein Princes had given them furtdiction, spirituall canses, after their owne name and quality But because the Lay Magistrates were sasd to intend in thin g

th

C

gr

tu

the

fil

armi

oth

nici

they

Shos

Re

OH

COM

Caf

this

mos

they

nevi

they

men

giftr

to A

pear

perfe

mi[[i

Ana

can

things of this world, which are temporall and transitory, the Clergy called them fecular or temporall men , and the causes wherein they were Indges temporall causes: * This distinction began first in the . Note. Court of Rome, were the Clergy baving by this furifdiction gotten great wealth, their wealth begot pride, their pride begut ingratude towards Princes, who first gave them their furifdition, and then , according to the nature of all ungratefull persons, they went about to extinguish the memory of the benefit : for whereas their furisdiction was first derived from Cafar, in the execution whereof they were Cafars Judges, so as both their Courts, and causes ought still to have borne Cafars Image and Superscription, as belonging unto Cafar; They blotted Cafars name out of the style of their Courts, and called them Courts Christian, as if the Courts holden by other Magistrates had beene in Comparison but Courts of Ethnickes, and the causes whichin their nature were meerely Civile, they called Spirituall and Ecclesiasticall. So as if the Emperor should challenge his Courts, and causes againe, and say, Reddite Cælari , quæ funt Cælaris , they would all cry out on the centrary part, and fay, date Deo, que funt Dei, our Courts beare the name and Title of Christ , the Superscription of Cefar is quite worne out, and not to be found upon them. And this point of their Policy is worth the observing, that when they found their furisdiction in Matrimoniall causes, to be the most sweet, and gainefull of all other (for of Matrimony they made matter of Meny indeed) to the end that Cafar might never resume so rich a perquisit of their spiritual Inrisdiction, they reduced Matrimony into the Number of the feaven Sacra-After which time is had beene facriledge, if the civile Magistrate had intermedled with the least matter that had relation to Matrimony, or any depentancy thereupon. So then yet appeareth, that all canses whereof Ecclesiasticall or Spirituall persons have cognisans, or Isrisdiction by the grants or permission of Princes, are called Ecclesiasticall or Spirituall causes. And as all their Courts are called spirituall Courtes, so all causes determinable in these Courts, are called spirituall causes. N 2 te did

is for perfor-

et the

Ma

626 utzine;

Fuda)

punush,

mony

respell

m au dutten

erjun,

and in

e forme.

of sp

15 07

ed that

dultery,

re first

rs tem-

t from quality

CANSO.

love for berefin

Jury-

quality.

nd the

this g

Au

But

And therefore where Master Lalor hath acknowledged the Kings Majesty to be supreams. Governour in all Exclesiasticall causes, hee hath therein acknowledged the Kings Supremacy in all spiritual causes, wherein hee hath but rendred to Essax, but that which is Casars, and hath given unto his Majesty no more, then all the Bishops of England have yeelded to his Predecessors, not onely in this later age, but also in sormer times both before and since the Conquest, as hath him before at large expressed.

Tuch

TE

LI

fors

DIFE

 $T\varepsilon$

ding

it fur

orde

to m cular teft a

as ap

brid

and o prebi

every

or M

or ma

make

† I.

King

all och

tuall o

forreig

ought!

or aut

thereft

diction

that h

Highn

The Statute of r. Eliz.c. 1. (as also g. Eliz. c 1. 8. Eliz. Against the c. 1. 26. H. 8. c. 1. 37. H. 8. c. 17,) enacts, That all Ec. Bis bops and clesiasticall and spirituall furisdictions, Priviledges, Superiorities, cials exerci- and preheminences, which heretofore have beene, or may lawfully fing of Ec- be exercised, or used by any spiritualt or Ecclesiasticall power, or an clefiasticall thority, (therfore all ordinarie as well as extraordinarie fur [dictio] Iurisdiction, for the Visitation of the Esclesiasticall state & persons, & for reforand keeping mation, order & correction of the fame, & of allmaner of Errors, He. Visitations resies, schismes, abuses, offenses, contempts and enormities whator Confiftories in their seever, Shall for ever be united and annexed to the Imperial owne names Crowne of this Realme; and that the Queen her Heires and Sucwithout spe- cessors, shall have full power and authority by vertue of that All, ciall Patents by Letters Paten's under the great Seale of England, to assign, fians under name, and authorize when, and as of en as they shall thinke meet she Kings and convenient, and for such and so long time as shall please them, great Seale. (not Archbi hops or Bi hops who now would monopolize all Ecclesiastical Inristiction to themselves ,) but such person and Archbif hop persons, being naturall borne subjects, as they shall thinke meet, to with bis So-exercife, use, occupie, and execute under them, all maner of fuveraigne for risdictions, priviledges, and prehaminences (therefore all ordthis pomer, nary as well as extraordinary) in any way touching or concerning marke thu Ecclesiasticall furifdiction, within the Realmes of England, and claufe well. Ireland, or any other the Kings Dominions, and to visite, reform, redresse, order, correct and amend all Errors, Heresies, Schismes, Abases, offences, contempts and enormities what sever, punishable by any Ecclesiasticall power, authority, or furifaction; and that Such

fuch person or persons so named, authorized and appointed by them, *AFTERTHE SAID LETTERS PA-TENTS TO THEM MADE AND DE-not before or LIVERED as is afore fayd , Shall have full power and authors fuch Letters ty by vertue of this Act , and of the SAYD LETTERS Patents. PATENTS, under your Highnes, your Heires and Succesfors , to exercise , use and execute all the premises ; A C C O R-DING TO THE TENOR AND EF-FECT OF THE SATD LETTERS PA-TENTS, any matter or cause to the contrary notwithstanding: And for the better observation and maintenance of this Act; it further enacts; That every Archb flop (who arthe first men ordered by this Act, and their owne first Canons, An. 1603. to maintaine the Kings Prerogative in all the forenamed particulars, and yet now the men that first dare question and contest against it with his Majesty even before his Royall presence, as appeares by the late case concerning the Visitation of Cambridge:) Bishops and all and every other Ecclesiasticall person, and other Ecclefiafticall Officer and Minister of what estate, dignity, preheminence, or degree soever hee or they be or shall be, and all and every temporall fudge, Major and other Lay or temporall Officer or Minister, and every other person having the Kings Highnes fee or wages within this Realme, and every the Kings Dominions, shall make, take, and rece ve this corporall Oath upon the Enangelist. † I A. B. doe uterly testify and declare in my conscience, that the + See 28. Kings Highnes is the onely supreme Governour in this Realme, and H.S.c. 10. all other his Highnes Dominions and Countries as well in all forituallor Ecclesiasticall things, or causes, as temporall; and that no forreigne Prince, person, Prelate, state, or Potentate, bath, or ought to have any furifdiction, power, superiority, preheminence or authority Ecclesiasticall or spirituall within this Realme ; and therefore I doe utterly renounce and forfake all forraigne Jurifdictions, powers, super orities, and authorities; and doe promife, that henceforth I shall beare faith and true allegiance to the Kings Highnes, his Heires and lawfull successors, AND TO MT ZV. 3

ed the

ficall

but

more,

effors,

e and

Eliz:

Il Ecrities, wfully

or an

Letio)

refor-

s,He.

whatperiall

Suc-

Att,

Signe,

meet

them,

ze all

n and

t, to

of fu-

ordi-

rning

, and

rme,

mes,

hable

that

Such

MY POWER SHALL ASSIST AND

*Ordinarius DE FEND all Jurisdictions, priviledges, prehemineme, dicitur quia and authorities granted or belonging to the Kings Highnes, be babet ordi-Heires and Successors, or united, and annexed to the Imperial nation surfaces of this Realme. So helpe me God, and by the conum risdictionem of this Booke. Which Oath every Officer and Min ster is nown in sure pro-take, by the Statute of 5. Eliz.c. 1.

deputatione: Thefe Statutes, unite all maner of Ecclefiafticall Jurille Cookes Inftitutes f. 96. Elion what foever (therefore as well * ordinary as extraordinan, a. If then the elfe the King should be supreame Governour onely in extraordinary low Bifbops dinary Ecclefiafticall causes) to the Crowne , together with or Bis hops Prerogatives , priviledges , and preheminences what sever then unto belonging ; whereof this is I the cheife , that all Ecclesiastica usurpe to themselves, Courts, processe and proceedings should be kept and made, onely i Ordinarylu- his Majesties name, and by his Royall arthority, that foth without any might be knowne to be his Courts and Frocesse : as his come and Patent from ther Courts are by this meanes knowne to be his. And further the King in they provide exprelly, that none shall exercise any mener of E their owne elefiasticall furifaiction (be it ordinary or extraordinary) with right, this is any the Kings Dominions , but by vertue of his Majefiles special immediate to allow an Letters Patents; and that none fall visite, or correct any perfect Ecclefiasti- for any Ecclesiasticall offences , contempts, Errors , &c. builyla call Iurisdi- Majesties speciall Letters Patents under his great Seale authorized Realme, not the start of the better of fervation and maintenance of this to united to or thing, they prescribe this Oath of Supremacy and Allegiana derived from to the Archbishops , B. Shops , and all Ecclesiasticall persons , and the Crowne, Officers what foever, to this very end, that they should not dan and to deny to exercise any Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction, or keep any Conthe Kings fiftory, or visitation Courts, without his Majesties special La supremacy ters Patents under his broad Scale authorizing them fo to doe; w Ecclesiafii . der peine of direct willfull perjury and difloyalty. call causes, contrary to this and the forecited Alts. f See 1 E.6 e 2.5.E.6. pars, 1.in the Reli Goverdales and Scoryes Patents. Sir IohnDavis Report f. 98. Matth. 22.19.20.21. Aice

fron

dua

ente

cles

clef Vifi

in-h

VCT

Epi

bis.

Reed

der

refol

Kin

fors

as th

vine

they

then

diffe

any

Bih

ficer

bring

raign Subj

being

this ?

macy

ricus

with

4 4.

And on the other lide, that all temporall + Judges , Ju + Who take Rices, Majors, Officers and those who receive any fees or wages a more punfrom the King, and all Barresters, Serjeants at Law and Gra- duallOath to duates in either University , Should likewise take this Oath , to the this purpose, entent they should not suffer any Archbishop, Bishop, or Ec- prescribed by defiaftical person, Officer or Minister, to exercise any Ec of 18.Ed.3. clefiafticall Jurisdiction, or keepe any Consistories, Courts, or Statute 3. Visitations, but by his Majesties special Letters Patents, and which! wish in his Majesties name and right, (as they ought to doe by the they would very Common t Law, their B. shoprickes themselves, and all their seriously con-Episcopall power and Jurisdiction being meerely derived from 131.H.S.c. bis Majesty by Lesters Patents, and to be exercised onely in his 9.1.E.6.c. fleed and right alone, by a derivative power from, by and un- 2. Eadmenu der him. , as the Statutes of 37. H. S. c. 17. & I. E. 6. c. 2. hift. Novor. refilte) and as they constantly did in King Edward the 6. and 16.4. p.95. King Henry the eight dayes (the Queen then, and her Succef- Spicil, ibid. fors fince having as * full and ample Ecclefiasticall furifdiction, p. 209. to as those two Princes had before; and the Prelates no more Di-213.17E.3 vine right thereunto now, then in King Edwars dayes, which 40,4.4nd they dare not once deny: and that they should resist with fland of Res. them to uttermost of their power, under peine of perjury and gifter ps. 2. difloyalty to his Majesty, his Crowne and dignity, in case f. 67-6. 68. any of them should attempt the contrary. Our Archbishops, a Cookes In-Bi hops, and Ecclefiafticall perions with their Judges, Of-fix. f. 94.4. ficers, and Ministers therefore, not onely renuing and 5. Eliz c. 8. bringing in the Canon and Civill Law of Popes , of for 8 liz.c. 1. raigne Princes, and Councels, to rule and judge his Majesties & By Lation. Subjects by without any Act of Parliament, (which is a # cleare Sermon. of bringing mand fetting up of a forraigne power & Jurifdiction within the Plough. this Realme, contrary so the very words of the Outh of Supre- c. 13. 20. macy and allegiance, and the Statutes of 25. H. 8.c. 19. 1. Eh 7. 28. H. 8. c. c. 1.5. Eli7.c 1. & 3. fac. c. 4. as the Bookes called Miles & Cle- 10 16.38 ricus: and William Wranghton in the hunting of the Romish Fox, 4 Ed 6.c. withouther have long since notably prooved; For which they are all in 11.22. H. a u. Pramunire by the refolution of these and other Statutes:) 8. c.15.

0.21. And

i Meneu

es , hi

mperial

Conten

s news

Jurisa

rdinan

extraor

with er then

fiastica

onely i

at fo the e ana i furthe.

r of E

) with

8 Special

y perfa

out by hi

horiza

his ten

egiana

ns , and not dan

y Cop

all La oe; un

the Roll

104

But likewise keeping Consistory Courts, Visitations, and exercifing all maner, Ecclefiafficall Iurifdiction, both in the owne names, and without any fuch speciall Patents under the broad Seale of England enabling them , (though they con demne themselves by doing quite otherwise in the High Conmiffion,) muft needs be guilty of Perjury, Diffoyalty, in High Contempt to his Majefly , his Royall Crowne in dignity; and so are all such temporal ludges, Justices, Offices Lawyers, Schollers and other persons, who have taken this Oath, if they withfland not this notorious usurpation, upon his Majesties Prerogative in cases Ecclesiasticall, to the utmos of their power, as this Oath obligeth them, both in pointed Conscience and Loyalty to doe.

The Officers in most of his Majesties temporal Coun established by Law, have beene lately questioned for such a torted fees, which no Patent or Statute authorized themb * A good and take; and have compounded with his Majefty for the lame.

Whether the * Eilhops , and their Officers (who bother croch and exact many new and greater fees for the probate of wills and granting of administrations, then the Statute it fells just Project, to rasfe momy for bu Ma effics Jupply.

† Brooke

G. II.

x Reg. ps. 2.

Extortion,

Inditement

IO.

See Afb.

allowes them to receive; grant Licenses to marry without an Banes, first asked, (contrary to the forecited Statutes and ite Booke of Common Prayer, as if they were absolute Kings, to dispense with Lawes) keepe Courts and Visitations (wherein 21.22. H. they use many extortions and oppressions) without am Lawfull authority or Letters Patents from his Majesty in the & 4. E. 6. owne Names and rights alone (incurring thereby a * Prame nire) ought not much more to be deeply fined to his Majely f.125.126 for these usurpations, presumptions, extortions, disloyalties referre to the wildome and Judgement of thole, who are be able to determine, and cause it to be put in execution too, if as 11.12. & ceffity so require, for his Majesties best advantage, who may x justly squeise these Spunges, for their unjust exactions and er tortions on his subjects, without Law or Patent, and feife a

then

thei

ban

dair

frau

Kin

if be

Eyr

mag

agai

and

presc of Tu

curi forn

belo

intit

felle

lawf

bilho

can p rizin

nods fions

ters o

ry wi

own

fcribe

ticles

tutio

2. H.

ton Se

Stamf

their temporalities and offices as Forfited, into his Royall hands.

ns , and

in the

CY COD

h Con

y, 1

the an

Officeis

cen thi

, upor

utmo

pointd

Coun

ich a

hemi

me.

other

oate of

out any

and the Kings,

berein

at am

n their

rems

Lajeth

lties, l

re bel

,if ne

pm o

nd ex

eife d

their

If any Lay man or Prelate, though never so great, claime or exercise any temporal or Civill Iutisdiction, fraunchise, Royalty or Priviledge without a Charter from the King or his progenitors, a Quo warranto lieth against him, and if hee can produce no such Charter, nor any allowance in ancient. Extens to intitle himselfe thereto, but onely a have prescription and usage (though time out of mind) the King shall have judgement against him, and his said surifdiction, Fraunchises, Royalties, and Priviledges, shall be seised into the Kings hands forthwith: prescription being no title at all against the King in such matters of surisdiction and Prerogative, Quia nullum tempus oc-

So if a man y 1.H.7.23 currit Regi; as hath beene y oft adjudged. for many descents together enjoyeth lands, anciently of right Brooke Prebelonging to the Crowne, if hee can shew no Royall Charter scription, 1 8 intiteling him thereto, hee may be forthwith lawfully diffpo- 56.64.65. felled of it; his bare possession, though ancient, being no Fitzherbert lawfull title to barre the King. Sure I am, that all the Arch-7.13.14. bilhops, Bilhops, Archdeacons, Deanes, and their Officials 24. 40. can produce no ancient Patents, nor allowances in Eyre, autho- 44. 45. rizing them to keepe Consistories, Courts, Visitations, Sy. Consisans. 5. nods, or to fend out processe, Summons, Citations, Suspen- 6.16.30. fions, Sequestrations, Excommunications; or to grant Let Report. 23. ters of Administration, Probates of Wills, or Licenses to mar- 35. H. 6. ry without asking Banes, in their owne names, or under their 25.37. owne Seales; much leffe, to make, print, promulge, pre- H. 6. 27. feribeand impose new formes of Oathes, Ceremonies, Ar-Br. Custome 5.34. H.6. ticles, Injunctions, Canons, Orders, Ecclefiafticall Confti- 27.4. 14. tutions in their Visitations, Courts, or Synods, in their owne H.7. 22.b. 21 E.3.4.

9. H. 6. 21. a. 12. H. 7. 20. b. 14. H. 7. 22. b. 35. E. 3. Villenage. 22. Liteleton Sell. 178. Plowden f. 321. 322. 234. 243. 247. L. quinto E. 4. fol. 1 1 1. Stamford Praceg. f. 32. Cookes Institutes, Sell. 178.

names, and that by their owne inherent power; or to excemmunicate, filence, fuspend, deprive, degrade, imprilon, fine, confine, or banith any of his Majesties Loyail Subject for infringing, or not submitting themselves to chese their and dacious proceedings and dangerous diffeyall innovations, a now they dayly doe. Neither can they plead prescription, or long ulage to justifie them in thefe, or any of thele particular, against the forecited Statutes still in force, interrupting, abo lithing this their prescription; the rather, because all their Pre-† See 26.27 decessors in † King Henry the 8. and Edward the 6. several 30.31.36. Raignes , tooke special Licenses , Patents and Commissions from & 37.H.8. $2.3.4.5 the Crowne (for themselves alone, not their Successors) to use, and exercise all Fevery particular part of Exclesiasticall Juris diction, & to keep their Confifories, visitations, Synods, & make out all their prepars. I.m coffe, Censures, Atts, Licenses in the Kings steed, name, and authoris alone, not their owne, according to the Statutes of 26. H.S.c. i. 25. H. S. c. 19. 37. H. S. c. 17. I. Edw. 6. c. 2. Which St. tutes (as themselves , with the whole Convocation and Parla-ment in I. & 2. of Phil. and Mary c. 8. confesse, in the Supplication registred in that Act) did utterly take away and abolish all their Episcopall Rights and Iurisdictions, and whol-

M

and

biff

A

Fur

of s

Chi

larg

Kin

hop

Phi

call

they

Cro

refto

the 8

Iuri

whe

coul

hold

exer

Righ

VIVE

in as

or K

C. I.

Prela

Vifit

Aical

name

orun these

Com

or Co

all or

+ I. 6 2. Phil. & M1-Ty.c. 8.

5 Ed. 6.

the Patent

Rolls.

ly vest them in the Crowne; whence they thus Perition the * Insuper Majestatibus vestris sup-King and Queen. plicamus, ut pro sua pietate efficere dignentur, utes quæ ad Iurisdictionem nostram & libertatem Eccle. fiasticam, pertinent fine quibus debitum nostri paftoralis officij & curæ animarum nobis commissæex. ercere non possumus, nobis superiorum temporum injuria ablata restituantur, & ea nobis, & Ecclesiis perpetuò illæsa & salva permaneant, & ut omnes Leges, quæ hanc Nostram Iurisdictionem, & Libertatem Ecclesiasticam * tollunt, seu quovis modo impediunt Abrogaentur, ad honorem Dei & Ma-Y Nota.

lis bed and

Majestatum vestrarum, &c. And hereupon it was then + The Popes and there enabled that the Ecolofia fiscall Jurif diction of the Arch and Prelates bishops , Bishops, Ordinaries (and of the * Popes Holines and Sea Ecclefiasti-Apostolike too, from which all their inherent usurped Episcopalical Iuris-Jurisdiction was derived) Should be in the some state , for processe diction aboof fines; punifiment of crimes, and execution of Cenfures of the revived to-Church , with knowledge of causes belonging to the same, and as gether. large in these points , as their furifdiction was in the 20. yeare of Therefore King Henry the 8. By which it is most apparant that the Bil- of the Same hops and whole Convocation in Queene Maryes and King nature, and Philips dayes, did not claime their Episcopall and Ecclesiafticall Iurisdiction fure Divino, as our Prelates doe now, for of this they speake not one word in their Petition, but onely from the Crowne, whence they thus Petition the King and Queene to restore it to them by Parliament; that from the 25. of Henry the 8, till 2. of Phil. and Mary, the Bishops inherent power and Iuridiation was as clearly abolished, as the Popes, (from whence it was derived) by the forecited Statutes, and that they could make no processe, keep no Courts, inflict no Censures, hold plea of no Ecclesia Ricall causes, keep no Visitations, nor exercise any Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction in their owne names or Rights, but onely in the Kings. Which Statutes being all revived, and the Kings Ecclefisfticall Iurisdiction fully restored in as large, (if not more ample) maner as ever Henry the 8. or King Edward the 6. injoyed it, by the Statutes of I. Eliz. c. I. S. Eliz. c. I. 8. Eliz. c. I. and other Statutes fince. Our Prelates and their Officialls now, can no more keep Courts, Visitations, make processe, hold plea of any Ecclesiaficall causes, or any such Jurisdictions, in their owneright or names without special Patent or Commission from the King, orunder their owne Seales, then their Predecessors could in these Kings Raignes. Seing therefore our Prelates and their Commissifiaries can plead no prescription, nor shew any Charter or Commission since these Statutes, enabling them to exercise all or any of the premises in their owne names or rights, and under excem-

prilon,

ubjects

eir au-

ns, &

non, or

iculars

, abo.

eir Prt

(everal es from

ife, and

tion, of

eir pro-

uthorin

8. c. L

ch Su-

Parlu-

n their

ay and

whol

on the

fup-

ut ea

ccle.

i pa-

eex.

murc

efiis

nnes

Li-

iovis

ei &

Ma-

der their owne Seales, good reason is there that his Majesty by a Quo Warranto and Pramunirethould now reposses him selfe and disposses all them of this their usurped authoring which they have too long exercised without any shadow of Law or right, to the great prejudice of his Ecclesiasticall Prerogative, and greater violation of his poore oppressed Subject Liberties, they having now nothing left to plead against it.

From all the Statutes and Premises it is appaparant.

First, That Archbishops, Bishops, Arch-Deacon, Officials and Commissaries have no power or Jurisdiction at all aB.H. S.c. I to a call or Summon any Convocation Synod or Visitation , but the Kings Majesty onely by his Writ; nor yet to b make, promule, 25 H. 8. H. 8 c 15. publish, or execute, any Ecclesiastical Constitutions, Canons, Ca 37 H.8 c. remonies, Ordinances, Articles, or Decrees, but fuch as are and 17.27. Eli. Shall be first ratified and approoved by the King and Parliament; c.28. 29. and that all their Visitation-Articles which they print, publith, Eliz the All and give in charge to Churchwardens, and Sidemen to prefent of one Sub-upon, are utterly unlawfull, and not to be admitted, received, by two clergy submitted to or presented on , by any Loyall Subject , but 31. Eliz. refused and withstood under peine of perjury : But especially c. 14. 35. their late, ftrange innovating diforderly Orders and injunctions Eliz c. 12. (contrary to all Law and Canon) for turning Communion 39. Eliz. Tables into Altars; railing them close prisoners Altarwise a. Eliz c. 17. gainst the East Wall of the Church , (that no a Habeas Corpu 3 Ia.c. 25.

7. Ia. c. 22. 21. Ia. c. 32. I. Car. c. 1,3, Car. c. 6. b. 4. Ed. 1. c. 5. 2. H. 4. c. 1. 9. 2. H. 8. c. 1. 9. 14. 27. H. 8. c. 15. 37 H. 8. c. 17. 21. H. 8. c. 14. 26. 32. H. 8. c. 5. 38 I. Ed. 6. c. 1. 3. 54. Ed. 6 c. 11. 5. 56. Ed. 6 c. 1. 3. 4. 1. Eliz c. 1. 2. 13. Elic c. 12. Ed. 6. 13. Eliz c. 12. 13. Eliz c. 12. Ed. 6. 13. Ed. 6. 14. Eliz c. 12. 13. Eliz c. 12. 14. Eliz

Ps. 1, c. 12. 13. pars. 2.c. 23.24.

may

may

Gil,

mon

owne

toth

rece

refor

ever

* ft

unle

then

Pray

com

mity

and

and

Chu in th

the 1

NI

of ce

ven

TH

FO

thos

nies,

Mini

Nort

Ceren

may thence remove them into the body of the Church or Chaun- e See the Ru-Gil, when the Sacrament is administred, as the Booke of Com- brick before mon-Prayer , d Queen Elizabeths Injunctions and the Bishops the Commuowne e Canons enjoyne;) enforcing the people to march up mon. to the Altar and rayled Table by feverall rankes and files, thereto dNeere the receive the Sacrament kneeling at the rayle, to the great diffur-end 82. bance of the Communicants , contrary to the uledge ever fince Bp. lewels reformation first brought in, standing up and quatting downe answer to againe at every Gloria Patri; bowing, caping, and scraping at Hardings every naming of Ielus in time of Divine Service and Sermons; Preface Re* standing up at Athanasius and the other later Nicene Creed, ding, Divis. and whileft the Gospell is reading, refusing to Church woemen, 16 Artic. 3. unlesse they come with vayles, which they doe then prescribe p 145.146 them: all which are directly contrary to the Booke of Common - * The Com-Prayer, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of Eng-mon Prayer Booke, preland, in which they are not fo much as intimated (much leffe feribes men commaunded) and to the Statute of 1. Eliz. c. 2. for the unifor- to flander mity of Common Prayer; which enacts; that all Persons, Vicars, only at the and other Ministers what seever shall use the said Common Prayers Apostles and Minister the Sacraments in all Cathedrall and Parish Creed. Churches in such order and forme as they be mentioned and set forth brick before in the faid Booke : and if they shall will fully or obstinately standing in the Commuthe same wse ANY OTHER RITES, CEREM O- nien pre-NY ORDER, FORME OR MANERScribes, that of celebrating the Lords-Supper openly or privily, or Mattens, E- we enthe Savenfong, administration of the Sacraments, or other open prayers crament is THEN IS MENTIONED AND SET adminified FORTH IN THE SATD BOOKE; (as all Shall stand thole doe who use the forementioned Novell Rites, Ceremo-in the body nies, Orders, new forme and & maner of celebrating the Lords-or Chauncelle and that the Minister, when her consecrates the Sacrament. Thall stand at the Northside of it, not at the North end. Hee therefore that consecrates and administers the Sacrament at the upper and of the Church or Chauncell at the North end of the Table turned Altar-wise, consecrates and celebrates the Sacrament in another forme and maner, and with other rives. Commonles then the Booke of Common Prayer and the Statute prescribe, and so is liable to the Punishments therefore so so are all those Bys Stheir Officers who vrage them so to doe.

0 3

supper,

Corpu 2 H.s. 2. H.S. 11. Eli, iefty by le him

athorin

all Pre

ubject

appa.

cacons,

nat all

but the

mulge

us , (c.

ere and

ment;

iblith,

present

eived,

, but

ecially

Stions,

union

vile a.

m, Ibid. uments vs Paci,

m27

Supper, Divine Service, Churching of Woemen; and those who many without Banes thrice publikely afked in the Church, contrary to the Rubrick before the forme of Mariage; none of these Ceremonies, Rites and Orders, being either mentioned or fer forth in the faid Booke:) Or Shall preach, declare, or fpeak any thing in the Derogation or Depraving of the faid Booke, or any thing therein conceined; or any part thereof; (as those doe, who preach for Altars, Rayling in and turning of Communion-Tables Altar-wife , bowing and chringing to Communion Table, Altars, and the name of lefus; Churching vayels, standing up a Gloria Patri, the Gospell and forenamed Creeds; comming up to the rayle to receive the Sacrament, the lawfulnes of Bishop Licenses to marry without Banes as ked, Mercy-leats, Crucifixes, Tapers Sanctum Canctorums, Christscorporall presencein the Sacrament, Maffe, and other Popish trumpery and Ceremonies;) and shall be thereof lawfully convicted, shall for feit for his first offence the profit of all his spirituall benefices or promotions during one whole yeare next after his conviction, and shall suffer imprisonment for the space of 6. monthes without bayle or mainprise, and for his second offence shall be Ipso facto deprived of all his spirituall promotions; And if any person or persons what seever shall by open fact, deed, or threatings, compell, cause, procure, or maintaine any person, Vicar, or Minister to use any other maner, Forme, Rite or Ceremony then is aforefaid, bee shall for the first offence for feit one hundred markes; for the second 400. Marke; for the third, all his goods and Cattels, and shall fuffer imprison-Which severall penalties and forefaitures ment during his life. all those Superstitious Ministers and Curates, who use, and preach for, and all those Prelates, Arch-Deacons, Commissaries, Officials, and Churchwardens, who by their threats, excommunications, Sequestrations, presentments, and Censures, enforce the use and practise of the forenamed Ceremonies and innovations, have without all queftion incurred; and ought to be indiced, imprisoned and fined for the same.

10

ke

Iu

de

du

and

gre

der

por

c. I

C.I;

7.7

tem

tem

ters

his t gene

then

which

both

Eccl

fifto clesia

legat

bithe

Pater

by ex

Secondly, That no Archbishop , Bishop , Arch-Deacon, , 31. H.8. or other Ecclefiafticall person, bath any authority or power to 2.14.32. keepe any Ecclesiastical Court, or execute any Ecclesiastical H.S.c. 15. Iurisdiction what soever within the Resime, but by , from and mn- 1.Ed.6.c.2 der his Majesty: and that by versue of special Leavers Parents, 1. Eliz. c. 1. or & Commissions under the broad Seale of England authorizing 2.H.s.c.2. them for doe; which not one of them now bath or can pro- 14. Elic. 5. Which because it seemes a paradoxe to our Prelates 5.Ed. 6. and their Favorers, I shall make good by these 4. Reasons.

ofe who ch,con-

of these

d or fe

or speake

, or an , who

on-Ta-

Table,

ng up a

gupto Bilhop

Cruci-

encein

Cere

for his

protions fer im-

inprife

s spiri-

hall by manmaner,

e first

Carke;

prison-

aitures

preach

s,Offi-

muni-

pforce

troat be in-condly,

The Kings Ecclesiasticall farifaction and Prerogative is Patents of Ponet, Scory, as firmely, absolutely, intirely, and in the soffesime maner and de-and covergree, unsted to his Imperiall Crowne, as is his temporall, and to be dale. derived from him to his Ecclesiasticall Judges and Officers in the Brooke Pa-Alefame way and maner, as his Civill furifdiction is to his tem-tents, 32. porall Indges and Magistrates; as is resolved by the severall 39. 80cm Statutes of 2. H. 5. 6. 2. 25. H.8 c.14.19.20.21. 26. H.8. rifton 6.1.27.H.8.c.15. 31.H.8.c.10.14. 32.H.8. c.15. 37.H.8. 20.E.3 c.3 c.17. 1.E.6.c.2.1. Eliz. c.1.2. 5. Eliz. c.1. 8. Eliz. c.1.3. fac.c.4. 18 E.3.c.2 7. Jac.c. 2.6. & Cooke 5. Report. Candries cafe: But the Kings Stat 2. 36. temporall Prerogative and Iurisdiction cannot be transferred to any 34.E.3.c.12. temporall Judges, Magistrates or Officers, but i by speciall Let-11 H.4.c 3 ters Patents, and Commissions under the great Seale; neither can 27H 8.c.2 his temporall Judges or Justices ride Circuites , keepe Affises, Eyres, 12. R. 2. gene all Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, or assemble the people before c. 10. Rathem upon such occasions, without speciall Pasents and Commissions, field lustice which at every Affifes , grand Seffions , and Justice Seat, they & Inflice of inEyre. c.3. both shew and publikely read before all the people. Therefore his Affije. 2. 7. Ecclefiafticall Iurifdiction and Prerogative of keeping Con-Register of fistories and Visitations, and exercising of any other part of Ec- Wittes ps 1 defiafficall Iurildiction, by the felfelame reason, cannot be de-f. 197.10 legated to any Ecclefiafticall Judges or Officers, though Arch-Natura bilhops , Bilhops and other Prelates , but by special Letters Brevium. Patents and Commissions under the great Seale of England, and f. 177.171. by expresse particular words and claufes. 180. 186. 187. 133.

The Kings Ordinary and extraordinary Inrifdiction in cause Ecclesiasticall, is, and ought be derived from the Crowne, to Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons and their Officials, in the selfesame maner as it is to the High-Commission. ners, and other of his Majesties naturall borne Subjects, whom hee shall appoint to be either his Visitors, Judges, Vicege. rents or Commissioners in causes Ecclesiasticall; as is eviden by the Statutes of 26. H. 8.c. 1. 28.H. 8.c. 16 31. H. 8.c.14 10. 32. H. S. c. 15. 37. H. S. c. 17. 1. Ed. 6. c. 2. 1. Eliz. 1.2. But his ordinary and extraordinary Jurifdiction in cause Ecclesiasticall alwayes bath beene, is and ought to be derived to the High-Commissioners and other his Majetties natural borne Subjects, whom hee appointes to be his Visitors, Judges, Vice-gerents or Commissioners in such causes onely by special Letters Patents, under the great Seale, as is evident by the fore cited Statutes , 25. H. S. c. 21. 14. Eliz.c. 5. 5. Eliz. c.1. Cooke 5. Report. Candries cafe. f. 8. Antiquitates Ecclefie Brit. p. 386. 389. 398. 399. Fox Acts and Monaments.p.999.1000. 1001. 1181. 1182 1249. 1257. and Bishop Jewels life Selt.25. Therefore it ought to be derived to Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, and their Officials in the felfe-fame maner.

3. Episcopall Iurisdiction ought to be granted and continued in the selfe-same maner, as it, and Bishoprickes were a first created. But Episcopall Iurisdiction and Bishoprickes were at first created by speciall Letters, Patents and Charters under the Kings broad Seale; as is evident by Eadmerns Hist. Downum 1. 4. p. 95. 96. and Ioannis Seldeni Spicilegium. ‡ Ibid.

* See pag. rum 1. 4. p. 95. 96. and Ioannis Seldem Spicilegium. † 1014. 165. 166. p. 209. to 213. Concil. Chalcedonense. Actio 13. p. 187. 188. 167. 168. 17. E. 3. 40.6. E. 6. 10. 25. E. 3. The Statute of Provisors, 25. Assistante of Provisors, 25.

6.8,3; jol,

4. All

to ne

K

Elie

late

rive

kee

Ch

nif

fenf

like the s thor

31.

c. 2.

of C

cheft

deac

mont

own

Confi

the T

crate

own

now

fuffici

fellose

33. A

Peter

36. I

of Yor

Visita Synod

4. All Episcopall and Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction ought now to be derived to our Prelates from King Charles, in fuch manner and forme as they were derived heretofore from King Henry the eight and King Edward the 6. by their Predeceffours; *1. Eliz.c. 1 King * Charles having now as absolute and compleat furifds- 5.Eliz.c.1. Etion in all Ecclefiafticali canfes as they bad then. But the Pre- & Eliz.c. I. lates in King Henry the eight and Edward the 6. Raignes, derived all their Ecclefiafticall and Episcopall Iurisdiction, to keepe Confiftories, Visitations, Synods, Chapters, confecrate Churches; Institute, Induct, suspend or deprive Ministers; punish and correct Ecclesiasticall crimes, errours, herefies, offenses; proove wills, grant Letters of administration, and the like, onely by speciall Letters Patents and Commissions under the great Seale; doing all in the Kings name, right and authority, not their owne; as is evident, both by the Statutes of 31. H. 8. c. 9.14. 32. H. 8. c. 15. 37. H. 8. C. 17. I. Ed. 6. e. 2. and by the Licenses and Patents made to the Archbishops of Canterbury and Yorke, the Bishops of London, Lincolne, Winchester, Duresme; the Deane and Chapter of Paules, the Archdeacons of London, Middle fex, Canterbury and others, in the monthes of October and November An. 1 5 35. (entred in their owne Registers and in the Rolles:) Authorizing them to keepe Consistories during their owne times onely, not their Successiours; the Patent of 3 t. H.8. in the Rolles, licenfing, Bishops to confetrate Churches and Churchyards from time to time, not by their owne inherent authority, or when they pleafe themselves as now they doe, but after speciall Patents and Commissions with fufficient words and clauses to them, first made by the Lord Chaunfellowr, in due forme of Law, under the great Seale, the Patens of 33. H. 8. pars 3. in the Rolls, for Erecting the Bishoprickes of Peterbough, Glofter , Briftoll , Oxford and Chefter : the Patent of 36. H. 8. pars 13. in the Rolles, to Robert Holgate Archbishop of Yorke, licenfing and authorizing him, to keepe a Metropoliticall Visitation both of the Clergy and Laity: and to celebrate and ordaine Synods, Generall Chapters, Visitations and other Congregations of

diction

om the

d their

miffio-

whom icege.

vident

. C.14

Eliz.c.

caule

erived

natura

udges

Preciall

e fore-

7. C.I.

e Brit.

IO00.

Ct.25.

Thops,

conti-

ere a s were under

Diono-

Ibid.

188.

Affifes.

es Ca-

.685.

re E-

inued

the Clergy and people, and to receive all due procurations and penfrom for the fame; (A cleare evidence, that an Archbilhop cannot visit his Province or Diocesse, much lesse then, a Univerfity , or any Colledges of the Kings , or other mens founds. tions in the University, which have their speciall Visitors appointed them by the founders, by the Kings owne grant and license, which out a speciall Parent and Commission from his Mar jesty, and in his Name and right, as is cleare, by the Statute of 2. H. S c. 1. 25. H. 8. c. 21. 31. H. 8. c. 10. 37. H. 8.c. 17. 26. H. S. c. 1. I. Ed. 6. c. 2. I. Eliz. c. I. 8. Eliz. c. I. R. gifter pars 2. f. 40. N. Nat. Bru. f. 35. E. 42. A. 21. E. 1 60 27. E. 3. 84. 85. Fit7. Bresfe. 660. Cookes Institutes fol. 344 a. and other Lambookes the power of vifiting the Ecclefiafficall state. per sons, and all other Subjects within his Majesties Dominion, being expresty united to the Crowne by the Statutes of 26. H. 8. c. L. 1. Eliz. c. 1. 37. H. 8. c. 17. and 8. Eliz. c. 1. and so be deprted unto others onely by Leeters Patents under the Kings broad Seale, by the expresse determination of those Acts, who are and ought to vilit onely in his Majesties name and right alone, and by his Authority, as the B hops did their feverall Dioces, by feciall Patents m King Edwards dayes: though the Archbishop now would vile onely in his owne name and right alone, for which hee incurs a Premunire) the Patents of 37. H. 8. pars 2. in the Rolls, to Robert Bishop of Oleford, granting him full power and authority to practife, exercise and execute, either by himself or other hu Officers, all and all maner of furifdiction, power and authority E. clesiasticall within the Dioces of Oxford, and to consecrate Churchy and Churchwardens; and the feverall Patents to Miles Coverdale, B. shop of Exeter, John Ponet B. shop of Winchester, and John Scory, Bilhop of Rochester, 5.Ed. 6: pars I. in the Rolles, and to all other Bi, hops made in this Kings Raigne; which Patents both created them B: shops, without a Conge-Desuer; and likewife granted them in precise termes, authority to visit their (a. thedrals and Dioces, both in the head and members, to ordaine, at mit , institute, inducte Ministers to Ecclesiasticall livings , and to Suspend

gran tors fince No. K I TH with from erec own arel

Corbifh
wha depi
med
of E or or by fr

Cen

I. E

what ongl his S ward

ward Law fishend and deprive them upon just occupan; to proove Willen, grant Letters of Administration, Receive Accompts of Executors and Administrators; to punish and correct Ecclesiasticall offices, and to exercise all other parts of Ecclesiasticall furisdiction, Nomine, vice & authoritate nostris Regis, in the KINGS NAME, RIGHT AND AUTHORITY ONELY, not their owne.

d pen

can-

niver-

unda.

ors ap-

nt and

.c. 17.

E. 3

1.344

Il State

B. c. L.

e depn Seak,

ight to

is An d vist

incurs ills, to thorny

ber bu

ty Ei-

over-

d Fohn

and to

like.

r Ca-

e, ad

andto

espend

Therefore our Prelates and Bishops, ought to derive all their Episcopall and Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction together with the very right of Visiting within their owne Diocesse from King Charles, by special Letters Patents, now, and to execute it onely in his name, right, and authority, not their owne: which since they have not done, nor desired to doe, they are liable to his just and Royall censures.

Thirdly, That all Channellours, Vicars generall, Commissaries, Officials, Scribes and Registers, to any Archbishop, Bishop, Archdeacon, or other Ecclesiastical person whatloever, ought to be made, constituted, ordained, and deputed, by the Kings Majesty onely, (either immediately or mediately) by Letters Patents under the great broad Seale of England; not by the Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacous or other Ecclesiasticall persons themselves, (unlesse the King by special Letters Patents authorize them to make and depute them:) else they can exercise no Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction or Censures, by the expresse Statutes of 37. H. 8. c. 17. and 1. Els. c. 1.

whatfoever, and the proceedings in all Ecclefiafticall processes whatfoever, and the proceedings in all Ecclefiafticall Courts, ought to be made in the Kings name onely, and sealed with his Scale of Ampes, as they were in H. the eight and King Edwards dayes, and as the writs and processe of the Common-Law are: (that so they may be knowneto behis Majesties proces, and Courts by bearing his superscription and image the cheife badges of his Ecclefrafticall Supremacy and Preroga tive Royall) else they are meerely voyd and illegall, neither ought any Subject to submit unto them, under peine of perjury and difloyalty to his Soveraigne; it being contrary to his Oath of Supremacy and allegiance, and both an admitting of and submitting to a fortaigne Papall, or Domestique Episco pall Iurisdiction, not derived from his Majefty.

P 2

P40-

That no Archbishop, Bishop, Archdeacon, or other Ecclefiasticall person bath power to Summon or keep any Visitations, without his Majesties special Writ, and Commission under his great Seale enabling and authorizing him: which Commission ought to be publikely read before all the * Antiquit. people at every Vifitation, as the Iudges Commissions are at Eccl. Britt. every Affifes and Eyre, that so they may know, they keepe 185. 186. their Vifitations, onely by the Kings authority. And fo much 187. 200. the rather, because Popes and Bil hops have usually challenged 225. 226. the right and power of Visiting as due unto themselves alone, 300, 301. though in truth a principall branch of the Kings owne Royall 302. 304. Ecclefiafticall Iurisdiction, united to the Crowne, by the express 308. 309. words of the Statutes of 26. H. 8. c. 1. 37. H. 8. c. 17. 1. Eliz. And the Archbishop of Canterbury hati Cancel in c. 1. 8. Eliz. c. 1. Academia now lately prefumed to challenge this power of Visitation in Cant. Ed. 6. his owne metropoliticall right, not onely over his Province, but and Eliz. 3 1 even over the University of Cambridge it selfe, of which the King H.8. c. 10. onely is Visitor, many of the Colledges being of his ancesten Monuments foundation, and so exempt as well as his free chaples, from Epifespall furifdiction, few Archbishops ever visiting it by their Sc. Bishop meere Archiepiscopall authority, without a speciall Bull from the Pope, before Reformation, and none fince visiting it but the Kings alone, and his speciall Visitors,) as Edward the 6. did in the third, and Queen Elizabeth in the first yeare of her raigne; And our other Prelates partly by cultome and example now beginne to claime, and ever exercise this power of visiting in their

P.1774. Iewels life before his porkes, Sed .25.

owne

owne

or luf

as to

in the no fuc

tions i

and C

Supre

proce they h

they a defend diction

ning to Oath,

fons is

Bifho

fpecia right a

wheth

belon

Humi certain

Fir

to,and mane ! have e divine

divine

letting

Churc

over th

to Gods

S

owne names, as their owne inherent right; whereas no Judge or luftice what foever hath beene fo prefumptyous or diflovall. as to keepe Affiles or Seffions in his owne name or right, but in the Kings alone: And if our Prelates and their Officers have no such Commission from the King to visit, keeping visitations in their owne names and rights , not his ; the Ministers and Churchwardens are bound by their Oath of Allegiance and Supremacy, to relift their vilitations; not fuffering them to proceed therein, and to refuse their visitation Oathes, which they have no Commission authorizing them to administer : else they are directly perjured and difloyall to his Majefty, in k not kr. Elize. I defending to the uttermost of their power, all Ecclefiafticall Jurif- 28. H.S. dictions, priviledges, and preheminences, granted, united, and apertai - c. 10. ning to his Imperiall Crowne, as they have promised by their Oath, whereof this of visiting the Ecclesiastical State and perfons is the cheifeft. Now to proove, that Archbishops, and Bishops have no power at all, to visit their Diocesse, but by special Letters Patents from the King, and in his name and right alone: I should only demaund of them this short question; whether this right of Visitation they claime and contend for, belongs to them onely fure Divino by a divine right, or a fure + This all the Humano , by some humane Title? If they say fure Divino; that Archbi (hop. certainely is untrue. Bis hops and

mage,

eroga

either

f per-

to his nitting

pilco

cacon,

keep

Com-

him;

all the

are at

keepe

much

enged

alone,

Royall

cpresse

Eh7.

hath

on in e, but

e King

efters

pifco-

their

m the set the

in the

e;And

w ben their owne Clergy of First, Because Archbishops & Bishops themselves superiour England to, and distinct from Ministers, are not of divine, but meere humane right and institution, long after the Apostles times, as I stitution of a have elsewhere prooved: themselves therefore being not of Christian divine right, they can challenge no power of Visitation by a man, chap. of Orders, and

Secondly, The instituting of Provinces, Diocesse, and Archbishop Whitgist; setting of one Archbishop or Bishops over many Cities. By sewell, Churches or Parishes as a generall Visitor and Superintendent Bishop Alley over them, is a * meere humane invention, directly contrary and others as Gods, and the Apostles institution, who ever placed and insti-elsewhere cities and instituted.

P 3

tweed many Bishops and Elders in every Parish and City, not one Archbishop or Bishopover many, much lesse over an whole Shein or Kingdome. Acts. 14. 23. 6. 20. 17. 28. Phil. 1. 1. 1. Tim. 5. 17. Tit. 1. 5.7. 1. Pet. 5. 1. 2. 3. fam. 5. 14. vinces and Diocesse therefore being directly contrary to Gods and the Apostles institution, your Iurisdiction of Visiting them must needs be tuch.

œ

Ork

Vii

by

of C

m g

See !

of k

beth pall

henc

breth

nifter

their

are 7

vilit.

all this

Sidem of no rations of Cor

a Scho

vilitatio

Prelate

places o

to no or

and Bill

great, n

ofthem

7

Thirdh . Wee finde not in all the Scripture that Christ ever gave any fuch power of Visitation to his Ministers a Billiops, or to the Apostles themselves, neither finde wee one president in all the Bible of any Episcopall Visitation (much Jeffe of any Visitation, Oathes or Articles) kept either by Chris himselfe, or any of his Disciples, much lesse by Bishops. How the can that belong to Archbishops or Bishops, fure Divino, which hath neither precept nor Prefident to warrant it in all the Scipture? True it is , that the * Rhemists would ground this right of Vifitation which the Bishops and Archbishops claime Act. 15.36. as their peculiar inheritance to them and their Successors for ever, on Acts 15. 36. And some dayes after Paul faid min Barnabas , Let su goe againe and VISIT our breibren's every City, where wee have preached the word of the Lord, andfa

* Annotations on bow they doe.

But this Text is farre from the marke they aime at : For Frst, this word surveyours which the Latine Translations render, visitemus, or invisamus, and the English, let use and visit, doth not fignific or import an Episcopall or metropoliticall Visitation, by way of Iurisdiction, authority or correction, but onely a Visitation of charity and love; as is cleare, by Acts 7. 22. When Mofes was full 40. yeares old, it came in in heart insurfusay, to visit his brethren, the children of Grate by Matth. 25.43. I was ficke, and in person imerastaeds and pe visit me not : and fam. 1.27. Pure religion and maefiled befor God is this investing up to visit the fatherles and midden in the White hafficition : where the same word is used; by the ordinary as hall, bu ception ception of the word vifit in our owne common speech , when one freind or neighbour goes to fee another, which wee call a Vilitarion whence wee lay, I will goe and pifit, or I have beene wifiting Lucha freind, neighbour, prisoner, or sicke person;) by the very title and forme of the Visitation of the ficke in the Booke of Common-prayer; and by the very last words of the verse; Let us goe visit our brethren, and see how they doe : Wrich words, See how they doe, plainely refolve this, to be a Visitation onely of love and charity, fuch as was of Mofes Acts. 7. 23. or that of Mary who went up into the Hill-countrey to vifit her Cofen Elizabeth, Luke 1. 35. &c. there ore no Archepiscopall or Episcopall Visitation by way of lurisdiction. So that the argument hence can be but thus: Paul and Barnabas went to visit the brethren, to whom they had preached, to fee how they did; or a Minifter may goe to visit his Christian Freindes or neighbours at their houses in love. Ergo Archbishops and Bishops visitations are fure Divino, and none but they have any divine right to vilit. A learned Nonfequitur.

Secondly, Wee read of no Visitation Oathes or Articles in all this Visitation, set out and delivered to Churchwardens and Sidemen, to prefent on upon Oath in Paul or Barnabas names; of no Chancellers, Registers, Appariters, Citators, procurations, prefentments, fulpentions, excommunications, fees of Court, shewing of Orders, or licenses to preach or keepe flations a Schoole, &c. as are in all our Metropoliticall and Episcopall et mg visitations: this Visitation therefore can be no president for our metro. Prelates, which hath no affinity with it.

t me beire

Tim.

Pro-

Gods

them

Christ

ers or e one

much

Chris

wthen

which

Scri-

nd this

claime

ors for id mu

brena

andfa

: For

ception

Thirdly, These Apostles here went to those particular science places onely, where they had formerly preached the Gospell, and one other, visiting none but those. If our Archbishops, and Bishops should doe so, their Diocesse would not be so and yet great, nor their visitations so long, as now they are, yea some of these would he no Diocesse at all to visit, unlesse it were in their White-hall, or Paules-Crosse, or perchance their owne Cathemary as that, but no one Parish of their Diocesse, in which they never preached: Tourdly, These Apostles here went to those particular preached:

preached: and some of them should by this account, visc more places out of their Diocesse then within them. If this Text therefore prooves any thing, it is this, that Archbishops and Bishops, must preach the Gospell through out every place and Parish in their Diocesse and Provinces before they goe to visit them; and then never an Archbishop or Bishop of them all, could ever keepe a Visitation.

١اله

thor

ope

Titl

fare

they

jeftie

Arch

gene

direc

voyd

And

the g fiaffic

perfe

tereft

Gospe

tyrs, 2

World

mentio

fkill a dious t

rogativ

it felfe

chures

nable F

Booke

day, a

rites an dermin

every v

ther to

to Lord

Fourthly, Paul and Barnabas here intended to visit joynth, not severally, as our Bishops doe; they visit in person, not by Praxy or deputy, as our Lord Bishops use; they preached in a places where they visit, which sew Bishops doe: they went to see and visit their brethren in diverse Parishes; they did not sent to diverse Parishes, to come to meet and visit them out of the owne Parishes as our Bishops now doe, who in truth are at their visited by their Diocesse, then their Diocesse by them This Text therefore processes not their Visitations to be some Divino.

Fifthly, Paul and Barnabas were no Bishops, but A possels; and this their Visitation was no other then any Minister, Christian, yea Woeman (and Woemen now are the greated gadders and Visitors,) may and use as well as they. It there fore prooves not, that the right and power of visiting, belongs onely to Archbishops and Bishops fure Divine, but the contrary, that all Ministers at least (if not other Christians) may visit their brethren and those places, where they have preached, as well as Archbishops or Bishops, if not rather and better, unlesse they preached more. There being then therefore no divine right, that Prelates can pretend for their visitations, as these reasons prooved, and the forecited Statutes extends. Press resolve; Our Bishops must then claime it (if they have to a pressent out to be they first cressed.)

31. H.8. Pietry relove; Our Bit hops that their chaine it (If they back e. 9. 1. Ed.6 any right to it) either from the King (who ‡ first erelid c. 2. instituted, and bounded out their Bishoprickes, conferred them a them, and may dissolve them at his pleasure) and therefore the must produce some Patent or Commission for it, and visit only in his name and right, as I have manifested; which Patent the all want; or elfe they must claime it from the Pope, whose anthorsty they have abused, which yet I presume they dare not openly doe. Therefore they must sticke onely to the Kings Title, and doe all in his name, right and authority, and then farewell their divine right and inherent Episcopall power, which they fo much boaft of, and contend for even before his Majefties presence.

vife

If this

hops

place

goe to fthen

yntly,

not by dina

went ot fend

of their

are m them e futt

but A-inifter,

reated there-

, be-

butthe

(tians)

y have

er and there-

ir vili-

tes ex-

y hare

erectu bem a

e they

onely

nt they

6. That all the proceedings and censures of our present Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, Chauncellours, Vicarsgenerall, Commissaries, Officials, Scribes, and Registers, being directly contrary to all the fore-mentioned Statutes, are meerly voyd and illegall; and they all in a # Premunire for the fame; $See3. 54. And that deservedly, they being as ever heretofore, so now, & Brooke the greatest and most professed oppugners of the Kings Eccle- Promunize fiafficall Prerogative, and the Subjects Liberties; the cheifest 12.16.21. persecutors of Gods faithfull Ministers and people; and the bit- 22. H. 8. terest enemies to grace piety, the truth and profession of the 6.15. Gospell, as their proceedings anciently in the Booke of Martyrs, and now prefent before our eyes , proclaime to all the World; which every faithfull Subject by vertue of his forementioned Oath, is obliged to relift, to the uttermost of his fkill and power; unlesse hee will proove treacherous, perfidious to his Soveraigne, bearay his Majesties Ecclesiastical Prerogative, his owne, his Countries Liberties, yea and Religion it lelfe, (which ex some of our Prelates by putting downe Ledures , preaching , fulpending , filencing the most consciohable Preachers, authorizing Popish Arminian, and Licentious Bookes, allowing all carnall Liberty, even on the Lords owne day, and bringing in many Popish Ceremonies, Ornaments, rites and superstitions, openly trample upon, and secretly undeminity) to the usurping domineering Prelates; who now every where in all Kingdomes and Countries combine toge-137. H.S. ther to I ingroffe the raines of Government into their owne bands, c. 17. to Lord it over the world it selfe, both in temporall and civil canses, over Clergy and Laity , and to enflave all men, sunto their intollirable yoake of bondage, which is now so heavy here among us that it makes many to seperate from our Church, many to fie the Kingdome dayly, many to turne Papifts, more Atheifts those Puritans (as they terme them) who maintaine the King Ecclefiafticall Prerogative, being the cheife object of the malice and persecution, onely for their love and loyalty to their God, Religion, Prince; their Courts and Prisons being fraught with them , when as Preifts , Iesuites , Papists walke triumphantly about the streetes, and say Masse in every Corner, with out their questioning or restraint, and I would to God we could not lay with some of their Countenance and encourage ment.

Finally, Hence it is evident, that all our domineering Prelates Ecclesiasticall Iunsdiction, whereby they are diffinguished from Ministers, is meerely Jure bumano, by the gran of the King alone, from whom they ought intirely to derive it not fure Divino, as they have now of late most prefumptuoully and difloyally adjudged it in their High-Commission Court, in Dollor Bastwickes cafe; though their very Commission (which derives unto them all Ecclesiasticall furifaction onely from the King, and that to Lay-Commissioners as well as themselves, reciting the very words of the Statutes I. Eliz.e.I.) might (as any reasonable man would deeme) have then checked and countermanned this their enormious and ungratefull censure; directly contrary to that Commission which gave them authority to be his Iudge † Vnusquis- († though in their owne cause) as their just censure manifested For that Iurifdiction which is wholly and originally vefted in the King, both by the Law of God and of the Realme, and transferrible at his pleasure to what persons soever hee pleaseth though no Bishops; and not to any Bishops, but " by, from, and que sui ipfisu iniquis Index.

When a Su under him, when as oft, and for so long time onely as it shall please c. 17. 1.E.6 him., with power of revocation at his pleasure; cannot possibly e.2. 1. Eliz, belong to Bishops, as they are Bishops by any divine right or

infi-

inftit

ly in dictio

ny it

The I

cated

нате

Epifo

Ther

Arc

Peac

Lam

all th

Chri feild,

Hoop

Beaci

Doct

7obs

Rod

No.

Bifb

one a

Bifho

bum

Nor

learn

conli

185

inflitution; no nor yet by any temporall right, it refting meere- 1.1.37.H.8 ly in the Princes power to grant or not to grant fuch Iurif-c. 17.1.E.6 diction to them at his pleasure, and no injury or injustice to de-c.2. I. Eliz. ny it them, as they all joyntly confesse in their Booke, intituled, c. 1. 3.1.H. The Institution of a Christian man : Chapter of Orders , dedi- Eliz.c. 1. cated by them to King Henry the eight , and Subscribed with all their o Quoted by names, even in the printed Copies. But such is all our Prelates Gersonins Episcopall Inrisdiction , as our * Statutes expresty resolve. Buceru, Therefore it is not fure Divino. Not to mention o Beda, Dissertatio Archbishop Anselme, Ricardus Armacanus, Wickliffe, Bishop tione Escle-Peacocke, William Swinderby, The Lord Cobham, Francis fie, by Mr. Lambert, Master Tyndall, Master John Lambert Martyr, Swift in his all the Bishops and Clergy of England in their Institution of a Petition to Christian man, Bishop Timstall, Bishop Stokesty, Doctor Harpe- Queen Eliz. fild, Archdeacon of London, , Master John Bradford , Bishop Bastwick, Hooper , Bishop Latimer , Bishop Alley , Bishop fewell , Thomas De lure E-Beacon , Doctor Humfry P Doctor Fulke , Doctor Whitakers, piscopali. Dollor Willet , Dollor Ayray , Dollor Taylor , q Mafter & Answer to John Fox , Bishop Elmer , Bishop Bullingham , William Turner , p. 172. Rodericke Mors, Mafter Stubs , Geffery Chancer , Deane of Fox Atts & Nowell, or any * other of our Writers, who affirme, that Monuments Bishops and Presbyters , or Ministers , Iure Divino , are but P.358.359 one and the same, both in order, power and furifdiction; that 360.210. Bishops are not superior to Ministers Iure Divino, but onely by 414.430. bumane Institution, and condemne the Lordlinesse of Prelates; 439. 518. Noryet to remember that memorable faying of our worthy 522. 552. learned Martyr & Doctor Barnes, That hee would never beleive, or 599.625. could ever believe, that one man by the Law of God may be a Bishop of 971. 972. 981.1009 1016.

intolle

ong us,

y to fie

theif

e King

of ther

to their fraugh

r, with od we ourage

neering

diftin

e gran

crive it;

tuouly

ourt, in rich de-

King,

onable

nunded

ontrary

Indger

fefted.

fledin

tranf-

leafeth

m, and

pleafe offibly ght or

infti-

1856. * Master Nowell his Reproofe of Dormans Proofe, f. 43. 44. 45. Master Whetenhals Discourse, of the abuses now in question. r In his Workes, p. 220. See a Supplication to King Henry the 8. An. 1544.

Q2

I Defence of two or three Cities, or of an whole Country; for that is contrary to the Doctrine of Sant Paul, who commanded Titus to ordaine many Supremacy, Elders in every Cay, not one Elder over many Cities, Tit. I. g. p.359.926 Archbishop Whitgwifte himselfe, p. 383. and f Doctor Bridges, Bilhop of Oxford (the greatest Sticklers for the Prelacy) confesse, that by Gods word, a Priest and a Bisbop are all one t Bifbop Bridges De- and the later of them. , writing against the Papists, in defence of the fence of Go- Princes Supremacy justifieth Aerius and the Protestunts therein vernement, out of Hierom, Peter Lumbard, Durand, and the Institution of Colon; And yet the selfesame men, and their Disciples 448. 3c. writing against Master Cartwright and the Puritans, asthey Bp. Wnit gift, p. 408. phrase them, make it ! Heresie to beleive and teach upon Epr of Doctor Sut - phanius his bare authority (who censures this for Herefie in Acres) cliff Engl. though Isidor Hispalensis, and * Gratian doe not so much a Treatife , p.68.Bishop mention it, among his other Hereticall or Erronious opinions, nor any one ancient Counsell Father, or Author else, so much as taxs Bancrosts Ser.p. 18. it for an Error , much lesse an Heresie , (which it cannot be) Admonition when as it is in truth, the resolved Doctrine of our Church, our Statutes, Martyrs, Writers, and of our Prelates them-Martyr Mare. Pre-felves; who in this very point are arrant Puritans, when they Lue, p.44. write against the Papists; (who to maintaine the Popes Supre-*Caufa. 24. macy Iure Divino, are enforced to deny the parity of Bishops , and Octobe Ministers by divine Institution , witnes " Bellarmine , TuruSee thePerian, Dure, Spence, Stapleton, Saunders, Bristow, the tition to Queen Eliz. Rhemists, Espenseus Mauritius de Alzedo Nicholans le Maistre, and other popish Writers) but professed Papists herein, when 7.22. they write against the Puritans, to maintaine their owne domincering Antichristian Hierarcy, which else would fall unto the ground : A pretty tricke of Episcopall Legar-demaine, which makes their Title Jure Divino, very suspitious. Now that this their Episcopall Iurisdiction and Authority, wherein they differ from ordinary Ministers , (to wit , their Dioces, Confiftories, Institution and induction of Ministers, Confecration of Churches and Churchyards, Excommunication, debantur privation, suspention, and all other Ecclesiasticall Censures, probate

ly I. Le of ont

P

DC

by

Bifh Eccli 26. Inrife inforc Seale Farifa and to Licen

runne OM TH

DIC SIA GIA SVP

giffrat EM-A dione

RAL

125

probate of Wills, granting of administrations, and the like) is not fure Divino, but onely from the Kings Grace, and grant, by special Letters patents; is the expresse resolution, not onely of the Statutes of 26. H. 8. c. 1. 37. H. 8. c. 17. 1. Ed. 6. c. 2.

1. Eliz. c. 1. 8. Eliz. c. 1. sprecited, but likewise of sundry Letters patens, made to Bishops themselves, some 3. or 4. of which I shall onely recite, which will put this controversie out of all farther question.

In the yeare of our Lord 1535. (being the 26. years of King Henry the 8. Raigne) both the Archbishops , all the Bishops , Archdeacons , Deanes and other Clergy men , exercising Ecclesiasticall furifdiction (upon the making of the Statute of 26. H. 8. c. I. which abolished all their inherent Ecclesiasticall Iurisdiction, and restored, and united it to the Crowne,) were inforced to Petition the King for speciall Licenses, under the great Seale, to keepe Consistories, visitations, exercise Ecclesiasticall furifdiction and Censures in his name, right, Stead, Authority, and to make Chauncellours, Commissaries and Officials: which Licenses granted to them the same yeare, in the moneth of Ottober and November, and erectred in their owne Registers, runne in this maner. Henricus Dei gratia, &c. Cum-OMNES IVRISDICENDI AV-THORITAS ATQUE IURIS-DICTIO, tam illa QUÆ ECCLE-SIASTICA dicitur, quam fecularis. A RE-GIA POTESTATE, VELVT A SVPREMO CAPITE ac omnium Magiftratuum infra regnum nostrum fonte ac scaturigine EMANAVERIT, Sanè illos qui Iurisdictione hujusmodi ante hæc non nisi præclare fungebantur, officium hujusmodi sic iis EX. LIBE-RALITATE REGIA INDVLL TVM.

Now herein foces,

tothe

many

. T. f.

Doctor

elacy)

all one;

e of the

itution sciples

s they

Epi-

erius)

uch a

5 , 207

s taxs

ot be)

urch,

hem-

they

upre-

, and

Tur-

, the

uftre,

when

e do-

unto

onlen, denlures,

obate

TVM gratis animis agnoscere , I D Q V E REGIÆ MAGNIFICENTIÆ SO. LVMMODO ACCEPTVM REFER. RE EIQVE quoties regiæ Majestari videbitur. libenter cedere convenit, &c. Nos tuis in hac parte SVPPLICATIONIBVS H V M ILL BVS INCLINATI, & nostrorum fubdi. torum necessitatibus consulere cupientes, TIBI VICES NOSTRAS, SVB MODO ET FORMA INFERIVS SCRIPTIS COMMITTENDAS FORE, TEQUE LICENTIAN. DVM ad idoneas personas constituendas. EXEQUENDA EA QUÆ AD EC. CLESIASTICAM IVRISDICTIO. NEM SPECTANT, oportunum duximus, &c. Upon these Licenses (which plainly relolve; that all Episcopall and Ecclefiafficall Jurisdiction is originally derived from the King alone, as from the supreame head and fountaine; and that the Bishops received it ONELY, from the Kings Royall Liberality and Magnificence, who may freely revoke and take it from them at his pleasure, as oft as hee thinkes men, and likewise determine, that Bishops in the execution of it are but the Kings meere Deputies, doing all in his freed and right, in such forme and maner as hee shall prescribe them by his Letters Patents, fo as they cannot make any Officials, or Commissaries to exercise Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction under them, but by the Kings special License;) the stile of the Bishops in all their Processe, Citations, and Mandates was this: N JURI Episcopus: L. per Illustrissimum in Christo Principem Henricum Octavum Dei gratia Angliæ, Fran- 1000 74 ciæ & Hiberniæ Regem, Fidei Defensorem, & in 70 terris

Ca or CI Stat Phil

te

there citu the ! man ofs.

the ci revit the li Citat canno Raigr enabli pell Iu mane Father of Oxf drall C of the f caufes s within a reelded

Bishopri

127 terris Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ & Hiberniæ supremum Caput, ad infra scriptalegitime ET SVFFI-CIENTER AVTHORIZATVS. of * REGIA AVTHORITATE FVL- xFox ABIG CITVS. Which forme of Processe (ratified by the Monuments Statute of 1. Ed. 6 c. 2.) continued till the Statute of 1. 6 2. 1 1294. Phil. and Mary c. 8. and Queen Maries Letter to ber Bishops 1405. thereupon, to expunge the clause of Regia authoritate fulcitus., Which Statute being now repealed by r. Eliz. c. r. and the Ecclesiasticall Inrisation as fully, insirely, and in as ample maner united to the Crowne, by the expresse words of that Act, and of 5. Eliz. c. I. and 8. Eliz. c. I. as ever it was in King Henry the eight, or Edward the fixt, and the Statute of I. Ed. 6. c. 2. revived by 1. facobi. c. 25. Why our Bishops should not take the like Patents and Licenses, and make out their Processe and Citation now adayes in the Kings name, as they did then? I Not Lord Bishop no

50-

ER.

itur,

parte

LI.

ıbdi-

IBI

DO

DE.

AS

AN.

AD

EC.

T 10.

15,&c

Episco-

d from

e; and

e Kings

revoke

of it an d right,

his Let-

r Com-

them,

hops III

s: N. Princi-

Fran-

& in terris

cannot divine. writ or Pa-After this King Henry the eight, in the 37. yeare of his tent stilling Raigne granted this ensuing Patent to the y Bishop of Oxford, them so: enabling him by himselfe, or his Officers, to exercise Episco-though they pall Iurisdiction granted to him by the same, as meetely bu-thus stile mane, not divine: & Henry the eight &c. To the Right reverend & 37. H.S. Father in God, our right, trusty and welbeloved Robert, Bishop in the Rols, of Oxford greeting. Whereas in the late surrender of the Cathe- pars. 2. drall Church of Oxford, made by you and the Deane and Chapter a ThuEgelof the same upon our request and commaundement, upon certaine of Duresine causes us moving to translate the same into a more convenint place, giving over within our City of Oxford, you among other things, have also bis Bishoppelded up and a surrendred into our hands ALL TOUR ricke; Suum TURISDICTION appertaining to you by reason of the same. annulum, We therefore neverthelesse not minding thereby to abolish or abridge Ingulphi your furifdiction in any part GRANTED BY US Historia, TO TOO, and your Successors, in the first erection of your An. 105. Bishopricke there, have GIVEN, AND GRAN-P.907. TED, 128 TED, AND BY THESE PRESENTS DOE GIVE AND GRANT UNTO TOU FULL POWER AND AUTHO. RITT, as well, TO PRACTISE, EXER. CISE AND EXECUTE; either by your felfe. OR ANY OTHER OFFICER OR OF FICERS, ALL AND ALL MAN. NER OF JURISDICTION, POWER AND AUTORITY, appertaining to your Bishopricke, (to wit, by vertue of the first Patent which orected it) with the Diocesse of Oxford; as also to proceed to the deliverance of such convict per son or per sons, as are now committed, or shall hereafin be committed to your ward and custody; and to the Consecration OF CHURCHES AND CHURCH TARDS within the said Diocesse, as the cause and necessity therein shall require; in as amplewise and maner as you hereis fore have done, or any other BISHOP in his Diocesse within this our Realme, may doe, BY VERTUE ANT GRANT OR GRANTES MADE BY US UNTO THEM, OR ANY OF THEM, IN THAT BEHALFE. tute of Martmony or any other Statute or Statutes made to the contrary thereof in any wife notwithstanding; in witnesse whereof, &c. Witnesse the King at Westminster, the ninth day of fun, in the 37. yeare of our Reigne over England &c. Per ipsum Regem, &c.

For the understanding of the true meaning of this Paten, b Godwines know; that b King Henry the eight; An. 1541. being the Catalogue of 34. years of his Reigne, erected the Bishopricke of Oxford by his Bishops, Letters Patents, making the Church of the Abby of Oseney the p. 491. Cathedrall Church and Episcopall See of that Bishopricke; intiling it, Ecclesia Beatæ Mariæ De Oseney; creating Robert King, the last Abbot of that house, by these his Letters Patents, first Bishop of this See, About 5. years after, to wit, An. 1546.

the smi

dar to b Cl He cen

Juri ved tents ceive fure into fider ceive

Lette feft, Eliz.

of pe

this h ordai Kings powe keepe fures

Tefta

the King thought meet to translate the See from Ofener Abbey, unto Cardinall Colledge; (fince called Christ Church) then newly erected by Cardinall Woolfey, whereupon the first Patent erecting the Bishopricke at Ofeney Abby was surrendred, and by another Patent the Bishops See; translated to Christ Church Colledge; wherein the King placed a Bishop, a Deane, 8. Prebendaries, a Quier, and other Officers, besides a hundred Students to be maintained in the same, enstiling the Cathedrall; Ecclesia Christi Cathedralis Oxon. ex fundatione Regis Henrici Octavi; upon which Surrender this Patent of license was granted by the King to the Bishop of Oxford.

From which I observe. First, that all the Episcopall Jurisdiction, which our Prelates doe or can challenge, is derived onely and immediately from the King, by his Letters Patents, and resignable onely into his hands. Therefore not received by Bishops immediately from God, nor due unto them fure Drvino, for then it could not be surrendred backe againe into the hands of men. To make this more perspicious, consider, that every Archbishop and Bishop here in England, received two things of different natures from two severall sorts of persons.

The First, is his Bishopricke and Episcopall Jurisdiction thereto annexed, this hee receives meerly from the King by Letters Patents, as the precedent and following Patents manifest, and the Statutes of 1. Ed. 6. c. 2. 37. H. 8. c. 17. & 8.

Eliz. c. I. resolve.

NTS

NTO

THO.

X ER.

er Selfe,

AN.

WER

opricke,

within

of fuch

ereafin ration

CH.

necessin

bereir

within

ADE

to the

of Fune,

iplum

Patent,

ring the

d by his

ney th

e , m.

Robert

atents,

1546.

OF

he Sta

QF.

The fecond is his Episcopall Ordination and Confectation, this hee receives onely from the Archbishops or Bishops, who ordaine and confectate him onely by vertue of and upon the Kings Letters-Patents directed to them; By the first, hee hath power to admit, institute, and inducte Ministers to livings, to keepe Consistories, Visitations; inflict Ecclesiasticall Censures; hold plea of Ecclesiasticall causes; proove Wills and Testaments, grant Letters of Administration, consecrate R

130

Churches, Churchwards, and the like, if the Kings Patents * See the to him, grant him fuch power , otherwise not: * By the fecond Booke of hee bath power to preach Gods word, administer the Sacraments Ordination of Ministers of baptisme and the Lords Supper, read divine Service in the and Confe- Church, and (with the confent and affiftance of others of his cration of Clergy) to ordaine Winisters and Deacons, which every Mi-Bis bops. eWben shin nifter , as the c Booke of Ordination of Ministers , confirmed by d Act of Parliament, and the Commons testifie, may doe as well prayer is done the The e first of these is not fure Divino (they being Bishop , not granted nor united to Bishops or Bishoprickes by any one with the Text of Scripture,) and therefore are derived meerely by Preists pre-Lettets Parents from the King. The fecond are incident to f a Sent, Shall Bishops and Ministers alike , by divine institution , as the main lay their essentiall parts of their Ministeriall and Episcopall function: bands feverally upon and therefore not derived from the King by Patent, but receithe head of ved by imposition of handes, consecration, and ordination every one from Bilhops and other Ministers. Many Bilhops and Mithat recesved orders, nifters have wanted, and still doe want the first, and yet have d 2. Elize. I beene and are & compleate Bishops and Ministers, Acts. 20. 3.E.6.c. 12 17. 28. Phil. I.I. Tit. I. 5. 6. 7. I. Tim. 3. I. to 9. I. Pet. 5 5.06. 1. 2. 3. But all of them equally enjoy the fast by divine infti-E. 6.c. I. eCanon. 35, tution, without which they are altogether incompleate. f I. Tim. 3. first of them may be resigned into the Kings hand, from Tirus I. See whence it is wholy derived, as this Charter testifieth: the fethe Booke of cond cannot be furrendred into the hands of men, because onof Ministers ginally derived from God. True it is , men that so abuse it, and Confe- as to make themselves unworthy of the Ministry, may be deprived of it by the King, and fuch Commissioners, as hee shall Bishops ac- authorize; but they cannot refigne, transferre the same to any, g 10. E.3. as they may doe the first.

a. 25.
Ass. Cooke 3. Report. 75. b. 1. & 2. Phil, and Mary c. 8. Hierom, in tit. C. 1.
Lewels Def. of the Church of England c. 3. Divis. 5.

fice

do

cut

Go

28.

3. 1

fer.

firf

is n

bill

oug

dia

but

that

daye

fhor

inth

Is i

dicti

then

mor

fulne

beca

diai

for C

T

ċ8.

fiafti

eight

Edw

131

294. 304.

The first, they may execute by themselves, or their Officers, onely; if the King authorizes them, so to doe, as hee doth in this Patent: The second they must discharge and execute in person, † not by a Deputy or substitute; because † See Bis loop God enjoynes it, Alts 20. 28. I. Cor. 9. 16. 17. 18. Matth. Serm. of the 28. 19. 20. Mar. 16. 15. Col. 4. 17. 2. Tim. 4. 1. 2. 5. 1. Tim. Plough, Bp. 3. 1. 2. Rom. 12. 6. 7. 8. Exech. 34. 2. 3. John. 10. 3. 4. 5. 14. Hoopers, first (wherein Bishops onely differ from ordinary Ministers) Masser Tyndals and other divino, what ever they pretend to the contrary.

thers Paf-Jazes againft Secondly, It is apparant by this Patent, that no Arch-New-refibishop, Bishop, or other Ecclefiafticall person, can, or dents and ought to execute, exercise, or practise any Ecclesiastical Iuris-Pluralities diction, power, or authority, either by himselfe or his Officers, transcribed but by vertue of some grant and speciall Patent made to him in Whetherthat behalfe, by the King : the fole cause why Bishops in those hall in his dayes tooke such Patents and Licenses as these. Why then Discourse should they exercise and execute any Ecclesiastical Iurisdiction of the Abuses in their owne names without fuch Licenses and Patents , now? now? now? Is it, because Bishops have more Ecclesiastical Iuris-p. 123.129 diction, now fure divino, then their Predecessors had 138. 146. then ? Or because, Bishops in these dayes usurpe much 152. 156. more upon the King and Crowne, and shewlesse duti- 160. 168. fulnes to their Soveraingne, then they did in that age? Orisit, 174. Fox because our present Soveraigne hath lesse Ecclesiastical Iuris- Alls and diction then King Henry the eight? The first, it cannot be, Monuments for Gods Law was then the fame it is now. p.1020.

The last it cannot be, since the Statutes of I. Eli.c. I. F. Eli.c. I.

& Eli.c. I. resolve, that the King hath as large and ample an Ecclesafticall furif diction both by Law and inheritance, as King Henry the tight, or King Edward the 6. The second therefore must be the true cause. I shall conclude with the Letters Patents of King Edward the 6. to Bishop Ridly, Hooper, Ponet, Scorye, Coredale,

The

atents

Second

aments

s of his

ry Mimed by e as wel

being

y one

rely by

to fal

e main

t recei-

ination

d Mi-

et have

7s. 20.

Pet. s.

infti-

The

from the fe-

ife ori-

rufe it,

be de-

e (hall

o any,

. C. L.

verdale, and other Bishops created during his reigne, group. ded upon the Statute of r. Ed. 6. c. 2. one whereof made to Miles Coverdale, Bishop of Exeter, I shall onely recite for example fake, the other, being of the selfesame forme, and agreeing * An. s. Ed. with it word for word : * Rex om nibus ad quos &c.

6. pars I in falutem. the Rolles Scoryes and ting.

The King to all to whom these presents shall come gree-Whereas the Bishopricke of Exon is without a Bishop, and Ponets Pa- is destitute of a fit Pastor, by the free resignation of John late Bishop tents are in of that place, and doth by right belong to our Collation and donathis same Pa- tion. Wee willing to collate another fit per son to the Bishopricke tent roll, and aforesaid, and judging our wellbeloved Miles Coverdale, Proalmost Ver- aforefaith, until staging on wenter over 17th Societies, and batim with, fellor of Divinity, for his fingular learning in the Scriptures, and for his most approoved maners , wherewith hee is indowed ; to be a fit man for the place and Office aforesaid: know yee therefore, that wee of our speciall grace, and certaine knowledge, and meere motion. have conferred, given and granted, and by these presents doe conferre, give and grant to the forefaid Miles Coverdale the ford Bishopricke of Exon : and wee translate the same Miles to the Bishopricke of Exon, and wee nominate, ordaine, make, create, declare, and constitute by these presents the same Miles, Bishop of Exon, and of Exeter Diocesse: to have and to hold, execute, and enjoy the faid Bishopricke of Exon to the same Miles, during his naturall life, together with all Lordships, maners, Lands, Tenement, hereditaments, possessions, and rights, as well spirituall as tempo rall, and all other profits, commodities, emoluments, offices, dignitics, authorities, preheminences and Jurisdictions what seever, to the faid Bishopricke, and pastorall office, of the same now belonging, And wee will, and by these proappertaining, or incumbing. Cents grant to the faid Miles now Bishop of Exon, that hee may lawfully, freely, and quietly, be able lawfully to ordaine and promote, what foever fit Clerkes where foever borne within the faid Diocesse of Exon, and others in that part, lawfully dimissed and licensed to all lawfull and Presbyterall orders, and those so presented to admit to Ecclesiastical Benefices what seever , within the fail Dioceffe and Jurisdiction being and lying in the Bishopricke of Exon, and

and i

them

10 . 701

what

belong

Bifho

fed m

Bisho

goods

or by 1

goods

and to

ceffar

exami

apper

yway well a mint (thofet

dendies

thedra

Clergy

asofte

andto

quency

Dioce

Commis

delings

uber depute

what fo

premi

of then

लेवे ध

and in , and of the same to inflitute , invest; and if bee fhall find them not fit, to deprive them of their Ecclefiastreall function, and to remoove them from the fame, and alfo to conferre and befrow what sever , Benefices , Dignities , and Ecclesiasticall Promotions, belonging and appertaining to the collation and disposall of the said Bishop of Exon; to proove last Wills and Testaments of all deceafed what seever within the Said Diocesse and Jurisaiction of the Bishopricke of Exon, and the administration of what sever goods of the same Dioceffe and furifdiction, of such as dye intestate, or by way of intestation, to infinuate and commit, and sequester the goods of the said deceased in cases promitted by Law, and to inquire and take an accompt and reckoning, and to doe all other things necessary in that behalfe, and to heare, dispatch, take notice, and examine causes, quarrels, and what soever businesses belonging and appertaining to the Ecclesiasticall Courts, and to the said Bishop, by way of complaint, or appeale, or otherwife to be devolved, as well at the instance and petition of the parties, as of office, simple, most or promoted, and to difeuffe, decide , determine , and finish thefethings and canfes with their incidences, emergencies 4 dependencies, amexes, and connexes what foever, also to visit the Cathedrall Church of the City and Dioceffe of Exon, and the whole Clergy and people of the same, as well in the head as in the members; as often , and when there shall be need , and it shall feeme expedient; and to inquire of, and upon sobut forcer crimes, excesser, and delinquencies , belonging to the Eccleftafficiall Cours , within the faid Diocesse of Exon; and furisdiction of the said Bishopricke of Exon, committed and perpetrated; as well Ex officio simple and mixt, as piomoted; and duly to correct, refirme and panish, what sever. delinquents, or criminall persons, by Ecclefiaftical Censures, and wher lawfull remedies of Ecclefiafticall furifaction, and to depute and place any Officials- Commissaries, and other Ministers what bever for the due execution, exercise and expedition of the premifes, and all other and singular things in the premisses, or any of them , or any thing necessary or any way fit concerning them, and will other things what bever any way respecting; tending and Con-groun.

reeing

s &c.

e gree-

o, and

dona

pricke

Pro

, and to be a

that

otion,

e con-

Good

to the

reate,

Bishop

e,and

15 na-

ments;

empo-

digni-

r , 10

nging,

pre-

may

pro-

e faid

d and

Cented

refaid

Exon

and

concerning the authority, power and furifaition ordinary, and Episco pall and pastorall offices, Præter & ultra ea quæ ipsis divinatur concessa esse dinoscuntur; Besides and beyond those things which are knowne to be committed unto them. from God, out of the secred Scriptures, to execute, exercise, doe, dispatch and committed execution, *VICE, NOMINE, ET AUTHO. RITATE NOSTRIS REGIIS, in our Royall stead, name, authority, &c. In witnes whereof &c. Witnes the King at Westminster, the 14. day of August, in the sisting yeare of the Raigne of King Edward the 6. of England, &c.

*See Fox AEs and Monuments P. 1294. 1405.

By a Writ of privy Seale, and the Date aforefaid, by an thority of Parliament.

From this Patent (and fundry others of this forme) itis apparant, that the Bishops power to ordaine, and institute Mimifters to Churches, to keepe Confiftories, and Eccefiaftical Courts, to hold plea of Ecclesiastical causes, to inflict Eccle fiafficall Centures, to keepe Vilitations, and to inquire of fuch offences as deferve their Cenfure without Oath, (for this, not any other Bishops Patent gives them no power to administer an Oath in such causes,) to proove wills and grant Letters of administration, deprive or suspend Ministers, and the like, is derived to them onely from the King, and not fore divine, by any divine right : that Bishops ought to have these Iunis dictions granted to them by the Kings Letters Patents under the great Seale, and that they ought to keep their Courts, Visitations, and make out all their proces, onely in the Kings name, and right, as his Officers and Vilitors onely, under paine of u-Surpation, and a Pramunire; which they neither doe, nor are willing to doe, (as appeares by the Archbishops late contest the 21. of luly 1 6 3 6. before the King himselfe at Hampton Court, where the fole question was, whether the Archbishop by his owne Episcopall authority, without any speciall Commission from his Majesty, and in his name and right alone, as his Vipow 69.p notab beene clama strate upon that

Vifit

him

his 1

might was fa nons of all the P nons, Divin the Pot the Do tutes, i fters, a ordina inftitu Prince Epi co against Statute that so they m ulurped Church autoric Visitor, should visit the University, which none of his Predeceffors fince the beginning of Reformation haddone before him? which cause miscaried for want of true reformation of his Majesties right, $ but proceed onely by their usurped power and authority. Bishop fewell in his Sermon on Pfalm. $ See Fox 69.p. 190. recordes, that Pompeiss a Gentl. of great wealth and Alls and notable courage didbuild a Theatre, such a one as before had not p. 1405. beene, which would containe 25000. men, contrary to the Pro- 1294. clamation and Order taken; but doubting lest the next Magifrates should destroy it, + hee caused a place of religion to be set de Spellacuupon it , and called it the Temple of Venus. Whereby hee provided, lind, I. that if any would overthrow it, because it was a Theatre, they might yet spare it for the Temples sake; For to pull downe a Temple was facriledge. Even to there have beene Proclamations and Canons (faith hee) that no man should be called the cheife, or head of all Churches, or usurpe such authority over others; but when the Pope built up his Supremacy against the meaning of such Canons, hee pretended religion for his doing, hee said hee was de lure Divino, that no man should presume or attempt against it, and that so his power might continue for ever. Iuft fo our Prelates, imitating the Pope in this his Stratageme, and well knowing, that by the Doctrine of the Scriptures, Fathers, and the forecited Statutes, they have no greater authority or Iurisdiction then Miniflers, and that all their Episcopall Iurisdiction & authority above ordinary Ministers, is derived only from the King and humane institution, and so subject to be revoked or restrained at the Princes pleasure; doe therefore labour, to build their pretended Epicopall Iurisdiction and authority upon divine institution, against the meaning of the Scriptures, Fathers, and foresaid Statutes, and publikely teach and define, that it is fure Divino, that so no man should presume or attempt against it, though they most intollerably abuse it, and that this their extravagant usurped power might continue for ever, to oppresse Gods Church and People. Since therefore our Prelates are fuch exterious usurpers, both upon the Kings Ecclesiasticall Prerogative rifco.

phich

e fa-

mit to

HO.

oyall

Vitnes

fifib

by an

) it is

te Mi-

ficel

Eccle-

of fuch

s, not inister

ters of ike, is

ivino,

Iuni

under

Vilita-

name,

of u-nor are contest

mpton

hilhop

Com-

as his

Vi

gative and the Subjects Liberties, I shall conclude the first pi k Gratianin. of this Breviate; with the laying of Pope Gregory & Privile. Can. II. Quest. 2. gium meretur amittere , qui abutitur poteffate Bifbop Hee that abuseth his authority, is worthy to loofe his priviledge, and lewell, Rethat Decree of Pope Sylverius, inferted into the by of the Can ply to Harding, Art, 1, mon Law, (which the Bilhops themselves now so much ender vour to advaunce) / Etiam quod habuit amittat ; ou Divif 53. p. 234. quod non accepit usurpat; Hee that usurpeth that which I Caufa. 25. hee bath not received (as our Bishops have done, and day Queft.2. doe) let him loofe that hee hath formerly enjoyed. Sic decet: * In the E-In the Letany of the Common Prayer Booke, there was this prayer pistle on used in King lames time , for the Queene, Prince , and the Ka Palme-Sunday , all the and Queenes Children; Allmighty God , which hast promifed be a Father of thine elect , and of their Seed, wee humbly before Bookes before, 1629 thee to bleffe our gracious Queene Anne, Prince Charles, & reade the Our Prelates (who have beene tampering which * corruption. texts truly: That IN expunging the Booke of Common Prayer it felfe, though confin the name of med by Act of Parliament, contrary to the Statute of I. Eliz.c.2) lesis every out of their hatred and dispite to Gods election and elect, and knee Should their unparalleld undutifulnes, disloyalty and contempt to his bow, Oc. Majesty and his feed, have expunged this passage, (which bah Mafter Cofens (I know promised to be a Father of thine elect and their feed) out of all our not by what late printed Common Prayer Books, as if his Majeffy, his Authority) Royall Confort, Prince Charles, and the King and Queen to patronize other Children were none of Gods elect, nor God their Fr the Ceremony ther. A thing worthy speciall observation and detestation, agraof bowing at the name vating and adding weight to all their former prefumptuouses lesis; An. croachmentsupon, and Rebellions attempts against his Ma-1629. tur- jesties Royall Crowne and dignity. Since therefore they ned it into, thus implicitely denie God to be a Father, both to the King, the AT the name, since which it hath beene so printed: though this translation be contrary both to the Great and Latine, and neither good English , nor sence.

Que

logu

Roy

of G

ring 1

can d

with in or

Pack

with t ough

shall 1

on th full as felled

Crow icas,

as they

fh

Queen and their Seed ; and expunge them out of their Catalogue of Gods elect, depriving them hereby not onely of their Royall temporall Crowne here, but of their eternall Crowne of Glory hereafter, by their owne Episcopall usurped domineering power, his Majefty, with his Royall Confort and Seed; candoe no lesse by way of right, and retaliation, then forthwith discard them from being any longer any ruling Fathers, in or elected fwaying Prelates of our Church, making the whole Packe of them m Quondams, and reducing them to a parity mSeeBiflop with their Brethren Foro Humano , (whom Jure Divino , they Laymers 2. ought not to exceed either in power or Iurisdiction;) till they and 4, Serm. shall publikely acknowledge these their notorious usurpations before King on their knees, and fatisfie his Majesties Iustice for them to the Edward full as they well demerit; there being none fuch desperate pro- the 6. fessed publike enemies, rebells, underminers to his Majesties Crowne and Ecclefiafticall Prerogative, his Lawes, his Subjects, Republike, Religion, Iuftice, Grace, and all good men, asthey, as the premises evidence, and the second part of this thort Breview will more largly manifest, to which I now proceed in order.

S

Their

e they ng, the Greek

rivile.

ftate:

dge, and

Can

ende

qui t which nd day

endal

s praye

be Km

mifedi

befeech

es . Oh

ruptim,

confir-

17.c.2)

at, and

t to his ich bah all our

Queens eir Fr

, agraous enis Ma-

ueent

Their Encroachments upon the Subjects Liberties.

a SeeRastals Abridgment Tit. Accuf. And the Pe zition of right 3 . Caroli.

He Statute of a Magna Charta (39) times confirmed in Parliament) cap. 29. enacts; that no freeman shall be taken, im prissoned or disfeissed of his freehold, or libertia. or free customes, or out-lawed, or exiled, n any otherwise destroyed, neither shall we paffe upon him, nor condemne him, but h

Lawfull Judgement of his Peeres, OR BY THE LAW

LAND. THE

That the High Commi [lioners have no to fine, or imprison, or arrest and attach men by Purfevants, as now they dayly doe.

The Statute of s. Ed. 3. c. 9. ordaines , that no man from Bis hops and henceforth, shall be attached for any accusation, nor forejudge of life, nor limbe, nor his lands, tenements, goods, nor cattels, fold imo the Kings bands , against the forme of the great Charter , and power at all the Luw of the Land.

The 5. Statute of 25. Ed. 3. c. 4. prescribes; that from henceforth, none shall be taken by Petition or suggestion made to on Soveraigne Lord the King , or to his Counsell , unleffe it be by indittement, or presentment of good and lawfull men, where such deeds be done, in due maner, or by proces, made by writ original at the Common Law; nor that none be put out of his Fraunchife, nor of his freehold, unleffe hee be duly brought into answer, and fine judged of the same, by way of Law. And if any thing be done against the same , it Thall be redreffed , and holden for none.

The Statute of 28. Edw. 3. c. 3. Provides, that no man of what estate or condition that hee be , Shall he put out of Land a Tenement, or taken, or imprisoned, or desherited, or put to death, without being brought into answer by due proces of the Law.

The Statute of 37. Edw. 3. c. 18. complaines, That though it be contained in the great Charter , that no man be taken , imprissoned, or put out of his freehold, without proces of the Lan never-

neven

Afe, greiz

again all the before

that

CHTTE

mere.

that to er im

Statu

that n

that if agains

bee fh

goodto

Suffere

to the

plainti

if bee 1

shall be the mij

accuser

vengea

of bis p

fined ,

andoth

and acc

be put to ofrecor

the old .

ine cont

neverthelesse, divers people make halfs suggestion to the King himfelfs, as well for malice, as otherwise; whereby the King is oftengreived, and divers of the Realme put to great damage, and losse against the forme of the great Charter, wherefore it orders, that althey, that make such suggestions, be sent with their suggestions, before the Chauncellour Treasurer, and his great Counsell, and that they finde surety to pursue their suggestions, and to incurve the same paine, that the other should have had, if hee were attained, in case that his suggestion were found evill, and that the process of the Law be made against them without being taken or imprissioned against the forme of the said Charter.

The Statute of 38. Edw. 3. c. 9. thus seconds the former Statute, As to the Article made at the last Parliament of those that make greivous complaints to the King himselfe; It is affented, that if hee, that maketh the complaint, cannot proofe his intent against the Defindant, by the proces limmited in the said Article, bee shall be commanded to prison, there to abide, till hee hath made good to the party of his damages and of the sander, or that hee hath suffered by such occasion, and after shall make sine, and ransome to the King, and the point contained in the same Article, that the plaintife shall incurre the same paine, which the other should have, if hee were attained, (in case that his suggestion be found unrive) hall be taken away.

The Statute of 42. Edw. 3.c.3. concludes thus; To eschew the mischieses and damage, done to divers of the Commons, by sulfe accusers, which oftentimes have made their accusations, more for ungeance and singular profit, then for the profit of the King, or is of which accused persons, some have beene imprisined, and others caused to come before the Kings Counsell by writ, and otherwise, upon greivous paine against the Law. It is assented and accorded for the good governance of the Commons, that no mandeput to answer without presentment before sustained, or thing freeord, or by due proces, or by some writ originall, according to the old Law of the Land, and if any thing from henceforth be done to be contrary, it shall be voyd in the Law, and holden for Error.

5 2

All

bm h A 19

(39)

p. 29.

, 18

bertia,

ed, or all wa

ls, fisfel r, del le to om the by inthe fuch the riginal tenchifes, and forebe done no ma and or o death,

though , im-

mever-

b Mathew

P. 46.97.

Majer.

All these recited Statutes, are mentioned and ratified, as the undoubted Lawes and Liberties of the Land, by the late Petition of right 3. Caroli. The famous Parliament held at b Claren. Pari. Hift. don, An. 1164. under King Hen. the second, subscribe and sworne to by Becket himselfe, and all the Prelates, Abbots, Clergy, Nobles, Barons, and Commons of England, as the m. doubted Law, and the custome of the Land, to be inviolably of ferved, enacted among other things, that Lay-men ought north be accused in the presence of the Bishop, unles it be per certos & legitimos acculatores & Testes: Lawfull accusers and witnesses. And that excommunicate person ought not to give cantion to remaine, nor yet to give an Oath, who they are absolved, coc.

The Statute of 25. H. S. c. 14. recites: That it standeth me with the right Order of fuffice, nor good equity, that any person should be convict, and put to the losse of his life, name, or goods, m. leffe it be by DUE ACCUSATION AND WITNES, or by presentment, verdict, confession, or preces of out Lawry; since by the Lawes of the Realme, for treason committed to the perill of the Kings most Royall Majesty, upon whose safety dependeth the whole Wealth of this Realme, no person can no way be put to death, but by presentment, verdict, confession, or proces of out lawry, & wherefore it is not reasonable, that an Ordinary, by any suspection, conceaved of his owne fantasie, without due accusation or presentment, (to wit, by a full lury upon Oath) Should put any subject of the Realme , to the infamy or sander of he. refie , to the perill of his life , loffe of name , or goods ; in confideration whereof it enalts, That every person or persons, being detelled thereof, BY TWO LAVEVLL WITN ESSES AT THE LEAST to any Ordinaries of this Realm, having power to examine herefies, shall and may after every such accusation and presentment, AND NOT OTHER WISE, NOR BY ANY OTHER MEANES, be gited, convented, arrested, taken or ar prehended by the faid Ordinaries, or any other the Kings Minifters.

+ Note.

proce fecuto ty pro

nifters

which

hall b

by 7

ibe lea

within diver:

ritual

person

and of our So

and w ofthat

ME

TH

the Ki

them

Such pe

to the

thence]

WIT

given

lyes mp

Statut

I.

arrefte nour a nifers, and subjects who seever. And the Statute of I. Eliz. c. I. (which erects the High-Commission,) enacts, that no man hall be indicted, or arraigned for any offence against that Law, but W TWO SUFFICIENT WITNESSES AL the least, and that viva voce, face to face, if they be alive, or within the Realme.

d, as the ceition

Claren

bscribel

Abbots.

the m.

ably of

ht not u

tos &

ine and

person

6, wha

deth no

person

is, m.

ND

or pro-

enfor

MPOR

perfin

iat an

vithout

Oath)

of he-

idera-

rected

SES

alme,

y fuch ER-

ER

or 40 Mi-

ifters,

The Statute of 2. H. 5. c. 3. enacts: That for a fmuch as divers of the Kings leige people, be dayly cited to appeare in the spirituall Court, before spirituall Judges, there to answer to divers persons, as well of things as touch freehold debt, trespasse, covenants and other things, whereof the consians pertaineeth to the Court of our Soveraigne Lord the King, as of matrimony and testament, and when such persons so cited, appeare, and demaund a lible of that, that against them is surmised, TO BE INFOR-MED TO GIVE THEIR ANSWER THERE, or otherwise purchase a writ of our Soveraigne Lord the King, of Prohibition, according to their case, which lible is to them denied by the faid firitual Judges, to the Intent, that such per sons should not be ayded by any such writ, against the Law, to the great damage of the persons so impleaded: That therfore from thenceforth the Lible should be granted and delivered to the party, WITHOUT DIFFICULTY, (and that before any Oath given to answer it) and in case it be refused, a * Prohibition *4.E.4.37 hes upon this Statute, as bath beene oft adjudged. By all these Probibition 8 Fitz. Nat. Statutes it is clearely re'olved. Brevium.

f.43. E. First; That no man ought to be cited, profecuted, or Against proceeded against meerely Ex officio, without a sufficient pro- ex officio fecutor affigned, able to render fufficient dammages to the Par- Proceedings. typrofecuted, in case hee be acquitted.

2. Secondly, That no man ought to be cited, convented, None to be arrested, or apprehended for herefie (much more then infe- arrested by nour and petty Ecclesiasticall crimes) upon suspection, or ma-any spirituall Judge, no not for berefie upon bare suspicion.

S 3

lice

* 1.H.7.c.4 lice onely: nor * unles bee be first either presented and indicted 31. H. 8. c.14.23 Eli, thereof upon Oath , by a verdill of 12. Sufficient men. , or lawful, e.x.35. Eli. accufed and desected thereof by two lawfull witnesses at the least.

c. 1. 3 lac.c. 3 Against ex · officio Ontbes.

Thirdly, That no man ought by Law to be forced by Oath or answer to Articles to accufe himselfe, in any criminal causes, which concerne either his life, liberty, losse of goods or freehold; but ought to be convicted by witnesses, present ment, or the verdict of 12, men upon Oath; or by his owne voluntary confession, without Oath or coaction.

Against Purferants and Intimations.

Fourthly, That no mon ought to be cited, or brough into answer, but by due Proces of Law, and according to the old Law of the Land; therefore not by Pursevants, or intimations.

Against ex Coppy of their Articles.

Fiftly, That no man ought to be put to answet, or officio, oather take any Oath to answer in any Ecclesiasticall Court, beforelet and putting bath a copy of the lible; or Articles against him; and that this lible men to An- ought to be granted and delivered to him, without any diffthey have a culty, that so hee may either demurre, answere, or bring a Prohibition, as his cause shall require and advise with his Councell, how to frame his answer, or demur legally for his best advantage, and security as hee doth in all Courts of Law and equity.

6. Sixibly, That no man ought to be outed, or deprived Against Excommunica- of his freehold, goods, chattles, or exiled, outlawed or excomtions for municated (for every c excommunication is an outlary, because preach of Ca- it disables a man to sue, and may be pleaded in barre of his action at tifiedlyPar- the Common Law , yea and an exile to , from the Church and ficit liament and Imprisonnie by the Prelates. c See Fitz. and Brooke, Tit. Excommengment, Little. ton, Sell. 193. and Cooke Ibidem.

ty of

nory that

by at tified

judge

miffi

prive

malel

Colve .

whic topo la

prison

by the

7. muuk

Hatute

be rec

the Su

ates,

in the

good S

the exp

I. men, t

(and of cufer ,

ties unj

many t

northe or proc

ry of the faithfull;) nor otherwise destroyed or condemned, dArrie Cler. noryet fined, or imprisoned, but by the Law of the Land; c.1.2.3 4. ndicted aw fully ast.

that is, by the Common and Statute Law, of the Realine; not 2. R. 2. c. 5. by any Ecclesiasticall Lawes, Canons or Constitutions, not ra- 2H 4.6.15 tified by the King and Parliament; and that by the lawfull 2.H. f.c.7. judgement of his Peeres, not by Ecclefiafticall Judges or Com- 1.Eliz.c.2. millioners; which can neither impose a fine on any man, nor de 23.5.86. prive him of his freehold, nor yet imprison, or lay any pecuniary Ed. 6.c. 3. malet upon him., as the marginall d statutes and Lawbookes re-Register filve; but onely in case of heresie and incontinency of Pressts; in part. I. which two cases , and no other , they are inabled to imprison by f.267.4. two late * statutes; whereas at Common Law, they could imprifon in no cafe; neither can they now impofe a fine in any cafe, euther 57. b. 52. by the Common or any statute Law.

Seaventhly, That all proceedings, centures, excommunications, oathes, fines, imprisonments, contrary to these a. Fiz. Nat. fautes, are meetely erronious, and voyd in Law, and ought to Brev. f. 5 1. be redrefled and holden for none.

Yet notwithstanding all these just and equal statutes for the Subjects eafe and benefit, our usurping domineering Pre- E.4.20.22 lates, both in their Consistories and Visitations, (but especially Aff. 70Conin the High-Commissions,) oppresse and greive his Majesties Sultation. 57 good Subjects, in all and every of these perticulars, contrary to Probition 30 the expresse Letter and provision of these reiterated Lawes.

1. First, In citing , profecuting , and proceeding against 25.H. 8. men, meerely exofficio, upon bare superstitions, rumours, fames, c. 14. and oft-times out of meere malice,) without any fufficient ac- Against ex ouler, or profecutor affigned to fatisfie dammages to the par-officio, Proties unjustly vexed. And if any profecutor be affigued (as out a Profemany times there is not , neither in the High-Commission, cutor. northeir Consistories, it is commonly some apparitor, prodor, or proctors man, onely pro forma; or some officer, or welpart. 2.f. 45 49.50.6.

55.4.56. 4.57.6.59. 4.66.4.67. b.71.b. 99.

K.52.F.53

a.1 1. H.4. 88.20.E.4 10.6.12.

25.H. 8. c 14. 21. *I.H.7.C.4

willer

imina goods refent. OWD

ed by

rough tothe or inti-

et, or ore hee is lible diffi-oring a Counis bef w and prived xcomecaufe ionat d focie-

Little.

170

* Bif hop Whites Speech to Master Walter, willer to the Court; so that if the parties be accquitted, yet eleg shall either have no costs at all allowed them, or very small, a experience witnesset it, and that because (as a * Bishop later told a freind of his, that was acquitted in the High-Commission and then dismissed without costs,) they must not discourage prosecutors, else they should have no worke, and no griest would come unto their mils.

Secondly, They not onely cite and convent men upa e Against arbich Terbare surmises, e fames and suspitions, without any proceeding aulitan in presentment or accusation by two sufficient witnesses, or more upon bu Apology, Oath , both in their Consistories , Visitations and elsewhere , bu thus delikewife in their High-Commissions, arreft, apprehend, and in claimes: Natura fa- prison them too, nay breake open, search, and ransacke the mæ omnibus houses, studies, bookes, chests, truncks, shops, warehows nota est cabinets, writings by their pursevants and officers, as if the vestrum; were traytors to the King and State; and commit men close Est fama malum, que prisoners now and then, before any Articles, inditement, prefentment, or acculation upon oath against them; and that for non aliud velocius u.the most part meerely out of malice; of purpose for vexation lum : carca malum?quia A tyrannicall greivance, and an exorbitancy fo exceffive, h intollerable, fo diametrally, contrary to all Law, equity, juffice, velox,quia and the forecited statutes, that the Parliament of 7. Facobin index?an quia pluri- their Petition of greivances , exhibited to King James , (of which dax? que ne there are many printed copies extant) and fundry Parliamon tune quidem since, have complained against it, as an insufferable outrage, but cum aliquid lary, and oppression, desiring a speedy reformation : upon when veri affert, sine medacij vitio est, detrabens adijiciens, immutans de veritate. Quid quod ei is conditio est, ut non nisi quum mentitur perseveres, & tamdiu vivit, quamdiu non proba Siquidem, ubi probavit, cessat est est est est ubi probavit, cessat est est enctur, res nominatur. Nec quisquam dicit (verbi gratia) fama est boc Roma fettum; aut sama est est monunciam sortitum; sed sortitu est ille pronunciam, & la factu Romae, fama nomen incerti; locum non habet, ubi certum est. An verò sa credat, nus inconsideratum; quia sapieus non credit incerto, & c. Yet our Presates proca upon mecre sames, and sueare Churchpardens to present upon them; though Tertulia.

and the Christian's blamed it in the very Pagans.

ı

they

dreff

any

M

men

ture.

post

appr

any,

footi

follo

in vie

being

ofou

of th

BIT

ring to fiders

Tynd

unfea

poore

Coun

beene

Chris

Bishot

our Pr

buries

Archl

(hephe)

did we catrav

felves

fuppo

power

injustic

they receaved Royall promises, that these exorbitances should be redreffed; though they be now more frequently practifed, then in any former ages : as the late transacting of Dellor Stautons, Mafter Whites , and other mens ftudies , and their imprisonment upon idle furmifes, with fundry other prefidents of this neture, witnes. Such proceedings, neither Christ, nor his Apoffles, nor any godly Fathers of the Church, have ever used or approoved against the most infamous hereticks; unparalleld by any, but the Spanish or Romish Inquisitors, whose violent footesteps our mercifull, pittifull, fatherly, harmles Prelates now follow to an haires breadth; exceeding all temporal Magistrates inviolence, injustice, cruelty, extortion and oppression; none being so merciles, cruell, furious, despitefull or pittiles, as many of our Prelates; who as Anthony Parfon wittily answered some of them of old in the f Booke of Martyrs, are rather become fFox AELS BITESHEEPES, then true Bishops, biting and devou- Monuments ring the poore sheepe of Christ, like ravening Wolves: Which con- P. 1111. fideration caused the gody Martyr & Master William , Fex Tindall at his death , to Petition King Henry the eight , (a fuit not AAs, Se. unseasonable to our present Soveraigne) to have compassion on his p. 986. poore Subjects, that the Realmentterly perish not with the wicked Counfaile and proceedings of our Peftilent Prelates; who have ever beene so prone to degenerate into cruell wolves, towards Christs poore flocke. That the very Booke of confecration of hs. E. 6.c.2 Bishops , ratified by b Act of Parliament , * Subscribed to by & Elize 1. our Prelates , and lately reprinted by the Archlishop of Canter- Canon 36 buries , commaund , prescribes this exhortation to all B. shops and Archb hops , at their confectation. Be to the flocke of Christ , a hepheard, not a wolfe; feed them, devoure them not : Which if they did well remember, they would no doubt correct these their extravagant excelles, which all men cry shame on, but themfelves; and they would not allow, nor practile, were it not to support their owne usurped Episcopall Iurisdiction, state, and power, the onely object, about whose Patronage this violent injustice is exercised; dignosm patello operculum.

ret tler

mall, a p lately

niffion

Courage

St would

en upa

ceeding

e upon

e, bu

and im

ke their

howfa

ifther

en close

it, pre-

that for

exation:

ve, fo

justice,

acobiin

f which

iamou

, burg-

m which

ood ea ili m probu.

t : exint

Rome for

1, 8h

però fano es proces

ertulia

T

3. Thirdly,

Against Ex 3. Thirdly, They inforce men by Ex officio Oathes, and officio oathes Articles to accuse themselves, even in criminal causes, which and Articles. concerne both their credits, in respect of scandall; their liberties and Articles. concerne both their credits, in respect of scandall; their liberties in regard of imprisonment : their freeholds and goods, in relation; to those deprivations, suspentions, and fines, which ther inflict for the most part in their Commission Courts upon the defendants selfe detection and answers. A proceeding, contrary to the Common and statute Law of the Realme; which in m criminall case what sever, puts any delinquents upon any informa tion, action, or inditement, to answer upon Oath, or to accuse thermselves (no not in case of Treason , or felony , the most transcendent offences; nor yet in trespasse, or other petty mis demeanors, the argument used in the statute of 25. H. 8. c. 14. to condemne and abolish, Ex officio, oathes and proceedings, in case of heresie, and Ecclesiastical offences) but puts the accuser to proove his information , plaint , inditement , or presentment by witnesses , and not h the defendants Oath or confession; the Common Law being so corious in this; that it will not fo much as put a furor to a voyre-din, upon any challenge, which toucheth him in his reputation, or favour of a crime (as for taking money, or giving up his verdict beforehand) though it forceth him to tell the truth upon his Oath, in other challenges of affinity, consanguinity and the like, which are neither scandalow, nor criminall; The reason whereof is given in our Lawbookes, because noman is bound to bewray himselfe, in things, which concerne his neffe.

Law

nifter

ther i

accuj

thou

party but n

ring e

Oath

to pu

and a

as I

rolu

that i people

Oath

enfor

accul

again

for t officio

quire

oftwe

ved a

but u cherif

and n

Apos

nor as

1bems

proofe

Law

brong

beare

149.E.3.2. credit , liberty , life , or forfeiture of his estate , in which cases an 1. Fitz.chal- man may lawfull refuse to take an Oath, or give any answer at all lenge 100. as the i marginall Law Authorities conclude and resolve. And Brooke, 25. 7.H.4 10. for expresse authority in point. March. 18. Eliz. one Hind was convented before the High-Commissioners for Symony, and coma, Fitz. Inflice of mitted for refusing to answer upon Oath, to accuse himselfe, and Pearce, 172 upon a Haberes Corpus brought by him in the Common pleas, ha Cromptons was delivered, after solemne debate, the Court adjudging the impri-Iustice of peace p. 182 somment unlawfull in this case, because no man is bound by Law, in 219.2 Eli. a case of crime, or scandall to accuse himselfe. Neither an . 13. Dyer. thole Exofficio , Onthes and Articles, contrary to the Common 288. P. 51. Law.

Lew : But to the Caron Law it felfe, which k requires wit- k Gratian nesses and accusers face to face, to convict any man (is pecially a Mi-causa 2. qu. nifter) of any crime, without forcing men, to accuse themselves, ci- 5: 2 causa ? ther upon Oath, or answer to Articles: And if witnesses faile, and qu. 9 can. 5 accusers, the party by the Canon Law is acquitted. Which Law, qu. 20. causa thoughit prescribe sometimes an Oaih of Purgation to the accused 11.qu.3. party, where there are stronge Presumptions and Circumstances, 5.6. but no full legall proofe of guiltines, yet this is onely after full hearing of the cause and sentence given; not before it, (as our Ex officio Oathes now are, which precede the fight of the Articles) and that to purge and cleare the party, acquitted by sentence, not to detect and accuse him , that hee may be sentensed , jet this purgation, as I Gratian and the Popes there quoted by him , refolve , is onely ICauf. 2.9.5 voluntary, not coactive; as the Parties not the Judges election, and see An. that in case of Bishops and Ministers , not of Laymen , when their Melvini people shall earne fily require it; so that it bath no affinity with the Celfa Com-Oath and Articles, Ex officio, (which are not arbitrary, but millionis Aenforced under paine of imprisonment; not to purge, but to ment, 17. accuse and insnare; and that not at the peoples request, but 6,6.19.15. against their vote and clamors) the maine argument produced Matth. 18. for their Iustification. Nay these Oathes and Articles, Ex 16. officio, are * contrary to the Law of God bimselfe, which re- nEph. 5.29 Eccl. 7. 16. quires m that every thing should be established, by the mouth Matth, 19. of two or three witnesses: n that no accusation should be recea- 19. ved against an Elder, (much lesse then no Elder condemned) 1, Tim 5 8 but under two or three witnesses: o that every man should love, p John 18. cherish, defend, and protest his owne fame, life, liberty, estate, 19.20.21. and not deftroy or rume himfeife, contrary to our Saviours, and the c. 19.9:10. Apostles owne practife, who p would not accuse themselves, Matth. 27. nor answer to captions Interrogatories and questions propounded to 11. to 15. them , by the High-Preists and Pilate , but put them to their Acts 23. & profes and witnesses; Contrary to the Jewes, r yea Romans 24. 525. proses and witnesses; Contrary to the sewes, so yea homan rin. 7. 51. Law and proceedings, who condemned no man, before they had ABs 23-35 brought the accusers witnesses, and dilinquents, face to face, and c.25.16. beare their accusations, testimonies, and defince. Contrary to 17.18. T 2 the

which

perties

in rela-

h they

on the

, COD-

h in m aforma.

accust anscen

ors , the

ine and

aform4

d not by fo a re-din, Cavous

rehand)

allenges

adalom.

because erne bis

afes any

at all

nd com-

fe, and as, bu

impn-

er are moor

Law.

And Hinda

the note, Doctrine, and practile of many of our godly Martyrs, who affirmed it a thing contrary to Charity, to the Law of God, Monuments of nature, equity, common reason, and to the Canon and Civill Law Lonton it selfe, for men to beweap and accuse themselves, and thereforere-1510. fued to take any Oath, or to answer to any Articles, to accuse them. P 950.951 1005. felves , diclaiming against Ex officio , Oather and proceedings , at 1021. Antichristian, blowdy, tyrannicall, unnaturall, uncharitable, 1 322. unreasonable, unjust, yea execrable, and Diabolicall, (though 1643. our Prelates still uphold them, plead for them, imprisoning, 1616. 1661. and using such as even out of conscience refuse to take them, 1777. rather like doggs then Christians, which shewes, whose off. 1778. spring they are) as is evident by Master William Tyndallin 1813. his workes , p. 122. 179. 208. 289. by the Breehrens I Letter 1814. 1815. to Thomas Philip Martyr; by that excellent paffage of Mafter 1849. John Lambert Martyr , to this purpose in his answer , to his first 1872. and 41. Acticles : by Master John Philpot Martyr , and his 1873. fellow prisoners, who would neither accuse nor detect themselfes, nor 1874. one another, and petitioned to the Parliament, against these proces-1843. dings and Outher : by some of the fellowes of Kings Colledge in Cam-1844. 1845. bridge, by Richard Woodman, and Reginald Eastland Marty. 481. 482. (who alleadged that hee knew that to end a strife and Oath was lay-539.651. All excellent full, but to begin a strife, an Oath is unlawfull, and therefore her passages a- now refuseib to take his Oath in the beginning of this matter against him.:) by Elizabeth Younge, Thomas Hitton, and Cuthbert gunst Ex Officio. Oa- Simpfon Mariyrs, and by Master John Fox bimselfe; whom shes and pro-Doctor & Andrew Willet , " Mafter Wheehenhall , x Ma. t Sinopfis Pa- fler Nicholas Fuller, and y Mifter Parker, fince have largely pifmi 7.ge- feconded, all of them paffing a joynt fentence of condemnation nerall coner. against these Onthes and proceedings, which, say they, the very u Discourse Fathers (as Achanasius , Ambrose , Chrisostome , and many of the abuses others quoted by z Sixtus Sennifts) have exceedingly declaix His Argument. y In his Scholasticall Discourse against the Cross. part. 2. 6.8. Sell. 2. p. 104. to 109. 7 Bibliothecafandla l. 6. Annot. 25.p. 434.435.

med

med a precipi

bath lo

Oathe

confessio

Confere

themse

Article

Confil

for life

FU

WAS

for if a therhi

now de

courfe

fully to lively-1

forthw

of late

confess

from v

thefe I

Statute

and A

482.)

H. 8. 6

miffior

(and b

it) whi

discord

ment,

E

med against, as the High rode to perjury, and the very Devils precipife to tumble men headlong into hell, as a Sir Edward Cooke aslades safe bath long fince stiled them in his Reports; yea these Ex officio 4. Report. Outher and Articles, are contrary to Archbishop Whitguists owne f. 95 consists on and protestation before King James, and his Councell in the Conference at Hampton Court, p. 90. (set out by the Prelates themselves) where hee is brought in averring. That if any Article before the High-Comissioners, (much more then in their Consistories and Vilitations) did touch the party any way, either fir life, liberty or scandall, HEE MIGHT RE-FUSE TO ANSWER, NEITHER

artyrs,

f God,

Il Law

Grere-

them-

195, 41

itable,

hough

oning,

them, e off.

dallin

Letter

Lafter

first

ad bis

s, nor rocee+

Camertyr.

Lum-

re bee

ainst

bbert

phom

Ma-

rgely

action

very

any

clai-

1.2.

med

But now the course is cleane contrary to what it was then, for if any man refuse to take the Oath, even before hee see whether his Articles touch him in point of liberty, or scandall, (as all now doc, fince they have made imprisonment, a censure of courfe, in all causes there sentensed,) or else refuse to answer, fully to their Articles which touch his reputation, liberty, and lively-hood, or the loffe of his living and Ministry, hee shall be forthwith layd up in a filthy Dungeon, or nafty prison, as many of late and heretofore have beene; and their Articles taken as confessed. Such is their strange degenerate lustice now, from what it was even in Bishop Whitguists dayes. Finally, as thele Ex officio Oathes and proceedings were founded on the Staute of 2. H. 4. c. 15. (which Master Fox in his Alls and Monuments therefore stiles the Statute Exofficio, p. 481. 482.) which was for mercy abandoned by the Statutes of 25. H. 8. c. 14. @ 10. Eliz. c. 1. (which erects the High-Comwhich expresty repeale the Statute of 2. H. 4. c. 17. miffion,) and by consequence these oathes and proceedings granted on it) which our High-Commissioners should be as hamed to use, fince that Statute, which erects their Commission, thus precisely discordes them, &ct ie A ion which they were founded: So they are contrary to the resolution of the Commons-howse of Parliament, which bath oft complained against these Ex officio Oathes and proceedings, as intollerable greivances, pressures, contrary to all Law, and Justice; and by name in the printed Petition of greivances, 7. facobi; yea contrary to the late Petition of right it felfe 3. Caroly, which condemnes thefe Ex officio Oathes, in case of the late lone, (though prescribed by a speciall Commission) as directly contrary to the Lawes, Statutes, Customes, and Fram. chife of the Realme ; and enacts : that no man shall from thenceforth be called to take such Oathes, or confined, imprisoned, or an way molested for refusing to take the same : Of which more anone I shall therefore close up this perticular, with the expresse refolution of Judge * Dyer , Catlyn, Saunders , and Whiddon , Pafe. 12. Eliz. where the case was this: A will of perjury was

ding

man

lentl

their

them

putti

their

all or

for n

a Put

to be

Statu

fervi

Plant

Atta

his co

whic

ment

laft pl

first p

every

times

first pr

an At

vant

Intum.

byfuc

quer.

fine m

tothe

Statut

and Co

person then by

in.

* Dyer f.288.p.51

fued in Chancery, for perjury there committed, against the forme of the Statute of 5. Eliz. and the question was, whether if the Defendent pleaded not guilty, whether hee shall sweare his plea, and answer to Interrogatories upon Oath ; It was resolved by all the Indges, that hee (hould not, (for this would inforce him to accele and defame himselfe in such a criminall cause,) and that the proceeding there should be by Latine will and answer, which upon iffin joyned, should be tried by witnesses and a fury in the Kings Bench. A full resolution, that all Ex officio Oathes and proceedings in

11. H.4. criminal causes, are directly against the very Common Law f. 37. For- and Statutes of the Realme. Therefore to be abandoned and laudibus Le. exploded; neither can any Commission whatsoever warrant gum Anglia, them; fince neither the $ King himfelfe, nor the Pope and Pre-42. All 5. lates, have any power to alter or change the Law of the Land, but Brooke Com- the whole Parliament onely , which fo lately condemned both mission 15. these Oathes and Commissions to administer them in the Peir.Ed.3.25 tion of right. b. 20. H.3.

Fourthly, They are so farre from bringing men into an-High Com- fwer, by due processe of Law, to wit, first by a Citation, then miljions pur- by an excommunication for default of appearing on the Cita-(evants,intimations and tion; and lastly by a Capias Excommunication, directed to the other Proces. Sherife, (the onely Ecclesiastical process and legall process ding, ding, that the High-Commissioners can or ought to use,)' that many times at the first dash they breake open mens howses violently, as if they were Traitors and fellons, and attach them by their Pursevants, under whose hands they likewise oft detaine them many dayes together, without bayle or maineprize; putting the poore Subjects hereby to an intollerable expence to . their great oppression and uudoing; contrary to the course of all other Courts. If any man be brought into the Starchamber, for never so hainous offences, hee is not forthwith send for by a Purleyant, nor clapt up prisoner at the first bonte, (which is to begin with execution, and quite contrary to all forecited Statutes,) but first of all a Sub pana is directed to him, the ferving whereof cofts him nothing, being ever done at the Plantiffes charge: If hee appeare not upon the Sub pana, then an Attachment iffues to the Sherife, at the Plaintiffe coft too, till his contempt appeares; and then himfelfe must beare the charge; which is not above to. f. of course; if hee stand out an Attachment, then a Proclamation of rebellion issues, and then in the last place a Pursevant or Sergeant at armes is sent to bring him in. But in the High-Commission, a Pursevant is oft times the first proces, or a Citation served by a Pursevant; which costs every Defendant that lives 40. or 50. miles of the Court, fometimes 3. 4. 5. or 6. p. a peece; whereas in all other Courts the first proces costs them nothing. After which Citation followes an Attachment, and that faved or executed by a special Pursevant at the like rate. Then they fend out Intimation, upon Intimation, of 20. 30. 40. 50. or a 100. f. a peece to appeare by such a day, which upon default they eftreet into the Esche- b Artic. (leri quer. A new kinde of Proces, never heard of, till of late, to 6.1.2.3.4. fine men before apparance, and for not appearing, contrary 1. Eliz.c. 2. to the course of all other Cours, and to the Common Law and Fitz, Nat, Statutes, which expresty b resolves, that Ecclesiasticall Judges, Brevium and Commissioners, can impose no fine, or pecuniary mulet, on any, 51.R 5.2. person by way of Censure, for any Ecclesiasticall offence, muchlesse Secial bethen by way of processe. All these their process and proceedings fore,

itrary

ion of right

es, in

(Tion,) rann-

bence-

or any

none. refo-

Pafc.

y was forme

e De-

t, and

all the

accuse

e pro-

n issu

Bench.

ngs in

n Law

d and

arrant

Pre

d, but both

Peti-

nto an-, then

Cita-

to the

roceeding,

are irregular, contrary to all the forecited flatutes; and intol lerable greivances, oppressions to the Subjects, as the Con mons howfe of Parliament, in their Petition of greivances, I facili and in most Parliaments, fince have resolved, and our ludge long fince determined: yet our Prelates are now more en bitant, in this violent oppressive course of proceeding then era especially against godly conscionable Ministers and people; an that for meere toyes and triffles; upon the information of even Drunkard, or base idle wretched companion; who out of me lice and spite alone shall attempt to prosecute them. In a + ml

Ecch

An

the f quitte

the It

reft a

* no

millio

theit!

wher

is no

ments

Intim

and in

agree

Bench.

5:

Kingd

take a

c Simpfons

case 42. Eli. of Queene Elizabeth , the High-Commissioners directed and rant, to one Richard Butler, Constable of Aldrington in the Contry of Northampton, for attaching and arresting the body of fin Simpson of that Parish , and the bringing of him before them, for committing adultery with the wife of Edward Fust, the Conflict hereupon with one William Johnson, Fusts servant, camena widdowes howse in Aldrington, where Simpson was; at eight clocke at night, and the doores being open, would have arreful Simpson , by vertue of the High Commissioners warrant , which Simpson not withstanding resisted, and hee there read unto him. in his owne defence shot Johnson, who came in aide of the Constall with a Prffoll, so as hee fell downe dead, for which being arraigns ted, a at Northampton , affifes following , the question grew , whether advise this were willfull murder, or manslaughter onely? for if the Car cafe ih stable had lawfull authority to arrest him, then it was wellfull minand car ther, otherwise but manslaughter se defendendo. The matter Oath to being of great maight, was deferred till next affifes, and upon con inform ference with all the Judges of England, it was resolved; that it we putting onely manslaughter le defendendo, because though the Commis fubscri ners had power given them to attach, and arrest offenders by Pw- out Pro sevant, or warrant , by the words of their Commission, yet the state grower of I. Eliz. c. t I. on which the Commission is grounded, gives the mens a no such authority, and so their Commission as to that particula voyd in Lew, and the Statute giving them no power to arro Sympson, but to proceed against him by Cutation onely, and other Ecch id intol- Ecclesiasticall proces, the Constables warrant was meerely voved. And herenpon Simpson being indicted of willfull murther, was by e Com the fury found not guilty, by the direction of the Court, and 6 ac-I . Faceli r Indea desitted. A full and most pregnant resolution in a point by all the ludges; that the High-Commissioners cannot lawfully arre exorreft any man by Pursevant or warrant, (as now they dayly doe) * Muchlefte en ever ple; and no though his doores be open, and the words of their Com-then can shey breake of ever mission authorize them so to doe; and that the killing of up and rantheir Pursevants and officers in such cases (much more then sacke any where they ransacke and violently breake up mens howses, mans howse, d awa + which are their Castles in all cases , except fellony or Treasin,) do now they be Come is no murther in point of Law, wherefore all their Attach- + Cooke Reof the ments, arrefts by Pursevants or others, and their new invented port. 2. Bet-Intimations, are meere extravagant oppressions, greivances, tisworthes constate and innovations, contrary to the forecited Lawes; And so was it case, fol. 32. amens agreed by the Court in Lucas his case, hil 30. Carinthe Kings eight a Bench.

arrefled 5: Fiftly, Whereas in all other Courts of Juffice in the That no d, a Kingdome, the defendants upon their appearance may freely man ought constable take a copy of the information, bill, plaint, or Articles exhibitobe denied reason ted, against them, to repaire therewith to Councell, to crave by Articles whether advile, whether to answere or demurre thereto in Law, as the in the Highthe Car cafe shall require; and to direct them how to answer legally, Commission full mir and cauteoufly for their best advantage , without taking any upon by apand cauteously for their best advantage, without taking any upon the amount of the answer upon their appearance; before they see the bill, fore any information, plaint, or Articles; taking onely an Oath upon the Oath or anaptiting in of their answer; (after it is perused, engrossed, and swer bolden: inbscribed by their Councell) That it is a true answer; yet and that the by Procur Prelates in their High-Commission and Consistories, are denying of the Coppy of growen so strangly, exorbitant and unreasonable, as upon the Articles, mensappearance, before any sight or knowledge of the Ar-before Oath, articles, are supported.

articula

to arra and other Ecch

& the Oath, and proceedings Ex officio, are against Law.

DO

fire

will

com

inst

bau

TO

fore

can y Fath

gy m

rate I

force

ofthe

ricall

fringe

Script

demne

vaine !

or fuc

contain

A CAME

man, to ruine ?

judgem

Juffice

to make to fwear

Prohibi

what jud

d ler. 4, 2. De perfecu-tial properties of every Christian Oath) fitter for beafts then sioneVanda-men, and very prejudiciall to the parties. I read in e Ville Ut. censis, that when King Hunerichus his Commissioners weed the orthodoxall Bishops and Ministers of Affricke, affembled together before them, to sweare to a certaine shedule tendred n them, before they had read and perused it; Hortulanus and Fla rentianus with all the others replyed to them, Nunquid Brus nos irrationalia, fumus, ut nescientes quid Chara contineat facile aut temere juremus, What are we me reasonable bruite Beasts, that wee should easily or rashly sweath not knowing what the Charter containes ? Yet fuch bruite beat will our Prelates make men , that they must either swearen answer Articles , before they know whether there are an Articles at all drawne up against them; or if exhibited what it is they containe, or whether they are fit to be answere or no; or whether the Court hath I urifdiction in the things of jected; or whether they shall live or be forced to answer then or no; or elfe they must forthwith be dragged to prison. Als

$ See the Ap. pellation of Iohn what is Barbarisme and inhumanity in the one; or rash una Penrie to the Highvised swearing without Judgement and righteousnesse, inth Court and Parliament, An. 1589. fopu imperfect in Math. Homily, 1 2. tation to ac- Clerici, &c. customable fwearers.

other, if this be not ? yet this is the Fatherly Charity, men and Iustice of our Prelates in their High-Commission + with 9.42.1047. parralell, or president among Turkes and Insidels themselves If f Sant Chryfostome were to much against swearing in any of before Ecclefiaftical Indges (as Master Miles & Coverd B shop of Exeter records of him) that hee thus rebukes Clean gHaExber- men for administring an Oath to others to sweare men: Audit allowes

Heare this , O yee Clarkes , or Cleargy-men who reach out the holy Euangelists to them that sweare; how can be secure from that Oath, or this precept of our Saviours, sweat not at all, who give an occasion of perjuny? Can bee who carrieth fire, whence burning is occasioned, be free from that burning? or bee who holds out a fword by which murther is committed, is not hee a sharer in that homicide? So hee who gives an occasion of perjury to mother, is a partaker of his perjury. Les the fire cease and there will be no burning ; take away the sword, and mursber will not be committed; take away anOath, & there will be no perjury. If it were ist to sweare well, yee might justly excuse your selfes, by saying, wee have given them the Gospell that they might sweare, not that they might forsweare; but now since yee know THAT EVEN TO SWEARE WELL IS A SIN forefolve most of the b. Fathers on that Text of Math. 5.) how Senenfis can yee be free, who give an occasion of siming against God? If this Bibl. Santla Father thus declaimed against the Oathes administred by Cler-lib.anot.26. gy men in his time, what would hee fay of these rash inconside-P.433.434 rate Ex officio Oathes in our dayes, and of those Prelates, who 435. force men to them, and imprison those who make conscience of them? doubtles hee would have filled the world with R hetoricall invectives against them both, and condemne them as infingers of the third i Commandement, with other & texts of i Exe. 20.7 Scripture ; and of the 39. Article of our Church , which con- k Math, 5. demnes all vaine and rash swearing, and what can be more 34.36. vaine or rash, then to sweare to answer Articles, not yet drawne, lan. 5. 12. or fuch as we have neither feene nor know what matters they containe?) and all swearing before a Magistrate, unles it be in a cause of faith and Charity; (and what Charity is it to inforce a man, to accuse, detect, defame himselfe, or others to his or their mine?) and done according to the Prophets teaching in justice, judgement, and truth; as these rash oathes are not; for what justice can there be in this, to violate all these rules of justice? to make a man his owne accuser, betrayer? and to force him to sweare to answer such Articles, which the Law perchance allowes him to demurre to, without Oath, or to take of by a Prohibition without answer, or to refuse to give answer to? what judgement can there bee, to sweare, to give a true full anlwer truck

thene:

iderate

d effen.

ts then

Villar.

s surged

Tembled

ndred n

nd Fla

Brut

Chart

me an-

(wear.

te beat

wearen

are an chibite

nfwere

ings ob

er them

n. Ala

Th una

, inth

, mera

witha

emfelte

n any co

overde

Clearge

Audin

gy-ma

w can p

, fwen

Sect .2 12.

Affeffor ,

Executor

effe testes.

Gloffa in

Caufa 2.

Quest. 6.

answer to Articles which we neither know as yet to be, orifthey be, yet are utterly ignorant what they doe or may comprife? Or what truth can there be, to fweare to answer Articles, which perchance by reason of sicknesse, death, freinds, compolition, demurre, or a Prohibition, wee shall never give an answer to; and by reason of our owne perticular ingagements to fecure, favour, helpe our felves, wee are in all legall probability more likely to answer fally or fraudulently then fully and truly (25 ‡ Littleton. the most usually doe) the cause why no ‡ Law permits any man 7.H.6.19. to be a witnes, Judge, or Juror in his owne cause? well, when a, 9. H. 6. this rash Oath is thus inforced and taken before fight of Ani-10. 12. H. cles; which the party may justly refuse, and if they be committed for not taking it; the ludges on a Habes corpus, ought Brooke Leet. to bayle them (as hath beene expresty judged in Leighs case, M.o. 12. Iudex, & 10. Eliz. and in Hindes case M. 18. and 19. Eliz. in the C. Advocatus, B. and 3. facobi, in Berries case in the Kings Bench,) shall the party have a Copy of his Articles forthwith, to goe to Councell non possunt or men skillfull in the Lawes to advise him , (being ignorant perchance himselfe in Law affaires) how to answer, as is usual Gratianum: in all Courts of Iuftice elle? No, his Majefties poore Subjects (being purposely for the most part brought before them to enfnare and intrapp themselves,) must have no copy at all of cap flatutum their Articles given them, whereby to put in their answers by Civilians & advice of Councell to I captions and groffe interrogatories, able Canonifts in to intangle the most intelligent; or to advise with their freinds and their Titles, Councell whether the Atticles be fit to be answered, or rather De Testibus: demurred unto; or to moove for a prohibition before answer 1. 25. H. 8. given, if there be just cause; but * like sheepe appointed for the flaughter, and destined to ruine, must answer their Articles and * Pf.44.22 put in their answers, before they shall have a Coppy of them; Rom. 8. 36. and this answer must be dictated Extempore, by the parties to the Register, who must write it from their owne mouthes, and they then answer as hee thinkes fit, else hee will not write not repeat their answers; and the defendants or their Councell, must neither draw nor ingrosse their owne answers, neither may

they

perul

into (

party

hew

this,

not O and co

think

the D

moule

they n

bilhop

rall C

Theri

and D

to be c

to certa

and w

connce

UN

(0)

AL M

WRC

badre

him a most r Ent,

beextr

my Tr

answer

have .

change

yet is 1

they

they have liberty to carry their answeres to their Councell to e, orif peruse after the Register hath written them, before they be put into Court, past all alteration and amendement. party will make a defence or justification in his answer, by hewing the reasons, either why hee doth, or refuseth to doe this, or that hee is charged with; The Register either will not or may not write it; and the answer written must be purged and corrected in fuch cases, as the Register and Commissioners thinke fit; witnes Mafter Snellings late case, for not reading the Declaration; with others, whose answers and fustifications would by no meanes be receaved, and were rased and purged after they were receaved and put in. Our reverend Martyr Archhis appeale from the Pope to the next gene- Fox AELS rall Councell, makes these two cheife causes of his Appeale: and Monn-The right reverend Father James Brookes, Bishop of Glocester, Judge ments. and Deputy, under the most reverend Cardinall Poole caused me P. 1708. to be cited at Oxford (where I was then kept in prison) to answer wcertaine Articles, concerning the danger of my state and life, and when I being unlearned and ignorant in the Lawes, defired councell of the learned in the Law, that thing was MOST UNRIGHTEOUSLY DENIED ME, CONTRARY TO THE EQUITY OF ALL LAWES, BOTH OF GOD AND M A N. Wherein againe I feele me MOST WRONGFULLY GREIVED. And when hee had required of me answers to certaine Articles, I refused to make him any answer; I said I would yet gladly make answere to the most renowmed Kings and Queenes Deputies or Atturnies then prefint, with this condition not with standing, that my answer should beextrajudiciall, and that was permitted me. And with this my Protestation made and admitted , I made answer : but mine answer was sodaine and unprovided for , and therefore I desired to have a Coppy of mine Answeres , that I might put to, take away, thange and amend them; an i this was also permitted to me. (which yet is now denied men in the High-Commission, who can neither

com.

ticles,

com-

ive an ements

babili

ruly (25

y man

when

Arti-

com-

ought

M.9.

the C.

all the

uncell

norant

ufuall

bjects

to en-

all of

ers by

, able

is and

rather

nswer

or the

s and

hem;

iesto

, and

e nor muft

may

they

ther have Coppy of Articles, or Answere out of Court, to advilrect ti which Counsell or amend what is amille by direction of them! Counfell, till the answer be in past all alteration) Nevertheles. contrary to this promise made tome, no respect had of my Pre testation nor license given me to amend mine answere, the second rev. rices, rend Father Bishop of Glocester commaunded mine answers to h inacted, CONTRARY TO THE EQUIT good OF THE LAW. In which thing agains I feel my fit found This denying therefore of men, the Liberty of mbere much greived. making their Answers by their Counsells advise learned in the bee lear Law, and to have Coppies of their Articles, and Answers before mary their answeres be in, to mend their answers by advise of Lawyers, this R is in this Archbishops and Martyrs judgement, a most in. and p righteons thing, contrary to the equity of all Larves both of God and Highman, and a most verong full ge ivance to the Subjects, giving them 6.3.1 just canfe of Appeale. Yet for footh, it is the cause and custome greive of this most unrighteous Court, and must not be altered upon and in Moreover, whereas in all other Courts of juffice every man ought to have all his charges together at first, in one Bill, Plaint, or Information, to which nothing can be added orinferted afterward, especially after appearance or answer given; yet in these vexations extravagant Courts of Ill-justice, you shall have additionall Articles, exhibited and propounded after the original given out and answered, of purpose to vere and infnare the parties, and to gaine the Register a double Feefor their answer, and sometimes additionals upon additionals, containing new matter or captious crosse interrogatories, toth end, you shall not escape Scot free, all which you must anfwer by vertue of your first Oath, before any coppy given you to advise with Councell: By meanes whereof and of some generall words (as Conventicles, Schismatickes, Sedition, nonconformity, and the like inferted into Articles) many ignorant, innocent people are intengled at unawares, and made guilty of that they are altogether guiltles, being quite deprived of the benefit of Law and Lawyers; who are cheifly necessary to di-

red

cation

Court

Confi

Romi

exorb

tofore

indiffi

fullgh

being a love t

those t

Epifel

Sabba

tarre

it, w

be fitt

JY.

never

thefe

proce

alhan

rod them in their answers, which either acquit or condemne them for the most part. And as Doctor Barnes in his Supplication to King Henry the eight p. 183. writ of the Prelates my Pro Courts in those dayes; So by these infnaring trickes and deand reve rices, wee may fay of the High-Commission and Bishops Consistories now: In the Bishops Court no man (especially no I Tr good man, that opposeth their tyranny and proceedings can be my fif found innocent. Is not this a marveilous Court, that they have, berty of wherein there was never any man accused of heresie or suisme, were ed in the bee learned or unlearned, but they found him gulty? Is not that a s before marveilous Court, that never hath innocents? What Court vrithin awyers, this Realme may fay this againe? Now whether these practises most m. and proceedings of our Prelates, both in their Consistories and God and High-Commission Courts, complained of longe agoe, in 2. H. 5. ng them c.3. in 7. facobi, and every Parliament fince, as an intollerable cultom greivance, be not the very extremity of oppression, tyranny, *See a books ed upon and injustice, * as bad or vvorse, then any in the Spanish or intituled A f justice Romssh Inquisition, from vobence they are derived, and more Petition to , in one exorbitant, then any of our Popish Bishops proceedings here- the Queens tofore against our Martyrs, recorded by Master Fox, let the Majesty, ranswa indifferent and intelligent judge, yet our holy, just, and merci- p.60, to 82 I-inflice, full ghostly Fathers, who condemne the Presbyterians for not Penry bit apbounded being mercifull as their heavenly Father is mercifull, not realking in pellations to love torvards their brethren, not loving their enemies, and bleffing the Highto vexe those that curse them, (as Bishop White hath lately done, in his Court of Epifle to the Archbishop of Canterbury , before his Doctrine of the p.42.10 47. Sabbath,) where hee shewes himselfe most uncharitable, and Conference farre more guilty of this fin, then any of those hee censures for at Hampton it, whom hee dismisseth with this Episcopall benediction, well Court p. 89. befitting his fatherly Candor, piety, and pitty, ABE AN Taccordingly. IN MALAM (RUCEM, fuch a bleffing, as never from any Christians penne before,) justify, and defend the'e unchriftian, I had allmost fayd Anrichriftian practifes and dofthe proceedings, with blushlesse faces, though all men else are ashamed of them, exclaime, passe sentence against them; inflicting advile tion of

ertheles

ers to h e added

eFee for

s, con-, to the

muft an-

ven you

of some

on, non-

norant,

uiltyof

ry to di-

red

flicting nothing but fines, imprisonments, execrations, exty of all mileries (the weapons of their Christian warfare) upon a Ars who dare oppose them, or refuse to submit unto them, as if the gloryed in nothing more then in tyranny, oppression, into what manity, injustice, the cheife props to support their usurper frell, hierarchicall domineering power over the poore flocke of those mHab. 1.8. Chrift, which they thus miferable fleece, flaye, devoure, like ihope Zeph. 3.3. fo many m ravening evening Wolves.

Acts 20.29

Sixtly, They fine, imprison, fuspend, deprive, outlaw, and wo That the High-Com- exile, condemne, destroy his Majesties Subjects, and put then oth of from their free-holds, callings, not onely without, and belides without millioners missioners from their free-noise, canings, not only who can neither but directly against the Law (to wit, the Common Law, fine nor imon of the Land, upon Articles, Canons, Constitutions, Cere nine, red, 1.the monies of their owne making, (which are no * Law of the b foule Statute of Land unles confirmed by Ast of Parliament) and for matters to Court a Biggany, c. 6 way criminall by any Law or Canon. To instance in some might enter the Land Lorent was a Massive Law of the Law o particulars, by what Law of the Land, I pray, was Mafter adame 25. H8. 21.27.H.8 Peter Smart, a reverend Prebend and Minister of Durham rinjust 21.27.H.8 fined, imprisoned, and deprived, An. 1629. by the High matter c.1.2.31. Commissioners of Yorke, both of his Prebendary and living decesors. H.S. c.14. onely, for preaching against the fetting up of Images, Alan as A 34.H.8. bowing to them, and placing them at the East end of the Church bout 7 8.c.5. 1. & directly contrary to the booke of Common Prayer, and the Homis wherein 8.c.5. 1. 3 directly contrary to the booke of Common Property of the Paris Charche 2. Phil. 3 against the Perill of Idolatry, confirmed by Att n of Paris Charche Mary, c 8. ment, to which o all Ministers and Bishops subscribe? By and $32.H. 8. what Law of the Land was Master George Huntly, not long with Co c. 38. 2.Ed fince fined, imprisoned, deprived of his living, and degrade Bishop. 36.E.3.c.8 of his Ministry, for refusing to preach a Visitation Sermon upon the Archdeacons warning, though hee were then fickly and unable the Co 2.H. 5. Sta: . 2. c. 2. more;

Seldens Nota ad Eadmerum, p. 168. 169. Eadmeru Hift, Noverum, l. 1. p. 6.1. 3. p. 67.4 p. 94. 95. Fox Acts and Monuments, f. 96. n 13. Eliz c. 12. o Canon 36.

mpris formi irpationi reasons

anse he

ons; ex such, and fent xxs to him to procure another to preach for him; extream crebeing no Canon Law or Statute extant, enjoyning Minoponal flers to preach at Vilitations; but P many prescribing the pLinderood as if the shops and Archdeacons, who vifit to preach themselves in person. lib. 1. De of what Law of the Land was one Master Crowder, Vicar sicio Archiusurpe Well, neare Nonesuch about 6. yeares since, committed close diaconi, sol. locke a moner to New-gate, 16. weekes together, by the now Arch-36. Sec. ure, like shops of Canterbury and Yorke, under pretence of some 12.13. rasonable words, delivered in the Pulpit; (but in truth, berule hee preached conscionably twice a day q neare the Court, * A Ceremooutlaw, nd would not refigne his Vicaridge;) and after that deprived, my not preput them toth of his Vicaridge and Ministry in the High-Commission, the Gommon besides without any Articles at all exhibited, or witnesses examined a- Prayer on Law, winft him, or any proofe, confession or conviction of any Books, and confirme, under this pretext, that the matters against him were sherefore not saw of the follow, as they weare not fit to be Articled or prooved in to be used by interess to court against him, nor yet to be notified to himselfe, that hee of divine in some night either defend or justify himselfe is innocent, or confesse service, by Mafter adamend if peccarit? A proceeding so desperally, trascendent-the expresse our ham by injust, and yet most true, that no age, no Court of justice statute of 1. the High shatsoever can parralell it, in the most barbarous tyrannicall school diving slaces or ages of the world? By what Law of the Land, I pray, enasts, That Alian was Master John Hayden, a poore Devonshire Minister, no other Rive Chards Church bout 7. yeares fince, for preaching a Sermon at Norwich, or Ceremony thomis wherein hee let fall some passages against setting up of Images in Shall be used Partie Churches (contrary to the Homisy of the perill of the Idolatry) divine Serber B and * howing at the name of selies, apprehended like a traytor, vice or Sabilions with Constables, Bills, Halberts, by Doctor Harsnet, then craments; egraded by the soft Norwich, and brought manacled to him like a sellon; then these and for this offence onely committed by him close prisoner to prescribed in the Booke of the softence onely committed by him close prisoner to the Booke of the Booke of the Common-goale at Norwich for 13. weekes space or Common .67/4 more; where hee was like to starve, the Bishop taking away Prayer, under paine of impissionent, and other penalties and forefaitures therein mentioned. A thing worthy ob-

preach

from him both his money, papers, horse; and when the Justices of peace at their quarter-leffions upon his petition would have bayld him; By what Law did the Bishop, to prevent his bayl. ing, tell them, that hee would lay high-treason to his charge. and after that fend him up to London by an High-Commission Pursevant, under whose custody hee was kept without bank or mainprise for two whole Termes or more, till his cause came to hearing before the High-Commissioners in the Consiston of Pauls, onely upon these two points? or by what Lawdid the High-Commissioners then & there censure him to be impris foned, deprived of his Ministry, orders, and to pay a fine be fides, meerely for preaching against Images, and this superstition *An. 1624 Ceremony? Or by what Lawdid the Commissioners * fince that time, imprison him in the Gatehouse Common Dungeon, later end of and the now Archbishop of Canterbury send him from thence to Bride-well to be whipped, and there keepe him all thelast extreame cold winter in a cold darke Dungeon, without fire or candle-light, chained to a post in the midst of a roome, with heavy Irons on his hands and feete, allowing him onely bread and water, and a Pad of straw to lye on : and fince upon his release, cause him to take an Oath, and give bond to pread no more, and to depart the Kingdome within 3. weekes or moneths space, and not to returne; and all this onely for preaching againeafter his first unjust deprivation, though noce ception was taken against his Doctrine?

*SeeCon-Salvus De Inquifitione Hispanica. †An. 1628 about the

the Somer

.vacation.

A tyranny and barbarous cruelty transcending, at leafwife paralelling, the very worst of Boners and * Spanish Ir quisitors proceedings. By what Law of the Land was Maller Hugh Peter, Lecturer of Sepulchers in London, deprived of his lecture, and committed close prisoner # about 7. years fince; for 6. weakes space together; (and Master Hieron. another Minister too at that season) by the Commissioners, be fore any Articles exhibited against him: though some Noble men interceeded for him, and tendered to bayle him; and all for this capitall offence, that hee was a Zealous powerfull preacher, and

700

Lan

Pur

Ink

any

Was

mile

to es

deni

livin

fuffic

and s

any S

Law

Flee

an H

the A

Dort

Doll

omif

fence

ter fo

hadg

of th

can t

Stati

Staro

Civil

made

ment

upon

and p ing c

fence

done

res much followed after by the people ? By what Law of the Land was Mafter John Vicars of Stamford, first lent for by a Purlevant, and clapt up prisoner upon a Papists, and drunken Inkeepers bare acculation, for many weekes together, before any Articles exhibited against him ; and afterwards when hee was let out upon bayle, enforced to give bond, not to goe 10. miles from London, nor yet to goe downe to Stamford, no not to examine and prepare his witnesses (which at first hee was denied,) and after this imprisoned, fined, and deprived of his living, upon meere frivilous allegations, disprooved by many fufficient witnesses, and prooved but by two or three dissolute and meane persons onely; and yet those no crimes at all against any Statute, Canon, or Articles of our Church? By what Law of the Land was Butter the Bookeseller, committed to the Fleet, by the Archbishop of Canterbury (then of London) as an High-Commissioner, onely for printing a passage against the Arminians, in Institution of Bishop Hall, the Synod of Dort, and Doctrine of the Church of England, in a Letter of Doctor Davenates, then Bishop of Salisbury to Bishop Hall, the omiffion whereof would have mangled both the letter and fence, because Martine his Chaplaine (who licensed the letter for the Presse) to please the Arminians, and betray the truth, had given direction that this passage (the maine part and scope of the letter) should be left out? By what Law of the Land can the High-Commissioners proceed against Printers and Stationers ; (yea and Authorstoo) for breach of a Decree of Starchamber, made for their better ordering, (athing * meerely *So was it Civill, not Ecclesiasticall, punishable onely in that Court which ruled in the made it, and untransferrible to any other, being no All of Parlia- C. B.4. Cament, and binding none but such as are parties to it,) and there- Master upon burne their Letters, Bookes, Presses, yearine, imprison, Sparkes and and put them from their trades, for printing, writing, and vent- lones cafe, ing orthodoxe Bookes against Papists and Arminians, in de- where a profence of the Doctrine of the Church of England, as they have hibition was done in the case of Butter, Sparkes, Jones, and others of late granted.

X 2

ber, and IN

uffices

d have

is bayl.

charge;

miffior

et bayle

fe came nfiftor

aw did

impri

fine ber Stition

* fince

ingeon,

thence

l the laft

t fire or

, with

y bread

apon his preach

kes or a

nely for

noc

at leaft-

ish Ir

Malta

ived of

yeard tierom ers, be-

Noble

d all for

yeares? By what Law of the Land did they convent Dollar Souge , Doctor Sibbs , Doctor Taylor , and Mafter Davenport , a notorious delinquents, onely for fetting their hands to a Certificate (upon intreaty testifying the distressed condition of some poore Mi. nisters of the Palatinate, and furthering a private Contribution. among charitable Christians for their relesse, when publike Collection By what Law of God, or of the Realme, didther lately fend for the Major, Towne Clarke, and some Aldermen of Glocester, as groffe delinquents, onely for granting a small anuity to their painefull and faithfull Minister, Master Workman, folonge as hee should continue among them, towards the benen maintenance of himselfe and his Children, and cause them tore. voke their grant? as if charity it felte to diffrested faithfull godly Ministers, were a notorious offence, as these uncharitable Prelates make it ; who will neither fuffer fuch Ministers to injoy their livings or Ministry; nor permit others to releife them, when themselves have stript them of both; and all their means befides, onely for their diligence and profitablenes in their places. By what Law of the Land was Sir Giles Allington Knight, about 6. yeares fince, fined no leffethen 10. thou find pounds by the High-Commissioners, and more over imprisoned and excommunicated, onely for marrying his halfi fifters daughter by the fathers side with license, it being lawfull though not usuall, in the judgement of many Divines and Canonias, whose opinions hee had under their hands before the marriage, and charth out of the words of the Leviticall Degrees, and so lawfull and dispunishable in point of Law, by the expresse Statutes of 32. H. 8. c. 38. yet in force, at leastwife not fineable and punishablein

4.1634, this maner? By what Law of the Land was $\frac{1}{2}$ the Major of Arundell, not long fince, fined and censured by the Commission at Lambeth, onely for doing justice according to his Oath, his duty, and the Law of the Land, in imprisoning a notorious drunker Clergy man, for his drunkennes, his missbehaviour, both in words and deeds to himselfe and the Constables (in affront of Iustice, and breaking of the peace,) and that but for one nights space, and the

relea-

relea

furth

Cler

jestie:

m47

Alas,

doing

20001 be ce

quitte

put d

and fi

Law

fined

meer

again

R 17

CH

and C are co

learne

Bahm

Willer

gainst

fter R

merel

omif

1.195

Sect , 2

Giles ;

Land

Dotter releasing him upon his submission, before beeneeded, without any further punishment? (And all for footh because hee was a Clergyman, whom our Prelates now Strife to exempt from his Maiffies Lawes and all temporall furifdiction, p for which they are PKeilmey in 4 Premunire.) And yet not censure , nor deprive the Clergy - fol. 181. man for his beaftly drunkennes and diforders, as hee deferved? 182. 183. Alas, what a ftrange age is this wherein weelive; that the very doing of justice, and the punishment of notorious malefactors, according to Law and Oath, must even by Prelates themselves be centured as a crime, and the malefactor justified and ac-qEfor.5. quitted? What is this, q but to call evill good, and good evill, to 20.23. put darknes for light , and light for darknes ; to put bitter for fweet, and sweet for bitter? to justifie the wicked for reward, and take may the righteousnes of the righteouse from him. ? By what Law of the Land have at least 20. Ministers beene questioned, fined, censured, imprisoned, and put by their livings of late, meerely for refuting to bow at the naming of fefus, or for preaching mainst it? The Booke of Common prayer, and OTHER RITES AND CEREMONIES OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND, (wherein all rites and Ceremonies inforce, or by Law established in our Church are comprized) doth not fo much as mention it; and many learned writers of our Church , as " Bishop Alley , S Bishop aport, a errificat

ore Min

ibution

Collection did they

dermen

a smal

orkman, e better

m tore-

ll godly

le Pre-

o injoy

them,

meanes

in their

ington

bou fand

rifoned

ugher

ufuall,

fe opi-

karely

dl and

H. 8.

blein

jor of iffion

duty,

unken

moras

, and

nd the relea

Babington, Doctor Whitaker, " Doctor Fulke, x Doctor , The poore-Willet, y Doctor Airay, and z others of late have written a mans librapainst it , as Superstitions and Pop h, if not Idolatrous, and a Ma-ry Tom. 2. for Richard Hooker , and b Archbishop Whitguist , confessed it fol. 43 . 44. merely arbitrary, or that no man ought to be urged to it; yet the bare | Exposition omission, or difallowing of this ceremony, is now a commoc Ar - of the Catholike faith,

1.191.196.197. t Answer to William Reynolds, p. 3 98.399. W Notes on Phi. 2. Sell. 2. x Synopsis papismi Cont. 2. Error. 91. y On Phi. 2. 9. 10. 11. Z See lame Giles , and another Discourse lately published against this Ceremony. a Ecclesiafiscall polity. 1 5 5.30. b Answer to Cartwright. c SeeBishop Mountagnes, Archbishop Landes, Bif bop Wrens, Bif hop Peerce and others Vifitation Articles.

X 3

Majesties

before the claration.

about the Di Tolucion of the Parliament,

ticle in our Prelates Vifitations Confiftories, and Commission Counts, though no Law of the Land require it, muchlelle prescribe and penalty to fuch as refuse to use or preach against it ? Law of the Land, have many Ministers and others beene profecuted, fentenced, imprisoned, suspended, and put from the livings, onely for preaching, writing in Defence of the Articles at Doctrine of the Church of England against Arminians and Papille and yet not fo much as one Minister or Writer questioned, co. fured, fined, or imprisoned by them for writing and preaching in defence of Popery and Arminianisme, against the Doctrine and Articles of the Church of England , as Bishop Mountagen, Bishop Wren, Mafter Cozens, Master Shelford, Chonney , Bisha White, Doctor Heylin , Doctor Pocklington , in their Bookes and Sermons, and many others in their Sermons, at Count Mountagues Pauls, in both Universities, and elsewhere have lately done late Sermon By what Law of the Land have many of the best and pamefulled in defence of the Altars, Con- Ministers, beene now of late suspended, filenced, excomme trary to bis nicated, and put from their livings onely, for refusing out of ca. Science to read the late Declaration for sports in their Churches ,a Declaration time of Divine Service as his Majesties, though it came not to 39 Articles, them under his Seale, though there be no Law, Canon, noram and his De- one fillable in the Declaration , prescribing it to be read in Churches, or that Ministers should read or publish it; years penalty threatned to any that refuse to read it, and no Authorty given to Bishops, or others to question or punish such who refuseto read it? And when as Dollor John White himselft, it his way to the true Church, 5. times printed by Authority, and p.20.21. justified , and defended by Doctor Francis White , now Bill * Sed. 38. of Ely, severely confures Papists for prophaning the Sabbah, Digreff. 46. Greenes , Ales , Dasmoing , and other heathenish customes ; branda n.I.p.TII. Sect. 43n.6 this Position of Cardinall Toler , justified by the Declaration; The P.165.166 it is lawfull on the Sabbath-day to follow funes, travell, hor DAUNCE, and fuch like; as a point of Popish Religion which directly tends to the maintenance of open finne and liberty life; that a Doetrine of the Papifts , which not onely infers , but exprefi

Latio

MAI

foal

tob

presi

peop

fofa

for n

toth

the v

then

they

TEVET

fone

thera

neithe

that p

of Ip

threa

Comz

they ft

Altar

in clos

ofthe

the pr

bup for

of the

washe

ofthe

tothe

82. al

Comm

placed

mely allowes most palpable wickednes, directly tending to the defor d Before the lain of publike government , and private honeft; which hath communion. made the Propiles the most notorious Sabbish breakers that live And e The latter to altogether unfit both in point of confeience, piety, and policy, end. to be published by any Protestant Minister in the Church and f The Reply presence of God himselfe, to damne both their owne and their to Harding. peoples soules; and much more unfit for any Bishops to urge Divis 26. fofarre as to filence, suspend, and excommunicate Ministers, p. 145.146 for not reading it out of conscience as many Bishops have done his answer to to their eternall infamy, and yet proceed to doe, as if they were Hardings the very Devils Bilhops, rather then Gods; and Atheifts rather preface: And then Christians, Papists rather then Protestants, as some feare Divis. 6. they are. By what Law of the Land was Mafter Chamfie, ap. 362. reverend learned Minister, very lately suspended, fined, impri- * So Master fored, untill hee should make his submission; onely for opposing Bucer would therailing in of the Communion Table at ware (for which there is placed in his neither Law nor Canon.) before any order under Seale given for Censure of the purpofe? By what Law of the Land werethe Churchwardens the Booke of of Inswitch and Beckington, newly excommunicated, and Common threatned the High-Commission , for refusing to remoove their Preyer in his Communion-Tables out of the body of the Church or Chancell, where glicana, Scripta Anthey flood ever fince the beginning of reformation, and to place them_ 9. 457. and Altar-wife at the East end of the Church, and there to rayle them. Dottor Wilnelose prisoners against the wall; contrary to the very & Rubricke let to, in bis of the Common Prayer booke, to Ducene Elizabeths Injunctions, Synopsu Pa-the practife of the Primitive, and all Protestam Charches, as f. Bif-9 generall bup fewell prooves at large out of Enfebius, Augustine, the Acts controversie, of the 5. Councell of Constantinople, Durandus, Gentiamus Zerver-qu.6. Error. tusthe moderne Greeke Church and others; and the constantulage SI and Dr. of the Church of England ever fince reformation; yea contrary hon Coference to the expresse words of the Bishops owne Canons 1603. Canon with Hare, 82. all which prescribe, that the Table at the Celebration of the c. 8 Divil 4 Communion (at least of not at other times) Shall stand or then be and Bis bop placed in the * body of the Church or Chancell, in so good sort as there Farrar. Fox Monuments , p. 1404.1406. and Dollor Bulke on Hebr. 13. Sed. 6.

Courts,

ribe any By wha

ne pro-

om their

ticles al

Papiful

ed, ces

reachine

Doctrine

unt agu,

Ba ha

okes and

Courte

ly done mefullel

comm.

et of con

rches , a

e not to nor any read in

yes M

Authori

elfe, in

rity, and

p. Bifla

bath, h

br andin

on;The

1; her

eligion,

liberty

but ex-

by

by the Minister may be more conveniently heard of the Communicants in his prayer and administration (which hee cannot be at the upper end of the Chancell, being most remote from the people, where the Masse priests used to confectate in a low dumbe voice) and the Communicants also more conveniently, and in mon number may communicate, with the said Minister, who is injoyed in stand at the North-sade (not end) of the Table, which must therefore stand Table not Altan-wise, as these our Popish Inpovator would place it; who teaching men g to bow to Communicants.

lect

rona

the

the E

furth

G

Po

Bu

He

On

hat th

mto th

nérui

hat it

ent,

Course

eligion s leco

Legun ab in n the n

Augu) Hain

ridft;

6.123 hm los 1.399

gGiles Wid- would place it; who teaching men g to bow to Communica. dowes Scif- Tables and Altars, because they are the place of Christs effecials maricall pumarican pu-Mr. Shel- now few fly Stile their h Sanctum Sanctorum, and make men holy then the other parts of their Church ,) should for thele ver ford in l.is. 1. reatife grounds and reasons place their Communion-Tables and Alam p.2. andEd-mundRerves (as they will have them called) in the midst, not at the East-end in his Expo- of their Quires, because Christ hath promised, i that were m fition of the or three are gathered together in his name, there hee will be, and is Catechifine the midft (not at the Eaft-end or one fide) of them , because Gal in the Com- is faid k to be in the midst of his people and holy Temple (not at the East-end, where no seats, no people must be suffered) for I fun booke. h Thus they of fitting above Christ , and taking the wall of God Almighty , fine called it in frierlike, ridiculous reasons, fitter for Schoole-boyes then Prethe High- lates, or grave Divines, and because the Quire or Sandhum. Commission Sanctorum (as m Isidor Hispalensis , Rabanus Mauru, in the case of with a others testifie, bath its very name from the scituation of the Chaunfie, & Altar, in the midft of it, and the Prests and people standing road Mafter

Ward. i Matth. 18.20. k Pfal. 46. 5. & 46.9. ler. 14 9. 1. Kings 3. & Hofea. 11.9. loel. 2.27. Zeph. 3. 5.15. 17. Rev 1.13. & 2.1. & 5.6. l A reasonoft used by the Bis bops in the High-Commission and elsewhere, and by Side ford, and Reeves in their late idle bookes. m Originum 1.6. c. 19.

. Servius in Virgili. 1, 6. c. 8, Calepine, Holioke and orbers, Tis, Chorus, about it: Chorus (fay they) est multitudo in facris Collectus, & dictus Chorus quod injicio in modum Coronæ CIRCA (not juxta) ARAS starent. therefore certainly they flood in the midft of the quire, not at the East-end against the Wall,) Et ita psallerent; which is further evident by thefe ancient verses of Virgill :

p Instauratg, CHOROS mistig, ALT ARIA CIRCVM, p Eneid.1.4 Cretefg, driopefg, fremunt, pictig, Agathirfi, g Eneid 1.8

g Tum Saly ad cautos, incenfa Altaria CIRCV M.

Populeis adfunt evineli temporaramis, be at the people, dumbe

d in more

wjoyed to

therefore

notaron

PHINIDA.

effecial

nich they

akemon

ele ver

nd Alem Eaft-end

vere im

andiin

sufe Gul otatthe

t fem

ty, fine en Pre-

metum.

LANTH,

on of the

g romi

ngs 3.8

by Shel-

Bic fuvenum Chorus, ille Semum, qui carmine laudes, Herculeas & facta ferunt, &c.

Omnibus in templis matrum Chorus omnibus A R E.

And r by Alexander ab Alexandro, who affures us, r Genialium hat those who sacrificed to the Gods, we are accustomed to sing praises dierum, 1.4. mothem, pedibusque circum Aras psallere ad mu-fol. 126. nerum, and to danneeround about their Altars singing; and hat it was observed , that the sacrificers Aras circum-curreent, would runne * round about the Altars, beginning their * See Athe-Course from the left hand to the right, which they esteemed more 1.13. c.1. eligious , and afterwards from the right handto the left : All which Plutarchi sleconded and confirmed by Strabo Geogr. L. 10. and by Plato, Lucruita Lyum Dialog. 7. Hence & Eusebins writes, that the Altar Inflituta, whin the ancient Temple of the fewes, and in his dayes, was placed and Xeno-nthe midft of the Quire; not at the East-end; and & Sam dam. Angustine after him, Christ freedeth is dayly, Menfa ipfius eft Respublica. llain medio constituta: This is his Table here fet in the Pfal. 26.6. nidf; and hence it is recorded in the I. Action of the 5. Councell Ezech. 6. 4.5. Levit, 1.14.15.

6.12. Chron. 5.12. accordingly. f Hifter. l. 10. c. 4. t De Verbis Dom Jecunum lown, Sermon. 42. See Chrys. Hom. 1, in Isay. 6. 1. and Nazianzen. Orat, 2 1. 1.399. accordingly.

of Constantinople, that when the Chapter was reading: curic omnes multitudo cum inagno filentio circum circa Altare & audiebant; all the people with great silence dren

w Answer to neare round about the Altar, and gave care. From which authorities and fundry others, as # Bishop fewell, & b. shop Bapreface , Re- bington , Dollor Farrar , Dollor Fulke , Dollor Raynoldes , with ply to Har- others, and our Z Common prayer Booke, a Canons and b Inding. Art. 3. junctions prescribe and conclude, that the Communion-Table ought 1.145.146 to stand in the midst of the Church or Quire; where our Novellon x Notes on must now place their Altars, or Lords Tables, else they will Exod, c.20. overthrow their Quires, and Santtum Santtorums, which they fo much contend, for which had their very names, Originals, and € 27· essence, even from the scituation of the Altar in the midft of them. P.279. 397. By what Law of the Land have Mafter John Cloberry, y Walafridus. Strabo, De Mafter Brooke , Mafter Stanely , and many others been rebut Eccle- imprisoned, if not fined by our Prelates, in matters of Allemon, fiastice, c.4. for refusing to humour and maintaine their disobedient undutiful 19.9.954 domineering, if not whorish wives, departing away from them, either Doctor Wil upon small occasions, or without any just cause at all, contrary to les Synopfis all Law? A greivance, against + Scripture, so by name complained of in Parliamnt, 7. facobi, and other Parliaments fixe, Papi mi, and for which Prohibitions have usually beene granted , till now Cent. 2. Er.35. of late. By what Law of the Land have many of late, for n. P. 496. Rubricke fuling to * kneele at the Sacrament; and others onely for atbefore the Communio. a Canon 82. b Q. Eliz Injunction neare the end.

Efther. 1. 12. to the end. Ephef. 5. 22. 23. 24.

imi

fin

C

any

070

ma)

ther

time

offen

ofin

of C

A

Con

inqu

furi

by at

and o

clesia

Ord

fame

and

ners

thou

how prifo

dayly

clude

yeard

both

^{*}Bp.Hooper in his 6. Sermon on Ionah preached before and dedicated to King Edward in 6. Thomas Becon in his Comparison betweene the Lords Supper and the Popes Masse, f. 102.103. vol. 3. and in his Catechisme, fol. 484. 485. dedicated to all the Bishup of England, and printed Cum privilegio, condemne this gesture of kneelings, accontant to Christs Institution, and tending to superstition and Idolatry, and wish his were taken away. The Dialogue betweene Custome and verity. Fox Asts and Monuments, p. 1264, and divers of our learned and authorized writers have beene of the same judgement when the not sssme of it, out of conscience, should be such a crime as now it is made, I sam verson.

ministring the Sacrament to fuch as kneele not, beene imprisoned, fined, suspended, and put from their livings, by the High-Commissioners, who have no conusans of these causes, nor of any offences against the Statute of s. Eliz. c. 2. which Statute being made the same Parliament, with that which erects the High-Commission, particularly, and precisely limiting, what penalty every transgressor of it, shall suffer, who is made a delinquent by it alone; and expresly defining, that the fustices of Oyer and Terminer, or of Affife, and the Majors and Baliefes of every cheife Towne, shall inquire, heare, and determine all and all maner of offences that shall be committed, contrary to any Article of that Act, with such temporall and corporall penalties onely as therein are prescribed; and that no person or persons shall at any time hereafter be impeached, or otherwise molested, of or for any the offences therein mentioned, unlesse bee or they so offending, be there of indicted at the next Generall Sessions , holden before the fustices of Over and Determiner of Affife; And then authorizing all Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, with their Channellors, Commissaries, Officials, and other Ordinaries, having peculiars to inquire in their Visitations, Synods, and elsewhere, within their furifdiction of all offences against that Act, and to punish the same by admonition, excommunication, Sequestration, Deprivation, and other Ecclefiasticall Censures, onely according to the Queenes Ecclesiasticall Lawes; and providing that hee who is punished by the Ordinary , by Ecclesiasticall Censures shall not be convicted for the same offence before the fustices, and punished with temporall penalties and for converso; And giving the Ecclefiafticall Commissioners no power at all to punish any offence against this A&, though it names them in the last proviso upon another occasion; how the High-Commissioners can lawfully question, fine, imprison, suspend, or punish any Ministers or Laymen (asthey dayly doe) for offences against this Law, of which they are excluded the Conusans, and that one, two, three, foure or 5. yeares after the offence committed : or how they can inflict both emporall and Ecclefiafticall Cenfures at once for the fame Y 2 offences,

Bifbops contrary ere taken p.1264 urrin

Circa

drew ch au-

p Ba-

- with

b In

e ought vellors

ey wil

ch they

als, and

them.

loberry,

s beene

lemony,

dutiful

a,either

rary to e com-

ts fince,

ill now

for refor at-ward the

Maffe,

ent:abj

nistring

172 offences, or impole greater or other fines, or penalties, on de linquents then this Statute limits , I cannot possibly discerne, neither could any man as yet informe me. True it is that . of. 4"But not fences against this Ad, are fit to be duly punished, yet onely in kneeling in the Act of fuch maner and forme, and by fuch Judges, fuch persons, asthe receiving, a Law it felfe prescribes. But that the High-Commissioner no offence in should punish them , and that in such maner, as themselves the people , thinke meet at what time foever they please, is neither reason. without oable nor agreeable to this Law of the Land. Moreover, when ther circumstances a-Law of the Land, authorizeth our Bishops and Ordinaries, in gainst any claufe of this their Visitations and Consistories, to excommunicate, orthe High-Commissions to punish and imprison his Majesties Sub. Act, and fo not punish- jects, who refort to divine Service, and Sermons, and arem heretickes nor Anabaptifts from, but conformable members of able by it , especially our Church, onely for repeating their Ministers Sermons with where it is their families, freinds, and neighbours, or for reading Chapters, done out of finging of Pfalmes, (and sometimes upon occasion for praying & keep. conscience, ing private Fasts together,) after they have been at Church on Lord. not out of contempt, or dayes, holy dayes, or Lecture-dayes, under pretence forfooth, that scisme. eMal.3.16. these their Christian meetings for these private commendable exercise Heb. 10.24 of Religion & (approoved and practifed by Christians in all agu) 25. Col.3. are unlawfull Conventicles, and these conformable persons, Conver 16. Eph. 5. ticlers ? which yet a none can be in Law or truth, but heretique, 19.20. or Anabaptists Severing themselves from our publike Congregations, Acts 2. 1. 44.46.47. and erecting a new forme of Discipline and Service of God in private 6.12.5.12. corners , different from that of our present Church. Certainly c. 20. 20. there is no Law of the Land, nay no Canon of the Church, by Matth. 13: which our Prelates or Commissioners can judge these private Deut. 6.6. Christian meetings and exercises, Conventicles, or punish the 7.8.9. Ter-conformable members of our Church, who out of Conscience tullian. Apologia advers. gentes. Chrysostome hom. 2.3.4.10.29 in Gen. hom. 5.78 in Matth. be.

2. in Iohan. Cesarius Arelatensis hom. 20. Bis bop lewell Defence of the Apologie, parts. c.3. Divi. 4. p. 449. d 35. Eliz.c. 1. Iustinian. Codicis, li. 1. De Episcopi & Clais, lex. 15. f. 13. & De Summa Trinitate. lex. 2. Canons. 1603. Can. 11.12. 73:

201

and p duce

Prefi

to be

their

quiri

Peer

partie

and s

* Car

Com

tors,

cafes.

the H

Subje

vings

what

make

offen

inqui

thera

Law

the ba

Came i

furif

grant.

Fathe

Churc

of 25.

mul eff

aleffe,i ta,Epij

proceed to Que en that

on de and piety use them, as Conventiclers, much leffe can they produce any Scripture, Divinity, religion, good reason, or ancient e Chap. 29 Prefidents for it. What Law of the Land authorizeth Bilhops SeeFex Ad to be bath informers, accufers, witne fes; and Indges, and that in and Monutheir owne cafes , contrary to the flatute of e Magna Charta, re-ments , quiring, that men shall be judged by the lawfull Judgement of their 1320. Peeres, that is, by lawfull and indifferent Judges, not fuch as are our 1769. parties, profecutors, or enemies, contrary to the f Common fy. H.6. 10 and a Statute Law, yea, b all common sence and reason, & the very 7.H. 6.13. *Canon Law? yet luch are they in their officio proceedings, and 8. Bro. Leet. Commissions for the most part, where they are both profecu- 13. Littlet. tors, accusers, witnesses and Judges, and that in their owne Sea. 212. cases. I might runne through infinite other particulars, for which Cookes inftithe High-Commissioners dayly fine and imprison his Majesties tutes, ibid. Subjects, and thrust many Godly Ministers both from their li- $18.E.3. rings, lectures and ministry; If I should demand of them, by Oath of the what Law of the Land they doe it ? or what Law or Canon Judges. makes those very things, for which they are censured, criminall b Littleton, offences? it would put them to Anon-plus, and upon diligent Sell. 212. inquiry made after such Lawes or Canons, they must returne, ei-a, 23. a. theran Iguoramus, or Non est inventus. For example, what 5.E. 3. 8. Law of the Land, what Canon or Article of our Church, makes 8. E.3.2, the bare affirmation? That Bishops and Ministers are one and the 22. E.3. Some in office and Authority Jure Divino, and that the difference in 95.30.E.3. farifdiction, power, and superiority, now betweene them is by the 13.4.38. mant and favour of Princes onely (the i professed Doctrine of the E.2.16. Fathers , of all forraigne Protestant Churches , writers of our owne 5. H.7.9 a. Church and Authors, and the expresse resolution of the Statutes * Nec ullus 625. H. 8. c. 19. 26. H. 8. c. 1. 37. H. 8. c. 17. 1. E. 6. c. 2. prefumat accufator fi-mileste, & Index vel testi, quoniam in omni judicio quatuor personas necesse est semper deffe,id eft, Indices Electos, & accusatores, ac defensores atque testes. Fabiani Papa Decre-14. Epift. 2. Surin Concil. Tom. 1. p. 214. which overthrowes all Ex officio Oathes and muedings, i See Gersonius Bucerus Dissertatio de Gubernatione Eccles. The Petition n Queene Elizabeth, Doctor Bastwicke , De Iure Episcopali and others , who have written.

m that subjet.

discerne,

lo sa

onely in s, asthe

iffiones

emfelva

reason.

er, what naries, in

orthe

es Sub-

d are no

nbersof

ons with

hapters,

J keep

nLords.

oth,that

exercife

ult agu)

Conver

etiques,

gations,

private ertainly rch, by private

In these cience.

th, bon,

part. s.

Cleria,

3:

174 kp.383. I. Eliz. c. I. and 8. Eliz. c. I.) either an error of an offence Against yet Doctor Bastwicke for this orthodoxe Doctrine (confessed to Carthw. 10fthe Prin-be an undoubted truth by & Archbifhop Whitguift 1 Bifhon ces Supre-Bridges , and all m other our Bishops in their writings against macy, p. 259 the Popes supremacy , and urged by them and all other Pra 926. testant writers what sever of that subject, as a principall unanswer. Anfelmus Cantuarien- able argument against the Popes pretended Soveraignty over all a Is in Tim. ther Bishops and Ministers by divine institution (thoughou 3. Tit. 1.5. Prelates, in the Controversies betweene them and the Puritans, & 7Phil.I.II they call them playing the turne coates, directly denie it, and brail Armachanus it as an Arian herefie , because it utterly overthrowes their Epilos pull Superintendency, and domineering Lordship over their film 1.11. De Quest. Arm. Ministers) brought in onely by way of Argument, in a Le C. I to 7. tine Booke, printed beyond the Seas, in defence of the King m Bp. lewell Prerogative Royall, and other Ministers and Bishops liberio Defence of the Apolog. against the Popes and Italian Prelates usurpations, without are part. 2.c.3, the least relation to our Bishops, who are not so much as name nor intimated therein, must be excommunicated, imprisoned Divif. 5. P.99. fined no leffe then one thousand (and by the now Archbishop of P. 102. Bp. Canterbury two thousand pounds) to his Majesty, and debarred 100. Sc. Hooper on his practife of Philicke. (So dangerous an offence is it now for the 8. Com- any man to fhew himselfe a true loyall Subject to his Majesty, it mandement, defending his Crowne and dignity, against the Popes & Prelate Bif hop La-incroachments, according to their Oath of Supremacy and alle Sermon of giance prescribed by the selfe same statute, which ereds the the Plough, High-Commission) and the Bishops themselves, contrary to Bif hop Alley Law and justice, even in this case which immediately concerned ba poorethemselves alone, must be both his accusers and ludges, and pa mans Libra- this doome upon him though his professed enemies, what Law, f 95.96. all the Bps. and Clearpy of England in their institution of a Christian man , dedicated to King Hen of Dormam. f. 45.46.

and Ger Artic, the 8. An. 1537.c. of Orders. Wicklif. Dialog 1.4.c.15.16,26. Mr. Nowels Reprof $c.14. 232 and much. 15.R.

or C

May

day)

or pl goe ba

that I

electes

unden

it conn

to avo

peithe

Ward

have b

thefe o

Wor

Comr

Lano

bands.

the Con

for any

Ecclefi

punisha

2.

or Canon is there that makes preaching against n Maygames, May-poles mixt and lafeivious danneing (effectally on the Lords-n See Maday) cringing too Altars, turning Communion-Tables into Altars, his anatomy a placing and rayling them in Altarwise at the East-End of the of abuses and Church, or preaching that the Sacraments and preaching ought to his alarum in band in hand, the one being in manner dumbe without the other; to England. that Bishops and Ministers in the primitive Church were usually Master John Northbrooke elected by the whole Cleargy and people o (a truth most cleare and in his Treaundeniable,) that a wounded conscience is such a tender thing, that tise against a connot beare the waight of 3. Steeples on it; that Christians ought playes and n avoyd ill Company as dangerous, fince Peter being in the company enterludes, of the High-Preists Servants denied his Master, and the like, and other wither crimes nor errors? yet Mafter Workman , Mafter vaine and Ward, Mafter Wilfon, Mafter Broder, and other Ministers idle have beene lately fined, censured, deprived, or suspended for Passimes, thele capitall, exorbitant offences, and put by their Ministry : In and Humaword, there is scarce one fine, or sentence given in the High-phry Roberts Commission ; but is directly contrary to Magna Charta, the plaint for Law of the Land, and all the forecited statutes. reformation,

To make this undeniable, it is and must be confessed on all of divers abuses and

bands.

ffence; effed to

Bifbon

against r Pra

Lanfmer.

er all a

ughou

ans, & nd brand

r Epifa

ir fille

ina L

e Kings

libenia

out any

s named

risoned,

bishop of

now for jefty, i

and alle

rects the

ary toa

ncemed

ind pafe

nat Law

ng Hen

1. First, P That no Ecclefiasticall Judge, or person could by prophanathe Common Law of the Realme, either fine , or imprison any man Sabbathfor any Ecclesiasticall offence or breach of any Canons, which being day. Ecclesiastical , can prescribe no temporall , but onely Ecclesiastical oSeeCatalog teftienn punishments and censures? veritatn, 1562. Secondly, That no 9 man can be fined, or imprisoned in Appendix, 2.33. 10 56 and Gersonius Bucerus De Gubernat. Eccles. and Fex Acts and Monuments, p. 1109. Artic, Cler.c. 1.2.3.4.5.5 R.2.c.5.2.H.4.c.15.2.H.5.c.7.23.H.8. c.9. 25.H. 6.14.31.H.8.c.14.34.H.8.c.1.1.H.7.c.4. Linder ood lib.3. De penis fol. 231. 232 and the writs, De excommunicato capiendo, and Apostata capiendo, resolve as 15.R.2,c. 5. 2, H. 4.c. 15.2, H. 5.c. 7. 1, H. 7.c.4.

any cafe what sever of Ecclesiastical Conusans, by any Ecclesiastical fudge, unlesse some Att of Parliament, give that Indge particular power to sine and imprison in those particular cases.

3. Thirdly, That the power of fining and imprisonment, given Plowden, to Ecclesiasticall Judges, in one particular case or two onely, cannot be f. 17.86. extended by equity to any other r all penall Statutes, being ever to be 124. 19. taken strictly for the Subjects liberty and ease.

H. 6. 47.

Brooke Treason, 8. 12. 21.

H. 7. 21.

4. Fourthly, That the Statute of I. Elizabeth c.I. by restoring and uniting the ancient Ecclesiassicall surisdiction to the Growne, and giving the King power to aclegate it over by his Letters Patenting Commissioners to execute it, did neither after nor intent to alter either the nature or punishment, of Ecclesiassical offences, so as to make them temporall and punishable by fine and imprisonment. (Which are truly and meerely temporall and not Ecclesiastical Censures)

* That she but left them Ecclesiasticall to be proceeded against, by Ecclesia Statute of sticall process and conserves onely, as before the making of that All, 1. Eliz. c. 1. not by fine and imprisonment, which I shall make cleare by these over the consumer resting.

gives the confung reasons. High-Commiflioners no 1. First, Because the Statute + unites to the Crowne onely, power to fine or imprism, Such Jurisdictions , Priviledges , Superiorities , and Preheminences $ 26. H. S. Spirituall and Ecclesiasticall, as by any Spirituall and Ecclesiastical power or authority had heretofore beene, or might lawfully be exer-I. Eliz. c. I. cifed, or used for the Visitation of the Ecclesiasticall State, and person, .8. Eliz. c.1. and for the reformation, Order, and correction of the same, &c. So that nothing but bare Ecclefiafticall power in cales meerely Ecclefiafticall, and fuch as had beene before that time lawfully exercifed, and used by Ecclefiafficall power and persons, isunited to the Crowne in fuch maner and forme onely as Eccle-This meere Ecclesiasticall power thus fiaftical personsuled it. united the Statute, authorizeth the Queene and her Successors to delegate by Letters Patents to fuch natural borne Subjects, who shall exercise, use and execute under them all maner of furisdictions, PriviPrin

Saftic

cotto

fiastic may b

Pater

mane

and E

ters P

precin

offend

the Le

Lawa

the pr

lent at impril

power

ebeir

for the

meere

by any

houle

atheil

loted ,

hould

which

imprife

Mattat

of the

dareaf

cerpin

touchi

Priviledgel or Probeminences taughing or concerning any Ecolehaftical. Sellical (nontemporals) farifaction, and final voit, reforme, rticular correct, coch all fuch Errors fo as by any maner spirituall or Eccle fasticall power, (not temporall) authority or furifdiction can or may believe fully reformed, Gr. And that after the faid Letters Patents to them made and delivered. Then they shall have full ower & o. to exerciso, use and execute all the premises, (that is, all maner of jurisdictions, priviledges, and preheminences, spirituall and Eccleliasticall) according to the tenor and effect of the faid Leeurs Patents, that is, for fuch and folong time, for fuch and fuch precinets, at fuch convenient feafons and places, and for fuch offences, Errors and mildemeanours, as shall be conteined in he Letters Patents; And that according to the Ecclefiafficall Lawand maner of proceedings and Censures, (as is cleare by meprecedent words) not in fuch an arbitrary course of violent and unjust proceedings by Pursevants, attachments, fines, imprisonments, and the like , as the Prelates by their policy, power and flattery, shall at any time procure to be inferted into deir Commission, as they now most absurdly interprete it; for that we are not to delegate or exercise an Ecclesiasticall, but a meere temporall Jurisdiction, never lawfully exercised before by any Ecclefiafticall power or authority. And if the King should infert into his Patents, that the Commissioners might affeir discretions censure mento be banished, whipped, pilloted, branded, difmembered, burned, executed, ort' at they should forfeit their lands or goods for Ecclefiasticall offences, which hee may as lawfully doe, as that they shall be fined, or imprisoned,) these proceedings should be thought lawfull, and warranted by this laft clause: (According to the tener and effect of the faid Letters Patents ,) which no man in his right fences dare affirme.

tt, given

annot be er to be estoring

ne, and

at ents to r either

o make

ichare

fures

cclefia

AB, by these

onely,

nences

fical

exer-

r fons,

. So

erely vfully

15 U-

ccle-

rthus

ors to

Ball

tions, rivi-

Secondly, There is not one fillable in all this claufe, conterning the Delegation of the Kings Ecclefiafticall power, touching, fining, imprilozing, or inflicting any other temporall

108: rall punishments upon the Subjects for Ecclesiasticall offence Fort they should be punished in this maner; who would have a new clared as much in expresse words, at least, had they intended a Pope fuch proceedings, neither shall the liberty of the Subjects, par wice fons, or goods, against imprisonment and illegall fines, retife both by Magna Charta, and the fore-named Statutes, in expuse less termes be taken away by this Statute, onely by strained into both rences and intendements, without any expresse words at all

3. Thirdly, Thisvery A& before this clause, repealed bloody Law of 2. H. 4. c. 15. revived by Queene Mary; and rizing ordinaries and others to imprison, fine, and proceed again men Ex officio, by selfe accusing, Oathes and captions enfuara Articles and interrogatories to entrap them. (So the Statuted 25. H. 8.c. 14. brands them.,) of that, which they called a deemed herefie, and falle Doctrine, as an unjust, bloody and ramucall Law, (to Mafter it Fox, oftentimes files it,) upo Monuments which all the Martyrs in martyrs dayes were butchered by the p.481.482 Prelates: Therefore certainly it would never revive the fam 539. 997. 956. 957. proceedings, oathes and censures by implication onely, which expresly repealed in the former branch.

> 4. Fourthly, It cannot possibly be intended, that this Pa liament in the first yeare of Queene Elizabeth, so sooneans the Marian perfecution, should in the very first Act they made increase the penalties of Ecclesiastical offences, and make the more penall to the Subjects then for mercy they were, i Queene Maries dayes, by making them liable to Ecclefiaftic and temporall Censures, both at once, when as beforeally them, (except what they made and interpreted to be here and scisme,) were onely punished with Ecclesiastical Censura and to give the Prelates and every Ecclesiafticall Commissions more power over the Subjects then ever the Pope; (whole a therity they abolished by this AET) did formerly exercise and injor woul ber (King The (

byth

fine a butn poral the fa call (Subje inpr then as to fome jects!

been wife canne fayou dictio from ! dent .

Derco

ds at all.

d again en narm Statuted called and dy and y ir,) upor d by th the fan , which this Pu oneafie ey made akethe vere , efiaffici orealla

e herefit enfura niffione bole as d injoy offenon Forthis had beene nothing elfe, but to shake of a lighter yoke kers, the of bondage from the subjects necks, to put on an heavier, to creek have to new Starchamber for Ecclesiasticall offences; to set up mapy ended as popes whilest they banished one, and to punish one offence in the same Court, ropes whitet they bear the felfe time in the fame Court, wice, by inflicting at one and the felfe time in the fame Court, both temporall and spirituall Censures. Therefore questionin expeditional less these Ecclesiasticall errors and offences, were not intended time by them to be punished by fine or imprisonment.

Fiftly, It cannot be imagined, that the Parliament Bertrandus, repealed would give such unlimited power to the Queene and every of Educalis Ey; and her Commissioners and Prelates, as the greatest Courts of the origine & Kingdome never before injoyed, no not the Parliament it felfe: ufn Iurif-The Queenes highest temporall Courts of Inflice, could but dictionum, fine and imprison men for those offences which are not capitall, and Henry but not excommunicate , degrade or punish them with tem-ford of the porall and Ecclefiafticall Cenfures both at once, for one and true diffethe same temporall, or any Ecclesiasticall crime: ber Ecclesiasti-rence becall Courts, could onely inflict Ecclefiafticall centures on her tweene regall Subjects before this Act, for spiritual offences, but not fine and and Eccleinprison them to. And would the Parliament (thinke you) power, King then give fo much power to every Commissioner by this Act, Edgers Orat. asto imprison, fine, excommunicate, deprive, degrade, and in Fox Alls & lome cases also to adjudge to death, or exile, any ofher Sub-Monuments jeds for Ecclefiafticall mildemeanors onely ? This verily bad ?-153. Selbeene a strange overlight, rathnes, and such a valalage, as no merum, wifemen whatfoever would pull upon their heads: therefore it Note 26. cannot be prefumed of here, what ever our Prelates and their H. 8. c. 1. Cooke 5. fayourers pretend. Report.

Cawdries 6. Sixtbly, This very At diffinguished Ecclesinstical furis-case Sixtoin duction, Indges, causes, offences, proceedings and punishments Davis ba from temporall, and temporall from Ecclefiasticall, both in the prece- Irish Redont and subsequent clauses, as things alwayes distinct x and fe-ports the case pered, in respect of their matter, maner, forme, execution, and nire.

x See Petrus never confounded together: It cannot therefore be conjectured that it would unite and confound them both together, in our Prelates and Ecclefiafticall Commissioners in correcting Ecclefiafticall offences by temporall and Ecclefiafticall processe, and proceedings both at once?

the br

Com

prifo

PETU

fuffic

them

9.

other

ed, fil

chat it

there

can fi

Cere

liame

powe

fillab

any I

fine (

wiref

fo far

Mag

7 4

14.6

Faite

and 8

The

pora

any :

miffi

man

er ot

7: Seaventhly, This Statistic gives the Disease and her Sw. ceffors the fellesime furification, power and authority, at the Sw. tute of 26, H. 8. c. 1. did to King Henry the 8. and his Commissioners; But King Henry and his Visitators, his Commissioners proceeded onely by Ecclesiastical Censures against delinquents, not by temporall, as is cleare by the very words of 37. H. 8. c. 17. Therefore the Queenes and her Successors by vertue of this Statute ought to doe so now.

Eghtly, The Statutes of 13. Eliz. c. 12. & 3. facobi, c. 4. 5. expresty rancke the Commissioners in causes Ecclesiastical in equipage with Archbishops, Bishops, and other Etclesiastical Indges , providing , that they may inflict Ecclefiasticall Censure, according to the Ecclefiafticall Law upon Ministers , who offend against the 39. Articles and recustomes to, notwithstanding temporall Censures and penalties to be inflicted on them by temporal Judges and Justices; putting the Ecclesiasticall Commissioners in opposition to temporall fudges, and confining them expresty to Ecchfiasticall Censures; not one Statute so much as intimating that they can fine, imprison, or inflict any other temporall Censures; not These Acts therefore, comgiving them power to to doe. pared with the severall Statutes of 37. H. 8. c. 17. 1. Ed. 6. c.1. 2. 6 3. Edw. 6. c. 1. 13. 19. 23. 3. 6 4. Edw. 6. c. 10. 11. 5. 6 6. E. 6. c. 1. 2. 3. 4. 1. M. Seff. 2. c. 2. 3. 1. 6 2. P. 0 M. c. 6. 8. 1. Eliz. c. 2. 5. Eliz. c. 1.23. 8. Eliz.c. 1.13 Eliz. c. 8. 18. Eliz. c. 10. 23. Eliz. c. I. 31. Eliz. c. 6. 4. fr cobi. c. 5. 1. Car . c. 1. 3. Car. c. 1. which expresty distinguish betweene temporall and Ecclesiasticall Censures and Iurisdictions; appropriating the first, onely to temporall Judges and Magistratu, the ther to Etelefiafficall, are a direct resolution, that the High-Combailfioners and forticoall Indoes I can be then fine, more interpolation his Majesties Subjects for Ecclesiasticall offences, by retue of the Statute of 1. Flowers, but onely proceed by Ecclesiasticalt Processe and Censures of the Church; and that this Act leaves all Ecclesiasticall offences and proceedings, as it found them without any alteration.

9. Ninthly, The Statute of Magna Charta c. 20. and others forecited, exprelly relolve, that we man shall be imprisoned, fined, outlawed, destroyed, or outed of his freehold, goods, and chaties , but by the Law of the Land. The . Law of the Land * See Martherefore being that Ecclefiafticall Judges and Commissioners filius Patacan fine or imprison, no free man for Ecclesiastical offences, vinis, Decontempts, or breach of Ecclefiasticall Constitutions, Canons, pars 2.c.15 Ceremonies, Orders, Injunctions, unlesse some Act of Par- 16.17. 8c. liament in expresse termes prescribes, and gives them such that Bif hops power. This Sature of 1. Elizacat. which speakes not one bave no coerfilable, that Ecclefiafticall Commissioners shall fine, or imprison fine, or imany man for Ecclesiasticall misdemeanors, not punishable by prison, exfine or imprisonment before this Act, shall not by a meere cellently wrested inferrence and implication, be interpreted or strained prooved, and fo farre, as to give them fuch a power, in opposition to Wicklif. Magna Charta, and all the former positive Lawes; The rather, Dialog.1.4. † 42. Aff. 12. 5. 38. Aff. 32. Imprisonment Br. 100. 8. E. 4. 16. Sc. 14.6. E. 4.9. 39. E. 3.7. 1. H. 7. 4. Fit 7. Monftrance De that they Faites 1 32. 2. H. 5.5. 6. Dier. 475. Cook. 7. Report. fol. 20, ought not to and 8 f. 117-to 121. and C. 111 f. 52. and Tr. 3. Caroli. B. Rex. have perfons The cafe of the Towne of Boston are expresty resolved, that no Cor- any man, & peration or company can prescribe or make By-Lawes, to imprison Fox,p. 499. any man, because it is contrargeto Magna Chartan and that Com- $ Brooke missions, to arrest or imprison men, are voyd in Law, because no Commissions man ought to be arrested, but upon Inditement, , suite of the party, 3.15.16. wother due processe of Lama non the months that are Stetute I tw visitory a, or 10.

Z 3

the Stabis Composition of delin-

s of 27.

fors by yectured

r, in our

de, con

Facobi, fiastical fiastical ensure, so offend ing tem-mporal sin op-Ecckat they nor com-

6.c.2. o. 11, . P. & 1.13,

4. far nguish Etions; trates

the

10. Tenthly, All Ecclefiafticall proceedings and Cenfure whatfoever in criminal causes are onely, pro Salute anima & reformatione morum, asis reloked, C. S.C. Report, f. 6. a. Camdries cafe, which is effected by excommunications and penance, which punish the Soules, not by fine and imprisonment which punish onely the purses and Bodies of delinquents. This Statute therefore being principally made for the reformation of mens Soules and maners by Ecclefiafticall Cenfures, ain resolved in Camdries case, shall not be extended to fines and in. prisonments, which are but corporal Centures.

II. Finally, The lower bowfe of Parliament, in 3 and 7. Incobi, and in many Parliaments fince, bave refolved, that the High-Commissioners fining, and imprisonment for Ecclesiastical offences, (which are not ordered to be fo punished by expresse Statutes, yet in force, by spritual ludges and ordinaries) is an intellerable greivance, oppression, and vexation, not warrand by the Statute of I. Eliz. a. I. which gives them no fuch power , but to proceed onely by Ecclefinsticall process and Considers; Sir Edward Cooke, and the rest of the Indges in their Conference with the Prelates before King Iames , and in their Declaration of the true grounds of their prohibitions to the High-Commissioners, composed, and committed to writing by his Majesties Fathers command, about the winth years of his Raigne, delivered their ludgements and refolutions , accordingly in direct termes , that the High-Commissioners could fine in no case, and imprison onely in case of herese, and incontinency of Ministers, and that by way of Censure afterconviction, not of proces before it, as the discourse it selfe (whichis common) witnesferh at large.

These particulars being thus premised and prooved, it's * See An. apparant * that the High-Commissioners cannot legally by the Law of the Land, impose any fine at all on any delinquents for Melvini Cetfe Cumany Ecclefiafticall offence whatfoevery because peither the Ca miffions f Anon, nor any Statute Law whatfoever, now, or then in nathomia. force, ford

OF a imp

ofh

to i

14.

cale Adu

Inco

com

tion, they

of E

Eliz

fore

but

the 1

and

cula

ret. 1

which

the (

the F

Oath

wher

Colset

lent

and a

nece

pare power

Maj

19. 1

miffie

him

183

force, gives them, or any Ecclefiafficall Judge, power to fine, gramerce any man for any fuch offence. And that they can imprison in no cases, but onely of incontinency of Ministers, and ofherelie, in which two cales Ecclefiafficall Judges have power to imprifor, by the Statutes of T. H. 7. c. 8. and 25. H. 8. c. 14.) but in no other , that I can finde in any Statutes , no not in wies of fighting and quarrelling in Churches, or Churchyardes, Adultery , incest , Simony, Bialphemy, Drunckennelle, Vfury, Inconformity, and the like; which they may punish with Excommunications, or other Ecclesiasticall Consures, and by deprivation, perchance in Ministers , but not by fine or imprisonment , (as they now dayly doe) which is cleare by the Statutes of 5. and 6. of E. 6. c. 4. 37. H. 8. c. 17. T. Bliz. c. 2. 13. Eliz. c. 8. 12. 31. Eli7. c. 6. 23. Eli7. c. 1. 3. Iacobi c. 4. 5. 4. Iac. c. 5 and other forecited Acts, and that this is no private opinion of my owne, but a generally receaved truth, I shall befides the resolution of the Parliament 7. Iacobi, and of many Parliaments both before and fince, and of the Judges forementioned, cite some particular Iudgements in point, Mich. 9. and 10. Eliz. in the C. B. ret. 1556. (which in 10. yeares after the Statutes first made, which erects the High Commission,) one Leigh an atturney of the Common Pleas, was committed by the High-Commissioners to the Fleet, because hee was present at a Masse, and refused to take an Out to answer to Articles , which they would administer to him; whereupon hee brings a Habeas Corpus in the C. B. and by the resolution and advise of all the Judges (some of which were prefent in Parliament, when this Act was made,) bee was bayled and discharged of his imprisonment; not onely, because hee was a necessary member of the Court, and so his attendance could not be pared, but principally, because the High-Commissioners had no power by vertue of this Act, to imprison any man, either for bearing;

nfores

ima

aport.

ms and

ment,

This

nation

as is nd im.

and7.

bat the

iastical

xpreffe

15 ALL

rranted

er, but

Edward

the Pre-

the true

mapoled,

d, about

and re-

b-Com

herefu,

fer con-

whichis

d, itis

bythe

ents fu

he Ca

then in

force,

Masse or refusing an Oath to accuse himselfe. * So Mich. 18. and *Dier. 179.

19. Eliz. One Hinde was committed prisoner, by the High-Com- B. In the missioners, for refusing to sweare, to answer Articles, exhibited against first ecision. him for usury; whereupon hee brought an Habeas Corpus in the

Com-

Common Pleas, and was discharged by the Judges; because the High-Commissioners have no power gives them by the Statute to imprison any man, either for refusing to take an Oath. (which the Statute gives them no anthoray to administer,) nor yet for usery it fall both which cales are reported by the Lord Dyer, then cheife Justice of that Court, and printed in the first edition of his reports, though, (I know not by whole procurement,) omitted in the last editions of them. Anno 42. Eliz in Simplens cafe fore. cited, it was refolved upon mature deliberation by all the Indees of England, that the High-Commissioners bad no power at all by the Statute of I. Eli7. c. I. to arrest any man by Pursevant, or war. rant, og to attach his bodies appeare and bring it before them .c. ther by the Sheriffe, Constable or a mellenger, nor to imprison any ac for adultery , but that they ought to proceed onely by Ecclefiastical processe and Censures: notwithstanding their Commission to arest and imprison men; which being not warranted by the Statute is von as to this particular. And hereupon Simplon indicted of while murther, for pistoling Johnson, who came in and of the Constalk of Aldrington to arrest Simpson, by a warrant from the High-Con, missioners, for commuting adultery with Fusts wife, was acquited and found not guilty by Indges speciall direction to the Inry. Anno 3. Iacobi , one Berry was committed by the High-Commissioners, for irreverend speeches and sawcy carriage to Doctor Newman, whereupon hee brought an Habeas Corpus in the Kings Bouch at Westminster, and was discharged by the Court, both for the generality of the returne, and because the Commissioners have no power by the Statute, to commit any man for irreverend speeches or carriage to his Minister, though it be a missdemeanor : And the Court in this case resolved further, that whereas the Commissioners usually tooke bond of those who were cited to appeare before them to answer to such interrogatories, which shall be administred to them, before they have Seene their Articles, that all such obligations are voyd in Law : (and all Oathes Ex officio too by the felfe same reason) neither have they power to require or take such bonds (much lesse then such Dathes) of why by this Statute. Anno It. Iacobi , one Brooke as Heranla joyn Kin mil) not l

He

Purition.
Rex could

tery.
12. that the cases of

Ham

fevant hee show Norfo Custod men, the priso

Huntly missione words to fing to proved Ca

Herauld at Armes, was committed to the Fleet by the High Commissioners for refusing to pay such Alemoni to his wife, as they injoyned him. : whereupon hee brought an Habeas Corpus in the Kings bench, and was discharged by the Court, because the Commissioners have no power by the Statute of 1. Eliz. c. 1. to grant Alemony to discontended wives , and if they had , yet they could not by Law imprison any man, that refused to pay it. An. 6. facobi B. Rex, it was resolved in one Master Withers case, that the High-Commissioners could not arrest, or attach men by their Pursevants, but ought to proceed by Citation and Excommunication, onely as other Ecclesiasticall Courts doe. Tr. 7. facobi B. Rex, in Warringtons case, it was resolved, that the Commissioners could not imprison any man for refusing to take an Oath to answer to Articles, or for hearing of Masse; and the party so committed, was thereupon bayled. 7. Jacobi. C. B. it was adjudged in one Hawes case, that the High-Commissioners could not imprison a man, for refusing to obey the sentence of his ordinary in case of adul-Pasche 8. facobi B. Rex. Achons case, and 12. Jacobi B. Rex. Bradstones case, it was resolved. that the Commissioners could not commit men, for refusing to mower Articles, or to give bond to pay expences, or obey orders in cases of Alemony, betweene man and wife, Hill. 3. Caroli. B. Regis. One Lucas was detained close prisoner, in the howse of a Purfevant, belonging to the High-Commissioners by their order, untill hee should pay 3. p. 13. S. 4. d. for the Pursevants journey into Norfolke, and 6.f. 8. d. every day, that hee had beene in his Custody, (the usuall fees , they now demaund and take of all men,) whereupon a Habeas Corpus was prayed and granted to the prisoner discharged voluntarily by the Pursevant, and the fees ruled to be excessive , Hill. 3. Caroli B. Rex , Muster George Huntly , a Kentish Minister, was committed by the High-Commissioners, and fined by sentence of the Court, for giving contemptuous words to the Archdeacon, charging him with injustice, and refuing to preach a Visitation Sermon upon his commaund, to whom hee wed Canonicall obedience, and other contempts to the Archbishop felt.

Q LITTE

Sia

s re-

ted in

fore-

lges of

by the

W47-

L,6-

ny me

arreit

is word

p.lifill

or stalle

-Con,-

muited

Anno

lioners,

wman,

uch ac

enera-

wer by arriage

in thu

y tocke

to fuch

ey have

: (and

r have en fuch ooke as

Icrania

of Canterbury himselfe . as was pretended, whereupon hee brought his Habeas Corpus; the Judges upon the Archbishops Solicitation. would not then bayle him, (though bound by Law and fustice to doe it) unlesse bee would promise to submit to the High-Commission. ners, which hee refused standing upon the innocency of his cause to do. After this Hil. A. Caroli. hee brings there another Habeas Corpus, Serieant Hetley and Master Caltbrop his Councell, prayed that he might be bayled. 1. Because his resultill to preach a Visitation Sermon upon the Archdeacons command, was no breach of Canonical obedience, no Law or Canon requiring it. 2. Because the offence presended, are not within the statute of I. Eliz. c. I. and if the were, yet the statite gives them no power at all to fine or imprison, but onely to proceed by Ecclesiasticall Censures; whereupon bee was bayled at the Court. But loe the intollerable infolency of the Prelates, and their most contemptuous execrable affronting of Justice: (the like whereof was never offered to the King and his Iudges in any age, deferving at the least a Premunire,) no · fooner was this poore oppressed Minister bayled & released by the Court, but the Purlevants by a new warrant fro the Commitfioners, as he wasgoing fro the Barre, within the vew of the Coun, apprehended him a fresh, & carried him over to Lambeth; where the Commissioners sitting the same afternoone, deprived bin of his living degraded him from his Ministry, imposed a great fix upon him, and committed him to a loath some prison, onely because hee loughe to free himselfe from their former oppressions, by an Habes Corpus; a legall course of Instice for all oppressed Subjects. And presently after, one Master Austen, the Archbishops Chaplaine, was presented by him to his living. This poore diffressed oppressed, Minister hereupon indeavours to right himselfe by a course of Law; for which purpose hee brings an Ejectione Fame against Mafter Austen in the Kings bench, to recover his benefice; and an Action of falfeimprisonment against the High-Commissioners and their officers (who deserved a more severer proceeding of another nature, or affronting the King and his Judges in their execution of luftice, and releife of an over injured Subject.) In which actions the Prelates and Commissioners by ih

bir

jou

cor

pre

affi

any

We

just

that Sub

that othe

doe

ther

flavi

God

that reald

agai for l

fulir

to p

All

gon

perf

their mighty power have the'e 5. or 6. yeares together delayed bim. And I know not upon what quirks and underhand doing got them discontinued by reason of the infinite delayes and adjournments, and some negligence in the Clerks, in entering the continuances. Since which hee bath brought new actions againe. wherein they tire him out with new delayes; and have so farre prevayled by their power with the Judges, that they will neither affigne him Councell to argue his cause, neither appoint him any fet day for the argument of his action of falle imprisonment, (which they now pretend is discontinued;) Thisting him of with u Chap. 29. delayes, contrary to the expresse letter of u Magna Charta, Wee Shall fell to no man , wee Shall denic or deferre to no man , either justice or right, and to the Judges x owne Oathes , yee shall sweare x 18. E. 3. that ye shall doe even Law and execution of right to all the Kings stat. 5. Subjects, rich and poore without having regard to any person, and that yee deny to no man common right, by the Kings Letters, nor none other mans, nor for none other cause, and in case any Letters come to you contrary to the Law, (as to many Letters and mellages now doe,) that yee doe nothing by such Letters , but certifie the King thereof, and goe forth to doe the Law, notwir standing the same Letters; which now few Judges doe, or dare to doe; out of a fordid flavish feare of I know not whom or what; I am sure not of God, who requires ludges, # to be men of comage fearing him., #Exod. 18. that fothey may not feare the threats or frownes of men. And by 19. 15. reason the swaying Prelates, and Judges are so farre engarged Deur. I. against this distressed creature, as to brow-beat all his Councell 16. 17. for his fake, hee is now to destitute of all Councell, the Judges re- c. 16. 18. fuling to affigne him any, that he can procure no man cordially 19.20. to plead his cause, (a great shame to the honourable profession of the Law) but is inforced to moove the Court him felfe, and to intreate them that he may have liberty to argue his owne cause. All which extreamity this poore afflicted Minister hath undergone for almost 9. yeares space together, without any respiration , to the utter ruine of his estate , the enfeebling of his person, through penury and long imprisonment, onely for re-La 2 fuling ought his

Citation

ustice te

mmiffig.

fe to doe.

Corpus,

that he

tion Ser-

anonical

offences

nd if the

prijon,

bee was

y of the

nting of

ing and re,) no

ealed by

ommif-

eCourt,

;where

ved bim

reat fine

because

Habea

s. And

plaine,

ed op-

e by a

Fame

s bene-

·Com-

T pro-

injured

their

deaconi.

fusing to preach a visitation Sermon upon the Archdeacons com-Constit. I. I. maund, (who by y the Canons and Custome of the Church is Tit. De of- bound to preach himselfe,) because of a present sicknes, then upon ficio Arch- him. , and the shortnes of the warning , in regard of both , which bee defired to be excused, Irol ors to the Archdeacon, to procure an other, to supply his place, who would not accept of his money, or just excuses, but injoyned him to preach in person; which bee not doing for the forementioned reasons, was convented before the High-Commissioners, and for this cause alone, and no other thus handled as I have truly and impartially related. And are these proceedings censures thinke you (which every just and upright man must needs tremble and stand amazed at, and I trust his Majesty out of his most gracious Royall Iustice will now lay to han) agreeable to the forecited flatutes, the Law of the Land, or tollerable among Christians? God forbid, that any Christian or morall heathen man should deeme them so. To conclude this point: The Iudges of the C. B. 4 Caroli, in case of a Baliefi prosecuted in the High-Commission, for disturbing and arcesting of a Minister in the Church, in the time of Divine Service, com trary to the statutes , of 5. 6 6. Ed. 6. c. 4. resolved , Una voce, that the High-Commissioners could neither fine, nor imprison the party, for this misdemeanour, but onely excommunicate and injoyne him Ecclesiasticall Penance. And Judge Hutton and Telverton at that time, in my owne hearing, gave order to the parties Councell to insert this clause into his probibition to the Commissioners, that they should not proceed to fine or imprison him; and if they did, the whole Court protested it was against she Law; and that upon a motion of his Councell, they would free him. By all which Res. fons, Statutes, Refolutions, and Authorities, both of the Commons-Howle of Parliament, the Judges of the Kings Bench, and Common-pleas, in Queene Elizabeths, King lames, and King Charles severall raignes, (till the domineering humour of our present great swaying Prelates , I know not by what Law, or Iuflice, stopped the currant both of Prohibitions , and Hateas Corpus, to releife the Subjects, against their unjust vexations fines, fibes .

miffi

and fo

oppri

there

prison

rutes,

Prem

Eccle

ough

29110

BO 0

bold

to the

fault

tentm

their

fined

ment

Mag

fine,

mile

releif

that

fequ

tainc

to fu

men

with mair

Prel

dera

pitty

publ

own

fines, imprisonments,) it is apparent, that the High-Commissioners can fine in no case, and imprison onely in two cases, and so all their fines, most of their imprisonments, are meere oppressions of the Subjects, encroachments on their Liberties, therefore voyd in Law : In fo much, that an Altion of false imprisonment, and of the Case too, grounded upon the former flatites, will lye against them for it, at the Common Law, if not a But admit, they had power to impole fines, for Ecclesiastical offences, which I absolutely deny : yet then they ought to fine men , not + tenthousands , thousands or hundreds, + Somuch as now they doe, for meere toyes and triffles, yea for small or Allington no offences, to the utter ruine of their effates, loffe of their free-fined. holds, and ruine of themselves, and their families; but according to the quantity onely of their offences, if they be small, and for a great fault, after the maner thereof; faving fill to the parties, their contentment, or freehold, to villanies their waynage, and to Marchants their Marchandise; neither ought any man of the Church to be fined, after the rate of his spirituall benefice, but after his lay tenement, and the quantity of his trespasse, by the expresse statutes of Magna Charta C. 14. and 3. Edw. I. c. 6. And if they excessively a Fitz. Nat. fine, or amerce any, contrary to those Lawes , & awrit of moderata Bre. fol. 75. milericordia, or Action of the Cafe upon those statutes, lies for their 76.10.E.2 releife; the Law having this just and favourable respect to all men, Action sur that in all offences, not capitall, for which the life and by con- E.2. Proceff. fequence the eftate to support it, are both forefaited on the at- 6 204. tainder; (the delinquents in fuch cases , needing no livelyhood, 10.E.3. to fultaine them, their lives being presently to be lost in Judge- 14. H. 4. ment of Law, it ever allowes men, both the use of their callings, Ammoury with a furthcient flocke to follow them, both for their prefent 60. 155. maintenance, prefervation, and the publike good; which our Prelates difrespecting, fine men beyond all bounds and moderation in all Courts of Iustice where they come, without any pitty, mercy or respect to mens necessities, freeholds, and the publike good; poutting many men, (especially Ministers, of their owne coate who are most conscionable and paineful,) both from A 2 3 s com-

erch is

H PORL

ich bee

ere an

or just bee not

High.

malled,

oceeman

ajefty

han)

i, or iftian

clude

Baliefe

esting

con-

voce,

on the

njoyne

at at cell to they

, the

mo-

Reaom-,and

ling

our

, or teas .

ions

nes,

190 from their callings, meanes, freeholds, to their deftruction, which legall, I am certaine by Law they cannot doe?

An answer to the Bos & High-Commoffioners obje-Elions in defen e of their fining, imprisoning, and Ex ofdings.

All that our Prelates can now alleadge for excuse of their Priest, their illegall exorbitant proceedings, not sufferable amore Christians, is but this;

I. First, That they have a commission from his Majelt. authorizing these their proceedings and censures. "

- Secondly, That their Predecessors usually proceeded, ficio procee- fined, impritoned thus before themselves, and they doe bu tread in their footsteps.
 - 3. Thirdly, That the Starchamber examines men in criminall causes upon oath, and fines, and imprisons men to; Ergo they may doe it.
 - Answ t. To the first of these , I answer ; First , that their Commission it selfe warrants not fundry of their extravagent arbitrary censures and proceedings, though it be very large.
 - Secondly, That the largenes of their Commission, is not by any direction from his Majesty, or his Councell, but by their owne folicitation, fraud and procurement, many passages and clayles being inferred into the two last Commissions, which were not in the former; and some of them so unlimited and illegall, that Mafter Noy, the late Kings Atturbey, made a quet in the margent of his Doclet, for the last Commission, whether some of them were not to large and unfit to paffe the Seale.
 - Thirdly, This Commission thus procured either fravdently, or with ftrange hande by themselves, is directly against the Lawes and flatutes of the Realme, not warranted by 1. &-.li7. c. I. therefore voyd in law, and thele their proceedings; illegall laughter mascres, שממוסקון ד High-C see rea

Commi Scation Comm

or defe The lev and by t their ex ofathr meth m pathere medibe c The bada (vet this their in cedonin to war thodox butcher Comm a Hen juftify of the 42.A ifthe 1 other n ame p ioners

on, which legall, unjust, oppressive, notwithstanding the Commission; Alle 9.1. secread of Saul, & that hee breatheing out threatenings, and unchter against the Disciples of the Lord, went to the Highof the Priest , and defired of him Letters , (or a Commission ,) to Daamore majous, that if bee found any of this way, whether they were men women, bee might bring them bound into Hierusalem; (as out High Commission Pursevants serve Gods people now 1) which Committion hee obtained. But yet this was no + excuse or fusting 13.15 Gal. fication of his persecution of Gods Saints; No more are your 1.13. Acts. Commiffions fued for by your felves, any plea to extenuate 22,4.c. q. or defend your perfecutions, oppressions, and exorbitances. 4.5. Phil. 3. The lewes cryed out against our Saviour, a that they had a Law, 6. ad by that Law hee ought to dye; was Pilates condemnation, and alohn. 19.7 heir execution of him therefore lawfull ? b David informes us bPf. 64.20. of athrone of iniquity, that bath no fellowship with God, which frameth mischeife by a Law or Commission. By vertue of which they nathered themselves together against the righteonse, and condemy medibe innocent blond. But will this Commission justify their sinne? The Elders of the Citty, who most unjustly condemned Naboth, c 1. Kings. had a Commission under Ahabs great Seale for their warrant, but 21.8.9 10 yethis was no extenuation, but a more greivous aggravation of their injustice and murther. d George the Arrian Bishop, and Ma- 4 See Socrat. udonins his confederate, had a Commission and the Emperors Edict Scholaft. to warrant their barbarous tyranny and proceedings, against the or, Eccles. Hist. todox Biftops and Christians , whom they imprifoned , fined, and 1.2. c. 27. butchered, yet this would not exsufe their perfecutions. e The like 28.29. 30 Commissions had Boner, and other our owine persecuting Prelates, Mon.passimi. a Henry the 8. and Queene Maries dayes ; yet this would neither See 25. H. juftify nor extenuate, but aggravate their finfulnes, and illegality, 8.0. 14. of their bloody proceedings: But to come nearer home, 24. E. 3. 42. Aff. 5. & 12. Brooke Commissions, 3.15, 16.st is resolved, that if the King grant a Commission to any mante imprison, or feife anuber mans person, or goods, before or without indictement, suite of fime party, or other due processe of Law, and thereuponthe Commiffacers accordingly arrest him or seife his goods; that this Commillion

; Ergo

it their ragent

ge.

is not

ut, by

Tages

vhich

d il-

75.27

forme

rau-

init

. 8-

ngs, gall

mission being word, and against the Law, can no wayes justifie, w excuse the Commissioners ; in the I. and 2 yeare of our present &. veraigne King Charles , there were divers Commillions grand out for the executing of Martiall Law, upon billited Souldiers and Marriners , in times of peace , whiles the Kings Courts of juffice were open ; and likewife to convent men , concerning the Loans, at to administer an Outh , to such as refused to lend money ; together with a Commission , for an excise upon divers Commodities ; yerd the Commissions by the Position of Right, and the whole Parliamen 3. Caroli, were adjudged to be against the Law of the Land, at Liberties of the Subjects, and fo unsufficient to justifie the trous. dings , oathes , imprisonments , executions, grounded on them, or is

are c

in no

the fa

in hee

with/

cufek

the fa

impr

Com

vant

excon

at th

in Ba

Law

collet

have

privi

they juftif

coule

Iudg

Law

and i

Lates

into

byth

2. C.

· Li

fined

Geve

doe

A

fHalls Chro. An 1.2. Q. Speeds Hift 1.9. c. 21. P.999.

excuse the parties, that executed them. I Empson and Dudy hid H. 8.f. 1. to a Commission from King Henry the seaventh, for what they did , 18 they were attainfled in Parliament, and executed as Traitersh King Henry the eight , norwithstanding their Commission ; how many Monopolitts, (as Sir Giles Momper fons and others,) have beene severely punished in Parliaments, notwithstanding their Patents and Commissions ? why then our High-Commission ners may not be lawfully, and justly fined, imprisoned, suspended in the Kings Bench, or Starchamber, for fining, impriloring , oppreffing his Majesties Subjects , against all Law and Justice, notwithstanding their Commission, which will neither excuse, nor patronize their proceedings, either before God, or men, I cannot yet conjecture; and why an Action of the case, of false imprisonment, and a Premunire too, should not lye against them for the present , by the parties greived , I see little case to *Cookes Re question ? Weeknow that many Patents and Commissions, ports. 1. 8. under the great Scale for * monopolyes, are and have beene cor 130 1,10. demned , and adjudged , voyd , and suppressed , as great greivance f. 113. LII and oppressions to the Subject , and contrary to the Lawes of the

f. 125. to f. 53.84. to Realme, yea the Statute of 21. facobic. 3. against Monogolis, 89.

declares , that all Commissions, Grants, Licenses, Charters , Letter Patents; Proclamations, Inhibitions, Restraints, Warrants of afistance, erecting, or tending toward the erection of any monopolici, me contrary to Law, and shall be utterly voyd, and of no effect, and in no wife to be put in ure or execution; and if any prefume to execute the same, that an Action upon the statute shall be against him, where in hee shall render treble Dammages to the parties greived, notwithstanding his Letters Patents, or Commission, which will not excuse his fault: Therefore our High-Commissioners, may by the same reason be questioned and punished for their illegall imprisonments, fines and proceedings, notwithstanding their Commission.

lifie , w

lint Sa

grand

iers and of justice

ane, at

together

hamen,

e proces.

DL, 07 18

redly hid

did , ja

aitersh

bow

rs,) have

ng their

fulpen-

prilos.

aw and neither

God, or

case, of

against e cafe to

niffions,

ene con

eivance

pes of the

novolies,

Lenen

no polici,

Finally, It is a rule in Law, & that no man shall take ad- & Littleton vantage of his owne colusion, fraud, hurt, or wronge; b If a Bishop Cookes inexcommunicate another man , who brings an Action against him stitutes, ibid. at the Common Law, the Bishop cannot plead his excommunication & Sett. 200 in Barre of his Action, because pronounced by himselfe : The same 410. Law holds in cafe of i remitters , discents, disfeisins, and the like by b 5. E.3.8. collation or wrong, beethat is party or confenting to them., Shall 18.E.3.70. have no advantage by them. Our Prelates are all parties and 9.H. 7.21. privies in procuring this torcious illegall Commission, therefore Fuz. Exthey shall take no advantage by it, from it, to extenuate or com 5.9. justifie their illegall proceedings, censures, oppressions, by size 201. couler of them; the rather , because , both the Parliament and i Littleton ludges have oft adjudged these their Commissions voyd in Sect. 678. Law, and their proceedings on them, great greivances, preffures, 679. 688. and injustice, the statute of 2. H. 4. C. 15. k (made by the Pre- 689. 69c. lates themselves, without the Commons assent, which they foisted 410.203. into it,) resolves, that ordinaries and Ecclesiasticall Indges, cannot and Cooke by their furifdiction, firitual imprison, which the statutes of & R. Ibid. 2.c. s. 2. H. s. c. 7. & I. H. 7. C. 4. further manifest ; yea kFox Atts & Lindewood himselft determines , that a Layman cannot be impri- Mon. p. 539 fined by an Ecclefic ficall Indge, for any Ecclefiasticall crime what - $49.481. Therefore no Commission can authorize them to * SeeLindedoe it. grood 1.5.De Answer, 2. To the coord excuse, I answer, that by the like f. 232.4.

B b pretext

prerext, the Prelates may excuse allmost any fin. Their Predecessors have I oft times beene Traytors , Rebells , Oppressors, 1 Tyndals Murtherers, Persecutors, ambitious, coverous, proud, merciles dayly practise of luxurious, lecherous, idle, Simmonaicall, Wolves, False-teachers, Popis hPre- Non-residents, Pluralists, malicious, envious, revengfull, na lates, Henry Pilates, Imposters, Devils incarnate, as m Sant Bernhard, and hu exborta- others file them. Ergo, they may now be fuch by authoring tory Epiftle, without offence ; because they walke in their Predecesson Fox Alis & steps, as to many of them truly doe. If this be no good confe. Monuments quent, then not the other.

P.168.160

174. 175. Secondly, I answer, That these proceedings, and centure, 10250.303 320. 321. of their Predecessors, have beene condemned, declaimed 4. 350. 409. gainft as Antichriftian, tyrannicall, illegall, barbarous, and in-410. 368. humane by our Parliaments, our ludges, our " writers , yeaby to 125.421 Fathers, and others witnes, Origen in Epist. ad Romanos. 1.9. 451 to474 C. 13. tom. 3. fol. 212. who from these words, wilt thou not be 495. 10546 afraid of the power, &c. makes this inference, From hence it ap-581.10788 peares; that the secular Indges of the world, doe fulfill the greatest and elfepart of the Law of God; For all crimes which God will have tobe m AdPasto- avenged, hee will have to be avenged, NON PER restadcle ANTISTITES ET ECCLESIARUM rumSermo. PRINCIPES, not by Bishops, and Governours of n Fox Tyn- Churches, but by secular Judges. And Paul knowing this, dall, Rhodo- doth rightly name him the Minister of God. Sant Hilary, we ricke, Mors, the second Psalme p. 199. ... demandes this question, What, had bridge, the Paul any Civill power or magistracy, that hee should threatens petitioner to rod to the Corinthians , and that hee would come to the Churchof Queene E- Christ with the office of a Serieant, or Pursevant? Verily, wee are haz and fin- not thus to imagine, yet our Lordly Prelates must have their Purforequoted, sevants and gailers attending them and their o prisons to. Dr. Rames hus Supplie to King Henry the 8.25.H.S.c. 14. o Lindewood 1.5. De Panis f. 2324

Th

Ha

with

mitt

prife

Bif

SI

PR

Celve

or an

ever

the go

in fo

poyle

rilins

Gdue

whic

ceedin

matt

2.8.1

butth

rifter

of Ba

ever s ne e

Pilate

medd

mentes

Cante

Mini Bishop

of finis man his A

195

The same Father in his Epiftle to Auxentius proceeds thus : Have the Apostles assumed to themselves any dignity, or civill sower from the Princes pallace? yet now the Church affrights men with banishments and imprisonments , and compels men to be committed to herselfe, who was formerly committed to ban shments and Socrates Scholasticus, observes, that Cyrillus Bishop of Alexandria, and Boniface Bishop of Rome, PAS + Eccl. Hist. SING THE EOUNDS OF THEIR 13. PREISTLY ORDER, presumed to challenge themselves secular power and authority, which none of their Predecessors, or any other Bishops did before them; taking upon them besides the werfight and furifdiction of the Clergy and Ecclefiasticall matters, the government also of temporall affaires, and secular Jurisdiction: in so much , that they shut up the Churches of the Novatians, hoyled them of their goods, and committed them to wars; yea Cyrilins executed some of the fewes in Alexandria, and banished the residue of them for a murther, committed upon the Christians. All which this Hiftorian taxeth in them, as a meere presumption, exceeding the bounds of their preistly function, and a thing not formerly mattifed by any orthodox Bishops. Rupertus the Abbot, on Matth. 1.8. faith thus : The Rod of the Disciples of Christ is a rod of love: but the rod of domination or temporall rule, is not granted to the Mi- * De Inftit. wifters of the Gofpell of peace. Petrus Blesensis, Archdeacon Episc. Tract. of Bath , writes thus to John B. Shop of Worcester : Thou art fet wer mens soules, not their bodies : Nihil Prelato commune est cum Pilato : A Prelate bath nothing common with Pilate: and thence hee inferres, that they ought not to intermeddle with any temporal affaires, or causes of blood, imprisonments, demembrations, and the tike. Anselme, Archbifbop of Canterbury , determines thus: * As that , which belongs to the * In Mateb. Ministerial function , appertaines not to Kings : So neither ought a 26. Bishop to exercise those things, which belong to the Kings, as the power offining and imprisonment doth. Our famous great Schoole-DePotefia.

man * William Occam resolves thus : Christ hath merdicted Pont qu. 1.

Bb. 2

1324 eir Pre-

preffors,

merciles

eeachers,

e full, yea

rd, and

uthority

ecellon

confe-

enfores,

imed a-

and in-

yea by

os. L. g.

on not be e it ap-

reatest

ve tobe

PER

WA

ours of

ng this,

ry, on

at, had eaten a urchof

ee are

r Pur-

IS 100.

The

Potentates of the world. And theferwa distinct powers, temporal and Ecclesiasticall, which God would have to belong to different, persons, ought not to fall together unto one person : Whence hee refolves , that neither the Pope , nor any other Prelate , ought to exer. Pacn, pars 2 cife any temporall furifdiction over the bodies of men. # Mar. filius Patavinus, prooves at large, that neither the Pope himfelf. c. 15. 16. nor any Bishop or Clergyman, bath, nor ough to have any coercine 17.5c. power at all over mens bodies, to fine or imprison them sit being di. rectly prohibited by the Scripture in fundry places, and in Matth. * See Fox 20. 25.26. Our famous English Apostle * John Wickliffe, Acts and Dialogorum, 1. 4. c. 15. 16. 17. 18. 26. 27. maintaines the Mon.p.399 selfelame Position, and prooves at large, that Bishops ought m 413. to have any prisons, or to imprison any man, for any cause, nor ye Thomas Walingham to exercise any temporall power or furifdiction; and that it is mortall sinne for them, to use any civill dominion, or for Princes, p.205 302 to give them such authority, contrary to our Saviours expresse in * Pradife of b.bition. Our famous Martyr + Waster William Tyndal Popifb Pre- writes thus : That fince Christs Kingdome is not of this world, w lates, p. 3 42 any of his Disciples may be other wise then bee was, therefore Christs Vicars, which minister his Kingdome here in his bodily absence, 343. and have the overfight of his flocke, may be no Emperors, King, Dukes, Lords, Knights, temporall Judges, or any temporall Office, or under false names have any such dominion, or minister any such office as requiresh violence. The Officers in Christs Kingdom may have no temporall Dominion or furifaction, nor execute an temporall authority or Law of violence, nor may have any live maner among them : Christs Kingdome is altogether spiritualland * And by the the bearing of rule in it, is cleane contrary to the bearing of rule tem-

Same reason, prally. And therefire the * Popes Kingdome is of the world our Prelates be derived For there every man raigneth over another with might, @ have every from it , and ruler his prifon, his jaylor , his chaines, his torments , even fo much tending to as the Friers observants observe that rule, and compell every man, other with violence about the cruelnes of the heathen tyrants. Ou Support it. famous Martyr John Fruth, in his answer to the Bishop of Rochelin p. 57. concludes thus : To fay that Christ would have bu Dif-

cipla

ciple (per

men

st me

mout

shem

them

noth

to be

Dol

mfed.

men

thony

when

to fif

as th

OF

HO

An

large

yet a

COM

often

Bifh

N

being

fine

ciples to compell men with imprisonment, with fitters, scourging, foord and fire (the learned Prelates best and canonists arguments to convince men, is VERT FALSE, and furre from the mildnes of a Christian spirit, although my Lord approove it never fo much. For Christ did forbid his Disciples such Tyranur, yea and rebuked them, because they would have desired, that fire should descend from heaven, to consume the Samaritanes, which would not receive Christ, Lu. 9. But hee commanded them, that if men would not receive their Doctrine, they foould depart from. thence, and frinkle off the dust of their feete, to be a testimony against the unfaithfull, that they had beene there, and preached unto them the word of life. But with violence will God have no men copelled unto his Law. Finally, what doth they compulsion & violence, verily nothing, but make a starke Hypocrite, for no man can compell the heart to believe a thing, except it see evidence and sufficient proofe. So Doctor Andrew Willet in his Synopsis Papismi, the 7. generall Controversie, Quest. 2. Sect. 3. p. 399. condemnes the Violence nsed by the popish Prelates, in imprisoning, torturing, and racking men to accuse themselves , or others , or confesse the truth : Which though in some dangerous cases, as of High-Treason and such like, where there is great perill of concealing the truth, and no other way to lift it out, it may be admitted; Tet to use it in an ordinary cause as the Papists did, and in causes of Religion, it is to shamefull, and OF ALL CHRISTIANS TO BE AB-HORRED. Mafter Andrew Melvin, in his excellent Anatomie of the High-Commission , printed 1620. prooves at large: That Bishops and Clergymen, neither as they are such, nor yet as High-Commissioners, or temporall Officers, can or ought to commit or imprison any man , because these being branches , onely of temporall Magistrates furification, are expresty probibited all Bishops and Ministers by our Saviours, Vosautem non lic: Matth. 20. 25. 26. both directly and indirectly, the inhibition being a univerfall negative, reaching to the perfons as well as to the functions of Ministers and Prelates , whom Christ would not have B 6 3

mporal

bee re-

o extr-

Mar.

im felfi,

oercine

eing di-

Catth.

ick liffe,

nes the ght me

nor ye

Princes,

effe in-

Tyndali

rld, a

Christs

ubsence,

Kings,

Officer,

erry Juch

ngdome

nte an

my like

iall, and

le tem-

world;

e every

2 PRINCE

man,

. Our

ochefin

is Dif-

cipla

to intermedalle with any temporall office, or furifdiction, belonging to the temporall Magistrate, no more then hee would have ton porall Magistrates to administer the Apostles, or Winisters office. And it will be a poore plea for Bishops, and other Clergymen at last, when Christ shall arraigne them, for breach of this oft reiterated commaund, to reply; that they imprisoned, fined, and pursevanted his servants, and their fellow. Ministers, as they were High-Commissioners, Lords of the Councell, or luftices of peace, (neither of which Christerer made or allowed them to be,) not as they were Bishops, or Ministers : and if Christ condemne them for it , as such ; Ian afraid, they will hardly be faved, as they are Bishops or Mi. Since therefore all these Fathers and writers, with infinite others, condemne your fining, and imprisoning of men, as directly contrary to Gods word, and Christs owne inhibition: pPf.68.21. your walking in your Predecessors unlawfull ever condemned footsteps, is but a p going on still in wickednes, oppression, in.

justice, with an high hand against the Lawes of God, and the Realme; therefore an aggravation, not an extenuation of your offence, your sinne and desperate wickednes.

138. AJT.32 42. All. 5. 3. Thirdly, Your Ancestors fining, imprisonment, admi-12.Cooke 5. Report f. 84 niftering Oathes before fight of Articles , for men to accuse and 7. Re- themselves, , arresting men , breaking up their howses by Pitport f. 20 fevants, &c. being against Magna Charta and the preceden fa-1. H. 7. 4 times, can make no good prescription; fince no person 4 m 8.E.4. 14. Corporation can prescribe to imprison, or make by-lawes to imprison 39.E.3. 7. others, (no not the City of London it felfe,) because it is contrary Regist. 273 to Magna Charta , as was adjudged in the case of Boston , upon a Monftrans quo warranto, Tr. 3. Caroli. B. Rex and oft times refolved before De Faits 182 Brooke that cafe, in printed Law bookes. The Law therefore not allow-Imprisonn. ing you doe any of these, you cannot plead prescription in them 100.and as a good title or Iuftification; the rather, because the Eccle-Commissions stafficall Commission it selfe was erected " within time of Me-3 15.16.
71 Eli.c. 1. mory, and the present commission is yet scarse 4. yeares old

and t

ever

med

their

grow

there

their

crable

fite to and g erron lution

3.

A

Non

fiaftic

kept o

Alt

no rea

chaml

minall and V

And t

chaml

endth

conspir ake: '

fure ,

of TE

judge

upon Ergo :

and the High-Commissioners fining and imprisoning, hath yet ever fince it hath beene used with one consent, beene declaimed against as illegall, and so oft adjudged.

elonging

ve tem

Cinifters

d other

m, for

hey im.

fellow.

of the

rift ever

ops, or

; Iam

or Mi.

rith inof men,

bition:

emned

n', innd the

of your

admi-

accuse

y Pir-

ent fu-

9 9

aprifia

ntran

MPOR 4

before

allow-

them

Eccle-

Me-

es old,

and

Finally, The Commissioners and Prelates now exceed their Predecessors in all the forementioned extravagancies, growing every day more violent, exorbitant, and oppreffive; therefore this fond excuse, will no wayes palliate or extenuate their illegall Actions, Cenfures, proceedings, which are execrable, abominable, both to God or man, diametrally oppofite to all these wholesome statutes, intollerable oppressions, and greivances to his Majesties loyall Subjects, and so meerely erronious and voyd in Law, by these forecited statutes reloucion?

To the Third, That the Starchamber examines men upon Oath against themselves, and fines, and imprisons men: Ergo, the High-Commissioners may doe it.

Anfw. t. I answer, First, That the Argument is a meere Non fequitur : the one Court being Civill, the other Ecclefafticall, both in respect of causes and proceedings, the one kept onely by an arbitrary Commission; the other absolute by All * of Parliament. And if this be a good argument, 1 know *3. H.7.c. t no reason, but every Bishop may inferre as well : The Star-See Crompchamber can fine, imprison, examine men upon Oath, in cri- of Courts, minall causes: Therefore wee may doe it in our Consistories f 29.0042. and Visitations, which Conclusion is both false and absurd. And the High-Commissioners may as well argue, that the Starchamber adjudgeth mento * the Pillary , to loofe their eares, ton Ibidem. oud the like; and may pun shall forjuries, perjuries, routs, riots, conspiracies, trespasses in parkes, subornation of perjury, and the ike: Therefore the High-Commissioners may doe it. fure, they dare not argue thus; The Kings Bench can hold plea of Trespasse, Debt, Felonies, Murthers, Treasons, and adjudgemen to death for the fame; Ergo, the Ecclefiafticall Commillioners missioners may doe it? This were but a frenticke consequent? Why not then the other? Shall the Lords of the Starchamber argue thus? The High-Commissioners may hold plea of a Ecclesiasticall offences, and punish men by excommunication, degradation, sequestration, and other Ecclesiasticall Censures, Ergo, we may much more doe it? If the Prelates will not grant this consequence, as I presume they dare not: I must by the same, or farre better reason deny to grant the other.

info

upo Wa

Civi

goo

they

to ex

gain

and t

put t

temp

Chau

onely

no ot

ly.ufe

Com

doth

2.

leaftw

the fla

Seale,

may be practil

the Jul fome l

author

minall

the Con

But to give a more punctuall answer. The statutes of 37. E. 3. c. 18. 38. E. 3. c. 9. 16. R. 2. c. 2.3. H. 7. c. 1. 5. Eliz. c. 9. 14. if not the Common Law it felfe authorize the Statchamber to sine, imprison, and instict other corporall punishment, in such cases, as are expressed in these Acts; as Master Crompton in his sursidiction of Courts, Tit. Court De Starchamber, f. 29. to 42. at large demonstrates. But no statute, much lesse the Common Law, gives the High-Commissioners any

2. Secondly, The Starchamber being a temporall Count fuch power.

for the punishment of the highest temporall offences, which are not capitall, may inflict temporall censures and punishments, i.Elize. I (as fines and imprisonment) on delinquents, yet they cannot 8.Elize. I (as fines and imprisonment) on delinquents, yet they cannot 8.Elize. I (as fines and imprisonment) on delinquents, yet they cannot 13.Elize. I (as fines and imprisonment) and Ecclesiasticall Censures onely.) cannot inflict temporall punishments, as fines and imprisonment, H.8.c. 17. no more then the Starchamber can Ecclesiasticall Censures, for and other temporall offences; much less then, both temporall and Ecclesiasticall fia-fiasticall punishment for one and the selfe same offence, which the difference of the selfe same offence, which the difference of the selfe same o betweene the 3. Thirdly, It is true, that the Starchamber useth to en-Starchamber mine men in criminall causes upon Oath, and men are thete and High-bound, to put in their answers upon Oath, to the informations, Com. oathers and bills, exhibited against them; but then wee must consider, proceedings.

1. First, That no other Court of Iustice else can or doth use it, but the Starchamber onely; The Kings bench cannot eramine felons, traytors, trespassers, or any persons indited, or informed against before them, nor yet compell them to answer upon Oath. The Chauncery, Exchequer-Chamber, Court of Wards, and Court of requests, though they injoine men in Civill causes onely, concerning the rights and properties of goods, and fuch like, to answer to English Bills upon Oath; yet they cannot doe it against; as bath I beene adjudged : and though ID, er, 288. they use sometimes in cases of Contempts, and of them alone, mexamine men upon Oath to Articles criminally objected against them, yet this is extrajudiciall, not warranted by Law. and the parties examined may lawfully refuse such Oath, and put the Court or party, whom it concernes, to proove the con-If then neither, the Kings bench, tempt by witnesfes. Chauncery, or any other Court of Justice, but the Starchamber onely, can examine men criminally upon Oath; I may better conclude, that the High-Commissioners cannot doe it, because no other Courts elfe, but the Starchamber can or doe ordinaribuse it; Then our Prelates inferre, that they in the High-Commission may doe it, because the Starchamber ordinarily dothit, but no Courts besides.

went:

amber

of all

cation.

nfures;

t grant

by the

of 37.

5. Eliz.

e Star-

hments,

Cromp-

amber,

, much

ers any

Court,

which

ments,

† onely

e by m y,) can-

nment,

res, fer

d Eccle

which

to em-

re there

nations,

onfider,

I.First,

2. Secondly, The Starchamber Iudges have authority (at leastwife some good couler of authority, thus to proceed, by the statutes of 3. H. 7. c. 1. and 21. H. 8. c. 20. which give them expresse power, to call delinquents before them by wrw, or privy. Seale, and them and other by their discretion, by whom the truth may be knowne; to examine, (to wit, upon Oath, as common practise hath interpreted it, though it be not expressed) where the sudges in their discretions shall thinke meet: notwith standing some learned Iudicious men have conceaved, that this clause suthorizeth not the Starchamber to examine delinquents criminally upon Oath, to accuse themselves, it being contrary to the Common statute, Canon Law, Scripture, and the proceedings, both both of the Jewes and Romans, as the Premiles evidence, but onely without Oath, and none but witnesses, onely upon Oath.

2 Matthew Butlet this be interpreted as it may be, yet the Statute of the Park Hist. Eliz.c. 1. gives the High-Commissioners no power at all, to Major.

2 administer any Oath, no not of Supremacy prescribed by it, much p. 693:694 lesses to examine any man at their discretions upon Oath, for any 705. Regist. Ecclesiastical offence, there being no such clause, as this in b. 43. a. 50. that Act; And by the Common and statute Law the Ecclesiastical a. 95 b. 99. Judges can administer an Oath to none in any criminall, or civil a. Rastall matters, but onely in cases of Matrimony and Testament. There-Prohibition fore the High-Commissioners have no Law, not couler of Law Brev 41. A to administer Oathes to men, to answer criminal Articles to ac. 2. H. 5 c. 3. cuse themselves, though the Starchamber hath.

2. E. 6.c. 12

whi

refu wha

ber

Mill

exor

rea

and

ther

cept

miff

con

Ifin

min

crue

Col

cipl

hov

ciou

cla

mit

que

lari

plu

riti

die

dic

80

nor

mu

nan

Fullers At. 3. Thirdly, In the Starchamber, no man is forced to take gument. The an Oath, as soone as hee appeares to answer to the Bill, or In-Petition to

Queen Eliza formation exhibited against him, or to Articles framed on them, Queen Eliza before hee feeth the Bill, or the charges therein comprized;

Master , before hee feeth the Bill, or the charges therein comprized;

per phis to frame his and the comprised of them. Marrice bit ther is hee denied a Coppy of them, by which to frame his an-Treatife of fwer, nor proceeded against, without any Profecutor affigued u Fox Altr Monum. how hee likes or diffikes things in his ludgement; or to " 4 P.539.750 tell and accuse others, (as all, or many are in the High-Commission) 751. 753. But upon his apparance, hee hath liberty to take out a Coppy 754 10764 of the bill and complaints against him, to carry, tohis Counsell, to 951. 956. demurre in Law thereto without Oath, if there be cause; or 957.960. otherwise to plead a generall not-guilty, and so put the profect-1224. tors to their proofes by witnesses, without any selfe exami-12250 ..

tors to their proofes by witnesses, without any selfe examination upon Articles; or else to put in such a particular answer as his Counsell shall advise and direct; upon the putting in where of, hee onely takes an Oath, that it is a true answer; and to give a true answer to such Articles as hee shall be examined upon concerning the charge in the Bill, (being alwayes matters of sact, not thoughts) which hee knowes and adviseth upon before hand, with his counsell. Which Articles, comprising nothing, but what what is contained in the Bill, (* else the party may demurre and x See the results on what hee hath given before to the Bill by advise.

See the star-

e, box

n Oath.

te of I

all, to

, much

for any

s this in fiaftical

There-

of Law

es to ac-

to take

, or In-

zed;nei-

e his an-

figued;

eives,or

mission;

Coppy

nfell,to

ife; or rolecu-

exami-

answer

where.

to give

CONCEY-

hand,

g, but

what

The Oathes and proceedings therefore of the Starcham-chamber, & ber, being so farre different from those of the High-Com-ordinay millioners, and farre more just and legall, then their * frange which exorbitances, can be no justification of their legality, but a di-prooves. red condemnation of them as altogether extravagant, unjust ibis true. and illegall, as our Parliaments and Judges have ever reputed * See And. them, and all other men of common reason or honesty to, ex- Melvini cept themselves To conclude this point of the High-Commissions Amissioners, and Bishops strange oppressions and proceedings, natomia. contrary to the fore-named statutes in all the recited particulars; y Register Ifinde a notable Prefident of a Commissioner of Oyer and Ter-pars 2. mmer , in the y Register , to inquire of the oppressions, f.125. Ge. cruelties, exactions, and exorbitances of the Bishop of Winchefter and his Officers, exactly parralell with thefe of the High-Commissioners and our Prelates now, which will notably decipher them in their true coulers, and shew, how dishonourable, how contemptuous they are to the King himselfe, how perni- + So the cious to his Subjects: Rex Vicecomiti falutem, Ex- High Comclamofis quærimoniis diverforum hominum de co-mission sermitatu tuo ad nostram sapius pervenit auditum, especially quod A. Episcopus Win. nec non bellivi constabu-MrHaydon. larij, & alij Ministri & servientes ipsus Episcopi, Mr Brewer. plurimas & diversas oppressiones, extortiones du-peratists of ritias, damna, excessus & gravamina, intollerabilia late, whoredictis hominibus, in diversis partibus comitatus præ-fused the Oath Ex ofdicti, tam infra libertates quam extra multipliciter ficio, whom & diversimode intulerunt, & de die in diem inferre ibey would non defistunt, plures de dictis hominibus vi & armis not suffer to multotiens verberando, eosque capiendo, impriso- beds, fine, or nando, & in prisona forti & dura † super terram ether necessnudam faries. Cc 2

nudam & absque alimento, fame, frigore, & nuditate ferè ad mortem cruciando, & eos in prisona hujusmodi, donec sines & redemptiones ad voluntatem suam fecerint, nullo modo deliberari permitten-

3 Thur doe di, nec non 7 domos quorundam hominum hujufthe Bishops modi vi armata fraudendo, & bona & catella sua ca. andCompienda, & asportando, eosdemque uxores & sermi Cioners Parsevants, vientes suos verberando, vulnerando & male tractan. breake o en, do, & hominibus super hujusmodi duritiis conqueri mensbowses, volentibus in tantum commando, quod iidem homiand ran sike fludies, Cio- nes in hundredis & aliis curiis dicti Episcopi, vel alibi fers, Chefts; negocia sua indè prosequi metu mortis non sunt aussi take away sheir Bookes, & alia hujufmodi, mala damna, & excessus inhuma. niter in dies perpetrando, * in nostri dedecus & con. mritings, Papers, and temptum , & populi vostri partium pradictarum de. of any fue them for it, fructionem & depressionem manifestas unde plursmum they areclast conturbamur, nos oppressiones duritias damna & exnp in prison, cessus, ac gravamina prædicta si perpetrata suerint to give over nolentes relinquere impunita, volentesque salvatiotheir actions. ni & quieti dicti populi nostri in hac parte prospice-* Note that thefe procee- re, ut tenemur ; affignavimus dilectis & fidelibus nostris &c. sciri poterit, de oppressionibus, extordings are dis bonor & tionibus, duritiis, damnis, gravaminibus, prædictis, contempt to per dicti Episcopus ballivos, constabularios minithe King, thefountaine ftros & servientes suos & alios quoscunque de conof Inftise. federatione sua in hac parte existentes qualitercunque perpetratis; & de præmissis omnibus & singulis plenis veritatem, & ad quærelas omnium & fingulerum pro nobis vel pro se ipsis indè conquæri & prosequi volentium, nec non ad præmissa omnia & singu-> la tam ad fectam nostram quam aliorum, quorumcunque cuno

&co cipii

cora

hom

tra,

pote

Com our P

huma and fe

jesties

2.

1. El

their (

tion C

claim

fituti

esent

to com

clare

Artic

Kings

the P

Law

peare

36. E

H. 8.

C. I.

6. c. :

cunque audienda & terminanda, secundum legem. & consuetudine regni nostri Angliæ. Et ideò tibi præcipimus, quòd ad certos, & c. tibi scire fac venire fac coram, & c. quos & c. tot & tales probos, & legales homines de balliva tua tam infra libertates quam extra, per quos rei veritas, in premissis meliùs sciri poterit & inquiri. Et habeas & c. Whether the like Commission be not meet to be now granted out, to inquire of our Prelates and Ecclesiasticall Commissioners, barbarous inhumane oppressions, cruelties and proceedings of this nature, and severely to punish the same, I humbly submit to his Majesties and his Counsels grave considerations.

nudiilona

unta-

tten-

ujuf-

a ca.

z fer-

Ctan.

Juæri

nomi-

alibi

t aufir uma-

conn de.

mum

c ex-

erint

atio-

pice-

libus

rtor-

ictis,

nini-

con-

cun-

gulis

ulc-

ofe-

ngu-

um-

The Statutes of 25. H. 8. c. 14. 19. 21. 27. H. 8. c. 15. Against Bps 1. Eli7. C. 1.2. 13. Eli7. C. 12. utterly difable the whole Clergy in Articles. their Convocations and Synodes, and every Prelate in his Vijita- Orders, CetionConfistory or Diocesse, jo much as to presume, to attempt, alleadge, remonies, claime, put in Ure, enact, promulge, or execute any Canons, Con-Innovations. fitutions, ordinances, provinciall or Synodall, Rites, or Ceremonies what soever, unlesse they may have the Kings most Royall essent and licenses, under his great Seale, both to make and likewife to confirme, promulge and execute the same. And they further declare, that all Canons, Constitutions, Ceremonies, Rites, Orders, Articles, made by the whole Clergy or any of them, without the Kings speciall license, and confirmation under his great Seale, and the Parliaments approbation too, are meerely voyd, no wayes obliga-107, and not be commonly accepted, receaved, or obeyed, as any Fox Alls Law of God or man within the Realme : which likewise ap- and Mon. peares by the severall statutes of 4. E. I. C. 5. 20. H. 3. C. 9. P. 56. Bishop 36. E. 3. c. 8. 31. H. 8, c. 8. 14. 32. H. 8. c. 15. 26. 38. 34. to Harding, H. 8. C. 1. 37 . H. 8. C. 17. 1. E. 6. C. 1. 2. 9. 2. and 3. E. 6. Artie. 2. C.I. 13. 19. 21. 23. 3. and 4. E. 6. C. 10. 11. 12. 5. and 6. E. Divif. 24. 6.c. 3. 4. 5. Eliz. c. 1. 8. Eliz. c. 1. 23. Eliz. c. 1. and 35: 9.142. An-Eliz. c. 1. Hence was it, * that when King Lucius fent to tiq Ecclif.

C c 3 Pope Brit. p.

Pope Eleutherius, supon bis Commission to the Christian faith:) for the Roman Lawes and Canons , to governe the Church and Kingdome by; the Pope returned him this answer : Yee have received through Gods mercy in the Realme of Brittaine, the Law and faith of Christ, yee have within the Realme, both the parts of the Scriptures. Out of them by Gods Grace WITH THE COUNSELL OF YOUR REALME, (to wita Parliament, not your Bishops and Clergy,) TAKE TEE A LAW, and by that Law (through Gods sufferance) rule your Kingdome of Brittaine : For you be Gods Vicar in your Kingdome &c. Where the Pope prescribes, and referres the making of Ecclefiafticall Lawes and Canons, notto the King or Clergy, but to the King and Parliament. the Canons of the Councell of Clonesho, An. 747. were made, and confirmed in Parliament by King Ethebald and his Dukes, and Nobles. Malme burinfis , De Gestis Pontif. Anglia, 1. 1. p. 197. In the Councell of Westminster, under Anschme, An. 1102. both the King and Nobles were present, that so what. Gever was determined by the authority of the Councell, Utriusque ordinis concordi cura, & follicitudine ratum, ferva-ENIM NECESSE ERAT. retur. SIC Malm. Ibid. p. 218. and Eadmerss, l. 3, p. 67. l. 4. p. 94.95. and William the Conqueror, Edger, Canutus, Ira, Alfred, Edward the Elder, Ethielstane, Edmond and Ethebrede made Ecclesiasticall Lawes and Canons in Parliament, as Lambard in his Archionomia, Fox Acts and Monuments, p. 714. 715. Bifon fewell Defence of the Apologie, part. 6. c. 2. Divis. 1. p. 521. 522. Journis Seldeni Nota ad Eadmerum, p. 167. 168. tellife at large. The Booke of the Common prayer and administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England, made and confirmed by Parliament, exactly prefcribes all Orders, Rites, and Ceremonies what foever, that shall or ought to be used in the Church of England in time of Divine Service, or Sacraments, both by Ministers and people. And the Statute of I. Eliz. c. 2. enacts, that no maner or Perfor Vicar.

V

184

mo

Gase

AL

ver

the

Con

dair

fir t

and

Wb

tenc

the :

men

not e

they

wife

tions

appar

deace

any n

or Or

those then t

powe

ders,

Altera

arroga

V.car , or other Minister, what sever shall uf, or by open fact, deed, or threatenings compell, or cause, or other wife procure, or maintaine any Person, Vicar, or other Minister, to use any other Rite, Ceremony, Order, Forme, or maner of celebrating the Lords Supper, Matten, Evenfing, administration of the Sacraments 3 or other open prayers, then is mentioned and fet forth in the faid Booke, under the forefeitures, and penalties mentioned in that All , providing , that if there shall happen any contempt , or irreverence to be used in the Ceremonies, or Rites of the Church, by the misusing of this Booke, the Queenes Majesty, (not her Bishops, Heires or Successors,) by the advise of her Ecclesiasticall Commissioners , or of the Metropolitane of this Realme , might ordaine and publish such further Cerimonies or Rites, as may be most for the advancement of Gods glory, the edification of hie Church, and the due reverence of Christs holy Mysteries and Sacraments. Which last clause is meerely personall to the Queene, and extendeth not to her Heires and Successors, thrice mentioned in the former clauses, but left out purposely in this; the Parliament, having good affurance of the Queenes zeale to Religion, not ofher Heires and Successors, of whose persons and qualities they were then utterly ignorant. By all thefe Statutes, as likewife by King James Letters Patents, before the Canons and Constitutions An. 1603. and King Charles his Declaration, prefixed to the 39. Articles An. 1628. compiled, by the Bishops themselves, it is apparant, that neither all the Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons and Clergy together, nor any of them apart in their feverall Diocesse, can so much as make enjoyne or prescribe any new Canons, Constitutions, Orders, Ceremonies, Rites, or Ornaments of Churches whatfoever, nor yet alter any of those prescribed in the Common Prayer Booke, no more then the meanest Curate, or Layman, by their owne Episcopall power or authority, much leffe then fulpend, filence, deprive, or excommunicate any, who refuse to submit to their new orders, Articles, Cino s, Constitutions, Rites, Ceremonies, Alterations, Innovations, and Ordinances. Yet fuch is the arrogant infolency of our Archbishops, Bishops, Archdea-

iftian

burch bave

Lan

arts of

THE

(to

Suffe-

Vicar

nd renot to

Hence

made,

Dukes,

Inglia,

nsclme,

whatusque

erva-

AT.

94.95.

Alfred,

ade Ec-

d in his

. Bishop

. 521.

teftifie

ration

Church

ly pre-

r , that time of people.

erfon

Vicar.

cons, cons, and their officials, that they not onely dare make, pro. mulge, print, publish, and prescribe new Articles, Canons. Constitutions, Orders, Injunctions, Rites, Ceremonies, (4) standing up at Gloria Patri, the Nicene and Athanasim Creed, bowing at the naming of fesus, cringing to Communion Tables and Altars, placeing and railing in Communion-Table Altar wife, erecting of Images , Pictures , Crucifixes, Altars and Tapers in Churches, Prayer towards the East, comming up total Communion Tables to receave, with a world of other Innovations. contrary to the Common Prayer Booke,) in their Visitations and Confiftories, (without the Kings Special License, under his great Seale,) but likewise excommunicate, fine, and imprison such Churchwardensand Laymen, and suspend, filence, deprive, imprison such Ministers and Clergymen, as oppugne dilobey, or refuse to submit unto them, (when as their owne 12. Canon excommunicates iplo facto, all fuch as shall obey them, or Submit unto them, and themselves to, for making them without the Kings authority:) witnes the Churchwardens of Ipiwich. and Beckington, Mafter Channey, and divers others: A great oppression, and vexation to his Majesties faithfull Subjects, and a high affront aud contempt, not onely to his Majesties supreame Iurildiction, in causes Ecclesiasticall, but likewise to his Royall Declaration, prefixed to the 39. Articles, reprinted by his Com--maundement, wherein hee profelleth, that hee will not induce any varying, or departing, in the least Degree, from the Doltrin and Discipline of the Church of England then established; and to his Declaration to all his loving Subjects, of the causes which moored bim to dissolve the last Parliament, published by his special Commaund, An. 1628. p. 21. 42. wherein bee called God to record that hee will never give way to the authorizing of any thing, wherely any Innovation may steale, or creepe into the Church, but preserve that Unity of Doctrine and Discipline established in the times Queene Elizabeth, whereby the Church of England hath food and flour floed ever fince : and professeth, that bee will maintaine the true Religion and Dottrine established in the Church of England, with-

nat i

Sch

and mber

feall

the t

amos

doub

senne

thele

proc

or 6.

allow

fulin

jeds.

sell of

cerni

bene

Law

A C 1

Res (

oft tiz

honefil

ing , a

that a

ther to

3. De

* See

Colonia Isid T

4. Ton

gratu,

them,

not admitting or committing at any back fliding, either to Popery or Schifme .

Pro-

anons,

5, (25

anafin

esenion--Table

ars and

o to the ations.

tations

derhis

nd im-

filence,

pugne,

rowne them,

without

fir.tch,

A great

ts, and

preame

Royall

s Com-

Octrine

d to his

mooved

l Comrecord

cherety

referre

timeof

od and he true

, with-

The Statute of ar. H. 8. c. g. enacts, that Ordinaries and their Ministers, for Probate of wils, or letters of administration, Against their where the goods doe not clearely amount above the vallue of C.f. Fees and hall take onely 6. p. where they are above C. f. and yet exceed not oppressions of the value of 40. S. but onely 3. S. 6. d. and not above, where they this nature. amount to above 40. p. onely 5. f. and no more, unles one penny for every 10. lines of 10. Inches long under paine of forfeiture of double the money they take above these fees to the party, and senne p. besides to the King, and party greived; Yet thele greedy cormorants and oppressors, for every will, now prooved, and all Letters of administration a take usually 3.4.5. asee Stephen or 6. times as much more of his Majesties Subjects, as this Statute Puckels allowes them, and are not ashamed to claime it as their due; re- Table of fuling to take leffe to the great oppression of his Majestles Sub- Fees printed jeds. John Stratford, Archbishop of Camerbury, with the Conn_ an. 1631. sell of Landon, October the 10. 1342. made this Conftitution con- In causes of cerning fees for Letters of order , Institutions and admissions to dayly expebenefices &c. (which is still in force, if any part of the Canon-rience. Law be, as our Prelates affirme , and b fime Lawbookes too.) b25. H. 8. a c new and infatiable (fo Aton) a cruell and wretched Coverous - c.19 Cookes nes (& Lindewood reads it) hath invented, how great exactions may f. 344. Institutes, ofitimes be made for Letters of institution of Clercks, admitted to c loanni de benefices Ecclefiast.call, and for letters of orders, for the paines of writ- Aton Conft. ing, and for the Seales which the Canon it selfe reproveth, saying, previncial, that as it becomes not a Bishop to sell the imposition of hands, so nei f. 132. ther the * Minister to sell his quill , moreover the Clercks of provinc. 1. Confise. lab.

3. De Cenfibus de Sevaf. 160. 161. De institutionique leg. fol. 102. 103. * See Concil.um Romanum sub Gregorie. 1. c. 5. Surius Concil. Tom. 2. p. 68 9 Concil. Colonienfe, An 1536 c 28 Surius Ibid Tom. 4 p. 756 with other Councels and Decrees, Lid Tom. 1. p 705. Tom. 2 p. 172.a. 197.b. 328.b 364.b. 603. 886. a. 635.b.648 4.Ton. 3.195.4.264 a. 44 b. 292 b. 570.4 decree that Orders | bould be conferred gratu, and that the Bis bop, Minister, and Notary should demaund & take nothing for them, it being Symony.

Dd

Archdeacons, and their Officials and other ordinaries, refuje to di liver the Certificates of inquisitions made upon vacant benefices, unles they have first and excessive Some of money for writing, wee there. fore willing to abolish this abuse, bave determined by the advice of the present Counceltto ordaine, that for the writing of the letters of In. quisitions, Institutions, and collations, and Commissions to induct an into their benefices, or for the certificates of the same. The faid Clerks receave not either by themselves, or by others above 12. d. and for the letters of every holy order, not above 6. d. In other things, let the ordinaries themselves be bound to allow stipends, for their Ministers and Officers, whereby they may justly be fatisfied, but for fealing of fuch letters, or to the Marshall for entring into the howse or Porters or doorekeepers, or Barbars, wee will that nothing at all be exalled or payd by coulerable intend, least the payment for Seales of letters, or entrances aforesaid be turned into a damnable gaine. And this wee ordaine upon paine of double to be restored within one moneth, otherwise the Clerks that refuse to restore double , let them know, that they stand suspended from their office, and from their benefice, by the approbation of this boly Councell: Wee or daine likewise, that those, who are tound at the Commaundement of their Superious, to indict such, who are admitted tento Ecclesiasticall benefices, be consended with moderate charges, for such induction to be made. Namely, if the Archdeacon bethroughly contented with 3. f. 4. d. and his Officiall with I. S. for all charges , both of himselfe , and his return, concerning Diet , and let him that is inducted afore faid , chuse whe ther hee will provide for the returne of him and his that giveth the possession in such quantity of money, or in other necessaries. And if any thing over and above this, by occasion of the premises bereceaved by such as induct, or if they receave any more for the induction to be made by them, or if it shall happen, that they make not letters certificatory of their induction, and deliver them unto the Inducted, or which faighnest presence unlawfully deferre them, we will fuch as are culpable herein, so long to incurre suspension from their office, and enterance from the Church, untill the things contrarily receaved, be restored , and that they satisfie in the premises , him.

phe i

Lind

Rito

com ,

dutti

hall

are a

MALE O

Arch

made

confer

either

bend

Office

givin

by th

M

admi

licens

other

tuity

C. I.

fall

yet n

our F

take

Dead

can l

fees a

then

639.

101 158

bles of

abo by their default is hindred. Bus what if hee be inducted (laith Lindewood in his Gloffe,) by another than the Archdescon him-After his officiall, yet at the commandenent of the faid Arshdor con , whether may the Archdeacon receave any thing for fuch an induction? Answer no , but hee that investeth bim after this fort, hall betve of him, that is inducted necessary expenses, and fuch as are agreeable to his effate and calling under the moderation, limited unto the Archdeacon himselfe, or his Officials, if any of them had personally made any such industion. And e Stephen Langhtoners eLindewood Archbishop of Canterbury , and the Councell of Oxford, An. 1222. Ibid. made this Degree; Wee ordaine that no Prelate, when bee shall conferre any Church or Prebend, prefume or dare any maner of wayes either to us surpe unto himselfe the fruits of the same Church or Prebend, not yet gather or to exact, or suffer to be exacted, by his Officials or Archdeacons , any thing for the institution , or possession giving, or for any writing to be made, touching the same; Moreover, by the f Canon Law, and Booke of ordination of Ministers, every f Sum. An-Minister may lawfully preach in his owne Cure, as well as bapeife, ge ica Tie. administer the Communion , and read Common prayer, & without a Proodicare , licenfe; and if any have licenfes, granted them to preach, out of their c. 15, more Cures, they ought to be granted freely without any fee or gra- g Alls and mity, to the Bishop or his Officers. And the Statute of 23. Eliz. Monuments c. I. provides exprelly : That no ordinary, or their Ministers, P.401.402 hall take any thing for the licenfing or allowance of Schoolemasters; 403. 406. yet notwithstanding these Statutes, Canons, and Constitutions, 429. 431. our Prelates their Commissaries, Secretaries, and other Officers, 483. 485. take no leffe then 15. 20. 25, or 30. f. for the orders of every 500. 502. Deacon, and as much for every Ministers orders, so as few are or 521. 541. can be now made Ministers under 40. 50. or 60. f. charge in 552.553. fees and in some places more, year they exact and take no lesse 503. 588. then 6. 8. d. yea 10. b 15. and 20. f. fometimes for every li- 598. 599. 6.2. 604.

e 10 m

ces, unles

ce there-

ce of this

s of In

duct an d Clerks

and for

s, let the Imisters

caling of

Porters,

letters,

nd this

moneth,

thou,

fice , by

, that

be con-

Name-

and his

etarne,

e whe

eth the bere-

the in-

make

ento the L, wet

from

ntrari-

, him

mba

And

619.800.874.883.884.911.930.931 950.956.1001.1106.1015.
1016.1099.1156 1161.1181.1182.1231.1281.1283.1358.1577.
1580.1584.1512.1585.1586.1888.1899. b See Stephen Puckels Tables of Fees.

Dd 2

cense

* So much

k Suetonii

cense to preach and keepe a Schoole, and no lesse then 3.4. 1.5 (and sometimes more as themselves shall please to demaund) at every trienniall visitation, for shewing these their letters of orders, and licenses; when as there is never a farthing due by Law; and as for institutions and inductions to Benefices , our Archdeacous and their officials exact, and take for every inflitution and induction , no lesse then 2. 3.4. 5. 6. and some. times * 7. p. and more according to the vallue of the livings: lier Inductio An horrible extortion, oppression and Simmony, farre worse then the felling of Benefices by Patrons, yet our Prelates conflood him in nive at, countenance, and maintaine all these exactions and ex-

by

bet

fes,

ofa

80

and

Digi

400

Act

livin

ned

after

Syma

amb

any to justly thing

forthe

correct

Char

John !

bim,

ofany

sale[]

vifite.

curati

all and

tribut

Canter

caive s

but my

dy o

DoctorFestto Afton fees. tortions, not questioning any man for them, which is ill; yea i reiSee Stephen fuling to right, and persecuting those who complaine against them, Puckles which is farre worfe. So true is that of Vefpatian now with Table of Fees the E- them and theirs & Dulcis odor lucri ex re qualibet. piftle Dedicatory.

The Statute of 31. Eliz. c. 6. ratifies thefe former constitutions, concerning the felling and giving of orders, and provides: That if any person or persons what soever, shall receive or Vesp,uianus. take any money, fee, reward, or any other profit, directly, or indirectly, or shall take any promise, agreement, covenant, bond, or or ther affurance to receave anymoney, fee, reward, or any other profit, directly, or indirectly, either to him or themselves, or to any other of their, or any of their freindes, (all ordinary and lawfull fee, onely excepted, which are but those above specified) for to procure the ordering, or making of any Minister or Ministers, or giving of any orders, or license, or licenses to preach; that then every persin or persons, so offending, shall for every such offence for feit the summe of xl. p. of lawful money of England, and the party fo corrupted, adained, or made Minister, or taking orders, shall for feit 10.p. And if within 7. yeares after such corrupt entering into the Ministry, a receaving of orders, , bee shall accept any benefice, living or promotion Ecclesiasticall, that then immediately, from and after the induction, investing or installing thereof, or thereunto, had the same benefice, living and promotion Ecclefiastical, shall be meerely voyd, and that the Patron &c. may present and collate umo the same, And by the same statute it is enacted, that if any person or persons , for an fumme of money , reward, or guift, profit or commodity whathever, directly, or indirectly, (other then for usuall and lawfull to, which are those onely forementioned) or for, or by reason, of any promise, agreement &c. (as in the former clause,) shall at an time admit , institute, install, indust, invest, or place any person, nor to any benefice, with Cure of Soules, dignity, benefice, or other Exclesiasticall living, that then every person, so offending, shall for feit, andloofe the double vallue of one yeares profit of every such Benefice, I Ioanni de Dignity, Prebend, and living, and that the same shall be immediate- Aton, Conh voyd, fo as the Patron may prefent thereto; By vertue of which fit. Othomi, Act, I feare me, most Ministers may be turned out of their comis, f. 43. livings; and all our Prelates with their Officers, and late ordai-44. ned Clerks undone, if their forfeitures were but well inquired m Lindew. after; I Otho in his Constitutions, with our whole generall nationall Constit. Pro-Smode, under him prescribes, that Archdeacons in their Visitations, fibus 1.3. c. when they punish and correct crimes, shall not presume to receave Quen.vis. my thing, (by way of fee,) nor to involve any man in censures un f 161.2. justly, that so they may extort money from them, because those nLindewood things , and such like savour of Simmoniacall pravity : And hee Ibid. father ordaines, that no Archdeacon or Bishop shall recease pro-Toletanum o Concilium curations from any Church, unlesse hee personally visit the same 3. Can. 20. Church , nor extort any thing for redemption of Visitations : And 21. 6 7. John Stratford, Archbishop of Canterbury, with the Councell under Can. 4. Conhim, An. 1342. degree : That no man shall prefume to receave Cil Lateran. of any Church any procuration, to be payed by reason of visiting, 3 An. 1179 salesse bee diligently visit the same Church in person : and if any will paris c.4.7 visite any Churches in one day, let him be content with one dayes pro-Bochellus wration in victuals, or money, unto which procuration let hem cause Decr. Eccles. all and fingular Courches, so visited in one day, proportionally to con-15. Concil.

wibute as the Canons ordaine; yea m Boniface, Archbishop of Colon. An. Conterbury ordained, n that the Appariters and Bedels, should re- 1536.c. de twee nothing from Ministers and others for any Sermons citation, quarto. 1. he what they should please to give them freely. By which and fun modo reformandi Ecby o other Conncells it is apparant. cleftom. Dd 3 I. Firft,

4.5%

and) at

of or-

due by

s , our

y inffi-

fome-

ivings:

worle

es con-

and ex-

a i re-

with er conceive or

or indi-

d, or on

r profit,

full fees,

sure the giving

per fin

fumme ted, or-

p.And

try, at promothe in-

be fame

voyd,

e, And

by

t. First, That by the Canon Law, no procurations and due, or ought to be payed to Archbishops, Bishops, Archdencons, and other Ordinaries, unles they visit in person, nor when they visit by the parties.

dex

at by

harch

unatio

ificati

Pr

aceffi

er and

bere t

2. 3

heir lie

3refent ides, t ired;

nore.

f.

lacon

Lan an

icatin

withou

and I

A

- 2. Secondly, That they ought personally, to visit every Church in their Diocesse, (not an whole Deanery, onely at one Church, as now they doe without visiting the rest;) else it is not in truth a Visitation, for how is that visited, which is not so much as seene? and that no procurations are due from any Churches, which they doe not personally visit.
- 3. Thirdly, That where they visit many Churches in one day, there they ought to receave but procuration for them all.
- 4. Fourthly, That this procuration may be payd, either in money or provision, at the Election of those who are visited, it being onely payd to defray the charges of their provision, and not as any fee, or duty.
- 5. Fiftly, That where the Bifhop, Archdeacon, or Visitor, is entertained by any Minister or Gentl. and put to no expences for provision, there no procuration is due; nor yet ought to be required.
- 6. Sixtly, That no fees are due to Apparitors, or any other Officers attending those Visitors for any offences presented, in p Mashew quired after or punished, nor for shewing of licenses, Visitation-Paris Hist Articles, or Churchwardens, predentements &c. but onely the Major.

 p. 79 + 795 procuration it selfe, which ought to be no more then the Visitors necessary (not superfluous and idle) expences. This without 756. 766. all controversy is the Canon and Common Law to, as the Premise to 789. An-evidence yet our Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons & other tiquit Eccl. ordinaries (as if they visited onely of purpose to fill their purses, and 136. 187. sleece both Ministers and people, as I they have ever done,) take tions are rchdes.

fit every y at one it is not is not fo om any s in one em all.

ither in lited, it n, and Visitor, pences ot to be y other ed, intationely the e Vifirithout emiles other es, and ) take and

deract procurations. r. When they visit not in person. at by deputy, when none are due by Law. 2. Of fuch hurches, which they never personally visit. 3. Many proor when the distributions of every Church, within the Deanery for one dayes firstion onely. 4. Procurations in money, not in provion, and that more then will defray their necessary expences.

Procurations even where they are entertained by the Mi-fer or some others, and are put to no expence.

Moreover, they and their Registers exact and demaund acessive fees.

- 1. First, Of every Minister for shewing of his Letters of orerand licenses, to preach sometimes 3. S. d. d. sometimes 5. f. here there is nothing due.
- 2. Secondly, Of every Schoolemaster and others for frewing teir licenses, to teach Schoole, and the like as much.
- 3- Thirdly, Of 9 Churchwardens and Sidemen for their a See Stephen. refentment, accompts, oathes, and the illegall Booke of Ar-Puckels Table of ides, they fell them to prefent on 1. f. 6. d. or more. fees.
- 4 Fourthly, Of the Parties there presented, cited, and cenfired; what ever they please to exact, some times 2. f. 3. f.or

5. Fiftly, Of Rurall Deanes, for their Oath, accounts, and affice, (though imposed on them against Law, for the Archacons, and Apparitors case,). 6. f. 6. d. or more.

All these with r many others are meere extortions against r See Puck an and Canon; yet our Prelates, Archdeacons, and their un- Ibidem. dlings, both take and challenge them, as their due, excommuicating those, who refuse to pay them : Their Visitations (kept about any Commission or Patent from the King, in their me names, for which they incurre a Premunire) being meere illegall:

illegall oppressions, extortions, and deprevations on the poore Ministers and Subjects, as they have beene in all ages, (no Counsells, Canonifts, Histories, or Authors ever mentioning them, but with a relation and consure of those manifold exactions, ex.

that cipl

Kia ofice

mus.

laces

who

cheir

oppr

exce lers,

forth

deepl

they l and pl

Title

where

procu thelud

to, & 1

for om

Device cers, (

The Rif

ged for ,

tha

the Sunday p. 288.

(In his Postill tortions, and oppressions which inseperably attend them) f & pon morum, fed nummorum visitatio, as Dollar Boyes onid before Easter the Cemeries, and Sant Augustine concludes; Their extortions their High-Commissions and Consistories , by their Chancel'ors, Commissaries, Officials, Registers, Apparitors, Purs vants and other officers, are infinite and intollerable, not an one of them warranted by Law or Canon, fitter to be inquired after by the Commissioners for extorted fees, then here to be

Table, and . WNat . Brev . J.41. A.

* See Puckels related, onely I cannot but remember, that it is the * Comm Nicholan de practise of these harpies , to cite men into their Courts by their An Clemangis, paritors, by a generall Citation, without expressing the cause in the de corrupto the Citation, for which they are summoned (which a Farker Eccles statu. bert long since resolved to be an oppression; and against Law) or to c.25. accor - Party at whose suite they are summoned, if they appeare not therea then they excommunicate them for a contempt, and 6 must paj 4 or 5. 1. for an absolution, though nothing be objected again are no them, if they appeare, then they must pay the fies of the these I Apparitor and Court, to wit, 16. d. 2 f. 2. f. 6. d. or man sometimes, though no man appeare to object any thing against the ders, to

+ The was an Article objected a-P. 1404. Artic. 16.

and be dismiffed, and if they refuse to pay their fies, (which are a gainst Bif- cording as themselves please, to cease them sometimes 16. 18 bop Farrar. 20. d. 2. f. or more) then they will not difmiffe , but for $ vext Fox Act & tion and grave adjourne them to some other Court day, and if the their ex Monuments appeare not, they forth with excommunicate them, upon what they must pay terrible fees, or more for an absolution though la caiplater, notent. This is the common course and dayly practise of the minst. Confistories, an extortion, oppression, and vexation som just, so frequent and greivous to the Subjects, (that I speak not of their feverall plots and devices, how to rayle fames of in nocent men and women to bring them into trouble,) as the they groane and languish under it, and now more then ere In a word their extortions are for manifold great and greivous that a Petrus Blefenfis a Archdeacon of Bath (who notably de- x Officialn ciphers and declaimes against them) derives the name of an Of- Epifospi mifield, from the verbe officio, as it significth to bent , calling it , an miterium the of perdition, and dammation , at which who foever continueth, dannatifimust necessarily be dammed and cannot be faved, whether our Pre- ma villicalates, Archdeacons, Commissaries, and all their under Officers, bujusmodi who thus fleece, oppresse and vex his Majesties Subjects by these officiales non their manifold extortions, and are (I dare lay,) the greatest ab officio oppressors, and extortioners, and polers of them, this day living, verbomuexcept their High-Commission, Purseuants, Registers, Goa-taffe vocalers, Officers, who equall or exceed them,) ought not to be genus bee forthwith informed against in the Starchamber , and there hominum deeply fined to his Majesty, (to the value at least of the fees, quod dienne they have extorted) and deprived of all their offices, Courts, offici perand places, for which they have no Patent, and fo no right or di Sc. Si Title; and whether this would not be a just and lawfull project, imit credit, whereby the new Lord Rishop Treasurer, might and ought to inDeumreprocure his Majesty a great Masse of money, I humbly submit to linque mat therein theludgments of those, whom it most concernes, to looke there- turins officit paj 4 to, & to take care to eafe the Subjects of these extortions, which also officium are now become an insupportable burden to the people. againi tre now become an insupportable burden to the people. To damnationa, fees of the thefe I might adde their pecuniary mules, fines, and penalties, rotan malo-· or mate bromitting, and negligent performing of their disorderly or rum spiriuft them ders, to turne Communion-Tables Altarmife, and the like by which tum vertigi-Device Doctor Peirce, now Bishop of Bath and Wels, and his Offi-nin qui te ad urs, (men as worthy to be brought into the Starchamber for cumpoluie + vexe nd if the their exactions as any of their Coate, to omit * Dottor Majon miferare anima tua placens Dee,

poore

, (no

them,

ns , ex-

c non es out d

tionsin

Chaup.

Purfe-

not any nquire

re to be

Comme

eir Ap

e in the

Fitzher-

po) or the

b are a

on which

es of in) as the hen ever greivous th ough le ciplacere non potes, cum isto perditionn officio Epistola , 25. ad efficialem EpiscopiCar-e of the manss.

on four The Rishop of Winchesters Chauncellour, who fined some Churchwardens, lately 6. s. t I fpeat ged for not altering their Communion-Table.

Ee

SeeStephen Puckels Table of Fees . refolves. Angelica, Irregularitas Judex & catto.

> a Register 1.5.126. p.243.

and others) extorted no leffe then 6. f. 8. d. of late in leffe then me quater of a yeare of many Parishes in his Diocesse. Their y commutations of penance, (the money whereof they purse up them. Colves , whereas they should distribute it to the poore , or bestow it on *Which are other charitable uses) even in cases , where Penance ought no to be meerely vo- committed. Their extorting of money by * Purgations, Cumparties, not purgaturs, and by granting licenses, to marry without asking ludges ele- banes in the Church which if marriages and licentes to marry , be flion, by the meerely spirituall, as they pretent, (as if a license to preach, or Canon Law, receave the Sacrament,) is groffe Simmony, and fo to be taken as Gratian, from them to prevent Simmony in them, which makes them 7 excommunicate, and irregular Iplo facto, uncapable to preach (which See Summa they feldome doe, and thefore need not much to value) to ad. minister the Sacraments, give orders, or exercise any Ecclesiafical tit Simmon. Jurisdiction. If civill and temporall, then it belongs not to their Iurisdiction, but the Kings; and such temporall Officers, as hee excommuni- shall authorize to grant them. But these, I pretermit, as fitter for Commissioners or a grant Iury, to inquire after that, they may be punished, then here to discourse or treat of any fur-Onely this I shall observe, that there are divers Compart. 2. f. 1. missions printed in the a Register, for inquiring after extortion, oppression, and exacted fees in officers, and for sequestring their b Antiquit. offices, till the Inquiry fully made for the better examining, fifting Eccles Brit. out of their extertions. Tea I finde b King Edward the 3. in his Proclamations against Archbishop Strat ford , published to his Subjects, that hee remooved some great men from their offices and place, and imprisoned others of inferiour quality, who upon probable grounds were suspected of the ill administration, and subversion of fustice, the oppression of his Subjects, taking of bribes, exacting excessive fees, and other great offences, till these their offences weare fully examined, and inquired of least they injoying their accustomed liberty & offices, the execution of fuffice (hould be supplanted by their Subtility, and the inquisition of the truth deluded by their craftimes. Whether our Prelates and their officers ought not thus to be suspended, imprisoned, and proceeded against, for their fore-

name

ferre

4.

mics

c.8. 1

1.6.

the ft

3. /ha

4. I.

my C.

and (

5.6.

Au. 2

1. C.

8.13

1. H.

18. F

3.5.

3. 17

C. 22

c. 16

C. 1.

3.70

Car .:

Chan

Statu

be ma

them

Bifboy

any m an O

under

thoris

m cal

named extortions, exacted fees, bribes, and oppressions, I refere to his Majesties wildome and lustice.

4. It is most perspicuous and apparent by the severall Sta- Against mes of 9. H. 3. c. 28. 51. H. 3. c. 14. 3. E. I. c. 40. 6. E. I. Bif hops Vic.8. 13. E. I. at Westm. C. 43. 13. E. I. Statute of Winchester, C. Sitation 1.6. 13. E. 1. Statute Merchant Articles of Inquisition , upon Articles and the flatute of Winchefter. 34. E. I. Statute of liberties, C. 6. 51. H. Prefentm. 2. Statute of Escheators, 9. E. 2. Statute of Scheriffes, 17. E. 2. C. on them, 4. I. E. 3. C. 8. and Statute 2. C. 4. 5. E. 3. C. 2. 9. E. 3. of mo- prooving my c. 9. 15. E. 3. C. 3. 4. 18. E. 3. Statute 3, The Oath of Indges them both and Clerks of Charactery , 20. E. 3. C. I. 3. 25. E. 3. Stat. I. C. and Con-5.6. Pat. 4. C. I. and Stat. 7. of levying the quindefme, 27. E. 3. science. hr. 2. C. I. 15. 16. 23. 24. 26. 31. E. 3. flat. 2. 5. R. 2. flat. 1.C. 2. 12. 13. 14. 6. R. 2. C. 12. 9. R. 2. C. 3. 12. R. 2. C. 8.13. R. 2. C. 7. 17. R. 2. C. 9. 4. H. 4. C. 10. 18. 20. 21. 1.H. S. C. 6. 2. H. S. C. 4. 6. 7. 4. H. S. C. 2. 4. 2. H. 6.C. 10. 18. H. 6. C. 4. 10. 20. H. 6. C. 10. 23. H. 6. C. 2. 33. H. 6. C. 2.5. 3. E. 4. C. 3. 7. E. 4. C. I. 8. E. 4. C. 2. 12. E. 4. C. 2. 1. 17. E. 4. C. 2. 5. R. 2. C. 12. 14. 1. R. 3. C. 6. 25. H. 8. c. 22. 26. H. 8. c. 2. 31. H. 8. c. 14. 23. H. 8. c. 5. 28. H. 8. c. 16. 32. H. 8. c. 46. 33. H. 8. c. 22. 19. H. 7. c. 7. 1. Eliz: c. 1. f. Eliz. c. 1. 13. c. 7. 27. Eliz. c. 12. 1. fac. c. 9. 31. 3. fac. c. 4. 7. fac. c. 2. 6. 21. fac. c. 7. 20.33. 1. Car. 2. 1. 2. Car. 2. 1. and the Petition of Right , 3. Car. Wests presidents Tit. Channery , Sect. 34. 36. 39. 57. 58. 59. 61. with fundry other Statutes and Lawbookes, that no kindes or formes of Oathes can bemade or imposed on his Majesties Subjects, nor prescribedto them in any new cases, but by Act of Parliament, onely, that no Bishop or Subject what soever, have any power to make or injoyne any new Oathes or formes of Oathes , nor yet authority to administer an Oath to any man , without a feciall Commission from the King, mader his great Seale, or some Act of Parliament, specially autherizing him, to give or take an Oath, unleffe in Courts of record mcafes, where the Canon Law inables the Judge to administer an Oath y comsup themtow it on it no to be then me

arry, be each, or be taken in 3 ex-to adfiafficall to their s, as hee as fitter at, they any furrs Comortion, ing their s, sifting his Subd places, probable xalling weare

oftomed by their aftines.

r forenamed

Oath by prescriptions originally grounded on some Charter, or Com. The flatute of Magua Charta c. 21. miffion from the King. enacts, That no Baileffe from henceforth , Shall put any man to his OATH, upon his owne faying srithen oven Law nor to AN frathfull witnesses , brought in for the fame. The equity where. of extends to the Bilhops, though the words onely to Bailiffer. The frame of Marlebridge 51. H. 3. c. 22. cnads, That men from honceforth may distraine from his freeholders , to answer for their freeholdes, nor for any thing, touching their freeholdes without the Kings writ : nor shall cause his freeholders to sweare against they wills: FOR NO MAN, MAT DOE THAT WITHOUT THE KINGS COM MAUNDEMENT, to wit, by the Kings special writ and Commission for that purpose. c An. 1236. Otho, the Para Hist. Popes Legate, in a Conncell of London, made this Constitution, touching oathes in spirituall causes in Ecclesiasticall Courts, till that time not knowne, nor used in England, as appeares by the words of the Constitution, Iurisjurandum calumnia in causis Ecclesiasticis cujuslibet, ET DE VE. RITATE DICENDA IN SPIRI-TUALIBUS QUOQUE, ut veritas aperiatur facilius, & caufæ celerius terminentur, flatui, mus DE CÆTERO PRÆSTARI IN REGNO ANGLIÆ, fecundum Canonicas & legitimas fanctiones OBTENTA CONTRARIVM CONSVETVDL NE NON OBSTANTE. A cleare refoli. tion, that till that time the custome of England, and the Law of the Land was contrary, that they could not inforce any man to his Oath in fuch cases. After which d Grofthead, Bishop of Lincolne, An. 1246. upon the Suggestion of the Friers Predicants and Minorites, raged more then was meet or expedient against

c Matth.

Major.

P.438.

d Matth. Paris Hift. Major. p.693.694 those of his Diocesse, making strict inquisition in his Bishoprickety whofe words his Archdeacons and Deanes, concerning the chaffity and maners, are thefe.

AI TW

(cana

NI

BE

greiv

upon

in the

God,

bues

fireb

in any coms ,

or at

Tefta

bereo

thefe

men 1

and t

the E again All w

bitio

dred

auda

ter [L

(but

publi

ofth

rum

&E

ST

CE

mun

PE

u well of noble suignoble, (upon outh,) to the enormious burt and eQuad nun-Gandall of the reputations of many, WHICH HAD quan much NEVER BEENE ACCUSTOMED TO fieri confue-BE DONE BEFORE. The King hearing the verat : Jaith greivous complaints of his people against these innovations, did there the Author. upon by the advise of his Counsell and Courts of Justice, fend a writ with Sheriffe of Heriford in thefe words : Henry by the grace of God, King of England, &c. Wes commaund thee, that as thou brest thy felfe, and all things that are thine, that thou from hencehinh suffer not any Laymen of thy Balywicke, to assemble together in any place at the will of the Bishop of Lincolne, or of his Archdeaims, Officials, or Rurall Deanes, to make any acknowledgments, or attestations upon their oath, unlesse in cases of Marrimony and Testament. f And the very next yeare following in pursevance f Matthew bereof, the King (by Parliament) enacted, and commanded Parn Hift. these things, ensuing to be inviolably observed : That if any Lay- Major. men were convented before an Ecclefia ficall Judge, for breach of faith P.705. and perjury, that they should be prohibited by the King : And that the Ecclesiasticall Judge Should be probibited to hold plea of all causes against Laymen, unleffe they were of Matrimony and Testament. All which Matthew Paris precisely relates. Which Prohibition and statute nullified the Constitution of Otho; and hindred this his innovation : Whereupon, that infolent trayterly audacious martiall Archbishop of Canterbury, Boniface (+ bet + Antiquite. ter [killed in affaires of the Campe then of the Church,) An. 1256. Ecclef. Bris. (but nine yeares after this Prohibition and forenamed Statute,) Benifacius published this peremptory audacious Constitution in affront p.185. ofthem both: Statuimus quod Laici ubi de Subditorum peccatis & excessibus corrigendis per Prælatos & Ecclefiafticos Iudices inquiritur , AD PRÆ-STANDVM VERITATE DI-DE CENDA IVRAMENTVM, per excommunicationis featentias, fi opus fuerit, CO M-PELLANT VR; Impedientes vero NE Ee 3

Com.

c. 28.

without

where. white.

sper for without It then

DOE

OM.

pecial

tho, the

tution,

s , till

by the

niæ in

VE-

IRI-

s ape-

tatui.

IN

nicas

IN

DI.

refoli-

e Law

y man (hop of

dicants

ig ainst icke by

amers,

#

P. R A STENTVR. (For the ludges with many others then generally oppugned and hindred the ushering in of this innovation,) per interdicti & excommunica. tionis sententiam arceantur. To evacuate with exorbi. tant illegall Constitution (means onely of witnesses, not of Church. g Lindew. wardens, Sidemen, or triangers can expresse termes, trench. Provin. Con- wood, (who records it,) resolves in expresse termes, trench. wardens, Sidemen, or ftrangers oathes, as the & Gloffe of Linds. ing both upon the peoples Liberties and the Courts of Inflice rando f.80, too; the ludges frequently granted out fundry generall Pro. hPars 2. fol. hibitions, to all, or most of the Sheriffes of England; as isen. dent by the b Register of Writs; i Fit 7 herberts Natura Bre. vium; k Rastall, and others, commaunding the Shersffes, to inbibite Bishops and their Officers, to cite Laymen before them, to take k Abridgm. an oath in any cafes what foever, except of Matrimony or Tifu. of Statutes. ment onely; and not to suffer the people to appeare before them to take such oathes; Which Probibitions runne in these words, The 1 King to the Sheriffe greeting; Wee commaund thee, that thou permit not, that any Laymen henceforth come together at the pars 2.f. 36. Citation of the Bishop, or his officers, in any place, to make any re cognitions, or to take an oath, unleffe it be in case of Matrimon and Testament; Upon which Prohibitions, this Attachment followed : The King to the Sheriffe, greeting : Cause such a Bishop to put in suerties to appeare before our Instices &c. to shew canse, why bee made certaine Lay-persons to be summoned and distremed by Ecclesiasticall Censures, to appeare before him at his pleasure, to take an oath against their wills, IN GRA-PRÆIVDICIVM CORONE DIGNITATIS NOSTRÆ NEC NON CONTRA SVETVDINEM REGNI to the Greivous prejudice of our Crowne and dignity, and also against the custome of our Kingdome, Oc. Which Prohibitions and

Attachments were usuall, as appeares by Rastalls Abridgment

HVIVSMODI IVRAMENTVM

of flat

bitio

Cver

Balys

their (

of of recite

(10 Fm the S ay n lelar

imels

exam

true p

BY

RA

fonal

oathe

being

himfe

claufe

Indge

leffe :

nor c accul

by th

other

Real

diver

Tall C affem

Maj

eath .

ries,

officio

fin, lib. 2. De Iureiu-36.6.43. 50. Nat. Brev. f 41.A.

Tit Probi-

buin. 5.

1 Register

Nat. Brev.

5.41. A.

of Intures , Prohibition. 5. where a larger forme of Prohi- * All Oather brion and Attachment is recited; commanding the Scheriffes of not warran-Querall Counties , that they suffer not , that any Laymen in their ted by the Balywicke come together in any places, to make any recognifices by Lawes and their oathes before Bishops or Ecclesiasticall Indges , except in causes Statutes of of Matrimony and Testament. The Statute of 2. H. 5. c. 3. the King. recites, that the Ecclesiastivall Court in that time could cite men there ad-(to sweare ,) onely in cases of Matrimony and Testament. And judged to be the Statute of 2. E. 6. c. 13, concerning Tithes, enacls, That if voya and on man refuse to pay his personall Tithes , that then it shall contrary to le lawfull for the ordinary of the same Diocesse, where the party liberties, but imels , to call the faid party before him , and by his discretion to all Exofficio mamine him, by all lawfull and reasonable meanes, concerning the and all other time payment of the faid personall Tithes, OTHER THEN Oathes, ex-BY THE SATD PARTIES CORPO-cept onely in RALL OATH. For that was neither lawfull, nor rea- Mariage & fonable, the Ecclefiafficall Court, having no power to administer Testament, outhes, but in case of Matrimony and Testament, and no man ministred by being by Law or equity bound to accuse or bare witnesse against the Highhimselfe : the true reason, why the Parliament inserted this Commission clause, and a direct Parliamentary resolution, that F celesiafticall elesiasticall Indges can enforce no man to I weare, nor not a witnesse, much Indges, are leffe as a party,) except onely in case of Mariage and Wills; such; there nor constraine any man in any case to take an Ex officio oath to being no land accuse himselfe: Which Ex officio oathes are for ever exploded or statute, by the Petition of Right , 3. Caroli ; that mentions this among ferites or other great greivances, contrary to the Lawes, and statutes of the warrant Realme, and the Subjects Liberties and Rights; That of late them. divers Commissions were directed to Sundry Commissioners in leve-Therefore rall Counties, by meanes whereof the people had beene in divers places meetly veyd assembled , and required to lend certaine sommes of money to his contrary to Majefty, and that money of them upon refufall fo to doe have had an the Lawes of outh administred un o them, (to answer to certaine Interrogato-Statutes of ries, which the Commissioners should demaund of them Exthe Realme, officio to accuse themselves, and others,) * not warrantable by Sub ells Liberries and for ever deploded by this Statute.

VM

es with hering

unica.

exorbi. burch.

Linde-

trench.

Inflice

Il Pro-

s is evi-

ra Bre.

to in-

to take

Tofte.

beni to

words,

at the

anyre

rimony on.ent

Such a

o fhem

ed and at his

-A 5

NÆ

RE-

ON-

RI.

gainst

s and

of

the Lawes and fatutts of this Realme ; whereupon they there pray as their Rights and Liberties, according to the Lawes and Statum of this Realme; That no man be bereafter called to make answere a take SUCH OATH, or be confined, or otherwise molefled. or disquieted, concerning the same, or for refusal thereof. (A faul blow to all Ex officio oathes and Proceedings, for men to an. fwere to Articles, to detect, accu'e themselves, or othersuled by our Prelates & High-Commissioners, To which the King gare this Royall answer in Parliament; Let right be done as is defired;ad. ding moreover: that his Maxime is; that the peoples Liberty, fireng. thens the Kings Prerogative, & that the Kings Prerogative, is to de. fend his peoples Liberties. And I doe here declare, that those things, which havebeen done, wher by men had some cause to suspect the liberty of the Subjects to be trencht upon, shall not hereafter be drawne in example for their prejudice. And in time to come (in the word of a King,) you shall not have the like cause to complaine. The King and Parliament therefore here publikely declaring, refolving that Exofficio Oathes, for men to answer to questions and Ar. ticles to accuse themselves, are not warrantable by the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme; but contrary thereto, and to the Subject's Rights and Liberties though warranted by speciall Commissions and instructions under the great Seale; is a most pregnant resolution, that the High-Commissioners and Bishops Ex officio oathes and Articles in criminal things, being of the felfesame nature and quality with them, and m formerly adjudged to be against the Lare, the statutes of the Realme, and the Subjects Liberties in the Parlia. ment, of 7. facobi, and in the Kings Bench and Common Pleas. thenprinted. as the premiles evidence , are directly against the Lawes and Fraunchife of the Land, the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and that no man ought henceforth to be called before the Prelates, High-Commissioners, or any others, to take such oathes, or to be confined, imprisoned, disquieted, or otherwise molested, com cerning the same, or for refusall thereof; and that their Commission to administer such oathes, (made since this Parliamer tary resolution, and the Kings owne Royall promise in ParliaMAI

hed

pari

bou

him

wha

the hibi

bilh

any

in fu allo

ofo but.

Bifh or P

muls Side

and (

thor

and .

no au

2.

Arch

aucho

men

with but o hibiti

or fo Yet a

cials,

ment.

mSee the Petition of grew inces ment, even in the word of a King; that they should never hereastier be drawne into example unto his Subjects prejudice, &c.) is in this particular illegall, and meerely voyd in Law, no man being bound by Law to accuse, arraigne, or give in evidence against himselfe upon his oath, in any criminal Ecclesiastical cause whatsoever by any Law or Statute, either of God or man, as the premises manifest. From all which Statutes, Lawes, Prohibitions, and premises, it is apparant.

THE PRAY

Shussies

17070.0

solefied.

A fatal

s to an.

ersuled

ing gane fred;ad-

Atreng-

25 to dee things,

e liberty

one inn

ord of a

e King

folving

and Ar-

wes and

s Rights

and in-

on, that

ind Ar-

nd qua-

Parlia-

n Pleas.

wes and

e Sub-

be Pre-

ubes, or

d, con

Com-

iamen

Parlia-

ment.

de l'erre

r. First, That no Ecclesiasticall or temporall Iudge, Archbishop, or other Ecclesiasticall person, can prescribe or make any new forme of oath, nor yet impose an oath in any cases, but in such as the Statutes and Common Law of the Realme have allowed, and authorized them to doe it; and that no new forme of oath may or ought to be framed or imposed in any new case, but by speciall Act of Parliament, Yet our Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, and their Officials, like so many Popes or Parliaments, take upon them both to make, print, promulge, and impose new formes of oathes on Churchwardens, Sidemen, and other his Majesties Subjects, in their Visitations and Consistories in their owne names, and by their owne authority; as appeares by all their late printed. Visitation Articles, and Consistory proceedings; and that in cases where they have no authority to doe at, either by Statute or Common Law.

2. Secondly, That no Ecclefiafticall Judge, Aschbishop, Archdeacon, Compressioner, or Otherall, bath any power or authority in point of Law, to administer an oath, or compell men to Iwagre in any criminall Ecclefiaftical cases or matters, within their Juridiction, (especially the parties themselves, but onely in cases of Testaments and Mariage, and that a Prohibition, yea an Attachment lyes against about in case they close of force any man to take an oath before them in any other smalle. Yet all our Ecclesiasticall Judges, Prelates, Archdeacons, Officials, and High-Commissioners, in contempt of all the premises, dayly dayly administer oathes to his Majesties Subjects, and by Cita. tions, Excommunications, and imprisonments of times, compell them to sweare and take an oath, not onely in causes of Ma. trimony and Testaments, but likewise in criminall, and all other Ecclefiafticall causes, comming before them; and that not onely as witnesses, but likewise as informers, to accuse, to deted themselves and others upon captious and enfnaring Articles.

Thirdly, That no Ecclefiastical Iudge, Prelate, Officer, or any other Subject what loever, hath any power or lawfull authority to administer, or impose an oath upon any Subject, unlesse hee hath an expresse Act of Parliament enabling, or Commission under the great Seale of England, authorizing him Yet our Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons and other Ecclefiafticall Judges and officers, without any fuch fpeciall A& of Parliament or Commission, presumptuously take upon them to administer outher to his Majesties Subjects in all cases whatfoever, as their owne fancies and wils direct them; to the great vexation and oppression of the people, the encrease of perjury, rash oathes, and common swearing; the perdition of many foules, and the advauncement of their owne usurped Antichriftian Iurifdiction, in prejudice and derogation of his Majefties Ecclefiafticall Prerogative; though no Archbishopor Bishop, could so much as administer the cath of supremacy, or allegiance to any Minister or person, (though tending to the prefervation of his Majesties person, and Prerogative Ecclefiafficall, and the Republikes fafety) without a speciall Commission under the great Seale, authorizing him, as is evidently 1 3et 3 tac. 6 the Statutes of 28. H. 8.c. 10. and 1. El.7.c. 1. till the $ 54. tute of 8. Eli7. c. 1. enabled them, and others' for to doe it , .

expresse clause without such a speciall Commission. If therefore they could not administer this oath to any without special Commission, till enabled thereto by Act of Parliament, much lest can or may they administer any other, San and Page to a comme

4. Fourthly,

mer

the

abar

fiaft

pell

cate DOLL

tram

and l impr fuje ti

vexa

juft,

MAI C

bis Z

openl

Temp

nothi

bave

bee b

mib!

6?

the en

mile

ners

them

fufing

antw

usc th

Anfo

High

obsti

Fourthly, That all outher Ex officio in criminall causes for men to accuse, or detect themselves, are directly contrary to the Lawes, Statutes and Customes of the Realme, and for ever shandoned by the Petition of Right; and that no Prelate, Ecclefafticall Iudge, or High-Commissioner, may or ought to compell, or enforce any man to take fuch an oath, or excommunicate or imprison any man, for refusing to take the same. notwithstanding our Prelates, and High-Commissioners, trampling all the forecited Lawes and Premises under their feet, dayly cite and compell men to take Ex officio oathes, to accuse and betray themselves and others; excommunicating, * yea * Witnes the imprisoning at the first, all such, who out of Law or Conscience re- and old Mr. file to take them; to the intollerable oppression, greivance, Wharton of regation of his Majesties Subjects, and the infringement of their late imprijust, ancient Rights and Liberties. " When our Saviour Christ Soned, onely was convented before the High-Presst, and there afked by him of for this cause, his Disciples and of his Doctrine; Jesus answered him, I steake lones a Miopenly to the world, I ever taught in the Synagogue, and in the nifter. Temple, whither the fewes allwayes refort, and in secree have I faid n Ichn. 18. withing, why af kest thou me? af ke them which heard me, what I 19.10.21. have faid unto them : behold they know what I faid. And when 22. her had show spoken , one of the officers which stood by , stroke fefus with the palmie of his hand , faying: Answerest thou the High-Preist 6? Fefus answered bim, If I have foken evill, bare witnesse of the evill, but if well, why finitest then me? If any of Christs Mi. misters be convented before our Bishops or High-Commissioners, concerning his Disciples and Doctrine, and shall answer them as Christ here doth the High-Preist, and in his words . refuling to secure or detect himselfe and them, they are so farre fine fatisfied with our Saviours owne, and this their antwe., as the High-Preift was; that they and their officers will

Cita-

com-

of Ma.

lother

ot one-

deted

es.

Officer,

full au-

bjed,

, or g him

ns and

h fpe-

y take

in all

m;to creale

dition

urped

of his

oper

cy, or

to the

Eccle-

Com-

entby

Cra-

refore

Com-

h leffe

orthly,

Answerest then the High-Preist , Archbishop , Bishops, and High-Commissioners 6? and fend him fortbwithto prilon , es obstinate ad feditious persons, and experience dayly testifieth:

use them, as the High-Preists officers did our Saviour, faying;

so farre worse and unreasonable are our Prelates, and High Commissioners growne, then the Iewish High-Preist, who convented our Saviour; and fuch a capitall offence is it now a dayes reputed, for Christs faithfull Ministers to follow this their Masters example; in so much, that one wittily make this Quare o in a printed Booke , dedicated to Queene Eli7. If Christ himfelfewere now alive on earth, and convented before our High-Preifts and Commissioners, as hee was before the fewes High. Preist, and there as ked by them of his Disciples and Doctrine, and should give them the selfe same answer, as bee did to him; to which of the prisons hee should be committed by them for it. the Kings Bench, the Clinck, the Fleet, Mar hallfey Counter, or Gateboule ? (For to one them hee should surely be sent;) then committing Master Bambridge, Master Johnson, and sundry other Ministers, for giving them the selfe same answere, even in our Saviours words, when they were af ked by them, of their Disciples and Doctrine, and refused to take an oath to accuse themselves, as our Saviour here did.

5. Fifily, That all our Bishops, Archdeacons, and their Deputies, Visitation oathes, are directly unlawfull, against the Lawes, the statutes of the Realme, and Liberties of the Subject, which I would wish, that insolent, audacious Prelate, Dollar Wien, Bishop of Norwich, and his Visitors, to consider; who in his Visitation Articles, printed An. 1 6 3 6. Ch. 6. Sect. 9. hath inferted this extravagant new Article of Inquiry for Churchwardens, to prefent any one upon oath: Hath any man, that you know, or have heard of, by speech or writing, or upon the affertion of any other man affirmed, (whether within or without his Dioceffe it matters not ,) That men ought not to take the office , or the oath of a Churchwarden, or of presenting at the Bishops Visitation Or that the faid oath is unlawfully given them : Or that being taken, it is but of course, and bindes them not, nor need to be regarded: Or that (the faid oath not with standing) it is free for them to make inquiry, nor to answer, but to doe what they list, and to leave out and

paff Thre

adre

prefer ofbi

as th

and j

Gme

the p enfu

ticht

I

any A

then

and ?

nifte

have

make

tutes

miffi

or im

name

not in

tute (

giano

Infeby whom they will, and what they will in their presentments? Threatning at the end of the Articles, That if (their oath and all his advertisement) notwithstanding any Churchwardens or sworne men, shall follow the customary maner, and be carelesse in inquiring and presenting as they ought, or shall not make a distinct answer to every shis Articles (being in all 139.) and to every thing thereof, as farre utbey know, or have heard of any offence; that upon information and proofe otherwise had, they shall be called to answer their will-full perjury, (unjustly occasioned by this willfull Bishop himselfe) in sime other course of justice, for neglecting to inquire or present to all the particulars herein proposed: Though these oathes in these ensuing respects, be altogether unlawfull, yea ungodly and Antichristian.

High.

, who

it now

ow this

ke this

7. If fore our

High.

ine, and

o which bether u

ter, a

t;) they

fundry n in our )isciples

ves, as

d their

inft the

ubject,

Doctor

vho in hath

hat you

rtion

or the

ation

taken,

1: Or

kein-

passe

- r. First, Because they are neither made nor prescribed by any Act of Parliament, but onely by the Bishops and Prelates themselves, without any lawfull authority.
- 2. Secondly, Because, they are out of cases of Matrimony and Testament, wherein onely Ecclesiasticall Judges can administer an oath by the Common and statute Law, and so they have no coulor of Authority or Jurisdiction, to impose and make such oathes, being point blanke against the Lawes, Statutes and Customes of the Land, and forecited Prohibitions.
- 3. Thirdly, Because they have no Letters Patents, nor Commission from his Majesty, under the great Seale, to administer or impose such oathes.
- 4. Fourthly, Because they administer them in their owner names and right (in which the likewise print and publish them,) not in his Majesties, nor by his authority, contrary to the Statute of I. Eliz. c. I. and their oath of supremacy and allegiance.

Fifely, Because the Articles which they force Church. wardens and others to prefent upon, by vertue of these Vista. tion oathes, are utterly unlawfull : contrary to the expresse fig. tures of 25. H. 8. c. 14. 19. 21. 27. H. 8. c. 15. 3. and 4. E. 6. c. 11. 12. 13. Eliz. c. 12. with fundry other statutes, yea contrary their owne Canons, 1603. Can. 1. 2. 12. and King James Letter Patents before them ; being fet forth and publishedin their owne Right and names alone, without the Kings authority, License, and confirmation under his great Seale, and the As.

$4.E.T.C. f fent of the Convocation and + Parliament, without which 18.E.3.c.2 no Articles, Canons or Ecclefiastical Constitutions can be promisc. 15. 2. H. ged, so binde the Commons and Laity, as thefe flatutes with other 5.c. 7 Ead- refolve.

merus Hift.

Nov.1.3. 6. Sixtly, Because these oathes, are directly contraryto p.67.8 10- the oath of Supremacy and allegiance, tending to erect a white Spicil. Ibid. ped Ecclefiafticall Iurifdiction, not derived by Letters Patents p.177. 31. from his Majesty, nor exercised in his name and Right, or by H. 8. c. 14. his Royall authority: and to subject his people thereuntogon-32 H. 8. trary to the Statutes of 29. H. 8, c. 14. 19. 20. 21. 26. H.8. 6. 15.20. 38.35.48 c. 1.27. H. 8. c. 15. 37. H. 8. c. 17. 1. Ed. 6. c. 2. 1. Eliza. 6, 16. 36. to their Powne Comen, 1603. and contrary to their duty and E.3.c.8. 2. allegiance to their Soveraigne. H. S. Stat.

2.0,2. Seavently, Because they are contrary to the Canon Law it felfe, and are but late encroachments. The first that ever gHift. Maj. attempted to administer an oath in Visitations, was 9 Grofibent, 1.693.694 Bishop of Lincolne, An. 1246. before which time Mather Paris recordes, it was never used here in England; and thereupon a Probibition was directed to the Sheriffe of Hert ford, to prohibite all Lay r Summa mento take any such oath , by the King , his firdges and Comfel Angelic. Tit. Visit. 2. See Special direction. Whereuponfuch oathes were never afterwards administred till Bishop Bomers time; the Caponists them-Gratian. felves refolving, that Visitors ought to visit without adminifering cenfa 2. any oath. 94.51. Hence r Angelus de Clavasio, a famous Ca-

nonift

mift,

colves

nire of

ation

ab by 1

they !

William

grand

etermi

Archie

Inquesfitt

EXA xaction

mer:

nade in

RAM

may be a fter fu

RA

hat fuci

unitor

ate.]

truth;

nd Lin

renot

and Ar

runlay

wile a g

Bishop

Oathes

ding the

Inquifi

ab.

will, flourishing about the yeare of our Lord 1480. expresty Church. le Visitatolves, that Bishops and Visitors in their visitations, ought to intelle the most shose things, which belong to their office, without oath, and 4. E. 6. nation; inducing the people to reforme those things that are amisse, yearon, wholy wholsome counsailes, and by gentle personalions, or reproofes, yea conthey shall thinke meet. And our great English Canonist g fames Villiam Lindewood, about the yeare of our Lord, 1424. (though lishedin grand advancer of Episcopall Iurisdiction within this Realme,) authorihermines positively : I That Archiepiscopall, Epscopall, Province. the Af. Archidiaconall visitations (which hee calls solemne preparatorie Const. 1. 1. ut which iquifitions;) are regularly made in generall, ET SINE DeConstitupromid. b others XACTIONE IVRAMENTI, and without the tionibus exraftion of an oath. If this be not fufficient , hee addes more-tus, Sett. Inner: * That from the beginning, when a generall Inquisition is quivant. nade in visitations, NON DEBET EXIGI IV- f. 13.4. RAMENTVM, no oath ought to be exacted, by which any one tDelurejur. Patents any be constrained to detect another mans secret sinne and offence; yet 12.c. Ev or by ther such time, (CRIMINASINE IV-

OCON- RAMENTO RETINENTUR,)

traryto

a ufur-

74.1.

ty and

Law

t ever

bead,

Pari

Pro

Lar

mefets

after-

hem-

ering

Caflino

H. 8. hat fuch crimes are presented without oath, to be corrected, the Inuntor may then exact an oath, (ad præstandum de veriate Testimonium, of witnesses to give restimonie to the outh; but not of Churchwardens, or Sidemen, to present any upon ub. Which joynt resolution both of Angelus De Clavasic, nd Lindewoode, not very many yeares before Bonners visitation, renot onely an unanswerable evidence, that visitation oathes, nd Articles of Inquire and presentments upon oath, are directunlawfull, as well by the Canon, as the Common Law; but likerilea grant Argument to manifest, that the Popish Hellhound, Bilhop " Bonner , was the first that used , or imposed any such u Fox ARIs Oubes and Articles, thele Canonifts not long before conclu- Monum. ing them unlawfull in point of Law, and unufuall in point of ?. 1338. matile, as the first words of Lindewood, (folemne preparatorie

Inquisitions, are regularly made in generall, and without the exaction of an oath) infinuate. In all the x Articles of Inquiry and Inx See Fox junctions , published by King Henry the eight, King Edward the 6. Acts and Monuments or Queene Elizabeth, and given in charge by their Visitors in their generall visitations, I finde no forme, nor mention of any oath, ad. p. 999. 1000. ministred to Churchwardens, or any other, as there is in all Arch. TOOI. bishops, Bishops, and Archdeacons Articles of inquiry, late. 1181. ly printed : therefore questionlesse they administred no oath 1182. Queen Eliz. though they visited by Commission from the King himselfe. Injunctions, How then dare they now to enjoyne and make fuch Visitation with Articles oathes as they doe, when as the Kings owne immediate Vilitor red of in the did it not? In all the y Licenses and Letters Patents made to first yeare of Archbishops , Bishops , and others by King Henry the 8. or Kim ber raigne, Edward the 6. authorizing them to keepe Consistories and Visita. printed Cum tions, and Inquiry of all Ecclesiasticall offences, there is no word or An. 1559 intimation that they should doe it upon oath, nor any Commission y 36. H. 8. given them to make, or administer oathes to any. Therefore no doubt their vifitation Inquiries were without pars 13. the oath, else they would have had some clause or other in their Patent to Robert, Patents to inquire upon oath. In the & Articles of Cardinal Archbi [hop Poole, in Queene Maries dayes, for his Archiepiscopall Visitation, of Yorke. there is no mention of any oath to be administred to Churchwarden. f. Edw 6. Questmen or Sidemen. In the Canons made in Convocation, and prinpars I, the tedistr. there is not one word of an oath, nor any form of oath, Patents to Ponet, Scory, prescribed for Churchwardens, or any others to take, or Bishops and Cover- to administer: Yea in the Booke of Canons, made in Converdale, with tion, An. 1603. there is no forme of oath prescribed, inferred, others. Fox Ads of nor constituted for Churchwardens, Questmen, or Sidemen Monum. p. to take before their prefentments; and the 113. and 114. Canons ordaine, that Ministers may present offences without was, a Fox Action, why not Churchwardens then as well as they? The a full Monuments man I reade of, who administred an oath of Inquirie in any Visus p. 1338. tion kept in England, was that bloody butcher of Gods Saints, and Antichristian bandogge, Edmond Bonner; Bishop of London; who Antichristian bandogge', Edmond Bonner; Bishop of London; who upon the eight day of September An. Dom. 115 4 4. upon the comming in of Diseene Mary, began his Engloped Visitation, and therein

there

eatle

then

being

offen

of 37

Engl

An

in his

appe

admi

a fit

feco

Met

Arti

Arch

· 1

Artic

of in (tho

WCTC

oat

of th

cufto

oath

the I

they

cing

they

upon

to da fons !

nicat

herein charged 6. men in every parifh, to inquire, according to their which hee had purpolely framed and administred to them.) and to prefent before him , the day after Sant Matthewes being the 23. of September, all such persons, as either had or should offend in any of his Articles, which hee had fet forth to the number of 37. (the first Articles, that ever any Bishop durst fet forth in England, b except 5. Articles , published at Paulus Croffe by Archbishop Bourgehiers commaund, An. 1455. to be inquired of Eccles Brit. whis Archiepiscopall visitation, but not upon oath, for ought 1.334. appeares.) Never did any English Bishop, that I read of, 335. administer any oath of inquiry before this bloodluckerBonner; afit Author for fuch an Antichristian Romish innovation; not seconded (for ought I finde,) till Archbishop Bancroft his Metropoliticall vilitation, who Anno 1604. published visitation Articles in print, to be inquired of upon oath; whose footsteps our Archbishops and Bishops since have followed, yea and * Archdeacons too, who now both make and print oathes and * See this Articles usually in their owne names, to be taken and inquired Oath before of in their vilitations every yeare without feare or shame, Dr. Pashes (though they mourre thereby & a Pramunire,) as if each of them Articles, 4 werea King and Parliament, to make and prescribe what very large, oatlies and Lawes they pleased, in contempt and Derogation first and of the Kings Crowne and Dignity, and of the Lawes, the strange one. customes of the Realme, which prescribe or warrant no such 425.H. 8. outhes or Articles; as the Prohibition formerly mentioned, and I. E. 6, c. 2, the Petition of Right expressely resolve.

and Ind the 6.

in their

ath, ad. Il Arch

, late-

no oath,

imfelfe.

ifitation

Vifitor

made to or King

Vifita-

word or mmi∏ion

without

in their

ardinal isitation.

wardens,

and prinof oath,

Bithops onveca

nferted,

idemen

14. C4-

et bath;

a first

Vifus

us, and on of who

be vin

n . and

therea

3.and 4. E. 6. c. II.

Eightly, These visitation oathes are unlawfull, because they make a direct Alteration of the Common Law, in enforcing an oath on the Subjects in fuch cases, where the Law saith, they ought not to take an oath, and fo bring in a bondage both, upon their Consciences and persons, binding their soules over to damnation by reason of the sinne of perjury, and their perfonsto infamie, Ecclesiasticall Centures, mulcts, excommunications, and by consequence, to imprisonment upon a Ca-

рын

pias Excommunicatum, contrary to the expresse Status e 11 H. 4. Magna Charta, c. 29. That no man shall be taken, impriface and an Pramunire, or any way outlawed, or destoyed, but by the Lawfull Juagement thet bi 14 25. H. of his Peeres, andly the Law, (that is, the Common and State ealme 8.c.14.19 Law) of the Land : Now e neither the King him feife , more before 21.27. H. Pope, nor the Archbishops, Bishops and Clergy in Com ocasum. oratio 8 c 15. 35. nor yet the King and they together, (much lefte then every Arch o fubro 20. H. 3. bishop, Bishop, or Archdeacon in their severall visitations le Do c.9.3. 54. can alter the Common Law, or deprive the people, either of the L realme Ed.6. c. 11. berty of their Consciences or persons, or make that an offence of a Confcie 6. H 7.0.4 high nature, which by the Law before was none : (All or either 10.H.7. of which a f Parliament onely is able to doe, by a generall man mpag 23.4. f 20. H. 3. mous confent both of the King and Realme,) Therefore they or c. 9, 25. H. neither make nor impose any oath in their violations, this ben 8.c. 14.21 the true ground, why & a Probibition lies at Common Law, The Petition inhibit all fuch oathes. of Right, Church 3. Caroli.

Winthly, Because fuch oathes are directly contrary g Register, part 2.f 36. the ancient Rights and hereditary liberties of the Subject, si b. Fitz. Nat. resolved in the Petition of Right that all oather are, which are Bre.f. 41.4. warranted by the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme ; (which Raftall A-Rights and Liberties every good & Subject is bound in Confeience bridgment of Statutes, to maintaine against all unjust encroachments,) and becan Probibit. 5 they tend to the erection and supportation of an Antichnifia gGal.4.3 1. Episcopall tyranny over the very consciences and soules of ma and c. 5 . I. not warranted, but directly oppugned, both by the Lawso I. Kings, God, and the Realme, and to bringing in of fuch a meere ati 21.2.3. * See Rode- trary Hierarchicall domineering power, as will make * eter ricke Mors Bishop an absolute Pope, and as much, as a King and Parliament bis complaint to enach, what Articles hee will; and doe what hee lift of h to the Parowne head, without confent, either of King and Parliament liament. ch,23.24. For these oathes are onely for the maintenance and executing of those Articles, which the Bishops and their officers set of and print in their owne names, by their owne bare authority contrary to the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme, the Kin

Supr

ingero

10.

mil

fed:

nathes

on, wh

ad tra

hem in confcio

or Chr

Popifh

Romif

de, or

can, Of

ticles a

confcie

brethr

them i

110. F

12. P

Status; Spremacy and Subjects Liberties; deviled of purpose to indiagrams and captivate both Churchwardens, Sidemen, and all the his Majesties Subjects under them; to bring the whole that Status there his Majesties Subjects under them; to bring the whole talme into a meere servitude and vasallage, to every Bishops teasure; to bring in what Ceremonies, Religion, Rites, or Invocation ovations soever they list without opposition, and enforce all submit unto them, though directly contrary to Gods word, is propositions to be proceed as the season of the se

10. Tenthly, Because these oathes are directly against the Law, to my i Rules of charity and law of Ged; especially as they are now therefore the Articles, which are now adayes exhibited to 4.5.6.7.

Churchwardens and Sidemen to prefent on, by vertue of their Epper 4.31 thes, without any favour, affection, or partiality to any per-32.c.5.1.2 in, what soever that is within their dangers, are meere k shares 15. Rom. 1.

In the set rappes, to intangle all good Ministers and people; and bring 29.30.31.

(who is the into trouble in the Bishops Consistories, even for their Phil. 4.8.

I the set of their phil. 4.8.

I the set of their set of t ed: For the Articles, which are now adayes exhibited to 11. Cor. 13. can, or dares take an oath, to present (upon face) where the same tides as now are usually published, his owne faithfull, painefull, 2. Tim 3. 1.

onseionable Minister, his godly Christian Neighbours, kindred, 2.3. 4.5.

brethren, freinds, that are most neerely lincked to him, to draw 13.14.15.

them into trouble, either to the loss of liberty, living, goods, r. Pet 4.8.

k Pfal 119 thoring 110. Pfal. 140. 5. and 141. 9. and 142. 3. and 38.12. and 64.5.ler. 5 16. c. 18.

12. Pf. 10. 9. Hab. 1. c. 15. Mar. 12.13. Luke. 11.54.

Supr

(yea all of them oft times,) and that onely for their well doing at least for that, which is not apparently evill? Is this Christiani. ty? Is this charity? Is this Religion? or rather the very fullfilling of our Saviours prædiction , Math. 10. 17. 21. beware of men, for they will deliver you up to the Councels , and they will scourge you in their Synagogues : and the Brother Shall deliver up the brother, and the Father the childe, and the children shall rife 1 Luke 21. up against their parents : 1 And ye Shall be betrayed both by parents and Breehren, and kinsfolke and freinds? Certainely the Godly Martyrs of old would never have taken fuch an oath, nor presented on such Inquisition Articles as these : For as they gem Fox Alls nerally m refused and declaimed against the oath and proceedings, and Monum. Ex othicio, to accuse and detect themselves, administred to them, by P.951.956 tyrannicall and bloodthirfty Popifi Prelates, as Antichriftian and 957. 960. illegall; fo they utterly denied to accuse, detect, present, or inand other places fore- forme against any of their Christian Brethren and Ministers unto the Bishops and their officers, as a worke more proper for the Devill, (the accuser of the Brethren, Rev. 12. 10.) then themfelves, whose office they would not usurpe. Hence our wor-* Fox Alls thy Martyr, * William Thorpe , being examined before Thomas & Monum. Arundell, Archbishop of Canterbury, An. 1407. refused, first of 1.487.488 all to sweare by , or on a Booke , or to take an oath, before hee was in-496. to the formed what it was , hee should sweare to. And the Archbishop requiring him to sweare in all Diocesse where he came, to forfake and oppose the Sect of the Lollards, and to publish them and their names , and make them knowne to the Bishop of the Dioces , or his Ministers, (the very oath in effect, that Churchwardens now take,) hee hearing these words thought in himselfe, that this was an unlawfull asking, and deemed himselfe cursed of God, if hee con-

Sented hereto; and then spake thus to the Archbishop: Sir, if I comsented to you thue, as yee have here before rehearsed to me, I should become an appealer, or every Bishops espie, sem over all England.

For , and I should thus put up , and publish the names of men and women , I should berem deceive full many persons; yea Sir , as it is likely by the doome of my conscience, I should herein be the cause of the i

man

hou

fore

deal

with

rath

lam

for t

other

noyou

pose .

them

truft

doe t

WOHL

forfa

of Ic

cheif

Iwe

for m

God

being

fime

my c

my b

our f

to de

bee ke

thoug

Grego

me of

See 495. purpose.

16.

quoted.

the death both of men and women, yea both bodily and phofily. For many men and women , that stand now in the way of Salvation , if I hould for the learning & reading of their beleife, publish them therefire up to the Bishops, or to their unpiteous Ministers, I know some deale by experience, that they should be so distroubled, and diseased with persecution, or wherwise, that many of them (I thinke) would nather chuse to for sake the way of trush, then to be travailed, scorned, Sandered, or punished, as Bishops and their Ministers now use, for to constraine men and women , to consent to them. But I finde in * no place of holy Scripture, that the office that yee would now mfoffe me with, accordeth to any Preist of Christs Sect, nor to any Let other Christian man: and therefore to doe this, were to me a full Courcewarnoyous bond, to be bonden with and over-greivous charge. For I sup men, who pose, that if I thus did, many men and women would, yea Sir, might take an oath justly to my confusion say to me, that I were a Traytor to God and to to present them. : since (as I thinke in mine heart,) many men and women their godly trust so mikle in my cause, that I would not for saving of my life, Christian doe thus to them. For if I thus should doe, full many men and women Breibren would (as they might full truly) say , that I had falfely , and cowarly upon Bis bope for faken the truth , and flaundered shamefully the word of God. For illegall Visiif I consented to you to doe here, after your will, for boncheife, or mif- tation Archeift , that may befall me in this life, I deeme in my conscience , that der this well. I were worthy herefore to be curfed of God, and also of all his Saints: for which inconvenience, keep me and all Christian people, almighty God, now and ever for his holy name. So * John Lithall, An. 1558. * Fox Alls being questioned before the Chauncellor both concerning himselfe, and & Monum. some others, that hee knew; answered, If you have any thing to lay to p. 1872. my charge I will answer it; but I will have no other mans blood upon my head: refuting to accuse or detect any other. Hence also our famous Martyr n John Lambert, being pressed upon his oath, & Monum. to detelt his fellowes , that adhered and referred to him, denied that 2.1023. becknew any fuch ad : ents in the matters objected to him. : But 1024. though I did, (faith hee) I would not, (except I knew that charity of ox Attio forequired, which I doe not finde yet hitherto) detect, or betray any Monuments the of them., for no mans pleasures So o John Warbecke, Mar-1109. Gg 3

oing,

fiani-

y full-

d they

leliver

all rife

by p4-

ly the

h, nor edings, m , by en and

or in-

s unto

or the them-

wor-

homas

first of pas inbishop

for Cake

their

or his

s now

ee con-

I con-Should

gland.

en and

as nu refe of the

But

Churchwar-

tyr being both by threats and allurements of times urged to detect his other Christian Companions and they Secrets to the Bishop of Winchefter, absolutely refused to discover or accuse any of them, though hee might thereby have procured his liberty and faved his life, in fomuch , that Winchester faid thus to his men , when hee came from Masse: Tvis is a marvelous Sect, for the Devill cannot make one ha

H

acc

or a

wa

Self

m

D

D

bea

ma

Gra

ally

ma

fait

con

187 pFox Atts & Monuments p. 1646. 1651.

1660.

of them to betray another. So , Master Philpots fellow pri soners , refused to sweare or give any testimony at all against him, neither would they accuse themselves upon Articles Ex officio, tendred them to answere to upon oath : Neither would Master Philpot himselfe discover his freind, that wrote a Letter to him, which came to the Bishops hands , though hee were urged to doe it, telling the Bishops, that they should never know of him who wrote

p.1843. 1844. 1845.

it; neither would be answere upon oath; to the articles Ex officio gFox AEIs & administred to him, to entraphim. So q Cuthbert Simpson, Monuments Martyr, Deacon of the Christian Congregation in London, though tortured and racked in the Tower, in a most cruell barbarous maner, would not discover any of those that came to the English Service : And being after articled against, for being at affemblies and conventicles, where a multitude gathered together, to heare the English Service, and receave the Sacraments, and to discover, whether hee did not read service there, & approove those things. Hee answered to this, that hee was not bound to answer to this article as hee beleived. If these Martyrs seeme factious and l'uritannicall to our Prelates, I shall defire them to remember, that Master Hutchinson in his booke, intituled The Image of God, printed Cum privilegio, 1552. f. 40. recordes out of other Histories, That one Firmius, Bishop of Tagusta, when the Emperor sent his Officers, to fearch after a certaine Christian man, whom hee had hidden; bee being inquired for him, faid, bee would not deny, but that bee had hidden him, because of lying; but that hee would never betray him; for which answer hee was greivously pained and to tured : but no paine could cause him to disclose where the man was. Whereupon the Emperor marveiling at his stedfastnes and sidelity, delivered him : whose fact hee highly magnified, Moreover this hath 239 bath beene not onely the confrant practile, but likewise the Doctrine of our Martyrs, that one Christian ought not to accuse, detect or betray another unleffe it be for some notorious Error, crime, Herefie, vice , or capitall offence , which is T Master Tindals expresse Doctrine, and f Master John Fox his affertion too, in sun- Worker. dry places of his Acts and Monuments ; yea the & Canonifts f. 172.b. themselves affirme upon record, that no man ought to be compelled to 179.b. accuse another, nor yet to take any oath, to that end or any other, un-SPige, 481. lesse it be for the publike good in lawfull causes, the advancement 482. 539. of Gods glory, his owne, or his neighbours benefit, and that all oathes 951. 956. tending to the prajudice or corporall hurt of himfelfe or his neighbour, 1006. or against any positive, or publike lawes, are unlawfull, and no 1022, wayes binding, yea utterly to be refused. And Pope Cornelius him- 1023. selfeconfesset, Nos Sacramentum ab Episcopis nesci-1108. mus oblatum, NEC VNQVAM FIERI 1125. DEBET, NISI PRO RECTA FL. 1164. & Sacramenta incauta fieri prohibemus, 751. 753. Wee never knew any oath administred by Bishops, neither ought it to 754.10764 be administred, but onely for the right faith, in point of purgation, 1224.335 when one is publikely accused, or Haresie; and wee prohibit incon- 1382. fiderate oathes (as all vilitation and Ex officio oathes are) to be 1643. made or administred : Which Decree of his, (inferted " by 1651. Gratian, into the body of the Canon Law,) utterly subverts 1660. all visitation oathes, which antecede all accusations, and are not 1777. made or given in cases of purgation, concerning the orthodox 1778. These visitation oathes, therefore being thus directly 1792. contrary to the positive Lawes and Statutes of the Realme, the 1813. publike good of Religion; the Rules of Christian charity, and 1814. purposely to ensnare men in the Bishops traps, for the advaun- 1815. 1843.

Win-

bough

in 6-

From

e one

pri

I'ML,

after

bim,

oe it,

rote

Ficio

ofon,

ough

70H6

glifh

cm-

eare

ver,

Hee le as lto

Aer

ted

es,

bad

hut

rer

H-

ds.

1872. 1873. 1934. t Gratian. Cauf. 16. Quest. 5. c. Non frustra. Cauf. 22. Quest. 4. Summa Angel. Accusation. 4. Iuramentum 3. Sect. 7. & 5. Sect. 7. 23-

cing of their owne uturped Antichriftian Turifdiction, and of fud iriciali cl 240 ill beginning and dangerous consequence, no good Christian, or ous for n Subject, can or ought to take them, but utterly to withfland iance, as and refuse them as illegall, in all these respects, as they were adhe Fathe judged in Master Whartons case, by Sir Edward Cooke, and all ome of o the Judges of the Kings Bench, in the third yeare of King James who Oabes, being Churchwarden of Blackefriers Church in London, and excommiment in the fine municated, and imprisoned upon a capias excommunicatum, for refuling to take an oath, to present upon visitation articles, was upon IN Sener a Habeas Corpus brought by him, discharged by the whole Court, words : both from his imprisonment and excommunication: because the oath the Gre and articles were against the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme, in take a and so might and ought to be refused: Which oath now cominthese monly runnes in this forme : * You shall sweare that you and admor every of you, shall duly consider, and diligently inquire of all and elexer x See Bif bop every of these articles given you in charge : and that all affection, fa-VER Laudes , vour, hatred, hope of reward and gaine, or feare of difpleasure or MVS Bp. Moun-Bp. Wrens, malice set a side , you shall present all and every such person, that PER now is , or of late was within your Parish, or hath committed any and Bi offence, or made any default, mentioned in or any of these articles, and other Bis hops & or which are * vehemently suspected, or defamed of any such offence ame r Archdeacons or default, wherein you shall deale uprightly and fully, neither prebulda vifitation *Thu clause senting nor sparing to present any , contrary to truth, having in this rare c Action . God before your eyes, with an earnest Seale to maintain fint f their outher, truth and to suppresse vice. So helpe you God and the holy contents tras not in till now of of this Booke. late. Finally, These visitation oathes, ought utterly to be * Had they abandoned, because they are an ordinary occasion of very much God before mer take fuch perjury; there being scarce one man that takes them, that either an Oath, as can or doth fincerely and fullydi charge them, the Articles and Custome so the Prelates will, and enfinare their godly brethren with their owne Soule; and Consciences.

[everal]

dina IVE

LO

H

Tho

Bifh thefe

> into prot

are t

offud Geral claufes of them , being so various for matter , so nametian, or rus for multitude; fo opposite to Law, and the Oath of Alleithfland since, as appeares by Bishop Wrens late Articles. As therefore ere adme Fathers and others upon Matthew and fames the 5. With ome of our owne y Martyrs generally condemne all Booke yFox ABIES andall Outes, with the enforcing of men to sweare, unlesse in cases of great Monuments mes:who excom. mount and absolute necessity; to avoyd the danger of perjury, both P.495.460 um , for nthe swearers, compellers , and officers that grue the Oath, as 7 Six- 461. w Senenfis , bath largely manifested out of the Fathers owne Sanctie. 1. 6. pas upon words : And as the fecond Synod of Cabilonium, under Charles Annos. 26. Court, the oath the Great, An. 813, C. 13. 14. 18. inhibits men to be conftrained 7. 433. Realme, nuke an oath in causes of Tithes, by reason of the danger of perjury, 434. 435. v cominthese ensuing words: Qui vero decimas post crebras almonitiones & prædicationes facerdotum dare neall and elexerint, excommunicentur; IVRAMENTO VERO EOS CONSTRINGI NOLV-MVS PROPTER PERICULVM PERIVRII : and likewise prohibits Ministers to take, and Bishops to give any oath of Canonicall obedience for the sme reason , in these termes : Dictum est interea de quibuldam fratribus, quod eos, quos ordinaturi funt, juare cogant quod digni fint, & contra Canones non int facturi, & obedientes fint Episcopis, qui eos ordinat , & Ecclesiæ in qua ordinantur , QUOD WRAMENTVM. QUIA PERICV-LOSVM EST, OMNES UNA HIBENDVM STATVIMVS. Though both these oathes tend to the advauncement of the Bishops Iurisdiction and profit. So by the selfesame reason, these visitation oathes must needs be concluded to be unlawfull, intollerable, (and those Exofficiotoo, in which men are over prone, rather to perjure then betray themselves,) because they are the occasion, not onely of much, rash, and inconsiderate fivea-

ou and

ion, fa-

afure or n, that

ted any

erticles,

offence

er pre-

in this ntaine ntents

tobe

much

either

s and

es and

rerall

242

3.

fwearing, but of much perjury likewife, a which makes the what a Hofea 42. Land to mourne, and precipitates many into hell, who might have lawfully and with much comfort have refused them, as contrary both to the Lawes of God and man.

> To mention all the particular encroachments of the Prelates upon the Subjects Liberties, besides those here forecited, were an endles worke; requiring rather many folio volume to comprise them , then a breife Epitome , unable to containe them, wherefore pretermitting them till fome fitter occasion, I shall close up this Breviate, with a fummary relation of those penalties, which our Prelates and their Officers have incurred by them, not so much in respect of the particular persons, they have injured and oppressed; who may right themselves by Probibitions, Actions of the cafe, Falle imprisonments, and Indir ments, according to their feverall cases, even at the Common-Law; as in regard of his Majesty, whom they have most injured and affronted, who may justly proceed against them for these their exorbitances and encroachments, either by Indictements in the Kings Bench, or by Informations in the Starchamber, or by Attachmen's of their bodies, and feisure of their temporalties, ot elle by a Pramunire, the most proper remedy, as the ensuing Prefib Seelikewife dents and Law cafes will demonstrate. In b Raftuls Abridge ment of statutes, Title Provision and Pramunire, wee may lee, c. 15.3. 54 as in a Mapp , how all those who shall purchase Provisions or Bull from Rome, or derive any Ecclesiasticall er temporall Authority 1. Eliz.c. 1. thence, or shall exercise any Ecclesiasticall furifaction or Author 27 Eliz c. 2 rity by his owne inherent, or usurped power, or by any forraigned 23 Eliz.c. I domestique Ecclesiasticall authority, not derived from the King, by Letters Patents, or sue any man for temporall things, determinable Brooke. Tit. in the Kings temporall Courts, before any ordinary or spiritually udge, or attempt any thing meerely against the Kings Crowne, and regality used and approoved in the time of his progenitors, shall or ought by Law , to incurre a Premunire , for all and every of these milde-&Fitz.& Pramunire.

22.H.8.

E.6.c.11.

meanors, as the feverall Acts there cited, proove at large. W hich Whi SATE.

it is a

Cour

Pra If an

H INT then a

abford

dent

acco

which

exect

may

bim

€.3. Pra

which

Coll

tions

and

tation by th

lo ne

1; 45

wara

priv vifiti

were

the K

Arch

fiting

terb

Br.

rend

Which our Law Bookes thus fecond: Ing. Ed. 4. 6. Fit?. Prathe whole ight have s contra. he Prerecited. volume containe

ccafion,

of those

ncurred

s, they

y Pro-

Indite

mmon-

injured

or these

ments in

or by

or elle

Prefi-

bridge

ay fee,

r Bulls

thority

Author

igne or

ing, by

inable

Fudge,

gality

ghth

nilde-

large.

7 hich

munire 5. and Br. 12. Cromptons furifdiction of Courts, f. 97. a. itis agreed, that if a man be fued and excommunicated in the Bishops Court, for a thing which appertaines to the Common Law, that a Pramunire lieth : for the words of the Statute of Pramunire are, If any fue in the Court of Rome, or ELSEWHERE, which wimended in the Bishops Court ; and fo faith Fitzberbert , it was then adjudged, as alfo Pafche, II. H. 7. which himfelfe heard and oferved. So Sant Germin, in his Booke called Doctor and Student, 1. 2. c. 24. 32. f. 106. 119. and Br. Pramunire, 16. accord; That if any man fue for a Lay thing in the spiritual Court, which belongs not to Ecclesiasticall furisdiction; as for debt against executors on a simple case, especially if hee be excommunicated, may sue a Tramunire facias, as well against the party that sued bin , as against the fudge , and hee ought to be affoyled gratis , 21. E. 3. 60. a. Cromptons Jurisdiction of Courts, f. 97. a. and Br. Pramunire 21. If a Bishop visits or intermedle with a donative, which is a Lay thing, (as the Archbishop would now visit the Colledges of Cambridge, all of them Lay things and corporations, many of them of the Kings ancesters Royall foundation, and † so exempt from Archiepiscopall, as well as Episcopall visitatation, and the refidue having their peculiar Visitors, appointed * Register, by their Founders, by the Kings ancestors speciall license, and bCookes Info not to be visited by any other ,) hee incurres a Pramunire by flit f. 344. it; as did Barlo, Bishop of Bath, and Welles in the time of King Ed- a.25. H. 8. wardthe 6. for visiting the Deane and Chapter of Welles, and de-c.21.

priving the Deane; and William Bateman, Bishop of Norwich, for visiting the Abathie of Sant Edmonds Bury, * for which temporalties * loannes were feifed into the Kings hands , and bee fined 30. talents of gold to Anglicus the King amounting to no leffe then three thou fand poundes : And the Hift Avice. Archbishop of Canterbury questionlesse hath done now by vi . 6.49. Cafiting fundry Donatives and Peculiars, as Archbishop of Can-tal. Cauncellarior. Sc. terbury onely , not as the Kings Visitor , Anno 44. Edw. 3. 36. in Academia

Br. Pramunire, S. If a Vicar leave his Vicaridge, for yeares or life Cant. Aula rendring rent, and sue in the Ecclesiasticall Court for the rent, a Trinitat. Hb 2 Pra-

144 Pramunire lyeth, because the rent reserved is a Lay thing : So 10. H. 7. 9. Fit?. Imprisonment, 28, The Bishop of Dierham. punished his Clerkes in a Pramunire, for suffering a man, to sue in bie forstuall Court for temporall causes. In 7. H. 8. Keilway , 182 184. Doctor Standish was cited and convented before the Convo. cation for affirming, that the exemption of Clergy men from temc See 25. H. porall furifdiction was not De Iure Divino; c that positive Ecch. 8.c. 14.22. fiafticall Lawes and Conflitutions bound none but thoje, who volum. E.4.c.5.36 tarily received them : that the Studie of the * Canon Law was to E.3.c.8. ac- be rejected, because it controlles Divinity it selfe, whose hand-maid That Laymen might without sinne punish any Clergy men, * Note this. by reason of the negligence of the Prelates; and that so litle of the volume of the Decrees did bind Christians, and no more then one might hold in his fist , upon this Citation , all the Judges of England , the Kings Councell; spirituall and temporall, and divers of the Parlie liament mee together at. Black friers: where after full debate of the cause on both sides, they all joyntly and fully resolved, that all those of the Convocation, who had their handes in a warding the faid Cita. tion against Doctor Standish, for maintaining the Kings temporall Inrisdiction, wherein the case of a Pramunire facius: Anno dHallsChro. 1514. Richard d Hunne, a Marchant-Tayler in London, by f. 50. Keilthe advise of his learned Councell at Law, pursued a Pramunire facias against Thomas Driftild, Clerke, person of Sant Mary Fox ARI & Matsilon, for suing him in the spiritual Court, for his childs Monuments Bearing-sheet as due unto him for a Mortuaris, and likewife P.737.738 against all his ayders, proctors, councellors and abbetters; which when the rest of the Preistly order heard of, they greatly disdaining, that a Lay-man should enterprize such a matter against any of them: and fearing also, that if they now should suffer this Preist to be condemned at the fuit of Hunne, there would be thereby ever

f. 182.4.

cordingly.

after a Liberty opened to all others; and that this might proove a fatall blow unto them; to prevent this eminent danger, they malsrigh ciously accuse this Hume, unto Richard Fitz fames, Bishop of Londer don, who to satisfie the revengefull bloody affection of his Chaplaines fiaft convented him to the Lollards Tower at Paules, where by Doctor OWI

Horfi

CHECH

farie large

Wood

of the

Furi(

the 1

King

ando Chan

whole

nerall

all ot

for co

Lora

before an ba

than/

of all

the w prom

bead

fore.

dred

pardi

8.c.

Juri

nfur

Horfies

245

Harlies the Bishops Chamcellours, and other his adverfaces pracurements, bee was cruelly murthered and frangled to death, the leries carriages and proofes of which barbarous mursher are at love recorded by Mafter Fox. 1 Anno 21. H. & Cardinall Woolfey, in theruffe of his pride and power, was upon the complaint eHalls Chro. of the Lords attainted in a Premunire, for exercifing Ecclefiasticall f. 184.190 furifdiction by a power Legantyne, not by a power derived from Alls and the King ! and for causing the Cardinalls Hat to be put on the Monuments Kings come : whereby bee for faited all his lands; tenements, goods, p. 959. and chattels to the King, and mas thrust out of his office of Lord Chaunsellour, and out of Court and favour to his ruine. And the whole Clergy, with all the Prelates, spirituall Judges, Vicars gewerall, Channeellowrs, Commissaries, Officialls, Rurall Deanes, and all other their Mmisters, who ever supported and maintained his power Legantine , were likewiseevery one of them in a Pramunire, for confenting and submitting thereunto; whereupon the spirituall Lords were called into the Kings Bench, to answer thereunto : but before their day of appearance, they in their Convocation concluded an humble submission in writing, and offered the King an hundred thousand pounds to be their good Lord, and also to give them a pardon of all offences , touching the Pramunire by All of Parliament; the which offer with much labour was accepted, and their pardon. promised : In this submission the Clergy called the King supreme head of the Church of England; which thing they never confessed be-Upon this their Submission, and the grant of an * hun- * Master dred thou fand poundes to the King , to purchase their pardon, their Fox faith pardon was granted them in Parliament, as the statute of 22. H. 118840.p.

SO TO

whanL,

ne in bia

7 , 182

Convo-

m tem-

Eccle-

volun

was to d-maid

men.

the vo-

e might

nd, the

Parlia

of the

Il those

Cita-

porall

Anno

L, 67

mire

Wary

childs

ewife

which

ning,

my of reist

ever

ve a

mali

Low

aines

Etor

rfies

Our Prelates and Officials now exercise an Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction, if not by a power Legantine, yet at least by a usurped authority of their owne, in their owne names and rights, without any Patent or Commission from the King under the great Seale, and they stamp and coyne the Kings Ecclesiasticall proces, (as much his by Law as his coyne,) with their owne names and Seales too, having commonly a Bishops Miter

Hh 3

in-

in or over them (a greater offence then the Cardinals flamping onely his Cardinals cap on the Kings coyne,) and all the Clergy of England have submitted to this their power, proces, proces, dings, and many Laymen too! Why then all our Prelates and their Officers should not now be attainted in a Pramunity. for these their intollerable insolencyes, and proceedings, tothe loffe of their Bithoprickes, lands, goods, chatles, liberties ?and why all those Clergymen and others, who have willingly submitted to , and maintained this their usurped Iurisdiction and Proceedings without refiftance, should not likewise redeeme their exemption from a Pramunire, at treeble the rate that thefe Clergymen did, (their livings being treeble theirs in value?) I fee no cause in Law, Iustice, or Conscience, Hill. 25. H. 8. Coram Rege, Rot. 15. Richard Nyx, the blinde Bishop of Norwich, was attainded in a Promunire, and judgement given against him. that hee should be out of the Kings protection, and his tenements, goods , and chatles , for frited to the King , and his body taken and imprisoned, during the Kings pleasure, for citing Richard Cokerall, Major of Therford, and Robert Fykes, and William Hues of the Same Towne , to appeare before him in his Confistory , to answer to Some Articles , concerning the meere Salvation , & Reformation of their Soules; and enjoyning them under paine of Excommunication, to call before them a fury, which had presented before them a Custome of the faid Towne; That the Tenants of the King, and of the Duke of Lancaster inhabiting within the same; by an ancient custome time out of minde , should not be drawen into any Court Christian, for any spirituall cause, but onely for the Deane of Thetford; and that if any person should prosecute any of them, or serve them with any Citation out of any other fpirituall Court, hee should for faire 6.f. 8. d. for the same, and to cause them to revoke, and disanull this pre-Centement in open Court , to the manifest contempt of the King and his Lawes, and the derogation of the farifdiction, and prerogative of his Royall Crowne, in intermedling both with persons exempt, and for things done legally before them in a temporall Court. This Bishop was likewise fined for this his contempt, and the Glasse windowes rindone

Cancella

uftifieth

H. S. 7

bued &

Bangor:

ad Lila

the Two

ale, as the eight

34. yea Chapla

anto R

day of mere fe

lever 4

ofthe

pedit

the min

bravi

Conn'

belong

dignit

to any tried,

(ncb - cuted

the P

nons,

times

mthi

Roya

fore

amping undowes of Kings Colledge Chapple in Cambridge of as Catalogue Clergy Concellariorum, Oc. in Academia Canescarienfi, Collegium Regis uflifieth) glafed with this his fine. Not long after this Trm. 36. Proces. H.S. Rot. 9. William Whorewood, the Kings Atturney, ex-Prelates munit. bued a Bill of Pramunire, against Arthur Bulkley, Bishop of langor, and John Lowes, alias Vaugham, Vicar of Llan-Geyn-wyn, s, to the ad Llandgaffe, who were both attamted in the same Prammire, and the Judgement given against them, as against Bishop Wix. The ale, as it appeares by the record it felfe, was this; King Henry the eight, being Patron of the Parish Church of Llan-Geynwyn, ad Llandgaffe in the County of Anglice, the 10. day of July, in the 14. yeare of bis raigne, presented one falm Gwynorb Clerke, being his Chaplaine, thereumo; who after his institution and induction fold mto Reeswyn, Peter Could and others of the faid Parish, the 22. lay of fully in the foresaid yeare, divers parcels of Tithes after they were several from the minth part for 21. p. to be payed upon their feverall bands at a certaine day : and atheir, (for sunne the words of the faid Bill of Pramunite.) all Plees of Debt; Quare impedit, and of Trefaffe for taking away of Tithes severall, from the ninth part, Quare non admissit; Quare imcumand of Right of the Advontions of Churches , and the Cour ans of all such plees happening within the Realme of England, belong to our Soveraigne Lord the King , his Imperial Growne and dignity, and not to the Roman, or any other Court Christians, or to any Prelate or Ecclefiafticall perfor, and ought to be examined, med, and judged in the Court of our Lord the King, and not in any Court Christian by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme , albeit Such Actions have beene often and unjustly imporrayted and profecuted in the Courts Christians , within this Realme of England , by the Popes Law, and some other Constitutions, Ordinances and Canons, Provinciall, or Synodall, formerly made and provided in the times op the Bishop of Rome , and by the Ecclesiastical Court , withinthis Realme of England; not onely prejudiciall to the Imperiall and Royall Prerogative of our Lord the King, and repugnant to the foresaid Lawes and Statutes ; but likewise very burthensome and degatory

es ? and

ly fub.

on and

deeme

it these

?) I fee

Coram

wich, It him,

ments,

en and

kerall, ofthe

iver to

tion

mica-

em a

of the

Home

tian,

and with 6.5.

pre-

and tive

epe, Γhis

affe

mes

rogardry to the King and his Subjects , and contrary to the Semina of our fore aid Lord the King , and of his Kingdome of England an ciently claimed, wood and usurped, in derogation and prejudice of the Lord our King and other his Royall Progenitors. Ter not with flanding the faid Arthur , Bishop of Bunger, not ignorant of the premifes , and indeavouring not onely to deprive our prefem Lord the King , his Crowne and dignity; of his forefaid Imperiall furil. diction, and to subvert and meerly everturne the forefaid landable Lawes and flatutes ; but likewife to extoll ; maintaine , Support , and promote the faid ancient usurped furifdictions, and fained power of the Bishop of Rome , and of his See , and of the Ecclesiasticalt Court: and craftily to deprive deceave, und injure the faid tohn Guinah of the Rectory of the faid Church, of his faid fumme of 21. p. and other the premises , and alleadying that the Patronadge and profits of the faid Church didbelong to him , and not to the King , nor tothe faid fobri Gwynoth; the 30 day of July , in the forefaid yeare , did direithe fire ford right and Patronadge, Debt and finte of Tuter, tofor offin bet of his Court Che iftian , being with in bis Dioceffe and did likewife grant out a proces of Excommunication, writer and fealed with his ordinary Seale, and directed, and caused the same to be delivered unto the forefaid John Lawes , alias Vangban Clerke, Vicar of the Said Parish a commaunding bim by the Said Proces openly and publikely in the presence of the parishioners of the Said Parish, and of others, to excommunicate the faid Reofewyn , Peter Could, and others, and to exclude them from all Tithes and Services, and to renounce them from the faid parish Church; contrary to the due allegiance of the faid Bishop; and contrary to the Imperial Crowne and Dignity of the faid Lord the King, and contrary to the forme of the forefaid Lawes and flatutes. By pretext of which proces the fire-Said John Lewes no wayes fearing the Said Statutes and Lawes, but ayding and afficting the faid Arthur , Bishop of Bangor , in his fire-Said offences, and in the execution of his Said unjust and execrable proces on the 6. day of August, being the Lords day, the faid 34 yeare in the Parish Churchof Llan-Gwin and Llandgaffe aforesaid, she faid John Lewes, did then and there, about 10. clocke in the fire-

moone

badin

homfelf

with

Reefew

Inded

hem to

Could,

nine Se

rulfed,

Bilbop

a the f

mattio

onstra of the s

Mrth

don, all

might i

Lord th

tutes, 4

ocient

andof

damm.

tempt a

Royall

Lawes both the given a two no

parant gative

were of the faid day, apparlelled and adorned to celebrate Masse, Bentine landing at the High-Alter, within the faid Church, and turning land an imfelfe to some of the parishioners there present, openly and publikejudice of with a loud voyce, then and there declare and pronounce, the faid Ter not Rufewyn, Peter Could and others, to be excommunicate, & to be exent of the duded from all Divine Services; and did then and there commaund nt Lord tem to goe out of the faid parish Church, or else hee would not cele-Il farif. hate Maffe; By reason of which premises the faid Reesewyn, Peter andable Could, and others being excluded and excommunicated from all Dirt, and vine Service, departed out of the said Church, and so continued, exsulfed, and excommunicated, untill they by the Mandate of the faid Court: Bishop, within the Diocesse aforesaid, upon the 15. day of August athe forefaid 34. yeare, appeared before the faid Bishop, and by p. and custion of the said Bishop, and before hee would absolve them, were constrained to scale and deliver divers written obligations to the use of the faid Bishop, for the forefaid Tithes, formerly fold unto them in maner & forme aforefaid, by the faith John Gwynoth, and the forefaid Arthur, Bishop of Bangor, and John Liques have thus unjustly in, all the premifes, formerly objected against them, with all their might in the foresaid maner and forme, to the manifest enervation, whilation, and derogation of the Imperial Jurifdiction of our Lord the King, and the subversion of the foresaid Lawes and stautes, and also to the extolling, maintaining and promoting of the said ocient usurped furisdiction, and feined power of the Bishop of Rome, and of his See, and of the Ecclesiasticall Court, and to the great dammage of the faid Reefewyn, Peter Could and others, and in contempt and prejudice of the faid Lord our King, and also in derogation of the Imperiall dignity, Jurisdiction and Prerogative of his Royall Crowne; and contrary to the forme of the foresaid statutes and Lawer. Thus the record it selfe relates the case : upon which bubthe Bishop and Vicar were attainted, and such Judgement given against them, as in other cases of Pramunire. two notable records, and the forequoted Lawbookes, it is apparant, that the Prelates encroachments upon the Kings Prerogaive Royall or Subjects Liberties, either by advauncing or re-

power of

wynoth

profits

or to the e, did

Tithes,

Toyand

ten and

ame 10

Herke,

s open-

arish,

Could,

and to re alle-

ne and

of the fire-

, but

fore-

cratle

d 34

efasa,

e foremoone

their practices, for eches, late introduced Popilh Ceremo of bowing to Altars, and at the name of lefus, turning Com munion I ables into Altars , and placing them Altar-wile again the East end of the Quires , flanding up at Gloria Patri , and the Golpell, praying towards the East, and fuch like tuperfluion prescribed onely by Popula Canons," with some late printe Civill & and Canon Low Bookes, and Calibute, Downing h Discour fe of the State Ecclesis fricall of this Kingdome, Oxon. 161 with M fer Shelfords 5. Treatifes, Cambridge, 1635 and the owne lare printed vilitation Articles, everywhere aboundant evidence, or by making , publiffling ; and promulging t their owne power an Authority, onely without the approbation and confent of King and Parliament, new Canons, Articles Ordinances, Constitutions, Rites or Ceremonies, contrary the Lawes and Statutes of the Realme, different from the prescribed in the Booke of Common Prayer and Homies all our Prelates, Archdeaeons and beir Officials now dayly do in their Vilitations and Conliftories ,) or by holding ples things properly belonging to the Kings temporal County Inflice in their Ecclehafticall Courts, (asthey dayly doe, men among us in cases of prescription for Tithes; maner of Tithes enforceing of men , to prouve wills , deviding Landes of la heritance, by witnelles in their Courts, and not in Chauncen Actions of Battery, and of the peace betweene man and wife by way and under the name of Alimony, sequestring of men goods and livings, and depriving Ministers of their freeholds cales not warrantable by Law, fining of men for contempt and impleading them for Debts, Trespasses, Defamations, an other offences, punishable onely arthe Common Law on by divers late devices, to engroffe into their hands the Treals rights and Patronadges, gleabelands, Tithes, and the like the collaterall strange pretences, and putting both Ministers in Laymen from their callings, being their freeholds, and lively and their Officers now every where thee; which appeares h a rel

of Pro

medi

with daini

Cour

beeng

danp

where

ning a

in exc

inthe

thee

defen

dictio

all fuc

fame.

wort

fidera

end d

Prero

and h indica

onm

felyes

be th

centu

rhrça

furne

give (

Oile

As.

+ Ridly with

Prefer tood, as they have done many of late, contrary to the Comding men by excommunications, or otherwise, to give over ing Com a release their fuites at Common Law; by flaying the course le spain af Prohibitions and Canon Law, Iuftice against their unjust progedings, (as our Prelates and their Officers have lately done and t erflictions with a most insolent and high hand, both by frequent complaining against the Judges for granting Prohibitions to their le prime wing h Courts, in cases not appertaining to them, where they have beene usually granted in all former ages; in conventing and goubling them for the same, before the King and Councell, andthe where themselves are a great party, and beare sway in threatging t ning and worying them, that they dare not grant Prohibitions, in excommunicating; fining, perfecuting and imprisoning both intheir Confiftories and especially in the High-Commissions, (the cheife use whereof is now, onely to advaunce, protect, and defend their owne usurped Ecclesiasticall Episcopall Juris diction, power extortions, exactions, innovations and to crush all fuch, who any where dare oppole, or projecute them for the fame in any of his Majesties temporall Courts, athing well worthy his Majesties, his Counsels and Judges most serious confideration;) all those who oppose their desperate Innovations, and dangerous, late infolent encroachments, upon his Majesties Prerogative Royall, his Lawes, his temporall Courts of Juffice. and his Subjects Liberties, and either fue for Prohibitions, or indict them , or bring their Actions of the eafe , or falle impriforment against them at the Common Law, to releife them. felves against their injustice and ingroachments, enforcing them by threats, power and unjust vexations, excommunications, confures, imprisonments, flop of their Legall proceedings, by threatning: (and imprisoning) their Councell, Soliciters, Attimes, ludges, and other, fuch violent and unjust meanes, to give over, or release their Actions against themselves, and their Differs , as appeares by the late cases of Mafter Huntly, Mafter Smart, Stephen Buckell, Mafter John Clotery, the Church

Termon

on. 162

hitching

probatio

Articles ntrary

m tho

mi ies X

relado

g plet e

Ourtro e, nen

Tithing

es of In

uncer nd wife of men

holdsi

tempt

ms, an

W y an

rvalso ke:b

ets on lively

hood

49. Caroli. Mistri Blaughten againft Doctor Mariyn,

Churchwarden of Ipswitch ; and a Gentlewoman of Devonshire, traine t who brought an Action of the cafe in nature mbitio neare Totnes, of a confirmacy against the Commissary of Totnes, even for rayling fignes, a fame of incontinency of her, and then persecuting her in his Court Royall for the same, onely because shee refused to marry him; which foule practifebeing fully prooved by fundry testimon es at the Assiste of Execer, 9. Carols, upon a full hearing, and the fury thereupon giving her great Dammages; the Judge by this Commiffaries, and the Archbishop of Canterburies meanes, was sent for before the Councell Table, and there for atled and shaken up by thee Archbishop for suffring this just cause, (which much concerned the Church as was pretended,) to proceed , that hee protested , hee was almost choaked with his lawne fleeves, and forced to stay the returne of the Postea, so that the injured and oppressed Gentlewoman could have no judgement upon her verdict, and was constrained to relinquish ber Such is our Prelates Iustice and zeale to defend the very knavery of their Officers; or by keeping their Courts, Confiftories, and making out their proces, citations, excommunications, probates of wils, letters of administration, writs of Ture Patronatus, and so forth in their owne names, and under their owne Seales, not his Majesties, (as our Prelates and their Officials alwayes doe:) or by excommunicating his Majeffies Subjects, without just and Legall cause, and in undue maner, (as our Bishops and their Officers dayly doe,) are for all and every of these encroachments, within the danger and compasse Our present Prelates and their Officers thereof a Pramunire. fore being deeply guilty of all and every of these usurpations, and encroachments, both upon the King and Subject, are in all and every of these respects within the verge of a Pramunire, which they more justly deserve then either these, or any other of their Predecesfors ever did, all circumstances of persons and times duely confidered; and therefore I truft shall not escape what they fo well demerit.

mova

waves !

machile

ions,

hem ,

role,

rea eng

moth

dtem

mr Lo

Henry

tion,

them fe

of the 1

at the

Writs

confult

that a

abolift

nestrai

beauy

mke go

fore th

most .

Clerg

imet

being bury 4 be coll

n K

These writs of Premunire, being the cheifest curbs to re-Araine ponshire, traine the Prelates, Clergies and their Officers encroachments, nature imbitious disloyall Antichristian usurpations, practiles and derayling fenes, the cheife fecurity, both of the Kings Prerogative Court Royall, the Subjects Liberties, and the Common-Law, against ich fonk Innovations and treacherous underminings, have beene al-Affife of sayes so irkesome and distastfull to their aspiring domineering mactifes, that they have oft times both by Petitions, perswaerenpon ies, and ions, pollicies, bribes and threats, endeavoured to suppresse fore the hem , that fo they might play Rex in every place without conchbishop tole, and captivate both King and Subjects to their pleasures, Church resengrosse the conusans of all plees and Actions by Degrees almost nto their owne hands and Courts, as they did for the most part e of the Altemporall offices, the better to play this prize. In the yeare of mr Lord 1439. after the burning of Richard Wicke, Martyr, Henry Chichelly, Archbishop of Canterbury, called a Convocation, wherein was propounded among the Clergy, to consult with themselves, what way was best to be taken for the removing away of the Law of Præmunire facias, by reason whereof the Churchmen at that time were greatly molested, and also by other the Kings Writs and indictements, to their no small anoyance. After long confultation and good advisement, at last this way was taken, that a pecition or supplication should be drawen and presented to the bolishing of the foresaid Law or Præmunire facias, and also for the ustraining of other writs and indictements, which then seemed to lie beaug upon the Clergy, and to the end, that the faid Petition might the good effect, the whole Convocation granted the King a tenth before the Delivery thereof, and likewife promised, that they would most apply, furnish and affift him to their power with supplies, if hee would abrogate these hard Lawes of Præmunire, wherewith the Clergy were oft times caught and entangled as in unjust snares, and simetimes upon unjust occasions, as they pretended. This Bill being thus contrived, and exhibited by the Archbishops of Canterbury and Yorke, to the King, then standing in need of a Subsidie to be collected by the Clergy, this answer was given to the supplication. in King Henry the 6. behalfe, being then but 19. yeares of age 3 that when wave no

ish ber

c very Con-

muniritsof

under

their

jeffies

naner,

ll and

paffe

heretions,

ire in

mire,

other

sand cape

neaine

when the King came to full age; hee would take eare, that the Gleray thould not be urged with fish hard Lawes and Actions; but mile interim beesould not conveniently change the Lawes that were far. merly made : and for fi much as the time of Christmas then draw paces, whereby bee had as yet no sufficient, lessing to advise upon the matters bee would take therein a further pause, in the meane time, as one rendring their quiery beareuld fond to all his Officers and Min n flers within his Realms, that no fuch treifi of Premunire, Should paffe against theman any of them from the faid since of Chaifman This Antiquitates Ecclefia Britan. till the next Panleamont. pice p. 323 and Mafter Fox Acts and Monuments p. 645. record, whole words I have conjuyued : After this , the next Parliament of following , the subole Clongy of England, affembled m p. 326.327. Convocation , peritioned the King, against the Judges and Lawrens. for confining them and their Corres onely to causes of Tubes, Ma. trimony and Testaments, both by probibitions and writs of Prayou. nire, if when wens but one inch beyond their bounds and furifdiffice which penalty of a Promunite didexgeodingly textific and perplex the Prelates, inswhich if they were convicted, they for feiged all their goods and were to be perpetually imprisoned; informing the Kine bouther framedahe words of 16. R. 2. c. 5. (That if any purchase or purfue, or doesn be purchated and purfued in the Court of Rome, or ELSEWHERE, any fuch translations, processes fentences of exacommunications, bulls, infruments, or any other thing, which touch the King, against him, his Regality, his Realme &cc.) even to their Ecclefic ft call Courts ; defiring, the the King and Parkaments, would be pleased to interpret the word ELSEWHERE, not of their Courts, unleffe pipere they pige ceeded against the Kings expresse probibitions; and that they might nut have their Ecclesi Amall Inciduction to referenced with Probin bitions and Premiures, and that the temporal Judges might in curre a Premunite tos, for encreaching upon their Ecclepatical furification and causes, as well as they for energaching upon the comparall Inrelation and canfes; But this Perition likewife had ill successe . and the Indaes proceeded and interpreted the more abe

. this

P

bis

pri

3400

- La freg

Sim

SE.

CTO.

unni

f. 4

· tac

OUI

tan

Hig

the

OF 1

17.

Tor

Wi

ELSE-

f Amiquit. Ecclef. Brit. 32¢.

ELSEWHBRE, of their Confisheriar Beele fiellicht , as betoto & An. 1463. The Clarge in Convocation partitioned King Ecolof Brit. Edward the fourth to like pur pole , who granted them to hold plea 9.336, of Fither, of wooder above 20, year or grouth, without incurring a Promumes but for holding plea of temporall eaufes, or of things of which they had no law full constant, a Promumite full lay against them as before, as fundry prefidents and authorities forequoted, with others telline , h wit doth for firing in the Admiralty for b16 R 2. any saufe triable at the Common Law in any of the Kings Courts e. s. lib. Inof Westminster. By the very Common Law it selfe, if a Bishop trationum. hold plea in his spirituall Court of Lands , Debt , Rapes , or any f 24. Admithing belonging to the temporall Courts of the King, or not within f. 465. Adshe compasse of his spiritual furisdiction, an Astachment upon a miral I. Probibition lieth against him for it; inwhich the party greeved shall recover his Dammages against him. , and hee himfeife shall have his temporalties feifed into the Kings hands , if not his body im prisoned; and though no Prohibition were de facto delivered to him, you an Attachment well heth, because the Statutes and Common Law themselves are a Probibition in this case, all which bath beene frequently refolved by 21. E. 3. a. 10. 11. a. 38. 40. 28. E. 3. 97, fol 18. 12. 8. 4. 30. 8. 3. 11.39. E. 3. 7. M. 11. E. 3. Fit7. Attachment, for Probibition 8. 13. Hill. 33. E. 3. Fity. Ibid. 14. Tafc. 20. E. 3. Excommengement 9. 8. E. 3. 49.40. E. 3. 17. 50. E. 3. 10.9. H. 6. 56. 91. 19. H. 6. 54. 19. H. 7. 18. 2. H. 7.8. Fit7. und Brooke Tit I Attachment, Sur Probibition But? War. Brev. f. 40. 41. 42 43 with fundry other Law Bookes. Why this Attachment likewife (hould not lie, as well as a Premunire; against our Bishops, Archdeacons and their Officers, for their exorbitant proceedings, both in their Confistories, Vilitations, and High-Commissions, and intermedling in such causes, whereof they have no lawfull conulans or lurifdiction, I yet fee no ground or reason : I find in 21. E. 1. in the plees of the Parkament plac. 17. and in Dorfo Glauf. 21. E. I. m. 3. that fohn Archo thop of Torke Excommunicated, and therespon imprisoned William of Willicone, and John Romain Servants to the Bishop of Dweefme. (during

Clergy,

f-mihe.

& form

n drew

pon the

me, as

Min

Should

finas

Britan.

,645.

e mext

abledan

myers.

Ma.

ræmu.

disting

perplex

Il sheir

King

rebale

urt of

selles,

other

ry , his

e mara

7 8/40

Probin

ht the

Hisal

u i beir

s. just

1996

8 %

(during the Bishops absence) in the Castle of Duresme, for a tem. porall thing, not belonging to Ecclesiasticall conusans, to wit, the Custody of certaine Lands, to which the Archbishop pretended right. the Archbishop refusing to absolve and deliver them, they thereupon complaine against, and sue him in Parliament; where the cause was pleaded and debated at large: at last upon great deliberation it was resolved by the whole Parliament, that the Archbishops Ex. communication of them for any temporall matter was a contempt of the King , to the disherison of his Crowne and Dignity : and there. upon the Archbishop by the whole Parliament, though great media. tion and freinds were used in his behalfe, was adjudged to be imprisoned, and to Submit himselfe to the King, and fined 4000. markes, (a great fumme in those times:) whereupon using many and great Freinds to the King , to pacifie him for this offence, hee voluntarily came in , and made his submission for the same , and acknowledged a recognizance to his Majesty of 4000. markes, towards the fatisfaction of the fine, as the Records at large expresse. Why our present Bishops and their Officers should not thus be roundly fined and cenfured, for excommunicating, fining, imprisoning, inflicting temporal Censures, and punishments on his Majesties Subjects, both in their Ecclesiasticall High-Commissions, and Consistories; holding plea of cases, not pertaining to their spirituall, but to the Kings temporall Courts, blocking up the free passage of Prohibitions, & their other dayly affronts to Common Law and Iustice, is a question past all their skill to resolve, and worthy to be demaunded, if not reduced to exe-Among the presentments in Eyre, An. 3. E. 1. I finde some Ecclesiasticall persons presented for suing, and others for bolding plea in the spirituall Court, of such things as belonged to the Kings temporall Courts, in derogation of his Crowne and dignity; for which they were fined to his Majesty, and imprisoned by his fustices: And shall such things escape scot free now? In the yeare 1532. Mafter i William Tracy, Efquire of Todington in Glocester shire, made in his will, that hee would have no funerall pompe at his burying, neither passed bee upon the Masse, ad fort

k favea

outer , b

bee Sher

out of the denne a

of Work

the farm

taken or

br of I

hi chan

then lat

pardon

King t

cale of

m Her

Gracio

comm

Minist

mintee

Majef

croach

to fub

formit

God a

Inthe

in the

cifing.

and (

Wills

Proce

under

vivea

26.H

m fu

and

Fox Acts & Monuments
P. 951.

and further faid, that hee trusted in God onely; and hoped by him to he faved, and not by any Sains: bee dying, his some being his Exeonor, brought the will to the Bishop of Canterbury to proove, which bet shewed to the Convocation; who judged, that hee should be taken out of the ground, and burnt for an heretique; Whereupon they fend home a Commission to Dollor Parker, Channeller of the Diocesse of Worcester, to execute this their wicked sentence: who accomplished The King (Henry the 8.) hearing his Subjett to be then out of the ground and burnt, without his knowledge or due orher of Law, send for the Chamcellor, layd this as an High-offence to his charge, who excused himselfe by the Archbishop of Canterbury then lately dead; but in conclusion it cost him 300. p. to game his pardon; who else had suffered in a Pramunire for it. King tooke those illegall proceedings against the senselesse carafe of his dead Subject, (though attainted in Convocation, as mHeretique,) to heynously: what Censure will our present Gracious Soveraigne deeme those worthy, who suspend, excommunicate, fine, imprison the living persons of his faithfull Ministers and Subjects, (contrary to all Law and Iustice,) never minted with any crime or herefie, onely for maintaining his Majesties Ecclesiastical Iurisdiction, for oppugning their encroachments upon it, and the Subjects Liberties, for refuling to Submit to their Superstitious Popish innovations, and for performing the duty both of good Christians, good Subjects to God and their Prince ? To come nearer to our present times. In the Parliaments of 3. 6 7. Facobi, the Prelates were questioned in the Commons bouse, as having incurred a Præmunire, for exercifing Ecclefiasticall furifaction, without special Letters Patents, and Commissions from the King under the great Seale, prooving of Wills, granting Letters of administration, and making out their Proces, Citations and Excommunications in their owne names, and under their owne Seales, contrary to the Statutes of I. E. 6. c. 2. (rewived by I. fac. c. 25.) 1. Eliz. c. I. 5. Eliz. c. 1. 8. Eliz. c. 1. 26.H.8.c.1.37 H.8.c.17. and other forecited Alts: and ibough no Judgement were then passed against them by reason of the sud-

a tem.

wit, the

dright;

reupon

e canfe

ttion it

ps Ex.

mpt of

there-

nedia-

be im-

000.

using

Fence,

, and

rkes.

reffe.

us be

im-

ts on

om-

ning

cing

onts

llto

xc-

I.

ged

vine

mree

To-

no Te,

nd

den diffolution of the last of these Parliaments , (and two or three others succeeding it,) and of the great comtraversie concerning Impositions upon Marchard Ze, imported or exported swhich outed most other complaints; yet the house upon the opening of the bufinesse, by Sir Henry Yelverdon, who fet it on foote, conceaved that they were all in a Præmunire, and that the statute of 1. E 6. c. 2. was revived and still in force , being nothing but a Declaration of the Kings Ecclefiniticall Prarogative at the Common Law, and King fames having as ample Ecclesissificall Juris a Et. on in and over all fuch causes and perfons as E. 6. or any of his Royall Progenitors; and in Cottons case in the Starchamber, where hee was prosecuted upon she same point , for exercifing Ecclesiasticall Juris diction, without Letters Patenes or Commission from the King, and making out Proces and Probates of Wills in his owne name, under his owne Seale, the four inclined to the same opinion, agreeing, that the statute of I E. 6. was Still in force, whereupon bee humbling himselfe to King fames, and craving pardon for his faid offence; the King out of his grace , by the mediation of some great persons, was pleased to remit bis firing, and censure, whereas otherwise hee had smarted and payed deare for thu his misolent disloyall undutifill usurpation, upon his Soveraigna Royalies. In to which Court if all our Prelates and their officers were now brought for all their forementioned ufprpations, extertions, opprellions, mildemeanors, and there fined. according to the greatnes and multitude of their manifold of fences; after that rate as some of them have lately fined others, beyond all pitty and moderation, (they there commonly out of their Father'y C'emency and bowels of compassion, transcending all other temporall Lords in the feverity of their censures, whether pecuniary or corporall;) I doubt not but his Majety might thereby gaine in very short space, at least two hundred thousand pounds or more in fines, to the great contentment of his Subjects, whom they have oppreffed; and quite trip them of all their Hifhoprickes, Archdeaconries, Chauncellourfhips, and other offices, as forefaited by their feverall aboves, extortions, and oppressions committed in them , (for which cause though por no Prifor the In of the (which diffuer measure orbits sular in pre

Lectu

if not,

frience dapth: All the to his passe always the friends of Iuf

tifull other in tire more of the cour other of his

tion.

his I then lenc

in pretence alone, themselves have deprived many Ministers. Lecturers, Tradefmen, both of their livings, Lectures callings) if not, for want of Letters Patents; and leave them neither cares. nor note unmangled, nor any thing to support them in those Prijons; to which they deferve to be adjudged; should hee and the ludges of that Court, meat them onely that measure as some of them, even against the & Scripture and their owne Canons & 1. Tim. 3. which prohibit them to be strikers, or to have their hands or votes in 3. Tit. 1.7. dismembring, or shedding any mans blood,) have not long since Matth. 26. measured out to 1 others, who have opposed them in their ex- 51.52.53. orbitant courses, and proceedings; whethermore out of parti- 10.E.4.6.b sular malice, envie, spleen, revenge, then out of atrue zeale Gratian. of Iustice and the merits of the cause, I leave to their owne Con- 8. Perrus. sciences and God himselfe, (who m onely knowes the very Blesensis depths and secrets of all mens deceitfull hearts,) to determine. Tractat. All that I can doe more, is but to submit both their persons and de Instit. the e their offences against King and Subject, here epitomized, 1 Doctor to his Majesties Royall and Imparrial lustice; if hee please to Layton. passe by and pardon these grand delinquents, (who have beene Master alwayes inexorable, and mercileffe towards others, even for Prime. the smallest slips and Errors,) at an easie rate, upon their humble m Ad. 1.24 Submission, acknowledgment, and promise of suture reforma- Pf. 44. 21. tion. I hope it will teach them to be more thankefull and dutifull to his Majesty, more moderate just and mercifull towards others, and more carefull of relapting into the same offences in time to come; If hee in his Royall wildome shall thinke it more just and honourable to proceed against them in all, or any of the forementioned wayes of luftice, in a fevere and rigorous courle, according to the greatnes and multitude of thefe, and other their notorious infolent crimes, both for the fatisfaction of his much greived and oppreffed Subjects, (to whom they have never extended the least dramme of mercy,) to furnish his Treatury, with a profent legal fupply, and to deterre both them, and their Successors from the like encroachments, infolencies exactions, and oppressions for future times; they must all

r three

cerning

bouted

fineffe,

ey were

evived

Eccle-

baring

es and

Cottons

e same

ersPa-

es and

Court

6. was

, and

by the

g, and

or this

aigna ir of-

hibs-

fined,

d of

thers,

out of

fcen-

ures,

jelly

dred

nt of

m of

ons,

ough

Kk 2

all lay their hands upon their mouthes, and acknowledge both Gods, and his Majesties Iustice on them, yea though they should incurre even corporall punishments as well as fines, deprivations, imprisonments; and confesse in the words of Adonibest, Iudges. 1. 7. As I have done, so God hath required me; and of our Saviour, Math. 7. 2. With what judgement wee judged, wee have been judged, and with what measure wee meeted, it hath been measured to us againe.

Todraw towards a conclusion in a few words of exhortation. I. I shall here First of all defire every of his Majesties faith. full and true bearted Subjects, according to their oathes, duty, and allegiance, to take notice of all the Prelates, and their underlings leverall encroachments upon his Majesties Prerogative Royall, and then to withstand to oppugne them by all just and lawfull meanes, to the uttermost of their skill and power, without conniving at or submitting to them in the least degree; not giving over their endeavours against them, till they are quite reformed; and then in the next place to take notice of their ufurpations, oppressions, and exactions on themselves, their just and ancient Liberties, and to shake them off with all speed and care, not fuffering the Prelates, (raised for the most part from the dunghill and the depth of poverty, which makes them fo barsh, proud, and ungentile, both in their carriage and proceedings) to Lord it and triumph over them, (yea even Nobles, Peeres, and Iudges themselves,) in a Pontificall proude, domineering tyrannicall maner; contrary both to their ancient Liberties, the Lawes and Customes of the Realme, por toinpose what Ceremonies, Canons, Articles, Rites; Constinutions, Errors, falle Doctrines, Superstitions, and Innovations each of them shall severally please, without the King and Parhiaments Confent; or to erect a new Papacy or Spanish Inqui-" Gal. 5. I. fition in the Realme, as some of them have endeavoured; " but to stand fast in the Liberty, wherewith Christ himself, the Lawes Liberties and Customes of the Realme have made them free, and

m to in

Bondag

legall a

feech a

to hear

fions,a and Di their E

mom

other !

with t

make !

of all t

great

they n

and fo

have t

now I

when

fever!

their !

foule

whor

both

fpirit

tent l

bave

let 0

them

Lord

2000

g000

their

rolu

men

ge both ato intangle themselves againe in these their unjust heavy yoakes of londage; which they ought to prevent and cast off by all honest legall and Christian meanes: And in the next place, I shall befeech all Prelates now at last, even feriously to consider and lay to heart, all their feverall usurpations, encroachments, oppreffions, and exactions, both upon their dread Soveraignes Crowne and Dignity, by whose grace alone they were first raised to heir Episcopall dignities, which may stand or fall to ground in moment at his good pleafure,) and upon your Brethrens and other Subject just undoubted Liberties, and then to recount with themselves, what a heavy reckoning they must one day make for them, before Gods and Christs tribunall in the fight of all the world, at the great day of judgement, and to what great dangers, hazards, censures, troubles, losses and perils they may now upon all occasions expose their persons, states, and fortunes, even in his Majesties Courts of Justice, which they have no affurance to escape; and how execrably odious they now render them everywhere, both to God and man. when they have thus taken a ferious fervay of them, with those fererall dangers which attend them, let them forth with abate their pride, and tyranny, fall downe upon the knees of their foules and bodies, both to God, his Majesty, and the people, whom they have thus groffely injured and opprefice, craving both their joynt and feverall pardons with bleeding hearts and spirits for these their crying trespasses, giving good and competent fatisfaction to the uttermost of their power, to all those they have injured and oppressed; And when they have done thus, let o goe away and finne no more, least fome worfe thing happen to olohn. 5.14. them. Let them lay afide their Pompe, their Pride, State, Lordlines, Idlenes, Luxury, Tyranny, Bribery, Symony, good fellowship, perfecutions of goodnes, grace, truth, and all good men; their fecular offices, imployments, and pluralities; their malice, envy, hatred, emulation, contention, ambition, voluptuofnesse, backbitinge, falle accusing, fines, imprison-

Should

vations,

mibelek,

dofour

ce have

b beene

tation.

faith.

duty,

eir un-

gative

ift and

withe; not

ite re-

ufurir just

and from

m fo

probles,

do-

ient

imticu-

ions Par-

qui-

bat

Wes

and

mot

ments, Pursevants, Jaylors, unwarrantable Excommunications, Kk 3

ees+

fees, exactions, impieties, ungodlines, prophanes, fwearing, curling, prophaning of Gods most facred day, both by life, and doctrine, their non-preaching, rare-preaching, rare-praying, their frequent earding, dicing, bowling, dauncing, hunting, hauking, that I fay not whoring, with all other their Episcopall vices, betaking themselves wholly in a pious, studious, holy, temperate, lober, humble, chaft, unspotted, exemplary, beavenly, fruithfull, gratious preaching, charitable, pittifull, juft, pPbil.2. 15 and upright life ; p Shining forth like so many glorious burning 14.15. 16. lights of the world, in the middeft of a crooked and perverse generation. Let them remember that they are (at leastwife ought to be) not Lords , but servants ; not Bitesheeps , but Bishops; not Pilates, but Prelates; not imposters, but Pastors; not loyterers, but labourers; not Kings, but Subjects; not fleepers, but Watchmen; not blinde Bedels, but Seers; not fleecers, but feeders; not butchers, but shepheards; not Preyers, but Preachers; not destroyers, but instructors; not Tyrants, but Fathers; not dumbe-dogges, but cryers; not theeves, but keepers; not Wolves, but Guardians; not feducers, but leaders; guides and examples to the Flock and Sheepe of Chrift, alwayes carying themselves like such in all places, companies and giour.

Ma

with t

ent at dome, and th

though a til es e

great .

just 10

Ballet

Mani

thew,

nistre

Which

Lord

pulled that d

or bee

amon

277

which

ofabe

beirer

overfi

burre

berita

Shept

fadet

Elder

tiemi

9 1. lobn. 2. conditions what soever, 9 walking even as Christ, the r Great Sheepheard of the Sheepe bath done before them, I leaving them r Hebr. 1? an example, that they should follow his steps.

1. Pet,2. 21.

Matth. 5.

If any of them are so presumptuous as to thinke they may ftill Lord it, and tyrannize over Gods people, inheritance, and their fellow-Brethren, ruling them with boy flerous force, violence, or with a rod of Iron, as they have hitherto done; let all fuch Lucifers and domineering spirits, (who strive to engrosse into their hands the very (way of Kingdomes and of the world it felfe, as many of them now conspire and endeavoure,) temember, these three Lessons, which our Saviour, and Sant Peter bave left behind them; which they had need well learne themselves, before they can ever duely rule, instruct or tutor others. I. The

1. The first of them is this of Alamer 20, 20, 1029. Markethe 10. 35. 1046, Lake 12. 14. 10 28, where our Sariout, when fames and fabuthe Sounds of Zebeden came unro bin with this request, faying : A after grant unto withat wee may fit me at thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand in thy Kingdome, (whereupon there arose a stife betweene the other Disciples and theme, which of them should be accounted the greatest;) called them all anto b m and fayd; see know that the Princes of the Gentil es exercife Dominioner Eldership over them, and they that are great, exercise authority upon theme; but it shall not be so with you, but who fover will be great among you, let him be (laith Matth.) hall be (faith Marke ,) your for vant, or Minister; and proposever will be cheife, cheifest (laith Marke,) for him be your fervant, (faith Matth.) Shall be ferrant of all; (writes Marke.) Even as (10 Matthew,) for even (fo Marke,) the fame of man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransome for many. Which S. Lake thus renders . The Kings of the Gentila exercife Lordfup over them, and they that exercise anthority sopon them are salled benefactioners. But yee finall not be for but bee that is greatest among you; let him be as the younger, and bee that is cheife, as hee that doth forve : For whether is greater , bee that fitteth at meat, or bee that ferverb ? is not bee that sitteth at meat ? But I itm among you as bee that serveth. grichier, 2. Sendly, That Bill. orsand Miniffers ought to le par

aring,

, and

rying,

ating,

opall

holy,

bea-

juft,

rning

nera-

ught

ops;

loy-

pers,

, but

but

but

kee-

dersi

, 1

and

reat

CHL

may

and

vio-

t all

offe

orld

re-

eter

THE

tor he abich are among you, I exhort, who am alfo an Elder, and a wirnes of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory, that shall herevealed. Feed the stocked God which is among you; taking the overlight thereof 4 hos by constraint; but willingly, not for stilly luce, but of a ready minde; Neither as being Lords over Gods heritage; but be no ensamples to the slock, And when the cheif Shepheard shall appeare, see shall receive a Crowne of glory, that sade host away. Likewie stronger, submit your selver unto the Elder; yearall of you be su net one to another; and be blowished with humility, for God resistents the proud, but giveth grace to the humble.

On which text Sant Paul thus comments: 2. Cor. 1.24. Not that wee have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith yee fland; And Phil. 2.3. Let nothing be done through strift or vaime glory, but in lowlines of mind, let each esteeme other better then themselves.

dem,

thus :

tery of

made l

with for

The P

mong

plaine

b. I.

urcha

ibofe m

gains!

beafts.

ee in may be

ne mor

the floo

inded.

and oth

and yes

office, 4

nard C

are not in trut

and ye

even milke

heepe:

genius

who c

low-E thee, bi

them,

F

3. The third is Matth. 11.29. Take my yoake upon you, and learne of me, for I am meeke and looply in heart: and yee shall finderest unto your soules. Which Sant Paul thus illustrates: Col. 3-12.13. Put on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) bowels of mercies, kindnes, humblenes of minde, meekenes, lang suffering, forbearing one another, and forgining one another, if any man have a quarrell against any: even as Christ sorgave you, so see the E-also doe yee. From these 3. Scriptures * Divines both old and pifte Dedinew have deduced these three Conclusions.

Fathers, and Commentation of the fe tution are of equal authority and Iurifdiction, and that one of Texts.

The First, That all Bishops and Ministers by Christs institutions on the fe tution are of equal authority and Iurifdiction, and that one of them ought not to Lord it, or domineere over the other, as all

Bishops now every where doe, both over their fellow-brethren in ex. and the people: and that Bishops and Ministers by Gods Law cellently and are of equal degree, dignity, power, and Iurildiction.

ved by Marfilius Patafilius Pataternes of humility, meeknes, charity, compassion, brotherly fensorn pach kindnes, and forgivenes unto all others: and yet who so swolne pars 2.c.4, with Antichristian pride, ambition, envy, hatred, malice, slan5.6. Sc. der; so revengefull, implacable mercilesse as the comMr. Tyndall mon proverbe, (as proud, as malicious as a Prelate,) witnesseth his Practife of Popish Prelates in the deginning.

3. Thirdly, † That no Bishops or Clergy men ought to beginning, turne Magistrates or temporal Lords and Officers, nor yet to The Supplie. exercise any civil power, Dominion or Jurisdiction over their to K. Henry Brethren, and fellow Ministers, or any of Gods people, noryet to institute any sines, imprisonments, or temporal centures of tem, either by their owne inherent power, or any derivative Authority or Commission from the Prince or civil Magistrate.

- 2Va our joy:

through

on you, ree shall

s: Cd. eloved)

s, long

ifan

you, fi ld and inffi-

one of 25 2 thren

Law

pat-

berly olne

Dan-

om. eth.

t to

t to

heir

ye

Ob m,

Hence Origen, in his 31. Hom. upon Matthew, writes ne other thus : Verily that Bishop sinneth whom seever bee be, who doth not minister like a servant to his fellow-servants, but like a Lord, year very often domineering by violence even like a bitter Lord , being made like the Egyptians, who afflicted the life of the children of I frage with force : therefore they ought to be mindefull of the words of Christ: The Princes of the Gentiles domineere over them, &c. mong you it shall not be so. Hence Profee Aquitanicus, complaines thus of the Prelates in his time, De Vita Contemplativa, b. 1. c. 21. Wee are made potent onely for this end, that wee may purchase, and usurpe to our selves a tyramicall Domination over hose who are under our charge, not that we might defend the afflicted mainst the violence of great men, who rage against them like wild hafts. Wee delight onely in things present , seeke onely whilest wee me in this life, our owne profits and bonours, bastening not that wee may be better but richer not that we may be bolier, but that wee may hemore honourable and greater then others : neither doe wee minde the floock of the Lord, which is committed to us, to be fed and deinded, but wee carnally thinke of our owne pleasures, Dominion, and other worldly allurements. We will needs be called pastors and yet wee strive not to become such , wee shunne the labor of our office, and yet defire the dignity thereof. Hence also & Sant Ber - Ad Clerum nard complaines of the Prelates in his age, in this fort : They Sermo in are not Pastors, but betrayers; they are called Shepheards, when as Concilio Rhein truth they are but theives. Alas wee have but few Paftors, menfi. and yet many Excommunicators, (as wee also have now too many even upon no occasion.) And would to God the wooll and the milke would suffice you, for yee even thirst after the very blood of the heepe. And in " another place hee thus writes to Tope En uDe Confid. genius (as x Mafter Fox records in his Booke of Martyrs,) ad Eugenium who claimed a kinde of Dominion and Lordship over his fel-lib. 2. c.6. low-Brethren: Thou haft nothing in thy greatnes that may flatter Fox Alla & thee, but a greater follicitude: True it is, thou art advanced, but 9.412.

y ler. I.

thou oughteft by all meanes to consider, to what pumpoft mot to domineere, as I conceave; for even the Prophet, when hee was in like mine advanced heard, I that thou mayeft pluck up and destroy; and that thou mayef build and plant. Which of these founds of pride: rather a firitual labor is expressed under the Scheme of rustick (west: And wee therefore although wire mity thinke highly of our felves, shall perceive a min stration imposed on us, and not a Dominion givento us , I amonot greater then the Prophet , and if perchance I am equal to him in power, yet there is no comparison betweene us in reflect of merits. Thefe things speake thou to thy felfe, and teach thou thy felfe, who teachest others ; reckon thy felfe but as some one of the Prophets. Is not this sufficient to thee? yearoo much: But by the grace of God, thou art what thou art. What? Be thou, that which a Prophet is : art thou any thing more then a Prophet? If thou art wife thou wilt be content with the measure that God bath meated to thee, for that which is more, is from the evill one : learne from the Prophets example how to beare rule, not fo much to commaund, as diligently to performe what Christ requires; learne that thou needest a weeding booke, not a scepter, that thou mayest doe the worke of a Prophet : And verily hee ascended not as one about to raigne, but to extirpate : Thinkest thou that thou mayest not finde Some worke to be done in the feild of thy Lord? yea very much : the Prophets could not plainly cleanfe it all, they have left some things to their somes the Apostles to doe; year thy very parents have lest Some thing to thee, neither mayest thou thy selfe suffice to doe every thing; verily thou shalt leave some thing to thy Successor, and bee to others, and they to others unto the end. Finally, about the ZLuke 10. 14. Z hower the workemen are reprooved of idlenesse, and sent into the vineyard; the Apostles thy predecessors have heard, that the barveft verily is great , but the labourers are few, challenge toth felfethy Fathers inheritance. a For if thou art a Sonne, then an heire : that thou mayest proove an heire , give attendance to thy cure, and thou mayeft not waxe idle, unleffe it be also faid to thee, b Math, 20, Why b standes thou idle all the day ? much leffe oughtft thouts be found either dissolute with delights or effeminate with pompes.

4 Gal. 4.

Thy

7by 1

Ifibo

adl

Wate

Afe,

(haul everl

for to take

ther s

Chan

to the

Gatt b

me it

4 one

fo fan

il, 70

thesr

it am

posto

that

giver

given

fiith

amp

Bok

Lord

Lore

dare

loofe

loofe

felfe,

Apo

sben

Thy testators writing assigneth nothing of these to thee: But what? If thou art content with their tenure, thou shalt rather inherit care and labor, then glory and riches, doeb thy chaire flatter thee? It is no Watch Tower: Finally, thou over feeft from thence , founding to thy felt, in the name of a Bishop, not a Dominion, but an office : Why hauldest thou not be placed in an eminent place, whence thou mayest everlooke all things, who art constitute a matchman over all things? for truly this profect begets readines, not idlenes. How canft thou take pleasure to glory, where it is not lawfull for thee to be sidle? neither is there any roome for idlenes, where a sedulous solicitude of all Churches oppresseth. For what else hath the boly Apostle demised to thee? That which I have, faid hee, that give I unto thee: What is that? One thing I know, it is not gold nor filver, seeing himselfe faith, o Silver nor gold have I none, if then chance to have any, use it not according to the lust, but as the time requires; be thou such a one using them, as if thou usest them not. Thefe things verily fo farre as appertaines to the good of the minde, are neither good nor ill, yet their use is good , their abuse evill , their desire or care worse, their lucre more dishonest; But be it so, that thou mayest challenge it unto thee, by any other meanes what seever, yet truly by any Apostolicall right thou canst not so doe, for how could bee give unto thee that which hee hath not himselfe? That which hee had, that hath hee given, the care over the Churches, as I have faid. But hath bee given thee any Lordship? Hearke : what hee faith, not bearing tale, faith hee, as Lords in the Cleargy, but behaving your selves as example to the flock : And because thou shalt not thinke it to be poken onely in humility, and not also in verity, marke the voyce of the Lord himfelfein the Goffell: d But you shall not doe fo: Here d Luke. 22. Lordship and Dominion is plainely forbidden to the Apostles, and darest thou then usurpe the same? If thou wilt be a Lord, thou shalt loofe thine Apostle-ship , or if thou wilt be an Apostle, thou shalt loofe thme Lordship. Goe thou then and presume to usurpe to thy selfe, either an Apostle-ship being a Lord, or a Lordship being an Apostle. Verily thou art prohibited and must depart from one of them; if thou wouldest have both, thou shalt loofe both, or else Ll 2 thinkell a domi-

maner

ys and pride:

rustick

of our

a Do

if perfon be-

lfe, and

us forme

much:

e thou,

ophet?

a bath

learne

comi-

that loe the

out to finde

: the

bings

e left

very

d bee

at the

mte

t the

othy

D an

o thy

hee,

on to

pes. Thy e Hof. 8.

thinkest thy selfe to be in the number of those, of whom God doth so greatly complaines, saying: e They have raigned, but not through me, they are become Princes, and I have not knowne it. Now if it doth suffice thee, to rule without the Lord, thou hast thy glory, but not with God; But if wee will keepe that which is sufficient is said: Hee that is the greatest among you, and hee which is Highest, shall be made as the least among you, and hee which is Highest, shall be made as the entire, and for example set a child in the middest of them: So this then is the true forme and institution of the Apostles trade, Lordship and rule is forbidden, Ministration and service commanded; which is skewise commended by the example of the Law-giver himselfe, who subjoynes: But I am in the middest of you, as one that ministreth. How now may any thinke himselfe inglorious with the Title, where with the Lord of glory bath before him dignisted himselfe? Deservedly 1. Paul glories in it, saying: f Are they the servants of Christ? So f 2. Cor. 11. Paul glories in it, saying: f Are they the servants of Christ? So am I; and hee addes, I speake as a soole, I am more; in labours more often, in imprisonments more aboundant, in stripes above measure, in deaths more frequent. O excellent ministry! Is not this more glorious then any principality; &c. After which hee thus proceeds, against the pride, pompe, Lordship, and secular gDeConside-Power of the Prelates: g If I durst be bould to speake, these things ratione, l. 4, are rather the sood of Devils, then of Sheep: What? Did Peterdoe thus? Did Paul thus play the vice? Seest thou not, how all their Ecclesiasticall zeale is servent, onely to desend their dignity? all is attributed to dignity, nothing or very litle to bolines. If cause requiring, thou shalt attempt to doe somewhat more submissly, or to shew thy selfe more sociable, they say God sorbid; it becomes thee not; it agrees not to the time, it is not suitable to thy. Majesty, consider the person which thou bearest. Of the pleasure of God there is no mention at all, no delay for the loss of salvation. Wee may call nothing wholsome, but that which is sublime, and that onely just, which savours of glory: Thus all humility is esteemed a reproach among the Prelates. So that thou mayest more easily finde, one who desires to be, then to appeare bumble: The searc of the Lord they repute simpli-

on a solution of a solution of implici

bis own

Ipare

Pafte

least be

is Per

to be a in gold being preact glory the w Past Scory to pue deny word there to be Cha the street Services simplicity, that I say not folly. A circumspect man and a freind of his owne Conscience, they calumniate for an hypocrite. Here, here I spare thee not, that God may spare thee: Shew thy selfet to this people a Pastor verily, or deny thy selfet to be one. Thou will, not deny th, hast hee, whose seate thou possessed deny thee to be his Heire; Hee is Peter, who was never knowne to have gone abroad at any time, either adorned with sewels, or silkes, or covered with gold, or carried on a white Pastory, or guarded with souldiers, or invisoned with servants; making a noyse round about him., yet notwith standing hee heleved that this sacred mandate, h If thou lovest me, seede my h sohn. 21.

doth fo

hrough

nowne

on bast

phich is reatest

among

for ex-

e true

is forkewise

poynes:

How

vedly

? So

oours

bove

s mot

hee

cular

ings

rdoe

beir

all is

re-

not;

der

no no-

ich

ing L-

nte

theepe, might be sufficiently discharged without these things. In thefe thou halt succeeded not Peter, but Constantine. I counsaile, that they are to be tollerated in respect of the time, not to be affected as of due. I rather incite thee to thefethings, of which I know thee to be a debter. Ind although thou goeft clad in purple, although in gold, yet thou mayest not abhorre either Pastorall labor or care, being the Heire of a Sheepheard; thou mayest not be ashamed to preach the Ghospell; for verily if thou doe it willingly, thou shalt have glory among the Apostles. To preach the Ghospell is to feede. Doe the worke of an Enangelist, and thou hast fullfilled the worke of a Thou sayest, you admonish me to feede Dragons, and Scorpions , not sheepe. For this causerather set upon them, but yet with the word , not with the fword ; Why doeft thou attempt againe to usurpe the sword which thou hast beene once commaunded to put up into the scabheard? which notwithstanding hee who shall deny to be thine, seemes to me not sufficiently to have confidered the word of the Lord , Saying thus : Put up thy sword into its sheath: therefore it also is thine, perchance at thy command, although not to be unsheathed with thy hand. Both swords therefore are the Churches, as well the spiritual as materiall; but that verily is to be exercised for the Church, but the other by the Church; that by the hand of the Preist; this, of the Souldier, but yet at the beck of the Preist, and the command of the Emperour. And in his 23. Sermon upon the Canticles hee concludes: Let the Prelates beare this, who will be alwayes a terror to those committed to their Ll 3 charge,

i Socrates

c. 27.28.

42.1.4.

6.7.1I.

Mathew

Hieronym.

Oforium.

to 254.

Doctor

to King

charge, seldome a benefit. Be instructed, ye who judge the earth:learne, that ye ought to be the mothers of your Subjects , not their Lorde Study rather to be beloved then feared : and if at any time there be afe of severity, let it be fatherly, not tyrannicall : shew your selves mothers by fostering, fathers by reprehending, waxe meeke, lay afide your fercenes, sufpend your stripes, produce your duggs : La your brest wax fut with milke, not swell with pride : why doe you make your youke heavy upon fuch, whose burthens ye ought rather to Custaine? Why doth a litle one bitten by the Serpent, flie from the Conscience of the Preist , to whom hee ought rather to have recourse. as to the bosome of his mother. If ye be spirituall, instruct such a one with the foirst of meekenes, confidering every one himfelfe hall hee also be tempted. Thus this devout Father : yet notwith. standing our Saviours owne inhibition, and these Fathers complaints and declamations, our Lordly Prelates, both of prefent and i ancient times, have intruded themselves into all temporal offices, and usurped both the temporall and spiritual sword into Schol. Hist. Ecclef lib. 2. their hands, exercising not onely all maner of Ecclesiasticall, but likewife of civill Lordship, and dominion over the Ministers and Flock of Christ; and that with fuch tyranny, cruelty, pride, c.36.1.7. oppression, injustice, and more then barbarous inhumanity, (transcending all patternes of pagan Princes, and Tyrants,) that Westminster their very Acts and Monuments of this kinde, have furfeited all Flores Hift. An. 1247. Ecclefiafticall Stories, and fwolne into many folio volumes. p. 217. 28. Witnes, the French and English Bookes of Martyrs, the Mag-Haddon and deburge Centuries , Catalogus testium veritatis , Theodoricus a Fox contra Niem, and others De Scismate, Abbas Uspergensis, Sant Bridgets revelations , Mathem Paris , Alvarius Pelagim de 1.3. f. 234. planetu Ecclefia, Avintine, Guiciardine, Nicolaus de Clemangis, Onus Ecclefia, Morney bis Historia Paparus, Marsilius Patavinus Defensoris Pacis , Master Tyndals practise of Popsh Supplication Prelates , Roderick Mors his Supplication to the Parliament, Henry the 8 Thomas Beacon his Supplication , and his Reports of certains men.

William

Willia

Fox a

turies

niftle ;

штрац

of the

Pope

racter

rium

cum

tos il

quib

ritati

patre

cum

quar

funt

fe no

Quo

mirt

mun

ralis

rent

pat,

Q CI

tes,

agei

de f

tem

& il

(At

enc c racens 1.4.c. 36.

William Wranghon, alias Turner his Hunting of the Romish Fox and Wolfe, John Bale his Acts of English Votaries , bis ferpries , and lifes of the Pope , Henry Stalbridge his Exhortatory Ewiftle; and generally all others, who have written against the ufurnation, tyranny, Iurisdiction, pride, and Lordlines, both of the Popith and of our English Prelates; In so much that & Pellerst. Pope & Gregory the first, hathlong fince given this true cha-pars 2. c. 6. mater of them; that under a pretence of Discipline, Ministe. & 8. Hom. rium regiminis vertunt in usum Dominationis : & 17.inEuancum regiminis jura suscipiunt ad Lacerandos subditos inardescunt. Terrorem potestatis exhibent, & quibus prodesse debuerant, nocent. Lt quia charitatis viscera non habent, domini videri appetunt, patres se esse minimè recognoscunt : humilitatis locum in elationis dominationem immutant : Etfi quandò extrinsecus blandiuntur intrinsecus autem funt lupi rapaces. Pulvinos his exhibent, à quibus se noceri posse in studio gloriæ temporalis timent. Quos verò contrà se nil valere conspiciunt, hos nimirum asperitate rigidæ semper invectionis premunt, nunquam clementer admonent, fed pastoralis mansuetudinis obliti, jure dominationis ter-Quos rectè per Prophetam divina vox increpat, dicens: Vos autem cum austeritate Imperabitis is, d'cum pot mia: Plus enim de suo authore diligentes, jactanter erga subditos se erigunt, nec quid agere debeant, sed quid valeant, attendunt. Nil de subsequenti judicio, metuunt, qui improbe de temporali potestate gloriantur. Libet ut licentur & illicita faci in , & fubditorum nemò contradicat. I Socrates (A true Character of our present Prelates;) It is I ftoried of Scholast Ecme Moses, a Munke, whom Queene Mavia and the Sa-cles. Hist.

THE.

ords:

re be

chu

lar

La

e you

er to

n the

urfe.

Swch least

vith-

om-

fent

orall

inte

but Hers

ide,

nity,

that dall

nes.

ag-

NS 4

mt

u de

04-orth

it,

racens under her chose to be their Bishop upon their embracing of the Christian faith; that when Lucius Bishop of Alexandria would have given him orders, bee refused to receive orders at his hands, reasoning with him in this fort : I thinke my selfe unworthy of the Preiftly order, yet if it it be for the profit of the Common-weale, that I be called unto the function , truly thou Lucise Shalt never lay hand upon my head. For thy right hand is imbrued with flaughter and bloodshed. When Luciue faid againe, that it became him not so contumelionfly to revile him, but rather to learne of him the precepts of the Christian Religion : Moses answered : I am not come now to reason of matters of Religion, but sure I am of this, that thy horrible practifes against the Brethren proove thee be altogether voyd of the true principles of Christian Religion : For the true Christian striketh no man, revileth no man, fighteth with no man: For the servant of God should be no fighter : But thy deeds in exiling of some, throwing of others to wilde beafts, burning of some others, doe cry out aganist thee. And doe not our Prelates Ex Officio Oathes and Proceedings; their Excommunications, Deprivations, Suspentions, degradations, heavy fines, and imprisonments, their casting of the best and painefullest Ministers out of their freeholds, benefices, functions; their violent breaking open and ranfacking of mens howfes, studies, writings, upon small or no occasion; their committing of men close prisoners, and making havack of Christs Flock in every place; their suppressing Lectures, preaching and all private Christian exercises, cry out against them, as much as ever Lucius his cruelties did against him. m Albertus Magnus: gives this description of the Pre-See lates in his age. Those which now rule in the Church, be for the most Bishop Bil- part theives and murtherers, rather oppressors then feeders, rather spoylers then tutors, rather killers then keepers, rather perverters then teachers, rather seducers then leaders. These be the Messengers of Antichrist, and underminers of the flock of Christ: Andmay not wee verifie the like of many Bishops now? " Aventinu m In Ioan.

c.10. See Bifhop Bilfon hu true difference
betweene Christian Subjection
and Vnchri-

Stian Rebell, p. 114. n Annalium Bogorum. lib, 6. prafat.

writes

writest

phat m

Red box

bue, a

Elion

that we

COPPLETE

mever Cufton

remed

or pur

wife B

for tha

our P

divers

in Afi

Tules

copio

jects,

it : ye

fo as k

have t

Mari

irregi

ved e irregi

and t

for m

the K

unto

6 r

cation

nicat;

pritesthus of the Bishops in his time: I am ashamed to say what maner of Bishops we have, with the revenues of the poore, they fed houndes, borfes, I need not fay whores ; they quaffe , they make leve, and flee all learning (preaching, grace, and holines) as infilion. Such is the misery of these times, wee may not speake that wee thinke , nor thinke that wee feake. As for the sheepe committed to their charge, to sheere them, strip them, kill themis wevery man list, under a protence of devotion, is now an ancient And is not this Cuftome still continued ? What remedy therefore may be now prescribed for this old Malady, or punishment for these excesses? I read that . Basiling other - oSocrates wife Bafillat, Bishop of Ancyra, was deprived of bis Bishopricke, Scholaft, Eccl. Hist. for that hee cruelly tormented and imprisoned a certaine man, (35 1.2. c. 42. our Prelates have many score) forged flaunders , and disquieted in the Greeke divers persons thereby, and molested the quiet estate of the Churches 33. in the in Africke. And I finde it resolved by the P Canonists in their English. Tules De Excessibus Prelatorum; (A Title very ancient and P Hoftiensis, copious,) That if a Prelate exceeds measure in correcting his Subjetts, or be over-tyrannicall and severe, bee ought to be deposed for it: yea 9 if hee thrust any person under his furifdiction into prison, q Summa so as hee dieth by reason of his vexation within a short time, (as many Angelica, have thus died under our Ptelates hands, not onely in Queene 108,21. Maries dayes, but fince, even in our times, hee thereby becomes irregular, as having his hand in blood, and may be therefore deprived even by the Canon Law. Our Prelates therefore as they are , Gratian irregular for their cruell oppressions, imprisonments, excelles, Causa 9. and tyrannicall proceedings, (yea ipfo facto Excommunicated Quaft. 1. for making , printing , and publishing , Visitation Articles , without Galfa II. the Kings authority, and causing his Majesties Subjects to submit Hastisastia, unto them, by the expresse provision of their owne 12. Canon, and 1.5. De Senfor unable to exercise any Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction what sever tentia Exсеттиния -

of the

would

bands,

ofthe

that

band

r and not fo

pre-

not :

that

ether

true

man:

iling

bers, fficio

iva-

lon-

t of

pen lor

ind

ng:

Dut

nft

e-

er

75

75

ly

W

estionis, Summa Angelica & Summa Rosella, Tit. Irregularitas & Excomputnicationis, and other Consonists in those Titles.

cherge Injunctions , It all that O cors le the all their proceedings and Cenfures being now in this regard, (if not their orders too, meere nullities in point of Law , and their very company to be abandoned by all ; as being both irregular and excommunicated ;) fo they very justly demerit to be deprived of their Bishoprickes, and made all Quondams for the fame: I King 131.H.S. Henry the 8. to vindicate bis Prerogative in causes Exclesiafical c.10.37. Fox Alls & from the Popes and Prelates ufurpations ; and to manifest to the Monuments Prelates, that all Ecclefiafticall furifaction, was originally veffed in, and to be derived onely from Wim , and that hee might at his P.999. 1000. An- pleasure take it from his Prelates , who enjoyed it meerely by his tiquitates Grace, and delegate it to whom hee pleased, though meere Lay-Ecclef. Brit. P 386.388 men : created a meere Lay-man, to wa , Thomas Lord Crimwell, Lord Privy Seale; his Vice-gerent for the due administration 389. of Inflice to be had in all cafes, ochfes rouching the Ecclefiafficallyn. rifdiction , to overtop the proud umbitions Bishops , inquire after, vifit , and correct their excesses , and exorbit ant misdemeanors , and overlooke their actions, lives, proceedings, to keepe them in good order and within their bounds , and for the Godly reformation and redresse of Errors, Haresies, and abuses in the Church of England. And the Statute of gr. H. S.c. ro. yet in force, enacts, That the faid Lord (runwell, having the faid office of Vicegerent, and all other persons, which hereafter shall have the faid office of Vicegerent, of the grant of the Kings Highnes, his Herres or Successors, shall fit and be placed as well in this present Parliament, as in all Parlia. ments to be holden hereafter, on the right side of the Parliament chamber, and upon the same forme that the Archbishop of Camerbury fitteth on, and above the same Archbishop and his Successors, #31.H.S. and Shall have voyce in every Parliament to affent or diffent, as 0.10. FOX other Lords of Parliament. The Lord Crumwell vefted with this Alls and Monuments Ecclesiasticall Authority, both by & Letters Patents from the King and this Act of Parliament, held a generall Visitation in all Die-P-999. 1000. ceffes of the Realme over the Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons 1001. 1005. An- themselves, as well as over the Laity, inquiring after and correcting tiquit. Eccl. their abuses, prescribing Injunctions, Rules and Orders to them, Bris. p. 389. both for the Reformation of Religion, the abolishing of Super 399. Pition

fii

ten

fro

Ar

Bi

14 bos

173

the

con

ca

in

th

L

11

te

A

274

fiction and Idolatry, the correction of their exorbitant proceedings, u 37.11.8. excesses, lives and maners, appointing " Laymen by Letters Pa-c. 17. unes under the Kings great Seale, to be the Kings Ecclefiasticall Judges , Visitors , Vicars Generall , Commissaries , Channellours, Officials, Scribes, and Registers, (not the Bishops,) and to exerafe all maner of Ecclesiasticall Jurisdiction and Censures in every Diocesse, from , by and under his Majesty , and by his authority ; whis immediate officers not the B. Shops; (whom hee discharged from this trouble both to curbe their ambitious domineering humors, and to make them more diligent in preaching and in-Anting the people, the cheift end for which they were ordained Bishops, x even by the Councell of Trents resolution, and the maine x Christiana part of their Episcopall function.) And with all, hee kept a speciall Respublice Visitation, An. 1538. of all the Abbies , Priories and religious necessaria est houses throughout the Realme , enquiring most strictly into their Pradicatio lives , and vices , discovering in them such horrible detestable Sodo- Enangely , my , Buggery , Adultery , Whoredome , Luxury , beaftlineffe , and quam Lottio, finch of all maner of finne , both by their owne confessions , and wit- E'S T nesses, as would make all modest, chaste and pious Christians, year PRACImorrall Pagans to stand amazed; as the inquisitions themselves and PVV M their owne confessions in the Exchequer Records , mentioned by EPICO-John y Bale, Bishop Ofyris, and John Speed, and transcribed PORVM MVNVS. lately by Mafter Weever, among other ansient Monuments , re- Seffo S. De cord to all posterity, to their perpetuall infamy. Whereupon thefe Reformatio-

(if not

ry com-

ommuoftheir

King

TARTICAL

Strothe

vefted

at his

y by his

e Lay-

Crum-

Pration

callfu-

e after,

s, and

n good

n) and

igland.

hist the

and all

gerent,

hall fit

arlia-

ment

anter-

fors,

t, 45

b this King

Dio-

ACONS.

Eling

ent,

uper-lition

p. 665. Speeds History of great Brittaine , p. 1042. 1043. 1044. Henry Steven bu Apology for Herodotth, c. 21. f. 183. lobn Weever bu ancient funerall Monuments Lond. 1631. Z Fox Alls and Monuments , p. 1181. 1182. 1187. 1192. 1193. 1209. 1233. Queene Elizabeths Injunctions , and the Articles of inquiry printed with them. Bif hop Iewels life before hin workes, Sect. 25. Speeds Hift. p. 1156. Antiquit. Ecclef. Brit. p. 386. 388.389. 398.

cages of uncleannes, and infernall Stewes were fortwith diffolved by ne, c.2.

All of Parliament, and thefe monstrom Sodomities, and Devils y Balans their deferts. Z King Edward the 6. and Queene Els Tabeth, 8.c. 75.

Act of Partiament, and inceremental mongitudes of Partiament, in the Shapes of men, thrust out and punished, according to Brit. Cent.

reading in this their Royall Fathers footesteps, appointed and constituted Vacegerents and Visitors under their great Seales , the cheife whereof were Laymen, to visit both the Bishops Clergy and Laity in every Dioceffe , within the Realme , with both the Univerlities of Oxford and Cambridge , and to correct , redreffe and reforme all maner of Errors, Herefies, Schifmes, abufes, offences, contempts, enormities, finnes and vices what feever, punishable by any Ecclesiastical Law, and to feele all things both in point of Doctrine and Discipline, according to the Articles of Religion established, and their Royall Injuctions; published under their great Seales, by 23. H.S. the advise of their Councell, and a Authority of Parliament 26. I. Ed. 6. enabling them to publish such Injunctions; these their Visitors having c. 1.3. 5 4. enabling them to publish such Injunctions; these their Visitors having Ed. S c. 10. Authority Ecclesiasticall in every Diocesse paramount the Bishops 11, 12. 5. themselves, by vertue of their Commissions and Letters Patents. & 6. Ed. 6. A cleare evidence, that the power of Leeping visitations, is a cheift c.1.5.2 63 part, of the Kings Ecclefiasticall Prerogative specially united to the E. 6. c. 1. Crowne , by feverall Acts of Parliament , that no Prelate or perfin, 2.5. Elic. 1 may or ought to usurpe and exercise it , (as the Archbishop of 8.Eliz. c. i. Canterbury hath lately done, and pleaded that hee ought of right to visit, not onely his Province, but both Universities in his owne inherent Archiepiscopall right, and name, not as his Majeffies Visitor, and in his name and right alone, which they were $26. H. 8. content at first, hee should doe,) by b special Letters Pac.1.31.H.8 tents, under the great Seale, by, from, and under his Majefty, at c. 10. 37. his visitors and vicegerents onely, and in his name and right alone; 1.E. 6. c. 2. and that , as no Archbishop , Bishop, or other Ecclesinstical person, T. Eliz. c. I. may or ought by Law to wifit any of the Kings free-chaples , Dona-8. Eliz. c. 1. tives , Hofpitals, Abbyes, or Peculiars, though within his Dioceffe, and precincts, (and by consequence the Univertities and severall Colledges in them, many of them being of Kings foundations, atta of them having speciall Visitors appointed them by the founders, by speciall Patent from the King) but by a special Commission from the King under his great Seale, without wenring both an Attachment and Pramunire, and as the King by his Royall Prerogative may exempt any place or person at his pleasure from a Bookie gether wife t within appear

H. 8. flust verne ry Bi nativ in the bifhe fring I doe

High of his Dio case grow fiafti by a Cor

Infl. Fair f. 11 Note e St

De l 1. 2. faure 75. f Se

from

sted and from all Episcopall Jurisdictions and visitations, as many & Law Booker, & Histories , yea and the & Campuils then felves , 10-68. All. 29. gether with the f Councell of Trent, expressly resolve; So like m. 16, E. 3. wife that no Bishop may, can or ought by Law to keepe a visitation 660.20. B. within his Dioceffe, without a focial Parent from the King, (as 3. Fuz. Exappeares by Eishop Ridlies, Coverdales , Scories, Poness and many com. 9. 21. wher ancient Bishop Patents, the Statutes of 31. H. S. c. 10. 37. E.3.60.27.
H. S. c. 17. 1. Ed. 6. c. 2. 1. Eb7. c. 1. 8. Ei7. c. 1. and other E.3. 85. a.

the King being reshelves Monroeth King being reshelves. (huntes ,) the King being as absolute a Monarch , King , Go- pars 2.f.40. remour, in and over all Ecclefiafficall persons and causes in eve-41.43 Fitz. ry Bishops Diocesse, as in and over his owne frank-chaples, Do- Nat. Brev. natives and Peculiars; which no Prelates dare or can deny; fince 42.4.50. L. in the very Oath of Supremacy and Allegiance, which the Arch- Lurifastion bishops are the first men , enjoyned to take as like itele to in- of Courts. fringt,) they make this profession and solemne protestation, f. 97.4. I doe otterly testifie and declare in my Conscience, that the Kings Dyer. 273. Highnes is the only Supreame Governour of this, Realme, Gall ot ber a. Cooke 5. of his Heighnes Dominions and Countries, therefore in and of their Candries Diocesse,) as well in all spirituall, or Ecclesiasticall thingsor case.f.9.10. causes, as temporall. Seeing therefore our Prelates are lately 15.11. Regrowen fo infolent, as to claime and exercise all their Eccle- fort f. 91. finsticall Episcopall Jurisdiction, and the power of visitation to, Listeron. by a divine right and Title onely, not by any power, Patent or f. 96.4.344 Commission from the King; seeing they have made so many a. Sir Iolin Cro : Bac . 63.

Infh Reports 42. 46. 47. 48. Brooke Pranounire 21. Hil. 2. Inc. B. R. Gayard and Farrecould; cafe 2. H. S. C. 1. 25, H. S. C. 21. 14. Eliz. c. 5, Stan ford. l. 3. c. 38. f. 111. 1. H. 7. 23. 25. d Eadmerin Figl. Nop 1. 1. p. 6, and Mafter Seldem Notes ibid. p. 167. 166. Antiquis. Ecclef. Brit. , 386. 388. 389. 398. 399. e Summa Angelica & Summa Rofell Tit. Exempeut. 3. 4. 5. Mauritan de Alcedo De Pracellentia Episcopalu dignitain. l. 2. c. 2. n. 50. p. 190: Fuscus de Vistatione. 1. 2. n. 21. Azorius, Inftie. Moral. pars 2. l. I. c. 90. qu. 10. Franciscus Leo,in The-Sauro, pars 2.c. 2. n. ult. Perez de Capellanis, 1. 2. c. 1. m 49. Barbofa Allegatio.

75. n. 2. 16. f Seffo. 22. de Reformatione , c. 9.

15 , the

y and e Uni-

end rees, con-

by any

octrine blifbed,

les , by

iment

baving

Bifhops

atents.

cheife

tothe

perfin,

opof ght of

in his

Ma-

were

7,4

elone;

Gre,

onaceffe,

eve-

nda-

by

cial

MY-

his ure

rom

groffe encroachments, both upon the Kings Prerogative Royall the Lawes, the Cuftomes of the Realme, and the Subjects Rights and Liberties, which they everywhere trample under their feete: And fince they are growne fo exorbitant, irregular, tyrangicall, oppreffive, vindictive; so onerous and intollerable to the Subjects, both in their Confiftories and vifitations, but elpecially in their High-Commissions, where they make the Kings Commission and Authority a meere engine and stratagemeto erect and inlarge their owne meere Papall Antichriftian Iurifdictions and usurpations, which they challenge by a Divine (but in trutha Papall) right, thereby chrushing and questioning all fuch, who out of conscience towards God, or Loyalty to their Soveraigne, dare make any just or legall opposition against the fame, or refuse to submit thereto; And since the Statute of at. H. 8. c. 10. authorizeth both the King his Heires and Succeffors, to make a Vice-gerent generall in causes Ecclesiasticall, thougha meere Layman, to take place of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and all other Prelates of the Realme, and their Successors, both in Parliament and elsewhere, to curbe and restraine their exorbitant usurpations both upon the Kings Prerogative, Lawes and Subjects Liberties; to overlooke their actions, maners, lives, proceedings; to correct their feverall mildemeanors, encroachments, excesses, tyrannies, oppressions, exactions, abuses, and to visit these great Lords and Visitors themselves: Whether it will not be meet and expedient for his Majesty both in point of Honor, Justice and Policy, to conflitute such a Lay Vice-gerent ge. nerall, by his special Letters Patents, to checke the infolency and domineering humor of our present Lordly Prelates, and to visite, inquire out, punish, redresseall their forementioned difloyall encroachments, both upon the King and Subject, for the better preservation of the Prerogative of the one, the Liberties of the other, the releife of all oppressed Subjects, the better. execution of Iuftice in all Ecclefasticall Courts and causes, and the exemption of the Prela es from all unnecessary cares and toubles; which now to take them up, that they have neither time

nor

or Will (alvati

1.4.6

phop y

Mart

reachea

thouse

Prolate

whe p

lone,)

Dunkel

Lordly :

fers fro

moove t

meach i

letter b

Prince

Royall

out any of all h

Nich

Eccleft

ly coul

ives o

Thofe

ding t

def Hi

1366. 6. and

Bif !

· Fex

or Will, diligently to seach and infruct the people in matters falvation , as & Same Angustine , Sant b Ambrofe, i Cy 72.16. 20 Royall, 1, & Obryfoftome, I Origen, and other, Fathers of old, and 21.27.29. Subjects othop m Hosper , Bishop Latimer, Bishop Ridly with other of and 35.37.38. e under Martyrs and Godly Prelates of later times have done, who 50. in loan. regular, nached every day in the weeke and yeare at least once, or twice, 6. 10. in 1. rableto show finde , as the marginal author wies equidence, proceed in our Epift. Ion. at efpe-Prelines thinke it muchta preach ouce or swice a yeare, and shenwar De verbi Kings the people of their Diocesse, (which halfe of them have not Domini in lone,) (but at the Court alone;) they being of the Bisbop . of Enangelia. Dunkeldens mind , that they were not ordained to preach , but to be 21. De ver-Lordly Loyterers, beare rule, and keepe off other painefull Mini ba Apostoli, fers from duligent frequent preaching, for feare their paines should Serm. 5.6.7 prove their shame, and make the people believe, that were bound to bDeSaram. reach as much , or more then other Ministers , because they have 1.4.c.6. 1.5. later hire. I here humbly referre to his Majesties pious care and Carech O-Princely wisdome, who may now justly and safely follow the ratio. 7. 14. Royall fleps of his Famous Progenitors in this particular, with- Casech. out any scandall, offence, or innovation, to the releife and joy Mystago. 2, k Homst. 3. of all his Loyall and oppressed Subjects. 4.5.6.7.

9.10.13. I shall begin to close up this Breviate with the words of 28.33.44. Nicholans de Clemanguis, in his excellent Booke , De corrupto to 62. on Ecclefix flary , chap. 14: to 20. where hee thus paints out in live, Genefis. IHowil, 10. recoulours . the maners , practifes , oppressions , designes , and in Genel. lives of the Prelates and their Officers in his age, and ours too: Hon, g. in Those who at this day are promoted to the dignity of a Bishop, accor- Isai. & conding to the maner of their professions, with creat earnestnes on tra Celsium. lib, 8. Necephorus, Ecm Fox Ads and Menuments; p. 1115.1759.1579.956. def Hift.l. 12.6.34. 1366. 1153. 428. Bifhop Hoopers Protestation of bu faithte King Edward the 6, and the whole boufe of Parliament , Anno 1550. Bif hop Latymers Sermon of the Plough.

Fox Alls and Monuments, p. 1153.

emeto

Iurif-

e (but

ling all

their nft the

of 31.

fors,

ugha

bury,

th in

orbi-

and

ves,

ech-

dto

will

lo-

ge.

Cy

to

ed

or

1-

er.

nd d

every fide, preedily gape after gaine, not verily of foules, but of purfa rather , the gaine whereof they feeke out every where : they burne after gaine , they repute gaine godlines , they doe nothing at all but that which they believe , may suffer agate to collect many upon any occasion ; for which they wrangle , contend , chide , goe to Lan, taking the loffe of ten thousand soules more patiently, then of 10. or 12. But I justly reprehend my felfe who faid , more patiently, when as they take the loffe of foules with no motion or perturbation of mind, of which there is not onely with them no care , but not fo much as any thought; yet they undergoe even the smallest losses of any part of their estate, almost with a furious and destracted mind. Moreover, if peradventure any Bishop or Pastor Shall arise, who will not walke ufter this maner, or who contemnes money or damnes coveroning, who finally will not every way, whether just or unjust, extort money from his Subjects , or fludy to gaine foules by wholfome exhortation or preaching, and meditates more in the Lawes of the Lord, then in the Lawes of men, prefently all their teeth are fet on edge to bite bim: they * will cry him up to be altogether an unfit man, not worth of the Preisthood; because hee being ignorant of Humane Lames, is ritan besides. not fit to defend his rights : knowethnot bow to governe, panish, and restraine his Subjects by Canonicall Censures, and bath learned nothing elfe, but to give him selfeeven to a Layfie idlenes, or to preaching which they openly affirme, to be the office of Mendicants, enjoyning no temporall care, or administration, which may possesse their minds with a more profitable occupation. Therefore now the studies of our Prelates (he facred Scriptures , with their professors are turned into laughter, now, some of and a mocking stock with all men; and which is most producious, them having effecially toward Prelates, who preferre their owne traditions fare not preached before Gods Commaundements. That egregious and most exone sermon celleut office of preaching, attributed onely to Pastors or Bishops in times past, and principally due to them, bath now * waxed fo vik common with them, even to other Prelates : Which yet I will

bandi

place.

aur T

fide ,

witht

they w

verbe

Creat

prey.

they 1

mitte

aught

justly

pleni

that t

great

minis

their 1

for the

miosss

eate b

Suffer

money

or good

to goe

they a

(hall)

lently

choofe the Ch

Inqui

unto t

men,

Cities

feine ci

* Now they cry out on . him as aPu-

* And Bit

most of them with them, that they thinke nothing more unworthy or dishonourable but one Ser- to their dignity then it. But loe, whileft I confider the proper fickmon or two neffes of the Court of Rome, I am fallen upon those wives which are

yeare. bandle

handle more particularly in a succinct relation, because I have a fit place. First it ought not to seeme strange or a wonder unto any, if our Prelates principally study, to scrape together moneyes on every side, if being thinne, leane, and empty, they study to fat themselves with the juice, wooll, and milke of their sheepe, of whom it appeares, they were made Pastours at so deare a rate. For flies (as the proverbe is ,) pined with learnes bite more sharply. Likewise all living Creatures consumed with famine, are carried more greedily to the prey. For although before the undertaking of their Episcopall cure, they were very wealthy; (neither are indigent men wont to be admitted thereunto,) yet by the Ministry conferred on them, they ought at least to empty their purses for the most part. justly and not without cause, they make it their cheifest labour to replenish them againe. And by the Example of a wife husbandman, that they may gather the feed, they have sowed with increase and great returne, and againe recover and diligently enlarge their deminished Substance, like most vigilant tradesmen, they expose all their wares to sale to all who need them. If any Clerke among them for theft, for Homicide, for rape, or sacriledge, or any other enormious crime be cast into prison and adjudged to the dungeon there, to eate bread and water, hee shall so long be liable to punishment, and suffer for his offences as a guilty person, until hee shall pay the money demanded of him, according to the measure of his revenues or goods. But when hee shall doe this hee is set at large, and suffered to goe away like an innocent, every Error, all wickednesses, although they are capitall, are released and blotted out by money. For what shall I speake of the exercise of this furisdiction, which is so * vio- * Thus is no lently and tyrannically governed, that at this day men rather now. choose to undergoe the Judgements of the most cruell tyrants, then of the Church. It cannot be expressed how great evils those wicked Inquisitors of crimes which be called promotors or Apparators, doe 4 Thus our * They oft times call simple and poore husband- Bis bops Apmen, living, an harmlesse life in their cottages, and ignorant of the paritors serve pur la

burne

all but

on any

Lan,

0. or

phen

mind,

u ang

art of

over,

walke

usner,

money

Lion

שנו מי

bim:

onthy

ės , 15

and,

no-

ching

ming

ninds

ies of

bter,

ions,

farre

ex-

ימו vik

rable

fick-

are

will

ndle

Cities fraud, into their Courts, for a thing of naught, they diligently Subjects at fine causes and crimes against them, vexe, terrisie, threaten them; this day.

.

more with

and so by these meanes compell them to compound and agree with Which if they refuse to doe, they dayly serve and infest them out of measure with frequent. Citations; and if once hindred by any occasion, they shall faile to appeare, presently they are struck with the Sentence of Excommunication as Rebels and contumacious. But if they shall continue to appeare at the day as oft as they shall be called; they will hinder their audience at the Judges tribunals, they will lay hold of delayes and subter fugies, of imparlances, and interlocutions, which are very easily obtained from Ecclesiasticall Courts; that 6 being tyred out with long delay, and great loffe of their time, they may be compelled to redeeme their future vexation, and expenses, with a Summe of money, least they should incurre a heape of infinite expences, for a small or no offence, or for a litle debt. pray, what athing is this, that in most Diocesse Rectors of parishes doe everywhere keepe Concubines at a certaine rate and hire, which they agree for with their Prelates? That all excesses and vices of Subjects, and all offices, even in Court of Judicature, are publikely fold by them? But to those of which wee have spoken, and shall speake, these things are good. But how is this to be endured, that no man * It is not to comes to a Clerkeship, * or to a facred order, or to any Eccesiastical degree, but by reward? that none bestow sacramentall grace, or our Prelates. imposition of hands, unlesse hee shall give a certaine price before hand? that they make all Confessions, Absolutions, Dispensations venial? that if any benefices are devolved to their disposition, they bestow them for gaine, or give them to their bastards, or to stageplayers? Wow if any man peradventure shall object that Enangelicall saying to them : Freely ye have received, freely give : they want not what they may presently answere; that they did not freely receive, therefore they are not bound by the Text , freely to give. Finally, they say, that those Bishops onely are bound by this sentence, who have obtained their Pastorall office, without any disbursement at Therefore no man (but hee who strayes farre from the truth,) may expect, that grace should be thus fold by equity, for how is it grace, if it be not freely given? unleffe wee will deeme it falle, that that pestiferous Sorcerer was reprehended by Peter, with a direful malemaled

with a

vile an receiv

4 (ha

(ball a

poveri

exam

cernin

mee fe

mard

mordi

by the

they 1

with any m torio

forth

pleaf

ligen

vellin

Sur fe curse

lips. brace

our .

they

into term

Paj

nev

bar of t

char

malediction, who thought that the gift of God might be purchased Now from this fountaine that copious multitude of vile and most unworthy Preists hath issued. For that they might receive greater gaine by conferring Orders, they admit all as many as shall come with none or litle difference, to those titles which they hall aske, (unlesse perchance there be some so oppressed with poverty, that they are not able to pay for orders:) there is no examination of their forepast life, no question of their maners. Conterning their Letters and learning what bootes it to speake, when as wee see that almost all Preistes can scarce reade, and that waywardly, and by fillables, without any understanding of the things or What fruite therefore, what audience shall they obtaine by their prayers, either to themselves or others, to whom that, which they pray is barbarous? How shall they reconcile God by their prayers unto others, whom they have made offended with themselves with their ignorance, their filthines of life, and by their ministry? If any man at this day be idle; if any abhorring labour, if any be willing to riot in idlenes, hee flies to the Ministry; which having obtained hee forthwith affociates himselfe to the other Preists, who are followers of pleasures;* Who living more after Epicures then after Christ, and diligently frequenting Alchouses consume all their time in drinking, re-many of the velling, pransing, feasting, playing at tables and at ball. And being Clergy now fur feted and drunken, they fight, they warre, they make a tumult, they a dayes doe curse the name of God and of his Saints, with their most polluted this. lips. And thus composed, at last, they come from the very em-But I returne to + Some of our bracements of their harlots to the divine Altar. our Bishops , who being educated in all lubricity from their youth, Prelates to they introduce such witnesses, that I may soo speake, Ministers, are guilty of into the Church, whose acts are memorable, this ought not to be pre-thu, that they termitted by me; that many of those who have obtained the top of a never sam Pastorall dignity, and have enjoyed the same for many yeares, have Diocesse, yes never entred into their Cities , have never feene their Churches , they bave bave never vifit their places or Diocesse, have never knowne the faces sleeced them of their flockes, heard their voyce, felt their woundes, unleffe per-by their De-

with

them

by any

with

es. But called;

vill lay

tions,

bat 6

they

enfes,

finite

ow I

rishes

which

vices

likely

ake,

man

tieall

or

end?

all?

Pow

ers?

ing

not

ve,

bo

化

6,)

t

chance those woundes which themselves have inflicted on them with puty Visitors.

N. n. 2 their

their rich spoyles by strangers, and hirelings. I have faid strangers; because even they themselves are hirelings, who seeke not the custody, safety or profit of their flocke, but onely the recribution of a temporall Therefore they themselves are hirelings, having onely the name of a Bishop, because the thing signified by the name is farre from them. For the name of a Bishop signifieth a Watchman or Superintendent : Behold (faith the Prophet) I have made thee a Watchmanto the hosse of Ifraell. But thefe verily watch not at all over the flock, they overfee nothing, they looke to nothing: they take the care of their owne body, they feed themselves and not their sheepe, not greatly weiging what accident may happen to the sheepe, whether they die con-Sumed, either with sicknes or famine, so as themselves may gaine any * A good exthing by their death. * But peradventure some man will fay, that Prelates, who they may justly be pardoned : if they seldome goe to their Diocesse, or more flowly visit their litle flockes; because being sent for to be Princes Counsels, they handle the great affaires of the Kingdome, & governe, then spiritudefend, Support the Common-wealth, which rests upon their shoulders, and would otherwife most greivously fall to ruine; which feemes to be deeply occupied in State more Land-worthy, then to consult their owne private affaires. First I will by no meanes grant them this , that they are willingly called out then Church , in by Princes of their owne accord to be Consellers of state, but they obearthly then taine it with great suite, costs and intercessions of freinds; * not verily beavenly. out of any Zeale or care of the Republike, of which they have no love affaires. * Note this well.

cufe for our

are more temporall

all, more or charity at all; but for the stipends and large gifts which accure unto them from thence, that living upon other mens cofts they may * Note well, treasure up the revenues of their owne Churches. Finally what profit So Master bring they to the languishing yea almost dying, and now well nigh. buried Common-weale? Would to God they brought no destruction Tyndall in hnObedience thereunto! What I pray you? doe they profit in this thing that they me man p. 116 vend + all the burthens of taxes , and tributes , with which the people writes thus of Bishops. I pase over with silence how they teach Princes in every land to lade new exactions and tyramy on their Subjects more and more dayly, neither for what purpose they doe it fay 1. God I trust fhall I hortly disclose their jugling , and bring their fall bood to light, and lay a medicine to them, to make their fcab breake out.

are at i being is

Last for

Custon

of Eng

and de doe the

and co

which

monw

DOM' ; geft to things

with wealt

allow

and n

is like

doe,

betwee

ofthe

who i

wida

estra

diffr

Pro

m w

be ri

are . guif

leste

But

ever

thon

are at this day charged, by their subtility and suggestions, and that being invented, they heape them one upon another, and cause them to last for fo long a time? whence even long agoe there hath beene a Sustome in this Kingdome (France bee meanes, which is now true of Englandlikewife,) that some Bishops are set over such exactions, and determine the causes and complaints concerning them. Whether doe they herein profit the Republike, that being called to the Counsell and commanded to speake their opinions, they perswade those things which they know, will rather please the Prince, then profit the Commonwealth? that oft time being led with bribes, oft times with favour, oft times with hatred, oft times also with feare they suggest to the eares of their Lords, not just, not true, not sincere things, but perverse and hurtfull things, covered over with fallacie? Furthermore, doe they helpe the Commonwealth in this thing, that they oft privily inculcate, that greater allowance is to be contributed to those Rectors who administer it, and more then the common allowance? For what themselves doe it is likely , that being confulted, soich they likewise exhort others to doe, least their words and astions should filthily disagree and fight * A good betweene themselves. * Finally, which of them is a Defender question to be of the poore, a comforter of the afflicted, a releiver of the oppressed, Prelates. who a patron for the fatherlesse, who a protector to the poore widdowe against the false accuser? Yea verily who is more estranged from the compassionating and commiserating of any distressed poore people then they, and truly too, doth the Prophet Isay speake under the Image of the Princes of the Synagogue, of whom these, although they are their Successors in wickednesses, in respect of time, yet peradventure they may be rightly termed their predecessors in vilenesse; Thy Princes are treacherous and companions of theires, every one loveth guiftes, and followeth after rewards, they judge not the fatherlesse, neither doth the cause of the widdowe come unto them. But it is a wonderfull thing what that meanes, that now almost every Bishop receives yearely almost fixe, seaven ; or ten thousand Crownes from the Church, of which hee is prefi-Nn 3 ngers

stody.

porall ly the e from

mten-

nanto flock,

their

weig-

e con-

e any

that e, or

rinces

erne, ders,

tobe

irst

lout

.ob

erily

love are way ofit

gh-

ion

mple

x-by

re

Note this

president, but not above one thousand Crownes from the King for his flipend, and * yet hee leaves the care of his Church, and of the fold committed to him for the service of the Kingdome. not at least like an bireling to serve him who giveth the greatest wages? But their answere to thesethings is at hand. For although that be more, which the Church greeth them, than what the Prince, yot that office joyned to the greater , makes the summe the bigger, and too good things are better then one. Further the fruits that are given them by the King, they know they shall not receive, unlesse they waite at the Kings elbow; but those which accure unto them from their Churches they know shall be given them, though they be farre off, and free from service. What and if they impute no doubt their promotion made at the instance of the King, to the King himselve, and not to God, nor to the Church? Therefore like grateful men, no wayes for getfull of him by whome they have obtained grace they deservedly according to the vicifitude of obedience more willing. ly referre their service and obedience unto them. * What and if they have learned to serve Kings, and not God, nor the Church! What and if they have fought their Miter, not with an intention of of exercising any office in the Church, but of obtaining quietnes and case in greater aboundance? What and if by reason of their accustomed wages they helpe to obtaine many small things openly, yea and many small things openly by importunity, which serving in their Churches they could not obtaine? But at least thou wilt fay, they there helpe their owne Churches, that they be not burthered or oppressed, * yea they themselves oppresse both their owne and others, whiles they lay taxes upon them, at the will of the secular powers.

*ThePrelates Court Lesson.

Note bi.

Wran King. chefte For lest they should be reprooved by the Noblemen, whose businesses they agitate, and whose Counsels they frequent, that they favour Order and T their Churches more then is meet, as oft as it shall happen that any thing is in agitation concerning the Church , they infult more grudowne vonsty against it, then any of the Layty. Rarely happens there be no l any affliction to these calamitous Churches, which may not derive its And originall from these their proper somes. But why doe wee so greath mora accuse their absence from their Sees? when as if they were there per Engl (onally

inally |

For wh

yeare tu

nbank

phole n

htheir

who bei

athey

who for

ruffins

fidence

aror.

Ibave

more fi

molves

verily

ceive, 1

cellent

Prela

tude of

inally present, they might in all likelyhood doe more hurt then good for what , I pray, doe they profit , who in the revolution of the whole d of the neare tuter their Church but twice or thrice? who spend whole dayes ught bee nhanking, and hunting, in playes and wrestling? who passe over reatest phole nights without sleepe in most accurate banquees, in claping of hands and daunces, being likewise effeminate with maydens: who h their filthy example lead their flocke by bywayes into a precipice; who being yet beardles youthes, scarce gone from under the ferrula, hie to the pastorall Magistracy, and know so much concerning it uthey doe of a Pilots office. It is very difficult and hard to determine, which of them doe more burt to their flocke : whether thefe who for saking it, and committing it to wolves, are conversant with ruffins and parasites in the Court; Or those rather who keeping residence, vexe it by rapine, neglect it by carelesnes, precipitate it by error. For although I may rightly call both of them hirelings, yet Ihave spoken too litle in regard of the thing it selfe, both of them are more fitly to be tearmed * wolves , for both of them all the part of . The Bifwolves; the devoure, scatter, teare, and carry away : These hops true verily by themselves; but those, for themselves by others. I per- Christian wive, that I have insisted longer then I thought at first in these ex-name. cellent services of our Angels, (for so the holy Scriptures terme Prelates,) but thou oughtest to grant pardon to 6 great a multitude of things, which I could not.

Ubough

Prince,

bigger,

hat are

unlesse

them

they be doubt

bim-

ateful

grace

illing-

and if

narch?

tion of

s and

ir ac-

their

they

r op-

mers.

reffes

THOU

any

gru-

bere

e us

ath

Dertally

To him I shall onely annexe the words of William Wranghton, in his Rescuing of the Romish Fox, dedicated to King Henry the 8. Wee have put downe; (faith hee) to Winchester of your Orders of the world. There remaine yet two Orders of the world ye in England; that is the Order of Pompous and Popish Bishops , and Grey Friers. Which if they were put downe as well as the other put downe before, I reckon that there should be no Kingdome, wherein Christ should more raigne then in England. And of Rodericke Mors, sometimes a Grey Frier, his memorable passage in his Complaint to the Parliament-House of England, about the 37. of King Henry the eight, ch. 23.24. No doubt (writes hee,) one Bishop, one Deane, one College, or house of Canons hath ever done more mischeife against Gods word, and lought more the hinderance of the same , then ten houses of Monkes , Friers , Chanons , or Numes. The Kings Grace began well to weed the Garden of England , but yet hath hee left standing (the more pitty ,) the most foulest and stinking weedes, which had most need to be first plucked up by the rootes, that is to fay, the pricking thefiles and flinking netles , which fill standing ; what helpeth the deposing of the petty members of the Pope and to leave his whole body behinde , which be the pompous Bishops , Canons of Colleges , Deanes and such other? Surely it helpeth as much as to say, I will goe kill all the Foxes in Sant Johans woode, because I would have no more Foxes bred in all England. Which well pondered, wee may fay and lie not, that the Pope remaineth wholly still in England, fave onely, that his name is banished. For why his body, (which be Bishops and other shavelings ,) doth not onely remaine , but also his *SeeWilliam tayle, which be his filthy traditions, wicked Lawes, and beggerly Ce-Wraughton remonies, (as Sant Paul called them,) yea and the whole body of his pestiferous * Canon Law according to which judgement is given bu hunting of the through out the Realme : So that wee be still in Egypt, and remaine Romish inCaptivity, most grievously laden by observing and walking in his Fox: who most filiby droffe aforefaid, which is a myfty and endleffe maze. excellently. And 6 long as yee walke in those wicked Lawes of Antichrist the and fully prooves, that Pope, and maintaine HIS KNIGHTS THE she Canon BISHOPS, in such inordinate riches and unlawfull authority, Law is the Popes Law, so long say I, ye * shall never banish that monstrous beast the Pope and that the out of England, yea and it shall be a meanes in processe of time to Pope doth & bring su into temporall bondage also againe, to have him raigne as will continue hee hath done, like a God. And that know our forked caps right her as long as well, which thing maketh them so boldly and shamelesty to fight in the Canon their Gods quarrell, against Christ and his word, oc. The Bishops Law doth remaine in by their subtilities and most crafty wiles, make the people to abhorre the name of the Pope of Rome for a face, and compell them to ufe. * Note well walke in all his wicked Lawes. And the word of God which we say we what have received, is not, nor cannot be suffered to be preached and taught ensucth. purely,

mely,
mos and menta me of th
posts, th abando
monies.
Pope,

plainely Bishops
Rome.
bis Ext against bers of Basil, in dose u
that in

cions pi

firth al

the bloo Bishops petty po bers in doth ye

Beares in corn fubtill the hea judge t their n

> Talen brings in the

exam

ge, or erely, and sincerely without mixing it with their invented tradiions and fervice. Wherefore to open the Conclusion of this litle uses of mentation, if yee will banish for ever the Antichrist the Pope Grace ut of this Realme, yee must fell downe to the ground those rotten ee left softs, the Bishops, which be cloudes without moisture, and otterly reedes, handon all and every of his ungodly Lawes, Traditions, and Cereto fay, Now will I speake no further against the particular what Pope, forasmuch as every Bishop is now a Pope, and yee may lainely fee, (by all the premises,) that the proud Prelates the ions of Bishops (I meane) be very Antichrists, as is their Father of Rome. Thus hee, to whom I shall subjoyne Henry Stalbridge his Exhortatory Epistle, to his dearely beloved Countrey of England, gainst the pompous Popish Bishops thereof, as yet the true memhers of their filthy Father the great Antichrist of Rome, printed ac. Bafil, in King Henry the 8. his dayes, with whose words I shall dose up this breviate: I say yet once againe, (writes hee) and that in the Seale of the Lord, as hee is my judge, I wish , (if his grations pleasure so were,) that first the Kings Majesty, and so firth all these, unto whom God hath given power and authority upon earth under him, may throughly see and perceive how that not onely the bloody beare wolfe of Rome, but also the most part of the other Bishops, and stout sturdy Canons of Cathedrall Churches, with other petty proulers and prestigious Priests of Baall his malignant, members in all Realmes of Christendome (especially here in England,) doth yes roare abrode like bungry Luons, free inwardly like angry Beares, and bite as they dare like cruell Wolves, clustering together in corners, like a swarme of Adders in a dunghill, or most wily subtill Serpents, to uphold and preserve their filthy Father of Rome, the head of their barredy brood; if it may be. * No leffe doe I + Note. judge it, then a bounden duty of all faithfull Ministers, to manifest their mischeifes to the univer sall world, every man according to his Talent given of God , some with penne , and some with tongue; so bringing them out of their old estimation, least they should still raigne in the peoples consciences to their soules destruction. In evident example have they of Christ thus to doe, which openly rebuked their leave

o fay,

would

l, wee

land,

which

6 bis

v.Ce-

ofhis

ven

aine

a his aze.

the

HE

ope to

e.as

ght

t ih

ops

me

20 ne

h

filthy Fore-fathers , the Scribes , Lawyers , Pharifees , Doctors, Priests, Bishops , and Hypocrites , for making Gods Commaundements of no effect, to support their owne traditions, Mar. 8. Luc. 12. Paul also admonisheth us , that after his departure should enter in among us such ravening wolves, as should not spare the flocke. These spiritual Man-hunters , are the very offspring of Caine, children of Casphas, and Successors of Simon Magus, as their doctring and living declareth, needing no further probation. Most cruell enemies have they beene in all ages to the verity of God, ever fince the Law was first given, and most feirce persecutors of Christ and his Church, (which hee there prooves at large by severall examples;) No where could the verity be taught, but thefe glorious gluttons were ever at band to refift it : Marvell not yee Bishops and Prelates, though I thus in the Zeale of Helyas and Phineas Stomacke against your sturdy stormes of stubbornes : For never was any tyranny ministred upon Christ, and his misticall members, but by your proud procurements. And now in our dayes where are any of the Lords true fervants burned, or otherwise murthered for true preaching, writing, glosing, or interpreting the Gospell, but it is by your cruell calling upon, &c. If you be not most wicked workers against God and his verity, and most spitefull Traytors to the King and his Realme, I cannot thinke there be any living upon the earth. Be this onely poken to ye, that maintaine such misteries of madnes. Never Sent Christ fuch bloody Apostles, nor two harned warriours, but the Devils Vicar Antichrist, which is the deadly destroyer of fauthfull beleivers. What Christian blood hath beens shed betweene Empire and Empire, Kingdome and Kingdome, as betweene Constantinople and Almaigne, England and France, Italy and Spaine for the Bishops of Rome? and how many cruell wars of their Preists calling on , were too much , either to write or to speake. Alwayes have they beene working mischeife in their idle generation,

* Note well to obscure the verity of God. * I say yet once againe, that it were very necessary for the Kings worthy. Majesty with earnest eyes to marke, how God hath graciously vouchsafed to deliver both him, and his people from your troublesome termagaunt of Rome, which afore

afore

bowar

confid

wfedb

fince t

duing King

prifon

King

Who

WYON

throw

Cant

Rog

Thon

ce for work

bols

thy.

mos

200 migi

Rea

time

Gof

pead

gen

after made all Christen Kings his Common Slaves, and to octors beware of you bolow hearted Trayters, his spiritual Promoters, aundeconsidering shat your proud Predecessors have alwayes so wickedly wedhis graces noble Progenitors the worthy Kings of this Realme, fince the Conquest and afore. Who overthrew King Herold, Subduing all his Land to the Normaines? Who procured the death of King William Rufus , and canfed King Stephen to be throwen in prison? Who troubled King Henry the first, and most cruelly vexed King Henry the second? Who subdued and poysoned King John.? Who murthered King Edward the second, and famished King Richard the second most unseemingly? Besides that bath beene wrought against the other Kings alfo. To him that shall read and * See Antithroughly marke the religious acts of * Robert the Archbishop of quit. Eecles. Canterbury of old , Egelwinus Anselmus , Randolf of Durham, Brit. and Ralfe of Chichester, Alexander of Lincolne, Nigeliu of Hely, Godwins Roger of Salisbury, Thomas Becket, Stephen Laughton, Walter Bishops in Stapilton , Robert Baldocke , Richard Scrope , Henry Spencer , their lives . Thomas Arundell, and a great fort more of your anointed Ante- Dr. Barnes ceffors, Pontificiall Prelates, mitred Mummers, mad mastry his Supplic. workers, ringed Ruffelers, rocheted Rutters, shorne sawcy Swil to K. Henry bols, it will evidently appeare, that your wicked generation hath don contradone all that, and many other mischeifes more. By these your fit Oforium,1.2 thy Fore-fathers and such other, bath this Realme beene alwayes in f.251.252 most miserable captivity, either of the Romans or Danes, Saxons or Fox Acts & Normans, and now last of all under the most blashbemous Behe-Monuments moth your Romish Pope, the great Antichrift of Europa, and most 1.320.321 mighty maintainer of Sodom and Gomorite: How unchristianly 410. 533 your faid Predecessours have nsed the Rulers of all other Christian 1035. Realmes, it were to long to write. * I reckon it therefore high- 1036. time for all those Christian Princes, which pretend to receive the 1132. 186.10234 Gospell of Salvation, and accordingly after that to live in mutuall + Note, See peace and tranquility, for ever to cast ye out of their privy Counsels, Mr. Tyndals and utterly to seclude you from all administrations, till such time as Practise of they finde ye no longer wolves , but faithfull feeders; no destroyers, but Popis b Pregentle teachers. For as Sant Peter doth fay, 1. Pet. 5. Tee dars accorought 00 2

· Luc.

dema

flocke.

Caine,

s their

Most

י כטפר

Christ

A ex-

prions

hops

ineas

mu.

are

dfor

It Is

kers

ing

rth.

165 a

27-

de-

me

41

4

ought to be no Lords over the people of your Diocesse, but examples of Christian meeknes. Who seeth not that in these dayes your bloody Bishops of England, Italy, Cycell, France, Spaine, Fortingale,

* See the 5. Scotland and Ireland, † be the ground and original fondation and 6.part of all Controversies, Schismes, variances and warres betwixt Realme of the Hom. and Realme at this present, &c. Consider your beginning. Never gainst will and Realme at this present, &c. Consider your beginning. Never full Rebellion came yee in with your Muers, Robes, and Rings by the doore, as did and the 2. the poore Apostles, but by the window unrequired, like robbers, part of the theeves and manquellers with Simon Magus, Marcion and Homily on Menander. Never was your prond Pontificall power of the heavenly Fathers planting, and therefore it must at the last up by the rootes, ye must in the end be destroyed without handes, Dan.

*Ibid.f. 18. 8. &c. * I thinke the Devills in bell, are not of a more perverse & 22. to minde, nor seeke more wayes to the soules destruction then you. Tee play Pharao, Saiphau, Nero, Trajanus, with all Tyrants parts play Pharao, Caiphas, Nero, Trajanus, with all Tyrants parts besides; Oh abominable Scorners and theeves, which practise nothing else but the otter destruction of soules? If any thing under the heavens hath need of Reformation, let them thinke this to be one which minded any godlinesse: For never did cruell Pharao hold the people of Ifraell in so wicked captivity, as doth this superstitions fort of idle Sodomites, the most dearely redeemed heritage of the Lord. If they be no firitual theeves, Soule murtherers , heretickes , Schifmatiques, Church-robbers, Rebels, and Traytors to God and to man; where are any to be looked for in all the world? Another thing yet there is, which causeth me sore to lament, the inconveniences thereupon considered. And that is this, although the Scriptures, Chronicles, Canons, Constitutions, Councels and private Histories, with your manifest acts in our time, doth declare your Fore-fathers and you such Heretickes , theeves and Traytors to the Christian Common-wealthes, as bath not beene upon the earth, but you, yet you are fill taken into the privy Counfels, both of Emperor and King. (Yea as * Thomas Becon complaines, They alone be *The Sup- King. (Yea as * Thomas Becon complaines, They alone be plication, cheifest and of much estimation; they alone russes and raigne; they will 3.5.23 alone beare the suring in the Court, they alone have all things going forward as they desire: They alone be capped kneeled, and crouched

MMto:

unto: 2

at their srayter

loofed in

House,

to fuch

full foir

beight

are mi

all tha

to that it trul

for the

King

HONT !

shefe I

Gome

to the

• Fo

bolow

alfo o

agail

Pop

take

godl

for a

bim

Kin.

21701

SW

dre

293 unto: They alone have the keyes of the English Kingdome , hanging at their girdles : what soever they binde , or loose whispering , and trayterously conspiring among themselves, that same is bound and bofed in the Starchamber in Westminster Hall, in the Parliament House, yea in the Kings privy Chamber, and throughout the Realme of England. The very Nobility of England are in a maner brought to fuch flavery, that they dare not displease the lessest of these space full foirituall limbes of Antichrist, wee may now fay, (into such an beight the forunall Sorcerers are growen, that Priests in England are mightier then either Wine, King, Queene, Lords, Women, and all that is besides &c.) * But what a plague it is , or miserable youke * Note well. to that Christen Realme, whereas you beare the swinge, I thinke . it truly unspeakable, though it be not seene. O eternall Father, for thy infinite mercies fake, grant thy most faithfull fervant the Kings Majesty our most worthy Soveraigne Lord and Governour under thee , clearely to cast out of his privy Counsell-House, shese Lecherous locusts of Egypt, and dayly upholders of Sodome and Gomor the Popes cruell catle, tokened with his owne proper marke, to the univer fall health of his people, as thou hast now constituted bim, an whole complete King, and the first fince the Conquest. · For never shall hee have of them, but deceitefull workemen, and * Note. holow-hearted Gentlemen : and not onely that (good Lord,) but also deprive them of their usurped authority and power, restoring againe thereunto his temporall Magistrates, whom their proud Pope bath bitherto most tyramously thereof deprived. Finally , to take from them their inordinate Pompe and * Riches , and more *See a Supgodly to bestow them , that is to say , to the ayde of his poverty , as plication to for an Example the Noble Germaines have graciously done before the &. An.

ples of

bloody

sgale,

ation

ealme

Vever

as did

bbers,

n and

f the

up by

Dan.

verse

Tee

arts

ping

ea-

rich

the

ort

d.

f-

7;

et

:5

ſ,

,

3

him. After a farre other fort desended the Apostles the spirituall 1544. acKingdome of Christ. Their armour was righteousness, poverty, cordingly. patience, meeknes, tribulation, contempt of the world, and continuall suffring of wronges. Their strong sheild was faith and their sword the word of God, Ephes. 6. With the Gospell preaching drove they downe all superstitions, as you by your Lordines have rayled up agains in the glorious Church of Antichrist. The KingOo 3 dome that hee for sake John. 6. and the Lordship, that hee so straitly forbadyon: Luc. 22. have you received of the Devill, with that ambitious reigne of covetousnes, which hee lest behinde him on the High-Mountaine. Math. 4. What ruinous decayes bath channeed to all Christen regions and their rulers, for giving swift credit to the sleering slatteries of your Babylonish brood, it were * Note well. much to write. * It shall be therefore necessary for our most worthy much to write. * It shall be therefore necessary for our most worthy King to looke upon in time, and both to diminish your authority and riches, least yee hereafter put all his godly enterprises in hazard. For nothing else can yee doe of your spiritual nature, but worke dayly mischeises. As well may yee be spared in the Commonwealth, as may Kites, Crowes, and Bussardes, Polontes, Wessels, and Rats, Otters, Wolves and Foxes, Body lice, Flees, and Flesh spies, with other devouring and noysome vermine. For as improstituble are yee unto it as they, and as little have you in the word of God, to uphold you in these vaine offices of Papistry, as they. * Thu uncommodious commodity hath England had of you alwayes, when

*Note well. uncommodious commodity hath England had of you alwayes, when yee have beene of the Kings privy Counsell, and I thinke hathnow at this present home, that what sever godly enterprise is there indoing, be it never so privily handled, yet shall the Popish Prelates of Italy, Spaine, France, Flaunders, and Scotland, have sure knowledge thereof by your secret messens, and you againe their crafty *See Master compassings to deface it if it may be: * Neither shall those

*See Master Tyndals Practise of Prelates accordingly.

ledge thereof by your secret messengers, and you againe their crasty, compassings to deface it if it may be: * Neither shall those Realmes continue long after, without warre, specially is an earnest reformation of your shamefull abuses be sought there. And never shall the originall grounds of that warre be knowen, but other cases shall be layd to colour it with, as that the King, seeketh his right, his princely honour, the maintenance of his Titles, or the Realmes Common-wealth, being nothing lesse in the end, but an upholding of you in your mischeifes. So long as you beare rule in the Parliament. House, the Gospell shall be kept under, and Christ persecuted in his faithfull members. So that no godly Acts shall come out from thence to the glory of God, and Christen Common-wealth, but yee will so sauce them with your Romish Sorceries, that they be ready to serve your turne. Although the Kings Majesty bath permitted

145 w the S

most ci

elfe mi

death.

bis Kin

pestilen

the figs

Cay, yes

day dr

they be

faith ,

the D

mme m

Brume

their a

to a Ci

Kings

just pl

Tent 1

Christ

over 16

fore re

living

jeopar

delive

Apoc.

any f

King

evern

any B

Scrip

ding f

the bl

bavoo

adi

w the Scriptures, yet must the true Ministers thereof at your most cruell appointment, either suffer most tyrannous death, or elle with open mouth deny Christs verity, which is worse then death. Thus grove yee * frength to his Lames, and nowrish up + See Willia his Kingdome, whom yee fay with your lips yee have refused, your Wraughtons pefilent. Pope of Rome. Yee play altogether Hick-fcorner sander bunning of the figure of Ironia : That yee fay , yee hate , yee love , and that yee the Romif b lay, yee love, yee hate. Let all faithfull men beware of fuch double- Fox. day dreamers, and halow-hearted Traytors, and thinke * whereas + Nose well. they beare the rule, nothing shall come rightly forward, either in faith, or Common-wealth. What other workes can come from the Details working tooles, then cometh from the hands of his owne malignant mischeife? Who can deny the Bishops to be the infruments of Sathan, understanding the Scriptures, and beholding their dayly doings ? * Thinke yee there can be a greater plague Note. See to a Christian Realme , then to have such ghostly Fathers of the Dottor Kings privy Counsell? If wife men doe judge it any other, then a Barnes bit just plague for our sime, and a yoake layd upon us for our unreve- Supplication rent receiving of that beavenly treasure, the eternall Testament of to King Christ , to have such Hypocrites , Theeves, and Traytors to raigne And another over m, truly they judge not aright. If wee would earnestly there- Supplication fire repent of our former living, and unfainedly turne unto our ever- to him, An. living God, as we finde in the Testament, I would not doubt it, to 1544jeopard both my body and soule that wee should in short space be accordingly. delivered of this Romish vermine, rising out of the bottomlesse pit: Apoc. 9. which eateth up all that is greene upon earth, or hath taken * See Thomas any strength of the living word of the Lord. For the heart of a Becons Com-King is alwayes in the handes of God, and at his pleasure hee may Supplication evermore turne it : Prov. 21. Take me not here , that I condemne fol, 23. any Bishop or Preist, that is godly, doing those holy offices that the Scripture hath commannded them, as preaching the Goffell, providing for the poore, and ministring the Sacraments right. But against the bloody Butchers that murther up Gods people, and dayly make bavock of Christs Congregation to maintaine the Iewes Ceremonies, and the Pagans Superstitions in the Christen Church. These are

raitly

u the bath

fwift

were

orthy

and

ard.

orke

mon-

fels,

lesh-

pro-

rdof

Thu

phen

now

itte

lates

owafty bose

neft

ver

y es

bis

mes

北

bis

L

nll.

ed

w

not Bishops, but Bitesheepes, Tyrants, Tormenters, Termagamits, and the Divels flaughter men. Christ left no fuch Disciples behind him, to fet with cruell Caiphas at the Sessions upon life and death of his innocent members : But such as in poverty preached the Gospell, rebuking the wicked world for Idolatry, Hypocrifie, and Episcopus is as much to say , as an Overser , or falle Doctrine. Superintendent, whose office was in the primitive Church purely to instruct the multitude in the wayes of God, and to fee that they were not beaftly ignorant in the Holy Scripture, as the most part of them are now a dayes. Presbyter is as much to say, as a Seniour or Elder , whose office was also in godly Doctrine and Examples of living to guide the Christen Congregation, and to suffer no maner of Superstition of few nor Gentile to raigne among them. And these two offices were alone in those dayes, and commonly executed of one se-They which were thus appointed to thefe foiritual verall person.

*SeeBuceru offices, did * nothing else but onely preach and teach the Gospell, having affishants unto them, inferior officers called Deacons, Acts. 6. Christis, 1.2. I. Cor. I. Rom. 3. No godly man can despise these Offices, c. 12. neither yet condemne those that truly execute them. Not onely are they worthy to have a competent living, I. Cor. 9. but also double $ Note. See honor after the Doctrine of Saint Paul, I. Tim. 5. $ But from the Supplica-inordinate excesse of riches, ought they of all men to be sequestred, Henry the 8. considering that the most wicked nature of Mammon is alwayes An. 1544. to corrupt, yea the very elect, if God were not the more mercifull, Math. 6. Which might be an admonition to our Lordly Bishops, when they be in their worldly Pompe, that they are not Gods Servants , beleived they his sayings as they doe nothing lesse. I cannot thinke , that any Christen Bishop or Priest will be offended with, ought that I have written here, but rather preferre it to their power, it making nothing against them, seeking Gods glory and not their owne. Finally with heart I defire, that thefe enemies of the truth be no longer given over of God, but that they may finde some just way to repentance, and from henceforth to maintaine the pure Lawes of Christ, as they have in times past, the most filthy traditions of Antichrist; (to wit, the Pope of Rome , from whose Succession and

See our

k(cent,

An. . 6

the Sal mitule

by M

Doe K

thus m

of Ron

Epifco

liable

Trayto

digree

Henry

Iclose

licious

or any

and C

ments

Tertul

fecuto

time,

with I

Sic i

cruce

trund

cium

Prefi

difce

verit

Doctor yet it f

ously s

15.4

see our Archbishops and Bishops , limially derive their pedigree and $Yet the becent, as Mafter Mafin in his Booke of Confectation of Bishops, Homily of An. 613. p. 9. 10. 140, Who thrice together cals the Lords-day the Time the Salbath-day, p. 269. and Doctor Poclington, in his Sermon, and Place of mituled, $ Sunday no Sabbath-day, London, 1636. licented Prayer, 8. by Master Bray, the Archt Shop of Camerburies Chaplaine, simes to-Doe joyntly averre, to our Prelates great honour, whom they gether, fisles thus make the very brats, sonnes and members of the Popes Sunday of Rome, from whom they thus derive, challenge, and presend their T H R Episcopali Authority, Jurisdiction, and Succession, and so are S ABhable to the penalties of the Statute of 27. Eliz. c. 2. and BATH. Traytors to the King, if thefe their flatterers Doctrine, and pe- S A Bdigree, which they give them , be true :) So be it. Thus BAT H. Henry Stalbridge concludes from Bafile, An. 1544. and fo doe DAY, Iclose up this Breviate : For which if any unduetifull or ma-T H E licious Prelates shall chaunce to persecute, vexe and torture me TIAN CHRIS. or any other, for this my Loyalty, love and duety, to my King S A B. and Countrey, in laying open thele their exorbitant encroach- BATH, ments, both upon King and Subject, I shall answer them as and that in Tertullian once did the Barbarous Heathen Presidents and per- the yeare fecutors of his age, who tortured the poore Christians in his yeares betime, who heartly prayed for the Emperor and Publike-weale, fore the with bended knees, and stretched out hands unther their God: troubles of Sic itaque nos ad Deum expansos ungulæ fodiant, Frank fud. cruces suspendant, ignes lambant, gladij guttura de-thinghames truncant, bestiæ insiliant, paratus est ad omne suppli- Knox were cium ipfe habitus orantis Christiani. Hoc agite boni not the first Presides, extorquete animam Deo supplicantem, Doctors, that disceptantem, pro Imperatore. Hoc erit crimen ubi Christned is with that veritas & Dei devotio eft. name as the

mits.

be-

and.

ched

and

r, or

wely

mere

bem El-

ving

per-

twe

efe-

wall

bell,

ces,

are

uble

מוסי

ed,

yes.

Sell,

DS,

er-

b,

7, ir

th

H

es

Doctor termes y, who shough hee pleades much in his Sermon for reading of Homilies, yet is seemes hee had need be set to read them himselfe, else hee would not shut audaciously write pointblanche against them, contrary to his owne Subscription to them, is the 15. Article; and against the 70. Can to which call Sunday the Sabbath-day.

Pp

AN

AN APPENDIX.

Ant. Hierom in Epitaph. Nepot. ad Heliodorum, Tonf. 1. p. 26. writes thus : The King rules over men, though they will not; Bishops , but over such as will : Kings make others Subjects to them by terrors : Bishops are appointed to ferve, not to terrifie : Kings keepe and rule the bodies until death : Bishops keepe and rule the soulos unto eternall life, &c. a Surius, The a fecond Conneell of Townes, Can.25. confesseth of Bishops Tom. 2. and Councels themselves, Arma nobis non funt alia, &c. p. 647. fratribus and wee have no other weapons, befides excommunications and anathe. +Qui proch matizings : Pope Nicholas himfelfe in Gratian. Caufa. 33. q. Ecelefia in 2. cap. inter hæc, concludes thus, The Church hath no other , but folicitudine esse debee , onely the spiritual sword. Hincmarus , Archbishop of Rheemes. non buma-Epift. 4. c. 1. writes'; there are two things , by which the world is narum caufarum, nec governed, Poveificall authority, and Regall power: and neither fecularium may thrust himselfe into the office of the other. The Churchof retum. Hee Leodium in an Epittle against Paschall , the second about the autem folici- yeare of our Lord, 1107. avers, that all Bishops of Rome, (how enao auena much more other Bilhops,) from Gregory the Lounto Hildebrand, by qui Ec- Solo gladio spirituali: did use onely the spirituall sword, clefie prie- Waltram, Bilhopof Naumberg, l. 2. de De Vait. Ecclef. & funt. Sed ta Imper. cap. 4. faith: Hildebrand hath usurped Regall authority tem incipi- against the ordination of God, for the Church hath no sword given dinem qua. unto it, Nifi gladium fpiritus, but the sword of the fpirit. Pelem Aposto- trus Damiarrus , 1. 4. Epist. 9. determines in this fort : The offices belonging to Bilhops and Kings are proper to each of them: Concursus in The King is , to use secular weapons, Bishops, the sword of the spirit. me quotidia- Ozias was smitten with leprose, for usurping the Priests office; do omnium + what then doth the Priest deserve, if hee take secular weapons, Ecclefiarum.

Qui infirmatur & ego non infirmor? Qui scandalizatur, & ego no uror? Qui ergò præss Ecclesie, talem solicitudinem habere debet. & illam aliam secularem anminò habere na debet. Origen. lib. 9, in Epis. ad Romanos:

which

whice terbi

there

pora

The

tuall

fo me

Juo,

obey

menu

Ifa

mi

Chu

then felfe

ther

Sace

in the

WIII

ercij

for a

Swon

ofth

hos

peop

der

Ch

ma

nan

inta

which are proper to Laymen ? Anlelme, Archbishop of Canterbury, on Math. 26. refolves in this maner : There are two Gwordes in the Church; the one materiall, the other foirituall; and there are secular Ministers to whom belongs the handeling of temporall matters, and spirituall to whom spirituall things belonge. The temporall sword is given to secular men, the spirituall to spirituall per fons; as the King may not intermedle with the Preiftly flate, so neither may a Bishop exercise that which belongs to a King: Juo, Bilhop of Carnotum Epift. 171 . faith; Where the people will not obey the admonitions of Bishops, they are to be left to Gods Judgement : (not fined and imprisoned.) Pope Celestine the third, decrees thus: Extrav. de Judic. cap. cum non ab homine; If a Clerke be incorrigible, bee must be excommunicated, and then smitten with the sword of anathema; if hee contemne that, feeing the Church; Non habeat ultra quid faciat, can goe no further then this, bee must be punished by temporall power. Gratian himselfe, Causa. 2. q. 7. cap. Nos ii : resolves thus : Note, there are two persons , by which the world is governed , Regall and Sacerdotall; as Kings are the chesfe in secular causes, so as Bishops in the causes of God: It is the office of Kings to inflict corporall, the office of Bishops, to use spiritual punishment. Petrus Blesensis writes thus to two Bishops , Epist. 73. Let the Church first exercise her furisdiction, and if that will not suffice, then let the secular Sword Supply, that which wanteth. And Epist. 42. You being chosen for a Bishop, doe with bloody conscience use the power of the secular (word; let him exercise the materiall sword, who hath the power of that sword. Secular powers are ordained of God, that they [hould have shat sword: If you take Christs Ministry, abide in that vocation wherein you are called , leave the Government. of the Guntherus Ligurianus, De Gestis Fripeople to Lay-men. derici, l. 6. 7. p. 369. writes thus: Let the Pope governe the Church (with the spirituall sword) and order Divine, not secular matters: that indeed, (faith Spigelius the Scholiaft,) is confonant to Sant Pauls precept. Noman going a warfare, for God intangles himselfe in secular affaires. Joannis de Parifiis, De Po-Pp 2 testate

Tom.

though

make

med to

sontill

, Oc.

Thops

, &c.

nathe-

33. q.

r, but emes.

rld is either

rchof

t the

how

rand,

pord,

1.8

ority

iven

Pe-

The

me:

irit.

fice;

ons,

reeft

7900

bich

300 testate regia & Papali, determines thus, cap. 10. Les us suppose that Christ had such fecular power and dominion, as some presend. yet hee gave it not to Peter, and therefore it is not due to the Pope, as bee is Peters Successor, which hee there prooves at large, b Apud Zo-In b the Councell of Trent, An. 1327. where there were many vium, An. Bishops and great Personages of Millan, Manua, Verona, 1327. n. I. and other Italian States affembled, it was resolved; That the Popes and Bishops have no furifdiction, (Civill or Ecclesiasticall) from Christ, but from the Emperor, and that the Pope and Ecclesiasticall † Aventinus persons are subject to secular Emperors. An. 1342. in † 2 Annalium Councell held ad Rheginoburgum, in which the Emperor Boio um, Lewes the 4. the Kings of England and Bohemia, and the rest of the 1.7. p. 610. Empire, as well fpirituall as temporal Princes were prefent, this Krantz 1.9. Edict was publifhed in the Emperors name against Pope Iohn Saxon.c. 15. the 22. Thefe two are repugnant and most different, a Crosiar, and a Crowne, a Souldier and a Priest, an Emperor and a Pastor, a Scepter and a Sheepe-hooke; corporall things and spirituall armu, and Sacraments; warre and peace, Cafar and a Numio, a Prince and a Minister, a Lord and a Servant. For one man to be both a King and a Bishop is a beast of many heads , a two headed Monster : that verily , which wee read in ancient Coynes and Epigrams, Decises and Nero, and such Tyrants and worshippers of false Gods to have beene. It is the abominable seorne and derifion of nature, the anger of God, and our floath and fuggiffines, that the Prince of Princes, Should serve the Servant of Servants. If the Pope be the servant of the servants of God, why doth hee not ferve? why doth hee not love? why doth hee not minister? why doth bee not feed? why doth bee not teach? why doth bee not preach?

If bee will be that hee defires to be , why doth hee not follow the footsteps of Christ, of Peter, and Paul, in prisons and various dangers?

why doth hee lye, play the turne coate, deceive, raigne, domineers, out of his greedines of power, he confounds high slow things together for money, all things are veniall; hee fets God and Hell to fale, why doth hee so little esteeme the life of Christ, who refused to be an arbitrator betweene the brethren, desiring him to devide the inheritance betweene

betwee

n fhed

cord o

bis Ki

withou

long w

rights

gletts

mane

morta

profe

Proco

man

Vican

inflie

Peter

given

Succe

vink

arge

lohr

s ca

both

Em

this |

mor C

Cat

PORT

neit

De

betweene them, but sent those competitors to Casars Judges, and ban fhed the tribunall from himselfe, when the people of their owne accord offered the Kingdome of Palestina, bee fled away, confessing his Kingdome not to be of this world. Wherefore fobrithe 22.not without the great ruine of himselfe, & the Common-wealth runs headlong with the luft of domineering: hee takes care to usurpe other mens rights and imployments, which nothing appertaine unto him, and negletts his owne affaires, namely religion, spirituall things, the maners and lives of men : been surpes the Empire of the earth and mortall things, though Christ himselfe prohibites him ; hee , who professeth the Croffe and poverty of Christ, sets up Presidents and Procounsels in another mans territories. Our famous Schooleman d William Occani telolves, That the Pope as hee is Christs Vicar, hath power onely to excommunicate, but hee bath no power to d Dial. part. inflift any greater or any corporall punishment; because, neither 83. Peter nor any other of the Apostles, had coactive or temporall power given them by Christ, therefore neither hath the Pope, who is their Successor, any coastive furifdiction from Christ, or by his ordinance, or his appointement; which bee there (and Marfilius Patavinus, Defenioris Pacis, pars 2. c. 5. 15. 27.) prooves at The Councell of Constance having excommuni cated John Huffe, faith , Seffio 15. They must leave him to the fecular power, feeing the Church hath no more bigher punishment, that it can inflict. . Antonius Rosselus writes, It is impossible, that e Monareb. both the fame man should be a full Bishop , and with all a Civill pars 1.c. 38. Emperor, or Magistrate; and bee bath a large Chapter to proove & 70. this position : That a temporall Empire or Dominion neither is, nor can be in a B. shop. Cardinall Cusanus, 1. 3. De Concordia Catholica, c. 41. writes; That the Pontificall and Imperiall powers are both of them from Ood , either distinct from the other, neither depending on the other; This faith hee, was the true opinion of all the ancient Fathers and Writers, although new it be growen doubtfull by reason of the sin ster defire, which many have to speake pleasing things. Petrus de Alisco, Cardinall of Cameracum, De Ecclefia authoritate, lib. Proæmio, determines thus: Pp3

Suppose

esend

Pope,

arge.

many

erona,

Popes

from

Sticall

n ta

peror

fibe

this

Iohn

, and

for, a

ma,

rince

to be aded

and

pers

ri-

hat

If

not

by

ch?

ot-

rs?

e,

er

7

6

24.9.3. Concl. 3.

Christs Vicar temporall Dominion is not due, againg the second error (of the Herodians,) and that the Pope may have temporal Dominion , by the concession of temporall Princes, or derivation from them , against the first error of the Waldenfes. And de Refumpt. Concl. 1. Although both Christ and his Vicar , as bee is the head of the Church, hath a fpirituall Monarchie, yet hee hath not a fInDistinct. temporall or Kingly Monarchie. f Iohn Major layes downe this conclusion : That the Popes themselves professe, that temporall furifdiction doth not belong unto them; and that the temporall and spirituall power are distinct, neither of them subordinate to the other. Iacobus Almaine, De Potestate Ecclesiastica & Laica, 9. 3. c. 8. avers ; that the Pope bath no Laicall furifdiction, Nisi ex collatione Imperatorum & Principum, but by the Donation of Emperors and Princes : and that the Spirithall and temporall powers, and furifdictions are distinct. Theo. doricus à Niem, a Popish Bishop, De Schismate, 1. 3. c.7. faith : The Imperialt power as also the Ecclesia sticall, depend immediately of God; and therefore they speake foolishly and flatteringly, who affirme; that the Pope and Church have two fwords, shi These Parasites and Flatterers have vituall and temporall. brought a very great error into the Church, which raiseth perpeg Doctr. fid. twall discord betweene the Pope and the Emperors. & Thomas Tom. 1.1.2. Waldensis, our owne famous Popish writer, though Wickliffs Art.3.0.78. professed Antagonist, confesseth and prooves at large; That the Priest and the King have under Christ, impermixtas potestates, powers which are not actually conjoined in any one of them; the Priest having no temporall power or Dominion. George Hiemburg. In admonit. de injusta usurpatione Paparum S. quibus: reciting the authority of Ierome , Origen , Chry fostome ,

Basil, Barnard, Paul, and Christ himselfe, against the Popes wsurped Monarchy, concludes thus ; By these now it doth ap-peare more cleare then light, that Christ gave no temporall power at all unto Priests, muchleffe did bee give the fidineffe of terrene, and

The Casholike Church holds and teacheth, that to the Pope as secular power: Nay it doth clearely appeare, that this power is beth both

thei

pear

dift

àVi

cluc

11 10

poli

que

Chi

Cay !

terr

pire

as I

not

tion

of I

car

fact

on

thos

giv

of I

onel

ana

fell

hat

the

thol

De

COM

bad

cho

fuci

bothby Christs word and example forbidden to the Apostles and hin L. bene their Suscessors. b Albericus a Rosate writes: Hence it ap-à Zenone peares that the Pontificall and Imperiall powers are altogether Cod.daquad. distinct, and that neither of them depends on the other. Franciscus prass. n. 4. à Victoria, Relect. 1. De potest. Ecclesiast. Sect. 2. n. 7. con-f. 109. 110 cludes; The Apostles had power and authority in the Church, but it was not any Civill power, seeing neither their Kingdome nor power was of this world. Albertus Pighius, Contr. 16. Sect. quod Christus, p. 254. seconds him thus: That they say, that Christ gave onely spirituall power to his Apossles, I like it well, and say the same. Duarenuslib. 1. de Sacr. Eccles. Minist. c. 4. determines thus; Bishops have not the right of the sword, nor an Empire or secular Dominion: This belongs to Civill Magistrates, as Christ clearely witnesseth, when hee saith; My Kingdome is not of this world. The Divines of Rhemes, in their Annotations on Math. 22. Sec. 3. alleadge and approove this saying of Hosius, Neither is it sawfull for us Bishops, to hold an Empire on earth, neither hast thom O Emperor power, to burne incense and sucred things. Cornelius Iansenius, Concord. Europ. c. 66. on these words; tibi dabo claves: comments thus; Al-

Pope as

Second

sporal

on from umpt.

e is the b not a

owne

t tem-

porall

e to the

Laica,

tion,

um,

Spiri

Theo.

. C. 7.

dim-

ring-

, spi

bave

erpe-

omas

kliffs

That

po-

ne of

orge

n Š.

me,

opes

ap-

and

ris

orb

though Peters power be on earth, yet Christ faith not, that hee would give unto him the Keyes of the Kingdome of earth, but of the Kingdome of Heaven; That Peter might know, that his power did extendonely to spirituall matters, which belong to the Kingdome of Heaven, and not to temporall things. i Yea Cardinall Bellarmine con-; Lib. 5.De fesset ? That the Pope is not Lord of any Province or Towne, and Possifice hath no furifdiction meerly temporall by any right from Christ. That Roman, the Pope as Pope hath not directly and immediately any temporall e.1.2.

power, but onely spirituall, it is the Common-Judgement of Catholike Divines. Sir Thomas Moore, In exposit, passionis,

De amputata Malchi aure, saith; That which Christ commanded Peter, put up thy sword into thy scabbard, is as if bee commanded Peter, put up thy sword into thy scabbard, is as if bee had said, neither will I be defended with this sword, and I have chosen thee into that place, that I will not have thee to fight with any such a sword, but with the sword of Gods word: Let the material

fword

4 2. 6. 4.

(word be put up into his place , put it into the hands of fecular Princes, you that are my Apostles , have another swora to use. Stephen Gardiner , Biffiop of Winchester , in his Booke, De vera obedientia, prooves, That the sword of the Church extends no further then teaching, and excommunication, and that the Soveraignity of Governement, as well in Ecclefiasticall, as temporall can es belongs to Princes; this being the fur me of the Booke, and of Bilhop Bonners Epiftle before it, who affirmes the same. Cardinall Pool, De Summo Pontific. c.23. sings the Same Song ; By these words it is showed , that Christs Kingdome was shirituall and Ecclesiasticall; his Church is no Kingdome of this world, but of heaven : This Kingdome Christ bath left to Sant R De Vifib. Peter and his Succeffors. k Nicholas Saunders , harpes on the Monarchia, fame ftringe: There are two powers (faith bee) in the Church: One is ON ELT Spirituall, and fuch is the power of B. Shops; the other is mixt, being originally secular, but in respect of the end Spirituall, such is the power of Kings. Duraus de lesuite Confut. Respons. Whitaker, p. 311. alleadgeth that saying of Barnard as true : Both swords are the Churches, but the materiall to be used for the Church , the Spirituall by the Church. Robert

Parson, that busy Iesuiticall polipragmon in all states, protests Treatife of thus, I Wee Catholikes give no Monarchicall civill power, or Misigation, Soveraingry unto the Pope over Princes or their Subjects, but that e. 2. n. 29. Soveraingty onely which belongs to the spirituall bead, which is onely spirituall, and for spirituall ends. And George Blackwell the mLarge ex- Arch-prieft concludes : m That the Pope hath no temporall, amination of but ONELY Spiritual authority ; and that the Popes Spirituall authority extends no further then to the Censures of the Church George P.70. 71. properly so called. Blackwell, 72.

From all these concurring Romish authorities, both forraigne and domesticke, of ancient moderne and present times, (for I have purposely omitted all Protestant writers, who speake more home and

fully fully t

hem,

diftine

to be

not in

our Bi

fons in now o

High-

once,

on on one at contra

ages,

2.

moft

other

fon w

Law

oring

Chris

the fp

Chris

ough

judic

vill to

ment

Suspe

ofbi

oft t

Con

fully to the point, because our Bishops litle regard them,) these foure conclusions necessarily arise.

ecular

to ufe.

ch ex-

tubac

tem-

of the

rmes

es the dome

febis

Same

nthe

rob:

ops;

on-

Bar-

ell to

bert

efts

bat

nely

the

all,

ri-

rch

3, ne

d

d

r. First, That temporall and spiritual Iurisdiction, are so distinct and severall in their owne natures, that they ought not to be consounded in any one Prelate, or spirituall person, no not in the Pope himselfe: therefore not to be conjoyned in our Bishops, or executed both together by the self-same persons in one, and the self-same Court and cause; as they are now of late by our Bishops and others, in our Ecclesiasticall High-Commissions; who there similar with both swords at once, and instict both temporall, and Ecclesiasticall Censures on one and the self-same persons, at the self-same time, for one and the same offence; as their dayly practise witnesseth, contrary to all Courts and Presidents whatsoever in former ages, either at homeor abroad.

Secondly, That neither the Pope himselfe, (of whom most of these authorities are particularly meant, other Archbishop, Bishop, Prelate, or Ecclesiasticall perfon whatfoever, hath, or ought to have, or exercise by the Law of God, any temporall power or Iurifdiction, directly, orindirectly, being in expresse termes prohibited them, by Christ in bimfelfe ; but, to content themselves onely with nMath, 20. the spiritual sword, and Censures, and that authority which 25,26.27. Therefore they neither may nor 28. Mar. Chrift hath given them. ought to beare any temporall office , magistracy , rule , or 10.35. to judicature in the Common-wealth, nor yet to inflict any ci- 46. Math. vill temporal Censures or punishments, (as fines, imprison- 23.10.11. ments, confication of goods, lofte of freeholds, bapifhment, 46. 48. suspention from mens lawfull trades and vocations &c.) on any c. 22. 25. of his Majesties Subjects, especially for Ecclesiasticall, (and 26.27. oft times for no) offences, (as they dayly doe in the High- Math. 18. Committion, contrary to Law and the practile of all former 1. 1. Pet. ages,) 5. Qq 306 ages,) but onely to reft, fatisfied with Ecclefiafficall Censures. and to proceed no further. All 200 311

Thirdly, That no Ecclefiafficall persons, by vertue of any Ecclesiasticall power or Iurisdiction, could fine, or imprison, or inflict any other temporall punishments on any man for Ecclefiafticall offences, but onely punish him with t Ecclesiasticali Censures, before the making of the Statute of I. rall Councels Therefore the Statute, uniting onely the Ecclefiafti-Eliz.c. I. did ever imcall Jurisdiction to the Crowne in that State as then it foundit, prison Here_ abolishing the Statute of 2. H. 4. c. 15. and all other Acts against Scismatickes Hereticks , and giving the Queene her Heires and Successors , a or fine them power onely to delegate her Ecclefiasticall (not ber temporall) Inrisdiction to the High-Commission, neither gives nor intended to give the High-Commissioners, any power at all to fine or imprison any Subjects, or to inflict any corporall or temporall Censures on them for Ecclesiastical offences, as it is now their prive them. dayly practife.

t No ancient gene-

tickes or for thefe

faults , but

onely ex-

communicate, or de-

Fourthly, That it is as unfeemely, as unlawfull for Bishops and Ecclesiastical persons to beare temporall offices, manage civill affaires, or exercise temporall Iurisdiction, Cenfures, or Dominion over others, either in fecular or Church affaires, as it is for Emperors, Kings or temporall Magistrates, to exercise the function of Bishops or Ministers to read Divine Service, preach, administer the Sacraments of Baptisme and the Lords Supper, conferre Orders, and the like; or to excommunicate men in their temporall Courts, for fecular crimes. And that as Kings, and temporal! Magiftrates, continuing fuch, cannot doe not ordinarily exercise the Bilhops, or Ministers spiritual function, or inflict Ecclefiafficall Censures, no not by a speciall deputation, license, or authority from Bishops and Ministers, so they on the other fide, by the fame reason cannot, may not, by themselves alone,

or by

Princ poral

for C

rifdié

direct

terme

King

them

expre

with

King

duce

mize

our t

at laf

Acts

conti ranke

and i

Prela

poral

like

mul

mure

and (

M

for b prefig

who

his at

Dream

Balan

307 or by vertue of any speciall Patent, or Commission from Princes and temporall Magistrates, exercise any Civill or temporall Iurisdiction, or inflict any temporall Censures on men for Civill, much leffe for spirituall offences; because such Iurisdiction and Censures are unsuitable to their callings, and directly prohibited them by . Christ , in univerfall negative oMath. 20. termer; whole inhibition will proove meerely nugatory, if 25.26. Kings by special Patents or Commissions, may authorize 25.26.27. them ; to execute that power , that authority , which hee fo exprelly forbids them to intermeddle with, and so dispence with them against the very letter of Gods word, which no King can doe. Each of these conclusions is naturally deduced from , and fully warranted by all and every of the premized authorities; which I wish our ambitious Prelates (with our temporall Magistrates, Lords, and Iudges,) would now at last seriously consider. Wee read in all our ancient and late Acts of Parliament, that Lord spirituall and temporall, are contra distina termes, and Titles designing two different rankes and conditions of men, occupied about different objects, and imployments. But our prefent ambitious domineering Prelates quite confound these Titles, and will be Lords temporall as well as spirituall, welding both swords, (with which like t the Bishops of Pope Hildebrands faction, corporum fi-t Walterns

ures,

ertue

rim-

man

Ec.

of I.

hafti-

ndit.

ainst

s, a

) Iu-

nded

ne or

orall

their

for

ices,

Cen-

urch

agi-

to

s of

the

erts,

Ma-

cife

de-

or

ber

ne,

01

mul & animarum funt homicide, they are become Numberg. murderers, both of mens soules and bodies,) swaying the Church Ecolosis and Commonwealth at once; just like P Ludgerus, Bishop of Imper. c. 2.
Monster, who gave both a sword and a pastorall-staffe crossed, pcentur.
for his armes; exercising both secular and spirituall surisdiction, Magd. 8. presigned by this Coat of armes: or like a Tope Boniface the 8. Col. 815. who boasting, that hee had the power of both swordes, shewed it by Westim. his actions also, when in that great subile, An. 1300. hee rode the An. 946: Dunstans

Dreame. q Paral. Abbas V pergenfis , An. 1298. p. 343. 344. Platina & Balau, Bonifacius 8.

Qq2 first

eur adEpi-

tum, fed ad

(erostutem

Hom. 6. in

r Cited by

Do Hor

Cracken-

thorpe of the Popes

semporall

P.167.

P. 297.

299.

Monarchy,

Isaiam.

(co; atum,

Imperial Robes , with the Imperial Crowne, having a miked food caried before him. , and one proclaiming with a lande voyee! Ecce hic duo gladis, behold here are swoftbords, the forithall and the term poral , both in my hands and disposing. Alas , thould the godly † Qui voca- humble poore † imloraly Bifliops of the primitive Church, who had no fuch worldly honours, offices, flate pompe, or ferular power, as ours now injoy, artle out of their graves, and thenon vecatur hold the temporall and spiritual Dominion, Wester! Hubits, ad principa-Port, Proceedings, Cenfures, and imployments of our prefent Prelates, they would rather deemethem Monfters, then torius Eccle- Ministers; Flamines, then Christians; Pilates, then Prelates; fie. Origen. Lucifers, then Preachers; Wolves', then Shepheards; Tyrants, then Overfeers of Christsslocke; yea Popes and Princes rather then Bishops of Divine institution : And as the Homily of our Church, for Whitfinday , confirmed by the 35: Article of our Church, in a full Synod at London, An. 15621 The Pine tionall Synod of all thereformed Churches in France held not Gare, 1603. With the nationall Synode of Treland, held at Dublin 3 An. 1615. Articles of Ireland, n. 79. 80. have exprestly defined the Bishop of Rome to be that man of Sinne, & verum filum germanum Antichriftum , that true and proper grent Antichrist, foretold in Scripture, (though ignorant I Antichrist doting.) Mafter Sehelford I half of lute affirmed in print, yet not come that the Pope was never yet defined to be the Antichrift by any Synode, when as thefe 3. late Synodes , together with the whole & See Catal. Synode of all ancient and moderne & Protestant writers of our tis. Gualther Danieus, George Sohnius, Thomas Beacon, Richard Brightwell, Bishop first day as Pope in his Pontificialibus, and the next day in his Abbot, Bifbop Downham, Doctor Whitaker, Doctor Willet, Doctor Beard, Powell, Squire, with others of Antichrift : Archbif bop Whigift , when hee commenced Doctor at Cambridge, An. 1569, and answered the Divinity Act at the Commencement, maintained this Postt:on; Papa est ille Antichristus. Sir George Paul in bu life, p. 5.

S 6:10.

OWNE

owne:

Colver

and t

Prin

in Ch

weren

the p

TT

Pop

parc

and

ty,

nor

shial

his

1

De

Sec

M

lim

the

na

for

fit

fee

Pc

th de

iı

1 owne and other Churches, with fundry Papists, bave expresty re-Colved himso be that Antichrist , because bee usurpes both swords, and takes upon him temporall and spiritual furifiction over Princes and people , everting a temporall and formull Monarchy in Christs Church So these godly Bishops , (of which there perentany in every Church, not one over many Churches, in the primitive times , Phil. 1. 1. Acts. 20. 17. 28. c. 14. 22. Tim ; Di. Tit. 1. 5.) beholding our Prelates just like the Pope, ulumping both fwordes, year Kingly, a Papall Moparchy in Church and State, exercifing as well Ecclefiafficall and temporal Iurisdiction, and Censures over Clergy and Laity, would certainely deeme them none of Christs Apostles, nor any of their Successors, but the very limber and members of that Roman Antichrist, from whom Doctor Pocklington, in his Sunday no Sabbath, p. 2. & 48. derives their lineall pedegree. Mairrius de AlZedo, that learned Spaniard, in his Booke De Pracellentia Episcopalis dignitatis, c. 1. Sect. 21. & c. 8. Sett. 29. affuring us in direct termes , that fuch Bishops are, Membra & pars corporis Papæ, the very members and limbes of the Popes body , (which hee reckons upamong other their Epifeopull Praeminences;) against whose temporall Monarchy tyranny, and Iurisdiction, (claimed by a temporall u See Doller

in his

Proord

Ecce

etem

godly

wbo

teluns

d'be-

labits,

if pre-

then

lates;

Patris,

mber

four

four

no

140,

An.

ned

um

oper

ant

it,

iny

sole

W

forged u Donation from Constantine , Phocas and others) at Crackenfirst, our present Bishops can neither write , nor preach, thorpes Defeeing they claime, ule and exercise, both spiritual and tem-fence of Con-Stantine, and porall Lordship, Jurisdiction, Censures, &c. (like so many of the Popes perty x Popes of another world ,). as well as hee; which nei-temperall ther the King himselfe, nor the Parliament immediately Minarchy. x See Antidoe. quitates Ec-clef. Brit. & Good God, how different were the ancient godly Bishops Godmin in in the primitive times for ours now? They were contented the life of with a litle Cottage , meane houshold - stuffe , dett , apparell, Anschme, small revenues, and one Deacon onely to attend them, decreeing Archbishop of Canterbueven ny. Qq 3 y Concil. Carthag. 4. Can. 14.15 20. Gc. Grat ian. Dift. 41.

ZSocr.Scholast. Eccles. 12. in the Greeke, c. 8. in the Englifb copy. Hift. I. I. c. 10. Niceph. Eccles. Hift.1.8. c. 42. a Niceph.

even in , Councels , that Bishops should rest satisfied therewith, and not admit of any worldly Pompe on State in all , or any of thefe particulars; But our Prelates must have Princely Palaces. Lordly furniture, Provision, Diet, Attendants, Revenues, (what to doe?) that they may live more viciously, idely, unchristianly, and preach farre lesse, then ever they did before, I read of holy & Spiridion , Bishop of Trimithers , a City in Ciprus , famous for many Miraeles , that when as hee there exer-Hist.l.I. c. cifed the office of a Bishop, yet for his singular modely, hee kept also a flocke of Sheepe, being both a reall and sprittiall Pastor of Sheepe, and men at once; Ekiled at first a Bishop, from a meere godly vertuous Shepheard. Yet this would be thought a Monster in our dayes, to see a Bishop a Shepheard or a Shepheard made a Bishop: I finde it storied of Zena & that famous Bishop of Majuma or Constantia, who lived till past an hundred yeares of age, that though hee were the greatest and the eminentest Bishop of that Country, having the greatest and the Eccles. Hist. most populous Churches and Citties, yet bee kept a folitary pri-1.12. c. 47. vate weavers shop, wherein hee weaved limen, getting his meat and drinke, and some thing likewise, to releife the poure withall, by this his occupation; which bee continued constantly in his old age, Notwithstanding , bee never in all his time even till his death. omitted the appointed morning and evening, bymns, liturg y, and preaching, unleffe ficknes hindred him. But now it would be thought not onely a ridiculous thing to fee a Bishop, yea a great Bishop, get his living by weaving, or a weaver, made a Bishop: But to see a godly Christian weaver, to pray, to read, or expound a chapter, repeat a Sermon, or Discourse of the Scriptures privately in his owne house, to his owne family, and his Christian Neighbours, after publicke exercises on the Lords day, or any other good occasion, yet Sam Hierem on Coll. 3. 16. writes thus: Here wee are taught, that even the Lay-men ought to have the word of God, not onely sufficiently, but also aboundantly, and one to instruct and warne the other; and hee further further widesi Selves And S trium our D the Ch Tailor and fu maya doe ve very. ting10 then fitzui cers ; or of > 8.9 to on of di and Ioh to :

conty

Ma Ch to d ma > con Co H_{θ} the tal dif

further relates , be That both men, and monkes, and maried binpf. 133. wives in his time; were wont commonly to contend among them selves, which of them should learne most Scriptures by heart. And Theodores " writes thus , by way of receiving and e De corritriumph , of the Christians in his age ; yee may commonly fee that gendu Greour Doctrine is knowne not onely of them that are the Doctors of co um afthe Church, and the Masslers of the people, but also even of the lib. 5. Tailors, and Smithes, and Weavers, and of all Artificers; yea and further also of women, and Sewsters, and Servants, and Handmaydens : neither onely the Citizens , but also the Country-folkes, doe very well understand the same : Nay yee may finde even the very Dischers and Delvers, and Cowbeards and Gardiners, disfuting of the boly Trinity, and of the Creation of all things; what then shall we thinke of Bishop Wren , who in his late 4 Vi-dFor biDiositation-Articles, prohibits, not onely all Lay-men and Artist- cesse of cers , but even Ministers themselves to discourse of the Scripture, Norwich. or of any matters or points of religion we their Tables , and Feasts? contrary, not welly to Gods expresse Commannd. Deut. 6. 6. 7. 8.9. c. 11. 18. 19020. Col. 3. 16. 1. Tim. 4. 4. 5. contrary to our Saviours and his Apostles expresse examples, who discoursed of divine matters, undreasoned of the Scriptures even at Feasts, and meales , Luk. 9. 29. to 39. c. 14. 1. to 23. c. 22.14. to 29. John. 7. 37. 38. c. 12. 2. to 13, c. 13. 2. to c. 18. 1. c. 21. 9. to 23. Acts. 2. 46.474 C. 20. 11. 1. Cor. 11. 23. 24. 25. Mar. 14. 3. to 10. contrary to the practife of the primitive Christians un Tertulliums dayes, who at their love Feafts ufed eTertull. Ato discourfement of the Scriptures one to another, as every of them pologia, adwas able proceeding one another to finging the Palmes, and holy ver Gentes, conference beginning and ending their Feafts with folemne prayer: Contrary to Sant f Chry offine, who in his 1. and his 10. Homilies supon Genefit and other places, f exhorts all men in filom. 4.6. their bonfes , both at their feasts , and before and after meales , to 9 3 14. in take the boly Scriptures or Bible into their hands, to read and Genef. Hom. discourse of it, one with another, and thereof to reap great profit, 5.5 78. in

with,

any of

aces,

nues,

un-

fore.

עונו ע

xer-

kept

orof

cere

bt a

m a

bat

an

the

the

ri-

tat

by

e,

ne

nd

e

2

0

and to administer spiritual food to one another's Soudes ! But allo PSurimCondirectly contrary to the Synode & of Rbemes, An. 813. Can. cil. Tom. 3 17. the b Decree of Pope Enfebius, An. 369 the determip. 292. nation of Gregory Na Zian Zen. Oratio 38. 6 48. and the very b Surius Canonifts, i and Canon-Law it felfe, which expresty imorne Tom, 1. P. 312. all Biflions , Abbots , and Alimifters to have a Chapter readine i Ino Decretheir Tables, at all their Feasts and Meales, and then so expound tal.pars. 13. discourse, and drawe exhortations from it, that so they may feed their c 75. queffe, not onely with corporall, but likewife with spirituall food Buchardus Decr. 1. 14. of Gods word, that so whether they eat or drinke, or what soever c. 7. Ioannes they doe, God in all things may be glorified through fefus Christ. Langbe-In imitation whereof, in all Colledges and Halls in both our crucius, De Vita & Ho. Universities the Bible-Clerke reads a Chapter to them in the nest. Eccle-Hall every meale, that so they may all Discourse of it at the Table, whiles they are eating : year the very & Heathen Phifiasticorum, 1.2. c. 16. losophers , had so much divinity in them , as to judge Feasts fit feap.284. fons for their philosophicall and morall discourses, which they ack Xenophonis Con-counted thir Theologie ; yet this most gracious Prelate is growen fo outragiously impious , and fortish , asto probibit Ministers viv. Pluthemselves and people, to talke of matters of religion at their meales tarchi Sympof. See Iufti and Feasts, (when wee should I praise God most, and dis-Lipfij Saturnalia and courfe most of his mercies towards ms ,; and those his good creatures bee then bestones upon us,) injoyning Churchwardens upon their Puteam Outher , without and against all Law, and Canon to prefem those Comus. I Deut. 16. as delinguents, who out of conscience sor piety shall presume to doe 14. 15. it even in affront of the very Dodrine of the Church of Eng-Efth. 8, 16. land & Bishop fewels Apolog y in defence thereof, y commaunded 17. Pf. 81. to be had in every Church,) pant 5. c. 3. Druf where hee 1.2.3.PJ. prooves out of feverall fathers, went lay men of all forts, may, and 145.1. 10 17. Acts 2. ought to read the Scriptures , and Discourse of them in their 46.47. houses with their Families , guests , and neighbours ; at their Feafts and Meales; and approoves that Exhortation of Sant Chry Coftome to his people, Hom, 6. in Gen. Let one of you take in hand the Holy Bible , and les him call his neighbours about him,

and

and also

their

toger

after

to do

intu

mino

Biff

Doc

or r

and

puni

ther

this

diou

till

one

anci

agai

gref

Val

a Bi

all ti

in

palle

pera

oth

tend

for 1

roun.

poor

bitio

con

31:

and by the heavenly words tee him refresh both their mindes , and nitom. 8.9 alfo his owne; yea this Father in frequently exhorts men to call 10. 14. in their families , children, wives , fervants , freinds , and neighbours Gen. Hom. ; together, and to repeat the Sermons, they heare at Church together, in Math. after the Sermon ended, & to tye themselves by an unrepealible Law Hom. 2. in to doe it, every one of them repeating what hee shall remember, to 20, in Ephel. inculcate what they had heard, and imprint it more deeply in their oHom.20. mindes; and Cafarius Arelatenfis , an ancient Father , though a Bibl. Patr. Bishop , doth the like , (to omit P Bishop Babington , and Tom. 5. Doctor 4 Boyes who doe the fame:) which now fome gracious, pars 3; or rather graceles Prelates, contrary to the practife, judgement E. G. H. and learning of all ages, define to be an odious Conventicle, p Exposon punishable in their High-Commission Courts, with no lesse the fourth then heavy fines and imprisonments and open recantations of Commaundthis godly practife, which no age was ever fo impious or stupen-ment. diously wicked as to deeme a crime, an unlawfull Conventicle Sexagefina till ours now: So farre are our present Prelates degenerated, not Sunday, onely from the poverty, but likewife from the piety of those p.202. ancient Bishops in the primitive Church. But to returne 203. againe from their piety to their poverty, from which I have digressed & Sant Ambrose, that great Bishop of Millaine, (whom TSee bislife Valentinian the Emperor deemes the onely man, worthy the name of before hu a Bishop, and both hee and Theodosius most honored and respected of workes : and all the Bishops of that age,) used this for his maxime, Gloriosa Master Wichen-Sacerdotibus Domini paupertas ; that poverty is hall his difa glorious thing in the Ministers of the Lord ; that sumptuous course, p.44 pallaces and secular affaires; appertained not to Bishops, but to Em- 45.46. perors and Princes , year this famous Bishop , (writes Costerus and others in his life,) was not befet with a company of servants, or attendants to guard his person, neither was her dreadfull or formidable for his greatnes; but hee was poore in Substance and revenues; accounting the treasures and revenues of the Church, the almes of the poore: Hee was fo farre from the pestilence of covetousnesse and ambition, that after hee had from all, the hadin virinous and charitable

t alfo

Can.

very

njoyne

didie

their food

Gever

brist.

hour

n the

t the

Phi-

t fea-

y ac-

owen

rifters

neales

d dif-

theres

their

t those

Eng-

inded

e hee

y, and

their

their

Sant

ake in

em,

and

& Poffidonius in vita Auguftine , c. 24. 1 2.c.28. See the 3. part of the Hom. perill of Idolatry ,p. 68. # Epift 2. c. 5. 0 Epift. Au-Ruftino. x Poffidonius de vita Augustini. c.21. Gc.

uses, having now nothing left in his house wherewith bee might releife the poore, or redeeme captives, I bee brake in peeces the Chalices and velicls of the Temple for that purpose commaunding them to be melted and distributed to the poore, saying, that the Church officiorum, hath gold not to keepe it, but to bestow it on the necessities of the poore, and that the adorning, and decking of the Sacraments is theredemption of captives. Sant Hierom, (the learnedst greatest Father in his age, and in most request,) writes thus of bimselfe, against the like a Levit and a Priest, I am maintained by the offrings of the Altar : having food onely and rayment , I am therewith content; and being anaked fellow my felfe, I follow the naked Croffe of Christ. Ego in parvo, &c. I living in a small litle Cottage with Monkes my fellow sinners dare not determine of high matters. Sant * Augustme, B. Shop of Hippe, (the most ludicious and eminentest of all the Fathers, and learnedst Doctor in his age. who not onely writ almost infinite Volumes, but even to the extreamity of his sicknes preached the word of God in his Church cheares fully, and boldly with a found minde and Judgement IMPRE. TERMISSE, without any intermission at all; had but means ordinary apparell, a fingall and spare Table, which had some times flesh upon it , among the herbes , and pulse , (his ordinary fare) for strangers, and those that were fickly: bee had no plate at all at bis Table, but onely a few silver spoones, the other vessels and dishes for his Table, being all of woode, earth, or stone, and at his Table bee all waies had and loved reading or disputation rather then eating and drinking, banishing from it all superfluous and idle tales, and detractions : (For which if hee were now alive with in Bishop Wrens Diocesse, hee should certainly be presented on his new Visitation Articles, inhibiting such discourses and disputations of religion at the Table;) Hee constantly visited the poore, fatherlesse, widdowes, afflicted, and sicke persons, with whom hee usually prayed, but other visitation of his Diocesse then this, I finde not, that hee kept, neither read I of his Visitation Oathes and Articles for Churchwardens to present on : Hee never inriched

any

qui

An

CVC

all

len

tha

rol

gol

tai

an 3774

...

C

po

ex

th

re

th

CO

an

fic

Pe

10

315 any of his kindred, and when bee died, bee made no will se all, quia unde faceret pauper Christi non habuit: became the poore Saint of Christ had nothing at all left him to be-Gregory y Wazimzen the great learned famous y See billife Archbishop of Constantinople, (which See hee afterwardresigned, worker. though then the greatest in the world , contesting with Rome it Celfe for precedency , which z fome Emperors gave it before Rome,) zPlatina & even whiles hee continued Bishop of that City, was destitute of Balaus, Boall outward Pompe, flate, riches, and possessions, for in a solemne & Oration to 150. Bishops , hee faith thus of himselfe; a Oratio 35. that hee had no dainty or rich furnished Table , no costly Pontificall & Carmina, robes, no stately Princely Pallace, no troopes of servants attending Sun, p. 895. on him, , no stables of horses , or flocks of sheepe , or caste , no store of gold , filver , or riches , no coftly boufehold ftuffe , or Courtly entertainement, (all which hee much inveighes against, as not fit and decent for Bishops:) bread, salt, and water were his usuall foode, and diet : his apparell , household stuffe , fure , attendance were all meane, course and frugall without any Pompe, or State at all, like a true Enangelicall Bishop, hee bestowing that revenue on the poore, which other Bishops spent upon their pride and lusts. b Sant b See billits Chryfostome his successor in that eminent Bishopricke, was so before bis poore, that when the Emperor threatned to feife upon all his goods, workes if hee would not leave his Church, bee replied, that hee wasghed not written by bis threatning, for hee had no goods at all to feife on ; when hee was exiled, hee lived upon other mens allmes, and was so farre from this opinion, that Bishops and Ministers ought to have great revenues, Lordships, and possessions, as our Prelates dreame, that in a sundry of his Homilies bee writes expressy to the in Math. contrary, that they ought to have onely necessary food andrayment, Hom. 21 in and fo much as shall provide them bookes and other conveniences suf- 1 Cor. Hom. ficient onely to sistaine their lives not to maintaine or satisfie their 9.inPhil.2. pempe, pride and luxury, and that Bishops and Ministers ought Ging Tim. to demaund or feeke no more then convenient, competent mainte- 5.17. 18. mance from those to whom they preach, though they be never so diligent

Rr 2

releife

balices

to be

burch

poore, the re-

reatef

ofelfe.

of the

uent;

brist.

with

atters.

is and

sage,

trea.

eare-

RE.

seams

imes

) for

at

shes

ting

de

ons

-

lly

x,

1-

2-16 in their preaching; but nothing at all, if they seldome or never preach; as our Prelates doe: of whom I may use that exclamad Cap. 20. tion, in d Onus Ecclesiæ, concerning the Bishops of that Sed .2. age, Hen quis Episcoporum hodie prædicat, aut de e Nicephorus animabus fibi commiffis curat? e John furnamed the Call. Eccles. Almoner, Bishop of Constantinople, was so poore, that bor-Hift. 1. 18. rowing certaine money of the Emperor, to redeeme captives and rec. 34. levie indigent people, he acknowledged a Statute to him of all his goods for the repayment of it, bee dying shortly after, the Emperor fent his officers presently to seife on all his goods for his debt, who found onely a litle woodden narrow bedfted, a poore thred-bare thinne gowne, and an ill favored Cloake, (all the goods this great second Prelate of the. world then had;) which the Emperor Mauritius canfed to be carried into his Palace, preferring them before the richest furniture in his wardrobe; yea f all our owne famous ancient first Bishops, f See Godwins Catal. were so humble, meane, and liberall; that they went about the of Bishops Country on foote from place to place, (where our Bishops have in the life of their Coaches, with foure or fixe horses to travell in ,) with a Aidanus, p. 628. & Deacon or two attending them, habited in meane apparell without Beda. any Ep scopall Pompe, or state, preaching the Gospell dayly every Math. where to the people, giving all their goods to the poore, and not medling Westminster at all with any wordly imployments or affaires; which are so in-Will. Malcompetible with Bishops, and Clergymen, that even by the Canonme [brienfis de Gestin Law it felfe, if g Gratian may be credited; a Bishop, or Prist, or Pontif. Deacon, who takes upon him any temporall office or intermedles in pa∏im. Secular causes or imployments, ought to be deprived for it, which g Diftin.88 hee faith, is the very Canon of the Apostles, and of sundry Fathers and Councels there cited by him to like purpose. these most famous Bishops and Fathers of the Primitive Church were so poore in revenues and estate; so meane in their apparell and houshold stuffe, so frugall, and temperate in their meat and drinke; so moderate in their attendants, so destitute of all worldly honor, pompe, possessions, Pallaces, Offices, Iurisdiction,

State, &c. though most glorious of all other in true piety, learwhite stuff

ning

alm

high

for

thei

larg

litle

fucl

don

this

that

ofth

in b

the

Fur!

digi

in t

fath

int

the

the f

follo

lead

foe

lars

ced

fron

a m

that

anil

Ober

ning,

ning, virtue, worth , and diligent preaching , writing , praying, almes-deeds, falting, and the like, year the cheifest ornaments, hohts and pillars of the Church; what couler of reason is there for our present Lordly Prelates; (who fall infinitely short of their incomparable piety, worth and merits,) to injoy fuch large possessions or revenues, even for fitting mute, and doing litle or nothing else but mischeise; or to assume unto them fuch Papall power, authority, pompe, and effate, fuch fecular dominion and imployments as now they doe injoy? Certainely this Novell Generation of ambitious Prelates, hath forgotten that Precept of Sant John, b Love not the world, nor the things b I lohn. of the world, if any man love the world, the love of the Father is not 2.15. in him; For all that is in the world, the luft of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, (therefore not Ture divino, as they pretend then their Episcopall State and dignity is,) but it is of the world : yea I feare they have abjured in their Bishoplike Confecration, that serious Vow their Godfathers and Godmothers made, and folemnely vowed for them in their baptilmes, i even to forfake the Devill and all his works, i The Forme the vaine pampe and glory of the world, with all coverage defires of of publike Baptifine, the fame, and the carnall defires of the flesh'; fo that they would not and the follow, nor be leaby them; and that prayer after it; that they may Catechifine, lead the rest of their life, according unto this beginning. Since they in the Comfo earnestly hunt after, followe and contend for all these particu-mon Prayerlars, as foone as they become Bi hops, which they thus renoun- Bo-ke. ced when they were first made Christians; fo as we may feare timus Annal. from that time, they were first enoyled Lord Bilhops, they in Boyorum, a maner ceased to be Christians, in that they commonly from 1.4. p.279. that time forward if not before, follow and embrace the Devill 322. Berand his workes, the vaine pomperand glory of the world with all the nard Concio covetions defires of the fame; and the garnall defires of the flesh, by Caut. In which they are usu ily led; beving starely pallaces and bon Inda- Concilio

never

may

that

t de

the bor-

dre-

oods

t his

and the

obe

ture

the

ave.

out

ery

ing

191-

on-

or 271

ch a-

all

ch

ell nd

d-

n,

r-

g, stuffe, like † princes large annuall revenues and possessions like Rhomensi; at Clerum, ad Guilielmum Abbatem Apologia: Bishop Larymers Sermon of the Pleuzh, Mr. Tyndals Obedience of a Christian man, and prastifi of Popis h Prelates.

Rr 3

in their harts, and actions to like Devills, gorgeous Pontificall robes, and difguifes like Courtiers, or Mafkers , Sumptuous provision, and diet like Epicures, variety of wines , stronge drinkes and waters like the Priests of Bacchus, great troupes of ruffianly deboift fervitors and attendants like Barons , Stately Palfries and Coaches , like Romish Cardinals, and both Spirituall and temporall furifdiction. (which neither King nor Parliament, nor any temporall Lords whatfoever have, who can neither interdict, excommunicate, nor inflict any Ecclefiafticall, but onely temporall Centures immediately upon any as our Prelates teach ,) like absolute Poper and Antichrifts, fmiting downe the faithfull Ministers, Gospell, and people of God with both hands and fwords at once, and perfecuting the very profession of religion and Christianity, which bath advaunced them to those places, bonors, possessions, riches and furifailtions they now injoy; the old proverbe being really verified in them: & Religio peperit Divitias,& filia devoravit matrem. The Booke / called onus Ecclesia, complaines thus of the Bishops of that Episcopi impudentes in divinis mumdanam diligunt sapientiam, magis officia fisci, (as the new Lord Treasurer and others experimentally witnes,) quam opera Christi exequentes. Ornant corpora fua avaro, animas autem luto, apud eos verecundia est exercere spiritualia gloria tractare scurrilia. Episcopi pecuniariis actibus incumbernt. After which hee expostulate with them thus: At cur Angelus Dei (fic enim appellatur Episcopus,) temporalibus rebus one

on

dig

tyr

ita

me

liu

qu

ipf

pe

tut

pu

qu

gu

nis

Pa

bu

æq

mi

ec.

bo

qu

lis

de

qu

Hecons Reports of certaine men. lCap.20. Sett.8.

oneratur, que vel homine bono funt in-CYMERY digna, quibus ulurarij funt divites, & quibus tyranni nuncupantur magni ? Minime itaque decer Episcopos onerari iniquo Mammona, neque eidem servire vel temporalium seu vilium rerum esse procuratores, quoniam per ulum hujulmodi temporalium ipfi Episcopi suam dignitatem magis vilipendunt quam augent, ac debito destituantur circa subditum populum honore & populus Christianus orbatur dignis Episcopis quoniam sacra dona spiritus sancti extinguuntur, atque confunduntur cum propha-Episcopi igitur (juxta nis mundi donis. Pauli decretum,) si secularia negotia habuerint ad ea alios constituant, non enim æquum est, eos relinquere verbum Dei & ministrare mensis: quamobrem ultro rejicere vel certè contemptui habere debent, bona & officia temporalia, & fic poffidere qualinon habeant, nam eos qui ad spiritualis vitæ tranquillitatem fint destinati, non decet protrahi ad mundanos tumultus, neque in rebus ca lucis versari; alioquin ipsi di-

Cuntur

robes. rifica,

waters

fervi

s , like Elion,

Lords

nicate, res im-

Poper !

ofpell,

, and ianity,

being

as,& called

f that

um-

ficia

ntally

Or-

uto,

ialia

ariis

ulate

nim

bus

ne

3291 mul otted traime

cuptur mortui, qui lepeliunt mortuos. We may take up the fame complaint against, and make the same expostulation with our Bishops now. It were therefore harrily to be wished, that our over-ambitious swelling fecular Lordly Redates , (whose cheife employments now are not to preach the Gospel diligently and frequently to the *Flamines people, but to fiver whole States and Kingdomes, and the illi Babiloworld it felfe to manage all temporall offices to fread downe the Common and Statute Lawes of the Realme, and advaunce the Popes Canon Lawes and Decretals; to invade his Majesties Eddlefiafficall Prerogatives ; and the Subjects Liberties; invent new taxes and impolitions; imprison, fine, deprive, perfecute, posiunt, non banish, and excommunicate his Majesties faithfullest Subjects; Suppresse all godly Ministers, Lecturers, and preaching; all private falting, prayer; repetition of Sermons, reading of omnia pedibus suis Scriptures, and holy conferences; Set up all Popish Ceremoconculcavenies : to prescribe new Visitation Oath and Articles, erect new rint, atque Altars | Croffes Crifcifixes, turne Communion-Tables Alin templo Dei sedeant, tarwise; to other auticular-confession, Popish penance, and absolution, with other Popish and Arminian Tenents into our turque su-Church againe; and an whole deluge of prophanes; to underpra omne mine religion (&c.) would now at left to farre remember them felves, as out of Conscience to give over and renounce colitur:fatheir Bishoprickes, (as t Pope Celestine the fift; + Frahmes opum, fit is hono -Stane , Bishop of Winehester , John of Beverley , Archbishop of rum inex-Forke, wish divers other Bishops formerly have done,) or at leastwife to abandon their worldly fecular Lordly Pompe, Iurifdiction , Tyranny, Cenfures, Polletions, with all other Aventinu tranguilitaten fint deltinati, non muilanne Boiorum, I. 7. p. 547. . 1 Platina Onuphrius Volaterramu, Stella & Balem , Cele-ftinus 5. 6 Bonifacius 8. + Math. Westminster. An. 932, Godwing Totalogue of Bi hops, p. 2 ro. 58, 564

2011000

nice foli

regnare

cupiunt

ferre parem non

defistent,

extollan-

id . quod

plebilis

est &c.

donec

uper-

fupe:

exer

his N

com

prim

fund

Prer

eafin

tyrar

bone

Prel

fib

lan

per

cia

the

ge

cæ

firm

tha

of

Ec

po

fir

E

superfluities, which the primitive Bishops never challenged, exercised, or enjoyed; or in case they refuse to doe it; that his Majefty with his honourable Lords and Conuncell would compell them to forgoe them; reducing all Bishops to their primitive condition, and confining them onely to their fpirituall functions, both for the fecuring of the Kings Eccleriafticall Prerogative from all their unjust encroachments on it, and the eating of the poore oppressed Subjects from their intollerable tyrannies, oppressions, persecutions, vexations and yoakes of bondage. It was a complaint against the Lordly swaying Prelates of old, * Quod quoniam Imperium *Onus Eefibiipfis gerunt, non hæredibus, magis expi-sen,7.f.38 lant quam ornant patrimoniam Christi, perfide quasi præda sitabjecta, non provincia: This being a receaved polition, which experience then taught to be most true , Si sibiipsi * Episcopi + Onus Ecgerunt Imperium, funt tyranni ; fi reipubli- clef. Ibid. cæ, negociofissimi : We may to our great greise affirme the like , and take up the same of our Prelates now ; if not that of t Vincentius Beluacenfis of the Prelates + Define of his age, to: O quanta nunc est obduratio in mundi & Omu Eccles. Ecclesia Dei: Prelati sunt superbi, vani, 121.5e8.4 pomposi, symmoniaci, avari, luxuriosi qui finem in terrena mensura ponunt, curam Ecclefiasticam negligunt; fine charitate, gulofi, pigri, quia nec celebrant, nec prædicant, sed scandalizant; Suas Vices &

OS.

ame

fore

g fe-

are

the

the

wne

ince

fties

vent

ate,

; all

mo-

new

Al-

and

ler-

ber

nce

of

at u-

e-ne

Ecclesias committunt illis, quos non in pascendis ovibus, sed in tondendis, mactandis, imò in excoriandis peritos noverint, ceu mercinariis, à quibus temporale lucrum & animum censum augeri gaudent, & fomenta suæ avaritiæ accumulant. Simplicibus subditis in humero onera gravia, & importabilia frequenter imponunt, siquidem pro lenibus causis aliquando Minorem, aliquando Majorem cudunt excommunicationem, suspentionem, interdictum aliasvè censuras, quibus à miseris suis ovibus pecunias extorquent, in fuam perniciem ac invilipendium Ecclefiasticæ Disciplinæ,&c. Wherefore I fhall Aventinus, Faconclude with that prayer of * xit Deus Optimus Maximus, ut meliorem mentem det Pontificibus nostris, uti omiflo luxu fastuque, divitem principem tenebrarum sequi definant, fallacissima hujus mundi caduca arque fragilia, bona fastidiant, Christum pauperem æmulentur ejusque calicem bibere, ejus crucem humeris portare tandem discant; Itâ fiet ut vulgo male ultra non audiant, atque castigentur, quod

que

pec

bar

ut Im

vei

Conf

a cer

man

of th

prec

hav

like

dul

ftra

mits

holy Wi

Cup

the

bei

* Annal. Bojorum. 2.4.7.322.

quod gregem Christianum populum Dei peculiarem compilent, vermident, deglubant, tanquam escam panis devorent, adeò ut tolerabilior, miseris foret conditio sub Imperio Turcorum. Sed male ominatis And with that memorable Sinodall verbis parcamus. Constitution of Cardinall Poole himselfe, and the whole Convocation at Paules in London , An. 1 5 5 6. # Because the # Antiquit. example of life, brings great Authority to the word, and is as it were Brit. Eccles. a certaine kinde of preaching, therefore care is to be taken that those P.419. who are fee over others , Should excell others , both in the honesty of maners and bolines of life and likewife in that prayfe of governing of their owne house well, which the Apostle requires in Bishops. Lee Prelates therefore use no pride , no pompe , no sithe garments , no precious household fluffe, let their Table be fingall, and sparing, having not above three or at the most foure forts of meat, (which likewise in respect of the present time; we rather grant by way of indulgence then of approbation,) besides fruits and junkers, what strangers or quest's sever they have. Let the other sauce and furniture of their Table be charity, the reading of the Scriptures and holy Bookes, and Godly discourses, (Adirea Secketo Bishop Wrens late Articles,) Let them abstaine from a numerous and Superfluons multitude of servants and borses, and be content with 6 many attendante, which shall be necessary foor the administration of the charge committed to them , the governement of the house , and use of his dayly imployments, which frugality and decree of his being approoved both by Archbishop Crammer, his preducessour, and Mathem Parker his Successour may for ever curbe the Ambition, luxury, and excesse of our present Lordly Prelates who transgresse the bounds of this Constitupaf

dis.

ceu

m &

nen-

por-

pro

an-

em,

ras,

orum

Phall

Fa-

em

fo

ra-

ın-

nt,

2-

re

ıl-

d

tion.

Master VV illiam Tyndall his Obedience of a Christian man, p. 114, 146, 135, and page, 285. WO

hat

aga

of

do

be

S thou can't heale no difeafe. except thou beginne at the roote, even lo canst thou preach against no mischiefe, except thou beginne at the Bis-Whether Iudas were a Prieft or no, I care not what hee was; but of this I am fure, that heeis now not onely Priest, but also a Bishop, Cardinall, and Pope. hops that preach not, or that preach ought fave Gods word, are none of Christs, nor of his annoynting, but servants of the beast, whose marke they beare, whose word they preach, whose Law they maintaine, cleane against Gods Law. Bifhops, they onely can minister the temporall sword, their office the preaching of Gods word, layed a part, which they will neither doe, nor fuffer any man to doe; but fley with the temporall fword, (which they have gotten out of the hand of all Princes,) them that would would. The preaching of Gods word is hatefull unto them. Why? For it is impossible to preach Christ, except thou preach against Antichrist, that is to say, them which with their false doctrine and violence of sword enforce to quench the true doctrine of Christ. Our Prelates ought to be our servants, as the Apostles were, to teach us Christs doctrine, and not Lords over us to oppresse us with their owne.

nce

ıfe,

te,

no

Bif-

10,

m

if-

ht

or l, y

F 1 N 1 S.

And the control of th

Briefe Inflructions for Churchwardens and others to observe in all Episcopall or Archdiaconall Visitations and Spiritual Courts.

TO Bilhop Archdeacon, or other Ecclefiafticall perfon, may or ought to keepe any visitation at any time unleffe he hath expresse Commission or Patent under his Majetties great Seale of England to doe it, and that as his Maiesties visitor only and in his name and right alone, as is cleere by 26 H.S.c.1. 37,H. 8. c.17. 1.Ed.6.c.2. 1. Eliz.c.1.8, Eliz. " Paint c.I. Which Commission or Patent ought to bee read to the pour of Vi people before every visitation, (as the Judges Commission is significant flate of at every Affizes) before they begin to visit, that so all the peo- Pofes for ever ple may be affured, they have anthority to vifit, and that only to the Craws, in his Majesties name and right. As soone as ever therfore they express termes. appeare at any Visitation, the first thing which they ought to doe (and that in point of loyalty to his Majestie by vertue of their * Oath of Supremacy prescribed for this very end) is to . I. Ele, e. I. demand of the Bishop, or other Visitor, what Patent or Commission he hath from the King under his broad Seale to keepe a visitation? If he have any, then demand the Register to read it publikely, in such manner as the Judges Patent is read at the Affizes: If he either cannot produce, or read any fuch Parent from the King, or visit not in his name, right, and by his royall authority, You ought all prefently to protest against his proceedings, as contrary to his Majesties lawes and Pre-Sa rogative, and to to depart as you came, without more adoe.

2. Every Visitation being a Synod, or Convocation of the publication Clergy and Laytie (as * themselves both stile and acknowledg Sm it)ought to be called and fummoned only by his Majeffies fpe- bath. A. . 2. ciall writ, as the Affizes and Seates in Eyre are, and that by the Deller Real expresse Statutes of 8.H.6,c.1. 35.H.8.c. 19.27.H.8.c.19.1f Visition for ben the Visitation be not summoned and called by vertue of men.

his Majesties write but only by an Apparator, or note from the Bishop or Visitor (as they now ever are) None ought there to

appeare at all

3. If they have a lawfull Patent and reade it, and a writ to fummon the vifitation, If they tender the Church-wardens and Sidemen any Articles to prefent on (as now they doe) Let them demand, whether the Articles they tender them were made by the whole Convocation by the Kings Licence, fatified by the Parliament, and confirmed by the King himfelfe under his broad Seale: If not (as none of them are) Then bid them keep them for wafte paper, or to stop Musterd-pots, fince fuch Articles and Canons now used, made by their owne authority and printed in their own names, aredirectly * contrary to the Statutes of 25.H.8.c.19,21. 27.H.8.c.25.32.H.8.c.26. 37.H.8.c.17. I Eliz.c.1,2. 12 Eliz. c. 13. their owne twelfth Ganon, and draw themselves (with all those who submit to them or present upon them) both into a premunire, and an Excommunication Ipfo fatte,

4 If they tender any oath to Churchwardens or Sidemen to presentupon their Articles, or otherwise, as now they doe; First demand of them, What Act of Parliament prescribes or enjoynes that form of Oath they administer: for no new Oath 28.H 8.c.10 (no nor that of * Supremacy and Alegiance inflituted by Parlia-35.H.8.4.1. 1. ment,)can be imposed on the Subjects in any case but by Parliamenc. If any Act of Parliament prescribe this Oath, and gives them power to administer it, Then let them shew it, and you will take it; If none (as none for certaine doth,) Then you netther will nor dare to take it, and they incurre a Premunire by making and administring such Oathes of their owne heads. Secondly, demand of them, What Commission they have from his Majestie under his great Seale to administer an Oath to you? If none, Then they have no authority to give an Oath, Nor you no warrant or reason to take it. Thirdly, what Law of the Land, Canon or Statute gives them any authority to give you fuch an inquisition Oath? If any, Produce it; If none (as none doth,) You dare not, you will not take it, there being divers

com made

* Yea to bis -Majefties Dec'aration before the 39. Articles

Oath Em

Eliz. C 1. 5. Ebz.6.1.3.14. 64. " See the petition of Right.

407

3 Caroli.

divers + Probibitions in the Common Law inhibiting it and in Tegiler por

y. If they demand any Fees of you in any Vifitation, 2. 18 16. 1.21 (Where none of any fort are due, neither for shewing of Let- 41.8 Leftell ters or Orders, Licences to preach, or * keep schoole, &c. Nor Problems any * Procurations, but onely from fuch Churches as they per- Matter Park fonally keepe their Vifitations in, not from others which they Hift. angle. come not at,) or upon any other occasion. Demand of them, 705. Whether any Statute or Patent from the King or his Ancestors * 21. Elit. 61 authorize or enable them to take fuch fees they demaund ? " Sectinden Iffo; Let them produce them, and you will pay what they al- decombine low them to take: If not, Then nothing is due, and you will pay Procuration. nothing : it being meere extortion punishable in Starchamber,

6. If any be cited into any of their spiritual Courts, let them demaund; First, Whether they have a * Parent from the . 26.8.8,4.1 King, under his great Seale to keepe fuch a Court? If not; You 17.H.8.6. 17. have nothing to doe with them, Nor they with you. Second-1, E. 6,6 2, 1 ly, if their Patent gives them cognisance of your cause? Third- Zing. c. I. 8, ly if the Citation be in the Kings * name, and under his Seale of Ele. 6. 1. armes, as it ought ? If not, Depart without more adoe; and if they excommunicate you, It is voide, you may goe to Church notwithstanding: Or if they suspend any Ministers, without a lawfull cause and Patent from the King, let them preach notwithstanding, and either indict them in a Premunire, Or bring an Action of the Cafe, &c. as Counfell shall advife. If all Subjects will take this course as they are bound in poynt of loyalty and conscience to doe; they will soone shake off the Prelatestyranny and yoake of bondage, under which they groane through their own defaults and cowardice.

If any be cited into the High Commission Court and there tendered an Ex Officio Oath: First letthem aske what Scripture, Canon, or Statute allowes or prescribes this Oath ? Secondly, let them tell them, that the Statute of T. Eliz. c. 1. which erects their Commission, expressy repeales the Statute of 3. H. 4. c. 15. the ground of all Ex Officio Oathes and proceedings, whence Me. Fox Stiles it : The Statute Ex Officio. Therefore repealing this Law, which brought in Ex Officio

Oathes

1 1400 free Wift. any run instead for refufing an Ex Officio Oath,till 13. Elizabeth: A64 25.15.

13. Gration:

- S. 6:

Outher ? and proceedings, it never intended to revive them. or to anthorize the Commissioners to proceed by theme for then it would have rather confirmed than repealed this Act. Thurdly, that the late Petition of Right 2º Caroli condemned fuch Oathes and proceedings, as not Warrantable by the Lames and Seatmers of the Realme, (though warranted by their Commillion,) expresty enacting . That no man bereafter foalbe called to take fuch Oath or to give attendence, or be confined, or otherwife and then adjud molefted or disquiered concerning the fame , or for refusall thereof. ted against and Therefore they dare not take it neither can they administer it. Fourthly, that by their own * Canon Law, the accuser ought to 16. 17.6. 24. appeare there face to face, and by his owne Oath, and his wirneffes to prove his accusation true; but the party accused is to Caufa. 3. qu. 3. take no Oath: Therefore this Oath is against their owne Canon Law. Fifthy, that our Martyrs condemned Ex Officio and Visitation Oathes, for men to accuse themselves or others, as unlawfull, and would not take them; as appeares by Mr. Fox his Acts and Monuments: 1610.9.481.482.487.488.405. 496.539.951.956.957.1006.1022.1023.1108.1100.1125. 1 164.1199.1282.1643.1646.1651.1660.1777.1778.1792. 1796-1813-1814-1815.1843-1844-1845-1866-1872-1873. 1874.1914 .1224.1520. They being used onely by the bloudy perfecuting Popilh Prelates; Ibid. p.335.750,751.753.to 764. Therefore they date not take them. Sixtly, that the very Rhemiffs themselves in their Annotations on Acts. 32. v. 12. refolvethus. If then be put to an Oath to accuse Catholickes for familing God as they ought to doe, or to watter any immocent man to He is the death Gods enemies or his , show oughteft first so refuse such unlawfull Oaths : but if then have not conftancy and sour age to do it, yet know , then the fuch Oather bind not at a Kin confeience and Law of God but may died muft be broken under paine of dammation. For to make or take fisch womes or eather is one fin, and to keepe them is another form greater. That therefore which the Rhemilts condemne wee dare not submitto : Neither should our Prelates presse, contrary to John 18.19.20.21.22. I Tim. 5.19. Rev. 12.10.

e of the YOU: 24

Math. 18,16.25. H.S.c.14. I Elif.c.I. which require proof of all things by two witnesses at least.

